

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2607-“Elora, I know you. Forcing you to do something you don’t want is useless, so I don’t intend to convince you. But you know Lufian’s character. You know in your heart what will happen once he knows about David’s existence, so I don’t need to say more.” Sylvio said in a deep voice.

He said these words not to put pressure on Elora but to solve the problem.

Since things had come to this point, there was no point in hiding.

They could discuss how to solve this together and openly. He could not lead Leila out of the predicament by himself. At the same time, Elora could understand what was at stake. The only way now was not to enrage Lufian in the slightest. After much deliberation, the only person in Leila who could do it was probably herself.

However, Elora did not want to stay with Lufian and supervise him all the time.

If it was in the past, she might have compromised for Leila’s sake.

If she had not met David, Elora might have already agreed to be Lufian’s companion.

However, Elora had changed her mind after meeting David. And who could guarantee that she could keep Lufian from going berserk just by staying by his side?

One must know that Lufian had fused his dual souls and was no longer the same Lufian as before.

Even Elora was not at the moment.

“Sylvio, I understand everything you said, but you also said that Lufian has fused his dual souls and is no longer the Lufian he used to be. Even if I agree to stay with him, I will just be treating the symptoms rather than the root cause. Sooner or later, he will still go down a path no one wants to see. What should we do then?” Elora asked.

“You are right! So now there is another way, which is also Leila’s last glimmer of hope.”

“What is it?” Elora’s eyes lit up. A look of surprise appeared in her eyes.

“It’s up to David. He’s the lifeline.”

“David, as in... Davey?”

Elora originally wanted to ask who David was, but then she realized that name sounded familiar.

Slowly, her eyes widened in disbelief.

She would never have imagined that the glimmer of hope that Sylvio mentioned was related to David.

“Yes, David is your Davey, but Elora, you have already recovered your memory. Don’t you think it’s a little inappropriate to still call him Davey? In terms of age, you are much older than him,” Sylvio teased.

“Elora might be older than David, but Pebbles is younger than him! I am both Elora and Pebbles, so why can’t I call him Davey? Moreover, David said that no matter what happens, he will still be my Davey.” Elora also had a smile on her face.

Although she had restored her memories, David was still an indelible mark on her heart.

Memories of being with David would appear in Elora’s mind all the time.

She even slept in David’s arms.

As she thought of this, Elora blushed slightly.

“Elora, do you know how long I’ve been looking for you in The Spirit Cage?” Sylvio suddenly changed the subject.

“No.” Elora shook her head.

“It’s been almost a year. I only found you in Amber City after walking through countless cities in The Spirit Cage.”

“That long? Don’t you have Zwei Arithmetics? Can’t figure out my position?” Elora asked suspiciously.

“This is where the problem lies. I tried to look into David, but I suffered a backlash. Since you are with him, I also can’t look you up with Zwei Arithmetics because you’re affected by him. So, David is hiding a big secret.”

A big secret?

Elora recalled that from the first time she met David until now, it seemed that he was quite mysterious indeed.

He had so much money that he could never finish them.

Moreover, he never fully exposed his strength too.

And just now, he even injured Sylvio.
