

Chapter 1171 She Wants To Drive Her Away

When Kailee got home, she couldn't help but think about Garrett's tender gaze when he was looking at Laney. The more she thought about it, the more jealous she became. She immediately sent someone to investigate Garrett's recent situation.

Breaking up with Garrett was a decision she had to make, but it wasn't because she didn't like him. The real reason was that him being a wild playboy made her feel insecure.

Feeling uncertain about them and their relationship was too much for her to handle, so she broke up with him.

Kailee had believed that Garrett wasn't capable of change; however, she saw another side of him today, one that she hadn't expected to see. ³

This made her desire that had been hidden in her heart for many years appear again and it was getting stronger and stronger.

The information that her subordinate sent her about Laney infuriated her so much that she smashed her phone.

It never occurred to her that Laney was not even from an ordinary rich family. She was just a bodyguard, and even worse, an orphan. With her background, she didn't deserve Garrett! 7

"How could the Harding family allow this ordinary woman to marry Garrett?"

Kailee threw the documents on the table. She was confused about this entire situation. "The Harding family give importance to family background, which means Laney is definitely not qualified."

The subordinate quickly told her the news he had heard, "The Harding family didn't agree to the marriage at first. But Mr. Harding himself insisted on marrying Laney. He voluntarily quit the Larson Group and went back to manage the Harding family's business. That's why his family finally agreed." 2

This information made Kailee feel even more jealous of Laney.

She had never expected that Garrett would go against his family for a woman.

What if she was the one for him?

Kailee couldn't help but imagine it. If she could drive Laney away and win Garrett back, he would also do everything for her, wouldn't he? ³

Moreover, the Harding family had prospered in the past few years. If her family and the Harding family could unite by marriage, the Gibson family would greatly benefit from the union.

The more Kailee thought about it, the more it made sense to her. How she wished she could drive Laney away immediately!

It wouldn't be hard, though; Laney was just an orphan with no power or influence. What could Laney do to her? ²

"I have to find a way to make Laney leave Garrett herself." Her eyes narrowed as Kailee became lost in thought. ¹

"Although Laney doesn't have a strong family background, she does have a good relationship with Janet, the daughter of the White family." The subordinate knew what was on Kailee's mind, so he reminded her, "Janet's husband is Brandon

Larson from the Larson Group. If Laney asks
Janet for help, things could become really difficult." ¹¹

He handed Janet's files over to Kailee.

When Kailee saw all the information on Janet, her mind wandered to the woman who was beside Laney during the day. She became more disdainful.

She guessed that Laney and Garrett probably met through Laney's relationship to Janet.

However, what could she do to destroy their relationship so Laney would back off?

Suddenly, Kailee's eyes lit up with excitement as an idea came to her mind.

How could she forget that Garrett was her old classmate? Wouldn't a classmate reunion be the perfect opportunity to rekindle feelings?

Back then, everyone considered Garrett and her to be the school's golden couple. It was a great opportunity for her to remind Garrett of their wonderful past together. If all went according to plan, they could start their relationship over.

Kailee immediately contacted her former classmates and told them that she wanted to hold a classmate reunion.

However, in order to not arouse Garrett's suspicion, Kailee did not invite him in person; other students would reach out to him and invite him.

In this way, she could not be blamed for anything that happened at the reunion.

With her plan set in motion, Kailee leaned against the sofa with a triumphant smile on her face.
