The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 161

Ariel said calmly.

Looking at the two of them leave, the colleagues in the president's office looked at each other in shock.

They knew that Leon was a presidential secretary. Normally, Leon would be working in the office with Grace and Lily.

However, Ariel wanted to move Leon into her office. Was it not strange for the two of them to be alone there?

However, just thinking about the rumor within the company that Leon and Ariel were a couple, everyone had a quick moment of realization. All of them said nothing, but silently remarked that Leon was a lucky man!

In the director's office of the sales department, Michael quickly heard about Leon moving over to work. He kept on saying that she had the same office to enjoy their love life. How could that be nothing? Do they think I'm stupid?!" Michael was incredibly furious. He picked up the cup on his table and
