The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 651

Mason was honorable and reliable and was someone who deserved Leon's trust.

Furthermore, Mason was in the underworld for so many years. He was incredibly experienced. When Leon established his own family in the future, Mason would be an excellent candidate to take care of things.

The only regretful thing was that he only just started to establish his forces. He still had a long way to go until he could find his own family. It could not be rushed.

"Mason, I think you know very well how important an Advanced Power class method is. Without my approval, you're not to tell anyone about Demon Execution!" Leon did not forget to tell Mason with a serious expression.

"I understand. Mister Wolf, don't worry. I'll keep this secret very well!" Mason assured.

"That's good. I have to see the Southern King for something. Make sure to practice Demon Execution whenever you're free. Don't disappoint me," Leon smiled and said.

"Yes," Mason immediately answered before sending Leon out of the bar.

The Shears and the Pooles would both look into their respective sides, Leon believed that there would be some clues!

“Alright, that’s not a problem. I’ll have some men look into it right now!”

Vincent nodded and accepted it before he took out his phone to make a few calls, issuing the order.

Leon felt like the matter would probably not be done that quickly, so he decided to check on Vincent’s wife first. He went with Vincent and Fane to the backyard.

In the room, Snow was giving her mother some medicine.

Gloria sat in front of the desk, elegantly taking the medicine.

“Snow, Leon’s medical skills and the medicine he issued me are amazing. In just a few days, I feel like my body has already recovered. It’s a few times better than before! If I ever see him again, I’ll thank him properly,” Gloria said with a smile, showering Leon’s medical skills with praise.

Leon rubbed his nose. He was quite stunned, not knowing when he offended Snow.

“Mister Wolf, didn’t you come to check on me? Let’s start, then,” Gloria changed the topic as she reached her arm out.

Leon put Snow aside for the moment as he started to check up on Snow.

After a long time, Leon stood back up.

“Mister Wolf, how is my wife’s condition?” Vincent asked with concern.

“She’s been recovering very well. As long as she continues taking the medicine for a few days, she’ll make a full recovery,” Leon smiled and said.

“That’s great news!” Vincent laughed happily.

Leon’s head hurt, not understanding what Snow was thinking.

“Of course not! I only see you as a brother. I wouldn’t let you off easily if you dared to accept my father’s offer then!” Snow immediately rebuked.

“Then isn’t this fine? Fane and I are good brothers. I see you as a sister as well. So, wouldn’t rejecting it have been my only choice then?” Leon hurriedly said.

“Oh, you do make sense.”

Snow calmed down a lot, but she was still a bit unhappy. She said, “But you still embarrassed me yesterday, that’s the truth! I bet a lot of people are talking about me right now. I’m one of the four beauties of Springfield City, and the heiress of the Pooles. Even though I was practically being given to you, you still rejected me! How do you think I’m supposed to show my face in public in the future?!” Snow was more and more unhappy as she spoke.

“That—” Leon was speechless.

However, she was already three or four years older than Leon. She preferred men that were more mature, so she never had any such intentions for Leon.

In her eyes, she did see Leon as a brother.

At least, that was the way she thought!

At the front gate, Snow looked around and said curiously, “Hey, Leon, where’s your “Iris, w–what happened?” Elder Young was shocked as he hurried over to help Iris take a seat.

“Did Leon say no to getting back together?” Gilbert’s expression changed as he vaguely started to understand.

Iris did not answer. She started to sob even harder on the table, unable to stop her tears at all.

Only after losing something would you understand how valuable it was.

Back then, she spent every day with Leon. Leon never held back in his care for her, but she never treasured it properly.

Even after breaking up with Leon, she always felt like Leon was still by her side, never leaving because there were so many traces of Leon at home and the company.

Yet, when she found out that Leon was Cynthia's boyfriend, she finally realized that she completely lost him!

However, due to his mistakes, he ruined a beautiful relationship with his granddaughter. He did blame himself quite a bit for it.

It was just a pity that they were already past the point of any return!

"I-" Iris felt even sad.

She knew very well that Elder Young and Gilbert both held a lot of responsibility for what happened.

However, they were still her family. Her break up with Leon was already set in stone, what was the point of blaming them?

"It's up to you if you want to believe it or not, but I won't say any more!" Daisy smiled in disdain.

She just wanted to deliberately instigate Iris a little. Leon was not willing to get back together with Iris anyway, so it was not important if Iris believed in it or not!

Just as Iris and Daisy were staring at each other, a frantic set of footsteps were heard. Randy quickly walked inside.

"Elder, the Northern King is here with his men. He says he has something very important he wants to meet you for," Randy said.

In the past, political marriages were not uncommon between major families. However, they were usually to forge alliances, and both sides were equal.

“But—Elder Young was still hesitant.

He was the head of the Youngs, there was no way he did not know the threat they posed!

However, Leon saved his life before. He already wrongly accused Leon once. If he targeted Leon again, it would be completely immoral!

“Elder Young, don’t worry. With the Dragon Corps around, there’s no way we can kill Leon and the Shears! I just think that the Youngs will grow much stronger after I join you, and you’ll stand at the top of the families!

“Then, you’ll be able to summon up the other families to work together and destroy Cynthion Group or even threaten Leon to split the profits. That would be enough! We can let Leon and the Shears monopolize everything no matter what!” Harold advised, but there was a cold glint in his eyes.
