

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2137

Married at First Sight Chapter 2137-Hayden said sarcastically, "If your grandma wasn't amazing, you would be blind like them. Don't take the credit for your grandma's work on yourself."

Kevin choked.

What Hayden said was true.

It was grandma who investigated it clearly and gave Kevin her photo so that he could pursue her to marry her.

Kevin thought his grandma had arranged a handsome guy for him, and wanted to turn him into a gay.

After he got in touch with her, he didn't find the flaw that she was a woman. If it wasn't for his sister-in-law who asked him to pursue her directly, he would still be looking for the flaw that she was a woman.

Where could he find out from her parents that she is a woman!

Seeing Kevin being stabbed so hard that he couldn't speak, Hayden felt better.

Hayden: "I still don't trust you, this is also the demeanor I should have as a man."

Kevin insisted on sending her home.

Kevin: "I don't feel relieved if I don't take you home personally."

Hayden said to him: "Kevin, don't think I don't know what you think, you send me back now, when you get home, it's already late at night, and you will say that you are worried about the safety on the road, and you dare not go back to the hotel alone, you have to rely on me to spend the night at my house."

Kevin grinned, "I'm not stupid. Uncle even invited me to stay at your house for the night. Auntie also said that she likes to eat the breakfast I made. I will stay at your house for one night, so I can get up early in the morning to prepare delicious breakfast for you."

Hayden said angrily: "Without you, we don't have to eat? What meal we usually eat is not delicious?"

Kevin: "Does my cooking taste better?"

Hayden stopped talking again.

She had to admit that Kevin's culinary skills were ranked second, and no one dared to be number one.

The chefs in her family, as long as Kevin came over, they would follow Kevin to steal his cooking skill.

Kevin didn't hide his secrets, as long as the chef wanted to learn how to cook, he would give pointers a few times, but there was still a gap between the chef's cooking and his cooking. He said that he just practiced his cooking skills and practiced countless times, with more than 20 years of experience, it was natural to be a little awesome.

With Kevin's super thick skin and super entanglement skills, he finally sent Hayden back to Queen's old house.

When they returned to Queen's house, none of Queen's family was asleep. The family of three sat in the yard, admiring the stars and the moon, chatting.

Seeing Kevin bring Hayden back, the family of three tactfully did not ask where the two of them went on a date. However, Kevin managed to stay down again because Donald invited him to go to watch the stars and the moon.

Anyway, tomorrow was still Sunday, so she didn't have to go to work, even if she watched the moon until midnight, she wouldn't be defenseless.

Hayden: "Dad, Mom, I'm going to rest first."

Hayden didn't have such leisure and elegance. She was sleepy.

The rest day was originally a day for her to sleep in.

Because of Kevin's brown candy, she couldn't sleep from early to late.

"Go."

Both Donald and his wife responded lovingly.

They knew their daughter was usually very tired.

When Hayden entered the room, Donald asked Kevin: "Kevin, where did you take Hayden to?"

Kevin: "The weather is too hot, so I took Hayden to go swimming. There is a swimming pool on the top floor of my Fortress Hotel, and I cleared it. Hayden can relax and enjoy the coolness."

"Did Hayden go into the water?" Donald asked with concern.

Recommended Novels