An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1510

Chapter 1510

“Gulong.”

Julie Anderson swallowed it subconsciously.

After reacting, she immediately stretched out her fingers to dig her throat, intending to spit out the pills.

As a result, she retched several times, but it had no effect at all.

The pill melts in the mouth and has already been dissolved in the body.

At this moment, her complexion changed drastically, and she said in a trembling voice: “You, you... What did you just through in my mouth?”

“You’re lying! I think it’s poison!” Julie Anderson panicked.

“You! You guessed it? I’m so sorry.” Abigail’s smile didn’t change.

“You witch! Give me the antidote!” Julie Anderson shouted.

“I advise you not to get excited, otherwise the surge of energy and blood will only accelerate death. Oh, by the way, this medicine will not affect you for the time being. It will only slowly torture you until you die of intestinal rupture.” Abigail explained.

“What?”

Upon hearing this, Julie Anderson was so frightened that her legs went limp:

“Cousin...cousin, help me!”

“Witch! You are so brave! How dare you poison the people of Lord Eugene Montgomery’s Mansion? I think you are tired of living!”

Gary Montgomery's face darkened, and he suddenly took action and grabbed Abigail's throat.

Almost everyone in Lord Eugene Montgomery's residence practices martial arts, and among the many adopted sons and daughters, his martial arts cultivation is considered to be among the best.

"call-!"

Abigail didn't dodge, she spread her palms and blew gently.

A circle of faint white smoke spewed out, covering Gary Montgomery in an ethereal way.

"Be careful! It's poisonous!"

Julie Anderson quickly warned, but it was too late.

Gary Montgomery's attack was fast and he had no time to dodge, so he could only use his body-protecting energy to resist.

Unexpectedly, the white smoke strangely penetrated the true energy and poured into his mouth and nose.

"ah-!"

Gary Montgomery screamed and fell to the ground immediately.

His whole body was twitching, he was vomiting blood, and his face was in pain.

"Why are you so angry? Why don't we calm down and talk?" Abigail said.

"You witch! How dare you poison Lord Eugene Montgomery's adopted son? You are digging your own grave!" Julie Anderson was shocked and angry.

"Don't worry, even if I die, I will drag you to be buried with me." Abigail said with a smile.

"You..." Julie Anderson was frightened and didn't dare to speak.

Seeing Gary Montgomery, who was bleeding from the mouth and nose and looking in pain, Dahlia couldn't help but frown.

She suppressed the anger in her heart and said coldly: "I don't care who you are, just hand over the antidote immediately. I can forget about the past."

"Haha... I'm afraid it's not up to you." Abigail shook her head slightly.

"Dustin, turn back in time before things get too big, otherwise something happens to Gary Montgomery, and even I won't be able to protect you!" Dahlia warned.

"I don't need Director Nicolson to worry about whether I live or die. You should take care of yourself." Dustin said calmly.

"Dustin, you clearly know that you can't defeat Lord Eugene Montgomery's Mansion, why are you so stubborn?"

Dahlia frowned slightly: "Are dignity and face more important than your own life? Accept the reality, okay? There are some people you can't afford to offend, and there are some things you can't do. Once you violate a taboo, you will die! Wake up. Come on you!"

She didn't understand why the other party didn't appreciate it even though she was trying to persuade her kindly.

Is it so difficult to bow your head and admit your mistake?
