The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 331

Janice did not have to wait too long before she saw Leon driving over from a distance on his bike.

"Leon, I'm here," Janice had a demure smile on her face as she waved in Leon's direction.

Leon replied with a smile and stopped in front of Janice.

"Janice, these are some cosmetics from Elegante. They're for you," Leon handed over two specially made cosmetics.

"Thank you," Janice accepted the cosmetics, unable to stop herself from thinking about her and Leon eating and shopping together the other day. A strange feeling crept up in her heart.

Before that, she always saw Leon as a good friend. They were purely friends, and she never saw Leon more intimately at all.

However, Leon changed a lot after they met again. He suddenly gained some of the attractiveness that a mature man could have. His martial arts skills were amazing as well. In the mall, he protected her at every corner. It made her feel incredibly safe.

Horace enthusiastically motioned for Leon to sit on the sofa.

After a few pleasantries.

"Leon, I have a few questions I want to ask you."

"Where are you from? What do your parents work as?" Leanne asked straightforwardly.

"I'm an orphan. I grew up in an orphanage in Springfield City..." Leon said in a somewhat sad manner.

"An orphan?" Horace and Leanne were both stunned. The smile on their faces froze.

Even though Leon was an orphan without much of a family background, if Leon had a good job with a high salary and position, she could still accept it considering his potential growth in the future.

Leanne did not look very happy. She immediately thought of Leon as a thug who only knew how to fight.

Janice felt like her mother might have misunderstood things, and hurriedly said, "Mom, it's not like you think..."

“It’s not like Leon doesn’t have any money either. He has some savings. He was the one who bought those high-end clothes for me from the mall. He spent a few thousand in one go.” Janice told Leanne about the clothes, wanting her mother to approve of Leon.

“Oh, is that so?”

“Where did he get the money?” Leanne was shocked. Her expression softened a little. With Leon’s situation, the fact that he was willing to spend so much on her daughter at least meant that he was sincere toward Janice.

“He made some money gambling...” Janice answered in reflex. She quickly realized that she should not have said that, and hurriedly shut her mouth. Yet, it was already too late.

“What?”

Leon already realized something was wrong with the atmosphere and continued to try to excuse himself

“It’s the weekend, you don’t have to go to work. What could be that important? You have to have lunch with me before you go,” Janice said stubbornly.

“Then, alright,” Leon reluctantly agreed, unable to refuse Janice.

“Hold on, your dad and I are coming too!” Leanne shot Horace a look when she saw that Janice was dragging Leon out. Janice’s parents ended up going with them.

After the conversation in the bedroom, Leanne misunderstood Leon for having a bad character. She was incredibly on guard against Leon, and would naturally not allow her daughter to go out with Leon alone.

After that, the group went downstairs.

Janice drove everyone to the business district nearby. After that, they arrived at a luxury hotel.

“Janice, you could’ve just brought us to some diner by the road, why would you come somewhere so expensive?” Leanne had a sour look on her face.

“His family owns a company. They have millions in assets,” Mindy let out a pleased smile.

“Millions?”

Leanne and Horace were both shocked. To them, that amount of money was already considered very wealthy.

“Janice, look at your cousin! She’s not that much older than you, and she already has such an amazing boyfriend. What about you? You don’t even have a boyfriend! You should learn a thing or two from her!” Leanne glared at Janice unhappily.

Her daughter was excellent in every way and was more beautiful than Mindy.

“Really? That’s great!” Booth Horace and Leanne were incredibly excited.

In their eyes, a family with tens of millions was the mega-rich.

If their daughter was lucky enough to be fancied by the other party, would her fortunes not instantly turn?!

“Uncle, Auntie, so the two of you agree?” Mindy said happily.

“Yes, of course, we do,” Both Horace and Leanne nodded.

To satisfy Janice, Leanna was forced to agree to Janice’s request.

At that moment, they heard the engine of a car. An expensive-looking sports car stopped in front of the hotel.

The door opened, and a young man about twenty-six years of age walked out.

Behind him were two bodyguards in suits, who looked incredibly imposing.

“Mister Wyatt, you’re here. I’ve already prepared the room. Please, follow me,” Joey looked happy as he greeted Theodore.

“Yes, let’s go,” Theodore had a prideful look on his face as he followed Joey inside. He quickly saw Horace and the rest.

“Joey, who are they?” Theodore frowned.

“Let me introduce you. This is my girlfriend, Mindy. The others are her relatives...” Joey was about to introduce everyone when his words were interrupted by Theodore.

Theodore made it sound like things were already settled.

“What? Engaged?”

“Is that a joke?!”

Janice was shocked, and she hurriedly stood up.

It was her first time meeting Theodore, and the two of them did not even have any mutual feelings. Furthermore, she did not like Theodore’s arrogance.

Yet, the first thing Theodore said was that he wanted to get engaged. How could she accept that?!

“Mister Wyatt, you still don’t know much about each other. Isn’t it a bit too quick to get engaged?”

Horace and Leanne were shocked as well.

“Also, Mister Wyatt fell for you at first sight. He willingly put up three hundred thousand as an engagement gift. It’s quite a show of sincerity. You should take this chance. Don’t let it slip away!”

Both Mindy and Joey tried to advise Janice.

They just planned on testing the waters and were not hoping for too much. Yet, they were lucky enough that Theodore fell for Janice immediately.

It suited them perfectly.

As long as Janice agreed to be with Theodore, then Joey’s family would be able to rely on the Wyatt Group. Their future would be incredibly bright!

“Janice, your mother and the others are being quite reasonable. Even though you just got to know Mister Wyatt, feelings can be slowly built up. Why don’t you get engaged to Mister Wyatt first, and slowly develop your feelings later?” Horace said after some hesitation.

After all, Theodore's family was just too amazing. They were truly wealthy. then she would live a life of luxury, free of any worries. She would be able to get anything to have a good life. The two matter how amazing his family is, I not a girl who loved to show off. She would rather live a normal and peaceful life with a man Janice rejected him mercilessly in public like that, he got a bit angry, "Miss Janice, you'd better think about it. With who I am, so many women jump right into my arms as long as should be happy I fell for you. Other women wouldn't about anything like that. You should leave it for other women!" Janice said with a sniff. She Theodore's face was fall right into his arms. "No room for discussion? You weren't willing to find a boyfriend for yourself, and we helped you arrange for something. Is there anything wrong with that?" Leanne was angered.

"I already told you before. It's not like I don't want one. I just haven't found anyone suitable..." Janice was interrupted by her mother before she could finish.

"Enough, I don't want your excuses! I think that Mister Wyatt is a decent man. If you still see us as your parents, then listen to us. Get engaged to him and try it out first. If you refuse, then don't even bother coming back anymore. You can go wherever you want. We don't have a daughter like you!" Leanne said angrily.

"Mom, you..."

"Aren't you purposely making things hard for me?" Janice's eyes reddened at that moment.

Her mother already escalated things so far. If she continued to refuse, she would seem like a bad daughter.

However, if she agreed, it was not like she liked Theodore. She would not be able to accept it in her heart.

Suddenly, she felt very hopeless. She did not know what to do.
