

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2232

Married at First Sight Chapter 2232-The little brother passed away with tears in his eyes.

In the past, she didn't know that her elder brother and sister-in-law were responsible for the death of her little brother...

They were too ruthless!

Regarding the imprisonment of the brother and sister-in-law, that is, the heavy sentence, her aunt, Azalea felt that they deserved what they deserved and did not deserve sympathy.

Based on what they did to her younger brother and her niece, her aunt Azalea felt that her elder brother and sister-in-law should be sentenced to death.

Carrie would be out soon.

But what about coming out?

Without the backing of her parents, as long as Camryn's eyes are restored, no matter how aggressive Carrie was, she wouldn't be able to make any trouble.

Azalea also thought of her two older sisters, they were also ruthless enough to try to deceive Camryn by pretending to be Callum, and now they were suppressed and retaliated by Callum, and they were on the verge of bankruptcy.

They deserved it!

Her aunt and nephew were so excited that they hugged each other and cried. No one dissuaded them from letting them vent their pain wanted only.

Lilian opened the medicine box she brought with her. There were some herbal medicines that she had grown in her medicine box, some of which were developed into pills by her, and some of them were still in their original form.

She took out some herbs, packed them in a small transparent bag, and said to Callum: "Mr. York, these herbs are used to boil water for Miss Newman to wash her eyes. I came in a hurry, and the medicines I brought are not enough, when I go back, you can follow me to get some more medicine."

Callum: "Alright."

Lilian wrote another medicine list and asked Callum to follow the medicine list to get the medicine.

In the end, she took out two bottles of her homemade pills, gave them to Callum, and said, "I developed these two bottles of pills myself. Every time Miss Newman drinks the medicine, I add two pills. Take one pill of Each medicine, just take it with the traditional medicine."

Callum listened carefully and nodded repeatedly.

He asked: "Dr. Carden, can you buy medicine for washing eyes at pharmacies?"

"I don't think it's easy to find. I grow these herbs myself. It's not easy to grow. If you go with me to get the medicine, you can only get a week's worth of medicine. It's all the medicine I brought to Annenburg. For the remaining three weeks of medicine, I need to go back to my Medicine King Valley to collect medicine, and then I can use it after processing, otherwise it will be a little poisonous."

The medicine Lilian grows was not in the place where the master and apprentice live. There were some medicines in the place where they lived, but not many.

She also has a place for medicine.

Callum: "Then, please trouble Dr. Carden."

Lilian smiled and said, "As long as Miss Newman's eyes can be cured and the two of you can meet each other, I'd be happy. With the friendship between our two families, Mr. York, you don't have to be too polite."

Lilian looked at Serenity, and said to Callum again : "Serenity, I and my sister-in-law are all friends, so you don't have to be too polite, Mr. York."

Serenity smiled back.

Lilian said that Camryn's eyes could be cured, and she prescribed medicine, and promised that she would see the light again in three months, which made the York family very happy.

They didn't dislike Camryn for being blind, but it's best if they could restore the light.

After being cured, Lilian didn't want to go back to Annenburg too soon, so she decided to stay in Wiltspoon for a few days.

Afraid to go back and face the crying cat crawling out of her belly again.

She became a mother for the first time, although she knew that being a mother was not easy, but becoming a real mother was so f*cking difficult!

Anyway, she wouldn't, definitely wouldn't have a second child!

She had an apprentice, and Titus was her chosen apprentice, and she raised him by her side as a child, just like raising a son, and she had Fabian, one son and one apprentice, enough, and she didn't want to have another child.

Afraid to give birth to another crying baby like Fabian.

If she was as well-behaved as Avah, she would not be too many to give birth to ten or eight.