Chapter 1151

With Richmond's skills already being close to the level of a peak Supreme Master, even a horrifying genius like Ruth was no match for him, let alone someone like Leon!

Leon trying to face Richmond with one finger was no longer just arrogance. It was complete stupidity!

"Hurry up and cripple this brat!"

Luke looked incredibly excited by the side. He looked at Leon with his eyes full of hatred.

He knew that Richmond was one of the top experts of the Wrights. He was definitely very powerful. At the very least, he should be several times stronger than a brat like Leon!

If there were no surprises, Leon would probably be crippled, if not die after being struck by Richmond!

"He's done for!"

In contrast to the Wrights and Luke, Lisa paled. Her heart completely sank.

Even though she did not know how strong Leon was, she knew something very well. Leon was just an outsider. No matter how strong he was, he could not make an enemy out of the Wrights!

Chapter 1152

Everyone was shocked when they heard Lentus talk about Leon's skills. They could not believe what they heard!

Leon did not look that much older than Ruth, but he was already so much stronger than Ruth. His potential and talent were something even Ruth could not compete with!

It was a joke that they thought Leon was just Ruth's follower. They finally understood that reality was completely different! Ruth was Leon's follower!

The strongest among the three of them was not Ruth, but Leon!

"Ignorant fools! Do you know how strong Leon is now?!" Ruth said with a pleased look on her face.

"Girl, don't be so pleased with yourself! So what if he's a peak Supreme Master? It's still too early for him to face the Wrights with his skills!" Lentus said coldly.

At Leon's age, Leon managed to become a peak Supreme Master whose terrifying potential was something that could not be matched in Springfield City and Seacove City!

Chapter 1153

Lentus in particular was the family head of the Wrights. He was already stuck at the Semi Overlord State for over ten years, and was not able to get to the Overlord State!

It was no exaggeration to say that he knew better than everyone else how hard it was to reach the Overlord State!

He refused to believe that Leon was able to reach the Overlord State at such a young age!

It was not realistic at all!

“You can believe whatever you want to!” Ruth scoffed, not wanting to bother arguing with them.

“Brat, you don’t have to try to put on an act! You hurt my grandson earlier. No matter how much you want to brag, we won’t let you off!” Lentus sneered.

He felt like Ruth was just trying to exaggerate Leon’s skills to scare the Wrights off so they could escape. he would be fooled!

As she said that, she raised her fist aggressively at Leon.

“Why are you in such a hurry? Just let me warm up first!” Leon said in annoyance.

“Brat, you’re still stubborn in the face of death! If you have the skills, take this! As long as you can withstand it, I’ll consider letting the three of you off!” Lentus said coldly.

He was already quite old, so his reactions were not what they used to be. On top of that, Leon was fixated on dodging, so he could not touch Leon for the moment.

He deliberately did that to provoke Leon into facing him head-on. He would be able to defeat Leon!

“Alright, I’ll do as you please!” Leon said coldly.

While Lentus was frustrated and distracted, he suddenly stopped and launched his attack, using Double Attack right at Lentus.

“Perfect! Brat, you’re still too young. You fell for my provocation! You can just die now!”

Chapter 1155

Lentus clutched his chest with a look of shock.

When he clashed against Leon just now, he found that Leon was far from being at the Overlord State!

However, at that moment, he suddenly felt uncertain!

He was at the Semi Overlord State for over ten years, but Leon was capable of hurting him in one move. That meant that Leon was already stronger than someone at the Semi Overlord State, approaching levels of the Overlord State!

As for why Leon was continuously dodging him initially, it was very possible that Leon was just too strong and wanted to toy with him!

“Brat, don’t be too arrogant! Even though you’re already at the Overlord State, the Wrights are not to be trifled with! If you insist on continuing to go against us, don’t blame us for not holding back against you!” Lentus said coldly.

They were in Seacove City, not Springfield City. Even if Leon was at the Overlord State, he could not go against the whole family alone!

Lentus would not tolerate Leon trying to push their family down!

“Is that so? If there’s anything you can do, go ahead. I want to see what the Wrights are capable of!” Leon smiled, unable to stop himself from thinking about what Ruth said earlier. Since they were not willing to admit defeat, he would beat them up until they were!

“Alright, you said it yourself! Don’t regret it!” Lentus had a cold smile on his face as he took out his phone and asked for reinforcements.

Leon did not stop him at all.

He had the Dragon Pill as a trump card anyway. He had no reason to be afraid of their threats!

He never expected the reinforcements that Lentus called for to not be anyone from the Wrights, but the Hunts instead!

It exceeded his expectations!

“Mister Wolf, it’s been a long time,” Quinton quickly greeted Leon with a smile.

“Yes, it’s been a long time,” Leon smiled awkwardly.

He planned on contacting Quinton when he came to Seacove City, but after he considered the fact that he was no longer on good terms with the Shears, he got worried that it would be awkward to visit the Hunts and Quinton. So, he decided against it in the end.

Yet, he somehow stumbled onto Quinton from his conflict with the Wrights.

It was a coincidence.

“Mister Wolf, when did you come to Seacove City? Why didn’t you tell me?” Quinton complained.

With his relationship with Leon, he was a bit unhappy that Leon did not tell him Leon was in Seacove City.

Lentus looked at Quinton.

“How about this? Wright Enterprises seems to be useful to Mister Wolf! Why don’t you give this company to Mister Wolf as compensation,” Quinton said firmly.

“Alright then. The Wrights will do as you wish.”

Lentus hesitated for a moment before he agreed helplessly.

“Mister Wolf, it was all our fault. Our family has offended you so much. Please show some mercy and spare us this one time.”

Lentus and the others seemed much more sincere than before.

“You should never have done all of that!” Leon said coldly, but his expression softened.

However, before he could decide on whether to spare Leon or not, Quinton said something first.

“Elder Wright, this isn’t something you can solve by just apologizing. That’s so insincere!” Quinton said unhappily.

“What is a Pure Energy Pill?” Lentus was confused as he took the pill from Leon.

The others from the Wrights were confused as well.

The Hunts were the official distributors of Cynthion Group’s products in Seacove City. After Quinton got the initial stock of over eight thousand Energy Nurturing Pills, he already started to sell them in Seacove City, spreading the word of the Energy Nurturing Pills everywhere!

However, the three Pure Energy Pills he got were stolen by Harold, so the Pure Energy Pills were incredibly rare.

Seacove City’s major families, including the Wrights, did not know about the Pure Energy Pills at all. No one heard of it before, nor did they know what the effects were!

“This guy is fake!” Lionel muttered unhappily.

He felt like Leon wanted to take Wright Enterprises for himself, but he was putting on pretenses in front of everyone, actually giving a useless pill to the Wrights.

Leon was just trying
