

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2267

Chapter 2267

"Chandler, help me hold Mister Thompson back!" Leon immediately said when he saw John, issuing a decisive order to Chandler.

"Yes!" Chandler answered.

He was Leon's subordinate. Since Leon did not give him any orders before this, he did not want to move on his own!

With Leon's order, he did not hesitate at all to strike out with an incredible aura, immediately attacking John and helping Leon stop John!

"The almighty State!" John was shocked when he felt Chandler's immense true energy.

He knew about how Leon recruited Henry two days ago. At the same time, he knew that Henry was at the Almighty State!

However, Chandler just joined Leon, and this was the first time he had the chance to speak to Chandler. He did not know Chandler's skills!

He finally found out that Chandler was also at the Almighty State just like Henry was!

It exceeded his expectations!

"Not good!"

Yonas was shocked to see Leon suddenly having an Almighty State expert with him, and that the man even stopped Chandler. The smile on his face suddenly froze!

Even though he did not know how someone like Leon who came from a little place like Springfield City would have an Almighty State subordinate, he knew something very well. His greatest support, John, was stopped by Chandler!

Without John's protection, Leon could deal with him easily!

With that in mind, his expression suddenly changed. He no longer dared to stay behind or speak arrogantly!

"Fifi, let's go."

The next moment, Yonas' expression changed incredibly quickly. He grabbed Fiona's arm and frantically scrambled out!

It was completely different from how calm he looked just now!

"You're trying to run? It won't be so easy!" Leon sneered.

Taking the opportunity while John was stopped by Chandler, he immediately struck out and summoned his impressive aura as he quickly charged at Yonas!

"Crap!"

John's heart sank at the sight!

He wanted to help Yonas stop Leon, but he was tied up with Chandler!

He was at the initial Almighty State just like Chandler was!

However, he was injured by Yonas earlier, and his skills dramatically decreased!

On the other hand, Chandler was incredibly strong, already at the pinnacle of the initial Almighty State. He was just a hair away from the intermediate Almighty State!

After the two of them exchanged blows, he found himself no match for Chandler. He was being pushed back by Chandler in every way, there was no way he could help Yonas!

He could do nothing but watch as Leon pursued Chandler!

"Leon, I'll fight you!" Chandler could not avoid Leon's attack.

Staring danger right in the face, he was forced to steel himself as he attacked, going right for Leon's attack!

"You don't know your place!" Leon said coldly.

He quickly changed up his attack, beating past Yonas' attack before he grabbed Yonas' arm. After that, he pressed down with great force!

Crack!

The clear sound of bone cracking could be heard. Yonas let out a cry of agony as his arm was broken by Leon!

After that, Leon kicked Yonas to the ground!

His goal was only to cripple one of Yonas' hands as a punishment. He did not plan on killing Yonas at all!

Since Yonas' arm was already broken, his goal was achieved!

So, he stopped his attacks, no longer doing anything to Yonas!
