I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2245-“Master David, are you leaving Sole?” Thor asked hastily, startled.

“Yeah, I’ll be leaving soon.” David nodded.

“Where are you planning to go?”

After Thor asked, he felt that his question was not appropriate. ‘Should Master David report to me where he’s going?’ So, he quickly explained, “Master David, don’t get me wrong, I’m just... I’m just...”

David understood what Thor meant.

He was not that petty.

Thor helped David a lot during this time and earned him a lot of lavish points.

Therefore, David would not forget Thor’s kindness.

“It’s okay, Mr. Rivers, you don’t need to explain. I understand what you mean. The second-tier city of Sole is too small, so I’m going to visit the first-tier city, Wier. There should be a lot of treasures there and I can buy them without restraints.”

“May I be so bold to ask if you’ve been to Wier before?”

“No!” David shook his head.

“Master David, you need to understand the local customs when you get to Wier. As a businessman, I’ve been to Wier several times and know some colleagues. Please take me along so it will be more convenient for you to go on about your business when we arrive in Wier,” Thor said boldly.

He knew this was his chance to express himself.

Once David left, he would probably not come back to a small place like Sole.

If Thor missed this chance, he would regret it for the rest of his life.

As long as David agreed, he would be relying on David from now on.

If he did not agree, there was nothing he could do either.

It would just mean that David did not need him.

He would just stay in Sole obediently and be a businessman.

“Do you want to come along, Mr. Rivers?” David asked after staring blankly at him.

“As long as you’re willing, I am willing to follow you everywhere you go. I promise to carry out your orders well,” Thor promised loudly.

David looked at Thor but did not say anything.

He was wondering if he should take this person with him.

To be honest, he could take Thor with him.

As a businessman, Thor was good at socializing. Moreover, he had been to Wier and knew people there.

Therefore, it would be very convenient to bring him along. Thor had good character too.

At least David did not find out anything horrible that Thor did in the past.

So, he could take Thor for the time being and monitor him.

“Mr. Rivers, you have to think twice. Are you sure you want to follow me?” David asked seriously.

Thor was delighted. ‘I have a chance!’

Immediately, he said excitedly, “As long as you don’t mind, I am willing to follow you till the end of my life.”

As he spoke, he knelt to David to show his loyalty.

“Mr. Rivers, let me explain first. If you want to follow me, you must do two things. First, you must not bully others. Second, you must not disregard human life no matter who the other party is, even if they are ordinary people. Of course, we won’t cause trouble, but we are also not afraid of trouble. As long as you are not the one at fault, I will help you no matter what happens. If I can't do that, I can only say sorry. I will compensate you for what you did for me these days," David said seriously.

"Don't worry, Master! I am not that kind of person and I have never bullied others in my life. I promise I can do what you ask me to."

'That's good! You can follow me in the future! Go back and deal with your own affairs. It is estimated that we will leave here and go to Wier in a few days.'

"Yes, Master!"

Thor finished speaking and left happily.

In the beginning, he took a fancy to David's financial resources and wanted to establish a good relationship with David.

What ordinary people could take out 500 billion L Dollars for a strange little girl?

If that was the only reason, Thor would not do what he did today.
