The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 671

"How dare you! If you want to cross us, I'll gladly accept your challenge! Give us a few minutes, and we'll summon our allies right now!" Hunter declared coldly.

"Go ahead! I, on the other hand, am truly curious to witness the true extent of The Laughing Tiger!" Leon sneered.

"What?" Leopard was utterly shocked by this and quickly added, "Mister Wolf, please don't say that! We'll never stand a chance against The Laughing Tiger! I think we should attack first before The Laughing Tiger finds out about this."

A glimmer of malice flashed through Leopard's eyes as he said this. Now that he had someone like Leon helping him, he did not think it would be difficult to get rid of Hunter and Chimp. As long as he defeated Chimp and successfully took Mistcloud Mountain for his own, he could finally request to join Great Maned Tiger's forces!

The middle—aged man at the lead had a glint of malice in his eyes, and his aura was no different. One could easily tell that this man was not to be messed with.

This was none other than the Laughing Tiger—Riker Smith himself!

“Mister Smith, you’re finally here!” Hunter and Chimp were overjoyed to see him.

“What’s happening here, Hunter, Chimp?” Riker asked. Due to the overwhelming amount of people in the room, he did not notice Leon and Snow sitting there at all.

“Mister Smith, Leopard got some martial artist at the Initial Innate State to challenge us and injured Hunter in the process,” Chimp gave Riker a brief description of what happened.

“Initial Innate State? Who dares to challenge my authority like this? Does he have a death wish? Who is this man?” Riker sneered at this. He already attained the Intermediate Innate State, and there were rarely few, if any, that could compete with him.

Not to mention that his so-called opponent was just in the Initial Innate State and was no match for him at all!

One could only imagine how shocked they were to discover that Snow Poole showed up at Mistcloud Mountain.

“Mister Wolf, congratulations! I can’t believe that Miss Poole right here is none other than the daughter of the Southern King,” An expression of delight crossed Leopard’s face. He never thought that after brea Leopard could not help feeling in awe of Leon's charm and charisma. He finally realized why Leon was so calm before this—it was because Leon had the southern King behind his back!

Riker's legs gave out beneath him, and he immediately fell onto his knees. "Mister Wolf, I didn't know you arrived. I didn't mean to cross you at all! Please accept my sincerest apologies!"

"What nonsense! How dare you even suggest something like that? How dare you even suggest the idea of kidnapping Miss Poole for your selfish gain?" Riker was so horrified by Chimp's daring conquest that he leaped up and gave Chimp a hard kick.

The truth was, he knew that Chimp's idea was a good one; even though Snow was just slightly more advanced than him in her martial arts training, he knew that with his subordinates' help, he could easily overpower her and capture her.

However, there was a catch—

Leon breathed down his neck at this exact moment, and Riker knew full well the extent of Leon's powers, as well as his close relationship with the Southern King, Vincent Poole.

He would never dare to lay even a finger on Snow with Leon watching!

It was certainly a great shock for everyone to find out that not only did Leon manage to become president of Cynthion Group at such a young age, but even attained the Advanced Supreme State!

Leopard was the most astounded out of all of them; just a couple of months ago, when Leon’s training only attained the Advanced Acquired State, he almost killed Leon, but now, Leon managed to turn the tables and advance so much in his martial arts training!

This was almost unbelievable!

“Chimp, even Mister Lowe and the Northern King himself have to show President Wolf some respect, so how you have the audacity to even suggest such an outrageous plan in front of him? I don’t care if you have a death sentence; please leave me out of it!” Riker scoffed, mentally cursing Chimp’s stupidity.

"Yes, President Wolf, is there anything else I can help with?" Riker asked cautiously.

"Do I need to teach you how you're supposed to punish your subordinates?" Leon said coldly, pointing at Chimp, who was still slumped on the ground in a state of shock.

One could never forsake the laws of the Gangster World!

The first time Leon met Leopard, they got into a conflict and he even suffered an injury as a result of their unpleasant first encounter. However, he admired Leopard for his strongly upheld beliefs, and in the end, not only did he forgive Leopard for injuring him, but even helped beg Iris for mercy.

However, this was a different case with Chimp. Chimp lusted after Snow the moment he laid eyes on her and intended to harm her, which was against a martial artist's principles!

Leon despised people like this with all his heart and thus, vowed not to let Chimp go so easily.

Leopard knew that in promising to help Leon in the future, he was indirectly getting protection from Leon as well.

“Don’t be so courteous. Come, get up,” Leon said, smiling, as he helped Leopard up.

Meanwhile, in the Fields’ family room, Walter summoned all the important members of the family for a meeting.

At the sales drive the day before, not only did Leon choose to continue working with the Shears, but he even defeated Haroon, the best fighter of their collateral descendants, thus humiliating the Fields’ reputation beyond repair!

How could Walter and the rest of the Fields possibly let this go?

The Fields family murmured in agreement.

After the duel between Leon and Haroon, they could all tell that Leon probably just attained the Advanced Supreme State not long ago, and as long as the Fields sent someone with higher training to attack him, they could easily get rid of Leon Wolf!

Halfway, a black car began tailing them without their knowledge..

As the daughter of the Southern King, Snow was naturally more adept at noticing things like these and quickly realized something was amiss. “Leon, I think we're being followed!” she reminded him.

“What? Really?” Leon glanced in the rearview mirror and immediately saw that a black car was indeed following them.

However, he was not certain if the car was truly following them or if they just so happened to be heading in the same direction.

“You should try testing them,” Snow suggested.

Leon understood, and attempted to change his speed at random; sometimes he would intentionally slow down, and other times, speed up without warning.

"Godsend!" Morgan could not help cackling when he saw this.

If they attacked him on a desolate road, Leon would not be able to escape if he wanted to, and he would not
