Married at First Sight Chapter 2468-Audrey didn't notice Serenity's hesitation to speak just now, but Liberty saw it and guessed that her sister wanted to talk to her about the Jensburg Farrell family.

After the two sisters went out, Elisa, Zachary, and Remy were the only ones in the hall.

As for Grandma May, who went to the hospital with Zachary and Serenity, she didn't come to the business with her. Zachary arranged for someone to take Grandma May back to Wildridge Manor. As for whether Grandma May would go to other people's homes on the way, Zachary didn't know and couldn't care.

Grandma May was an elderly person who couldn't stay at home peacefully.

The three grown men could only drink tea and chat about business matters.

The two sisters left the main house, and Liberty wanted to help Serenity down the steps. Serenity said with a smile, "Sister, I haven't been in three months yet, and my body hasn't changed much, except that I had morning sickness a while ago. Let me know I am indeed pregnant, and now I eat and drink well, and I don't need you to help me down the steps."

Liberty also smiled and said, "It's not easy for you to conceive this pregnancy; it's better to be careful, especially in the first three months. Before, when I was pregnant with Sonny, you took care of me like this."

Serenity: "Time flies, sister; it seems like yesterday that you were pregnant with Sonny, and in a blink of an eye, Sonny is more than three years old."

Liberty: "Yes, time flies; you used to be a little crying cat, but now you are going to be a mother; you have grown up, and I'm also old."

Liberty's sigh made Serenity reluctant, "Sister, how old are you? You're only in your early thirties. People now generally live longer, and it is estimated that you will be able to retire in your sixties in the future, and I'm young."

Serenity affectionately held Liberty's arm, her head still resting on her shoulder, and said, "Don't let me say you are old; you're five years older than me. If I am old, I will be on my way too. Haha, we sisters are young."

Liberty: "Yes, yes, we are still young. We still have many things that haven't been done yet. You need to be young to have the physical strength to work."

Serenity: "Sister, don't be tired."

Liberty: "You're still talking about me. No matter how tired I am, I don't have a baby in my belly. You are twins, so you can't be tired. After the honeymoon, even if you go to work, don't do heavy work. If you feel uncomfortable, rest immediately. Don't hold on; my nephew is the top priority."

Serenity: "I know, my body, I know, I won't hold on. Of course, the baby is the first priority. Sister, what Auntie means is that after taking back the position of head of the Farrell family, I will let you take over the Farrell family. What do you think?"

Liberty said, "Our mother is gone, and we don't know anything about the Farrell family. Even if Mother is alive, she probably won't remember it. We will have grudges against the Farrell family, but the grudges are not as heavy as those of Auntie because we have not experienced that kind of strife and hatred. But Auntie wants to seek justice for Grandpa and Grandma. We must be on Auntie's side. What does Auntie mean? I understand too.

Elisa said clearly that even if her revenge is successful, she will not take over the Farrell family. She said that she does not have the patience to care about so many things, and she is also a willful person who cannot hide too many worries.

You are the eldest mistress of the York family. You are already under a lot of pressure. My aunt thinks I can really take back the position of head of the Farrell family, so I will take the position. With this, I will take the position.

To comfort our grandmother, our mother suffered so much when she was young, all because of this incident. As daughters, after knowing the ins and outs, when we have the opportunity, we will naturally express our mother's bad temper and seek revenge on her behalf. Do justice, take revenge."

Liberty worked hard to make herself stronger and also knew that her aunt Audrey's plan was for her to take over the Farrell family in the future.

"Actually..." Liberty paused and said, "I think Kathryn is quite good. Although she is the biological daughter of the Farrell family, she was exchanged when she was a child, and the environment she grew up in was not good. She has developed a strong character, and she is not indifferent to right and wrong.

Between family affection and conscience, she chose conscience. It was because she had no relationship with the Farrell family, had fewer entanglements, and was able to make a choice simply and neatly.

When that day comes, let's see what happens. If possible, I think Kathryn should still be in charge of the Farrell family. Even if we are from my grandmother's lineage, after decades, not only did people's hearts change early, but even the group of people who were loyal to grandma disappeared.”
