I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2253-While David and the others were dining on the road to Wier, the atmosphere in the Alten family of Wier was a little tense.

After several days, Elven Queen Isa arrived again.

After many searches all this time, there was still no news of the Elven Princess, Evie.

Apart from knowing that Evie was still alive, Queen Isa did not know what happened to her.

If Evie lost her virginity, the Elves' painstaking efforts over the years would be wasted, and they would have to continue to spend energy on training the next Elven Princess.

And it was Soleil, the direct descendant of the Alten family, who caused all these.

If it were not because of his evil intentions, Evie would not have had to flee in a panic and disappear.

Although Soleil had already paid the price for his stupidity with his life, it was not enough.

As long as Evie was not found, Elven Queen Isa would not spare the Alten family.

The Alten family also knew they were wrong and were trying their best to please the Elven Queen. They did their best to satisfy whatever request she had.

Fortunately, the Elven Princess escaped at that time.

If Soleil caught her and took her virginity, the Alten family would bear the boundless anger of the Elves.

It was likely that their entire family would be wiped out too.

“Welcome to the Alten Residence and bringing light to our humble dwelling,” Horatio Alten, the head of the Alten family, said politely.

At the same time, he showed a smile that looked even more horrified than a crying face.

An ordinary Elf woman could compete with countless outside forces, never mind an elf queen.

She would be the most eye-catching person no matter where she went.

Her every move could only be described in one word.

Breathtaking!

However, Horatio was not in the mood to appreciate the beautiful woman in front of him now.

Everyone knew the purpose of the Elf Queen coming here.

However, his family had no choice.

It was no secret in Leila that the Elven Princess was very important to the Elves.

Now the Elven Princess was missing because of Soleil, the descendant of the Alten family.

The Alten family also dispatched almost all their forces to search for the princess, but they still could not find her.

It was no wonder that the Elves refused to spare the family.

The Alten family could not defeat the Elves anyway.

They also looked for help from other friendly forces, but they were unwilling to get involved when they heard it was the Elves.

The mistake of one descendant caused such a big loss to the Alten family.

They could not even begin to express their difficulties.

“Horatio, do you think I am so free that I love coming back to your place, huh? The Elves are still waiting for me to go back to deal with a lot of things, but we still can’t find Evie so I’m stuck in The Spirit Cage and can’t go back. This is all caused by your family, so tell me, what should I do now?” Elven Queen Isa asked blankly.

“Queen Isa, our family feels very bad about the disappearance of the Elven Princess. Soleil has also paid the price with his life for this. We have sent everyone that we have in The Spirit Cage to look for her. So please, Queen Isa, spare us,” Horatio said in a low voice.

“Spare you? Then who will spare Evie? Do you know how much painstaking effort it takes for us to cultivate an Elven Princess?” Queen Isa stared at Horatio and asked sharply. Horatio felt uncomfortable being stared at by Queen Isa.
