

Chapter 3355

Five o'clock in the morning the next day.

It was drizzling all night, coupled with the unique humid climate during the festival, it shrouded Eastcliff's early morning with a faint mist.

Wesley, who spent the night in front of his parents' grave, forced out all the remaining alcohol in his body, burned three sticks of incense and knocked his head three times in front of his parents' grave.

Immediately, he said with a resolute expression, "Dad! Mom! I will disturb your two long sleeps! I hope you two know well and forgive me! Today, I will move you two to Wade Mountain, it'll be your new resting place!"

As he said, his eyes filled with tears, and he choked up, "Dad, Mom! I will definitely avenge you two today in front of Bruce Wade! I hope you two can see it in the spirit of heaven!"

Immediately, Wesley stood up and said to the men around him, "Ready to lift the coffin!"

"Yes, Yes, our lord!"

All the men around were wearing all-white in filial obedience.

Today, like Wesley, they are filial to the Drake family, and they will escort the coffins of Wesley's parents all the way to Wade Mountain.

For today's scene, Wesley also specially invited a theater troupe specializing in funerals, and set off with the team at seven o'clock.

At six o'clock, the coffin of Wesley's parents had been carefully lifted out and was cleaned by Wesley himself.

Immediately, eight five-star generals of the Dragon Temple tied the two coffins with thick twine.

After a while, the two coffins will be lifted by the eight of them, and they will hike up to Wade Mountain.

Charlie, who hadn't slept all night, didn't feel any fatigue at this time.

His body is full of a powerful aura, which makes him full of confidence deep in his heart.

At exactly six o'clock, Stefanie Sun's mobile phone rang.

She slept on Charlie's shoulder all night, and she woke up like an electric shock.

Seeing that Charlie was still by her side, she breathed a sigh of relief and asked, "Charlie, when did you wake up?"

Charlie smiled slightly, "Just woke up."

Stefanie Sun stood up hurriedly, moved her somewhat stiff body, and asked, "Charlie, when are you leaving today?"

Charlie looked at the time and smiled, "Mr. Stephen will pick me up in 20 minutes and will be at Wade Mountain before seven o'clock."

"Okay!" Stefanie Sun hurriedly said, "Then I will go to wash now!"

At this time, Orrin Sun and his wife also walked out.

Chapter 3356

Although Orrin Sun was drunk last night, he woke up very early today and was in a very good state of mind.

Seeing Charlie, Orrin Sun smiled and said, "Charlie, are you ready?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I'm always ready."

Orrin Sun nodded and said excitedly, "Then I will accompany you up to Wade Mountain with your Aunt Angie!"

Stefanie looked at her father and blurted out, "Dad! I want to go too!"

Orrin Sun smiled and said, "You have to ask Charlie, I don't count it!"

Stefanie hurriedly hugged Charlie's arm and said coquettishly, "Charlie, please take me there!"

Charlie nodded and said, "You can go, but you must be obedient, and you must stay by my side honestly, remember?"

Stefanie said excitedly, "Yes, I promise! Charlie, don't worry, I must be by your side honestly!"

Charlie smiled slightly, "Okay, go to wash up, the car will arrive in 20 minutes."

.....

At this moment.

At the Wade family's Villa....

No one in the Wade family had a good sleep last night.

Charlie's "half" answer made Lord Wade toss around all night without falling asleep.

Although Stephen Thompson was already relieved, he was so excited that he closed his eyes all night.

Last night, Corran, William and others had a quiet discussion.

They were all afraid that Lord Wade would be enthusiastic on Wade Mountain today, and then he would die in the hands of Wesley.

Therefore, they sent Brenden out overnight to buy a batch of filial clothes to use at the Wade Mountain with them.

Their plan is that if the old man really refuses to admit defeat when the time comes, everyone will change their filial obedience on the spot, revert on the spot, and at the same time agree to all the requirements of the Dragon Temple.

In any case, fate is the most important thing.

Lord Wade also didn't have any confidence in his heart, so he could only summon everyone to Wade Mountain first and pin all hopes on Charlie.

.....

At 6:20, Charlie got into Stephen's car, and Orrin Sun personally drove another car to Wade Mountain.

After driving, Stephen Thompson said to Charlie, "Young Master, last night, Master Jon and Master Brenden, as well as your fourth uncle and aunt, all snuck out quietly. My people were following all the way and found that they went out to buy filial clothes in varying quantities."

Charlie snorted and said, "Okay, when I deal with Wesley, I will punish these unscrupulous descendants in front of the ancestors of the Wade family!"

Stephen Thompson said again, "Young Master, there's another thing. Other members of the Wade family's side at Shangri-La Hotel have been escaping one after another since yesterday afternoon, and they have basically run away now."

