I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2333-After understanding why David wanted her to grow up quickly, Pebbles blushed and smiled, her eyes narrowed into crescents.

“Okay! I’ll listen to you and grow up quickly.”

“That’s good!” David dotingly and gently pinched the little girl’s red face.

Pebbles’ red face became even more bright red after that.

“Davey, I’m hungry!”

“Here, I’ll get you some food.”

David pulled out some priceless elixirs and handed them to Pebbles.

The little girl ate hundreds of billions worth of elixir in just a few bites. Then, she fell asleep quickly in David’s arms.

Beanie stood aside feeling envious.

The relationship between these two was beyond close.

It was possible that no biological father and daughter were as close as them.

David would definitely rush forward and destroy anyone who dared to bully Pebbles.

Of course, the reverse was also true.

If David was injured, Pebbles would also risk her life to avenge David.

Even though Pebbles was only 13 or 14 years old.

Beanie was scared of the energy she inadvertently emitted sometimes.

From the very beginning, she knew that this little girl was not simple.

Her identity and background must be shocking.

Beanie had never seen a person who could eat all kinds of treasures of heaven and earth as a staple food and still be fine.

Who did not know that in The Spirit Cage, no matter what kind of treasure it was, it needed to be tempered to remove impurities before it could be consumed to increase one's soul power?

However, when it came to Pebbles, this idea was completely subverted.

It did not matter if it was poison or Beast Crystals from ferocious beasts, she would just eat them and go to sleep.

To Pebbles, there was nothing that could not be eaten.

It could be seen from these aspects that the little girl's life was not simple.

If ordinary people ate them, not only would they be unable to digest, they might even explode and die.

However, gradually. Beanie was relieved.

The young and old duo were both lunatics.

The older one was a Lunatic Senior while the younger one was Lunatic Junior.

Perhaps this was what they said when they said people of talent appreciated one another.

David carried Pebbles back into the room and put her on the bed.

Just when he was about to let go, the little girl woke up in a daze.

"Davey, where are you going?"

"Pebbles, I have something to attend to and will be back soon. Can you sleep by yourself for a while?" David replied.

"Okay, then you must come back quickly."

"Okay! Pebbles, sleep peacefully and I will be back when you wake up."

The little girl went back to sleep.

David quietly exited the room.

Pebbles had grown up, which brought about certain benefits.

At least she would not be as clingy as when they first met, and she would not insist on David holding her to sleep.

She would not wake up as soon as she left David either.

Now, she would listen to what David said.

David liked Pebbles' appearance when she was 7 or 8 alongside her teenage personality.

It was a pity that he could not have his cake and eat it too.

After leaving the room, David disappeared in a flash.

When he reappeared, he was already deep in a forest around Wier.

Then, he turned on the system and chose to exit The Spirit Cage.

With the sudden attack of Blue from the Feather family, David had to go back every once in a while to see the situation in Star Kingdom, so as not to only find out when the enemy came to them like last time.

Once he opened his eyes, he had already returned to the place he lived in seclusion in the Iridescent Sect.
