

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3112

Novel Chapter 3112 -Hazel returned to Lucas's house and found that the door was open.

Hazel entered the house and saw Lucas sitting on a chair in the dining room, playing games.

Hazel stared blankly at this scene, as if the time had returned to three years ago.

At that time, she was still Lucas's nanny, and the two of them could still see each other every day. They were not very familiar with each other, but they could tell each other everything.

After Hazel came in, she didn't make noise to Lucas, but quietly went to his room, changed him into a four-piece suit, and then quickly cleaned up the room.

After tidying up the room, Hazel's hungry stomach grew.

Hazel prepared lunch for the two of them, and she did not know if Lucas had left her a meal.

Walking to Lucas, she immediately saw the dishes on the dinner table.

There were still a lot of her fried dishes left, and it seemed that there was not much left.

Hazel immediately asked in surprise: "Boss, why don't you eat? Just because I went to your bedroom, are you so angry that you don't eat the food I cooked?"

Lucas concentrated on playing the game and didn't look up at her, said: "You cook so many dishes, it must not be for me to eat alone. Can't I save some for you?"

Hazel filled the rice and came out, blushing, and said with a smile: "Boss, you are so kind! You actually left so many dishes for me! How do you know I didn't eat?"

Lucas's game was over and he put down his phone.

“Are you sure you want to talk about such a naive question?” Lucas left the food for her because it was obvious at a glance that she made lunch for two people.

“How childish! I’m complimenting you! Guess where I went at noon today?” Hazel sat down opposite him and began to eat, “Boss, where are the bowls and chopsticks you eat? I didn’t look at them in the sink. Come on, did you wash it yourself?”

Lucas: “Can’t I wash?”

Hazel: “No! You can leave me to wash it for you! How can you do such a trivial matter!” After finishing speaking, Hazel showed a bright smile.

Lucas frowned slightly: “Do you love housework so much?”

He had never seen a young girl like Hazel.

Hazel took a bite and shook her head violently: “Not exactly. When I have business, I still like to do it. When I have nothing to do, I still like to do some housework to relax!”

Lucas understood.

On the basis of her current enthusiasm for housework, it was clear that she should never perform housework at home.

Lucas thought that she was leaving soon, and didn’t know what to say to her, so he got up and asked: “Is the bedroom tidy?”

“Yeah.” Hazel replied, “I changed into a clean four-piece suit for you. After your lunch break, I’ll put it in the washing machine to wash. You go to sleep!”

Lucas walked a few steps, remembering that she asked a question just now, but she hadn’t answered yet: “Where did you go after lunch?”

Hazel was stunned for a moment: “I’m going...I met your second brother. I came back after talking to him a few words.”

“You know Cyrus?” Lucas was shocked, “You know him very well?”

Seeing Lucas’s fist clenched, Hazel knew that if she didn’t explain, he might be angry.

“No! I’m not familiar with him! I just suddenly remembered something, so I asked him about it.” Hazel explained in a daze, “He lied to Siena before.”

Crisp...

Lucas came back again, stood in front of Hazel, looked at her: “What did he lie to Siena? How do you know so many things?”
