I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2457-David and Arian talked for a very long time. Then, they had some drinks.

Before he left, David told Arian that he might go into seclusion for a while more and hoped that he could take care of Beanie and Thor.

When it came to something trivial like this, Arian patted his chest and promised to do his best.

Then, David left the Longer Residence and went home. He announced once again he would go into seclusion before leaving The Spirit Cage.

Somerland, Earth.

The hidden sect of The Krums.

Lorraine stood at the entrance.

After she returned to Earth, she went back home for a while before she went to her sect to see her master and seniors.

After all, this was the place she had lived for more than a decade. It was also the place where she realized her selfworth, so it held a lot of memories for her.

If Master Coda from The Krums did not bring Lorraine back to the sect, she would have suffered horribly, stuck in the middle of Stan Warner and Clinton Zimmerman.

She would offend one or the other, no matter whom she chose.

The Lovewood family could not afford to offend both the Warner and Zimmerman families.

In the end, she might cause her family to fall from grace.

However, after she joined The Krums and had strong support, everything changed. The Warner and Zimmerman families did not dare to do anything to her family.

Therefore, Lorraine still had feelings for The Krums.

Ever since she joined the sect and acknowledged Master Coda as her master, she would only get the best resources.

So she felt a lot of gratitude toward this sect.

After standing at the entrance and reminiscing for a while, Lorraine lifted her leg and stepped into the sect.

The array set by The Krums did not work on her.

After leaving Earth, Lorraine was the one who got the most benefit aside from David.

When she left she was just Tiger Rank.

Now that she was back on Earth, she was already at Saint Realm, a realm that countless people in Star Kingdom dreamed of.

Even the two seniors from the Iridescent Sect, Nova and Celeste, were not her match.

Of course, the more she got, the more she had to give up and experience.

Celia and the women went to have fun in Star Kingdom, and they never encountered any danger.

They had been in the Iridescent Sect the entire time.

So, they had David block all dangers from them.

On the contrary, Lorraine had not only experienced the pain of the forbidden technique, but she also experienced near death.

If David had not shown up in time, she would be a pile of bones by now.

Others aside, the forbidden technique cast by Eira and her sisters was not something ordinary people could handle.

Among the women, perhaps only Selena could endure it and obtain enough benefit from it.

The rest could not.

They were not talented enough and did not have enough willpower.

After avoiding The Krums' array, Lorraine walked forward but did not run into anyone.

The current sect only had a few disciples worth cultivating and the other disciples were sent to the secular world to manage The Krums' property.

Lorraine came to the hall of the sect and heard someone speaking inside.

As she listened carefully, she realized that it was Ted, the head of the sect.

After calculating the days, Lorraine understood.

Today was the day The Krums would have a meeting.

It would happen every month to report results and makes decisions for the sect.

As long as one was in the sect, no one was allowed to be absent from this meeting.
