

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2249

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2249-After a while, Celia asked softly, "David, aren't you in seclusion? Why did you come out again?"

"I miss you, so I came out quietly to see you," David replied with a smile.

'Thank you, David! I miss you too, so much!'

"I should be the one thanking you. Celia. Thank you for being so sensible and understanding."

"David, I don't want you to thank me! I only want you to always remember me and visit me once in a while, like tonight."

"You don't have to tell me that. You are my real girlfriend. Who will I remember if not you?"

The two held each other and told each other what was in their hearts.

Although they were boyfriend and girlfriend, they had not talked and chatted alone for a long time.

If it was any other woman, she would have been jealous and angry.

Yet, Celia was not.

She was still the same.

As long as David cared about her occasionally, she would be happy for a long time.

Even from the beginning, she had no intention of having David for herself.

It was because David was too exceptional.

David was so exceptional that sometimes she felt afraid and inferior. She was worried that she would not be worthy of David.

From Earth to the depths of the starry sky. From Earth, where civilization was not even level 1, to the current level 7 civilization of Star Kingdom, David had always been the man who saved all beings no matter where he was. At the same time, he was also respected and worshiped by countless beings.

Sometimes, Celia figured that if she did not hear about the news of David's breakup from her high school's group chat and then took the initiative to pursue David, perhaps she could only watch this dazzling man slip away from her. She would never be able to catch up with him.

She knew in her heart that among all the women who liked David, she was not comparable to them in talent, looks, figure, and status.

For example, Selena, Astrid, and Mia. She was miles apart from them.

The reason she could have a special position among the women and was loved by many was because she was David's girlfriend and David loved her.

Celia felt blessed because of this.

Luckily, she was the first to take action and established a relationship with David.

If she was slightly late, everything would have changed.

So, Celia did not hope for anything else.

She only hoped to have a place in David's heart.

Because of Celia's attitude, the more she did not fight for David's affection, the guiltier David felt and the more he would pamper her.

In the end, Celia had an unshakable position in David's heart.

Not fighting would be the best fight.

This statement was best used on Celia but she had no idea.

She could not come in too strong for a man like David.

She had to treat him with sincerity to touch him.

Lorraine and Selena were the best examples.

The former had a huge ego.

David got first place at a grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland, and according to the organizer The Krum's rules, he should marry Lorraine.

However, he rejected the marriage.

Back then, Lorraine thought highly of herself and figured there were so many excellent men pursuing her that David must be blind not to want her.

In the end, she could only watch David go through life without obstacles. She then went from looking at him in disdain to being not worthy of him.

If Lorraine lowered herself and pursued David with everything she had, using her Master's orders as an excuse, she would be one of the women.

How would she almost become Azul's cauldron?

Selena was the opposite.

She knew David was extraordinary. So, she used all kinds of ways to get close to David.

Initially, David did not like her.

In the end, she almost died from protecting Earth. That was when David changed his mind about her.