Charlie nodded lightly, and said indifferently, "These are all expected. When I take over the Wade Family, I will settle this account with them carefully."

After speaking, Charlie asked again, "By the way, Mr. Stephen, are these collateral branches still related to the Wade family in business?"

"Of course." Stephen Thompson said hurriedly, "Most of their business is related to the Wade Group, and most of them are the suppliers or distributors below us. At least half of the profits come from the Wade Group."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said, "Then it will be much easier. Now in this society, many people still care about family honor, so they have to get their necks caught in their interests to make them obediently submit."

.....

It's six forty-five in the morning and the rain was a bit chilly.

Charlie took Stephen Thompson's car and drove into the gate of Wade Mountain.

Outside the gate at this time, more than thirty middle-aged men with gray hair, uniformly dressed in black suits, stood in three rows in the middle of the road.

These thirty people, it seems that the oldest is in his sixties, and the youngest is in his forties.

They looked solemn, and at the same time they looked very serious.

Stephen Thompson's car approached, and the more than thirty people immediately stepped aside to give way to the sides.

Charlie suddenly discovered that among the thirty-odd people outside, one of them was the former dean of the Aurous Hill Welfare Institute and he is also one of Stephen Thompson's subordinates.

He had to be transferred to the orphanage as the dean as soon as Charlie had been in the orphanage.

He did not leave until some time ago and has worked for nearly twenty years in the past.

Recognizing the dean, Charlie asked Stephen Thompson, "Mr. Stephen, these are all my father's subordinates back then?"

Stephen Thompson nodded, "Yes, they are all."

Charlie hurriedly said, "Quickly stop."

Stephen Thompson stopped the car immediately.

Not waiting for Stephen Thompson to get out and open the door for himself, Charlie already pushed the car door and walked out.

The crowd outside saw Charlie coming, and they were suddenly surprised and excited. Many people were already in tears.

"Young Master! You are back!"

"Young Master! It's really you..."

"Young Master..."

Everyone was a little emotional for a while.

Unlike the dean of the orphanage, other people have never seen Charlie again for so many years.

Although they knew that Charlie had been living in Aurous Hill, they were based on the principle of not disturbing Charlie, so they had never seen him.

However, Charlie looked too much like his father Bruce Wade after all.

Therefore, when Charlie got out of the car, everyone immediately recognized his identity.

Charlie saw these elders all red eyes, and he felt a layer of mist in his eyes.

Immediately, he looked at the crowd, knelt on one knee, clasped his fists in his hands, and said in a very serious voice, "Uncles, you have worked hard over the years! Please accept my thanks!"

Chapter 3357

Seeing Charlie suddenly kneeling on one knee, these old loyal men of Bruce Wade back then stepped forward to help, and they were already in tears.

Among them, the oldest old man said with tears, "Young Master, you can't do this! We are all your servants, how can we receive such a gift from you!"

Charlie firmly said, "Everyone is my father's old ministry, and you are all still here today. You are all kind to my Wade family, Of course I'm definitely grateful!"

The old man hurriedly said, "Young Master, this is what we should do! In fact, when Master Bruce had an accident, those of us who were not able to do our best for him by his side were our negligent duty! Over the years, we are all blaming ourselves for what happened that day. Now that you finally come back, you can be regarded as giving us a chance to redeem our sins!"

Charlie sighed, "Everyone is serious!"

Immediately, he looked at the Dean of the orphanage and said respectfully, "Mr. Dean, how are you doing?"

The Dean hurriedly stepped forward and bowed respectfully, "Thanks for your concern Young Master Wade, I have been fine recently, but for so many years, I had to conceal my identity from Young Master Wade for special reasons. Please forgive me, Young Master."

Charlie arched his hands and said, "Mr. Dean, you are serious. I know you have been protecting me secretly. For so many years, you have worked hard."

After speaking, Charlie looked at everyone again and said sincerely, "Uncles, you have worked hard!"

The group of old men said in a hurry, "Young Master, this is what we should do!"

The Dean also opened his mouth and said, "Yes, Young Master! These are all our internal affairs. Almost all of our lives are given by Master Bruce. As soon as we learned that the people of Dragon Temple wanted Master Bruce's coffin, we came here to protect it."

Charlie said hurriedly, "You guys, don't need to! For today's matter, I will personally resolve it face-to-face with the Wesley of the Dragon Temple. You only need to guard the gate and don't let other idlers in. As for the people of the Dragon Temple, please be sure to let them in without any hindrance."

"How can this be done?" The old man immediately said anxiously, "Young Master, we are here today to fight the Dragon Temple to the end!"

Stephen Thompson hurriedly stepped forward at this time and said, "Everyone, listen to me first! Young Master is absolutely sure to deal with Wesley, and you don't want to ruin the good plans of Young Master. Let them go up the mountain!"

Everyone looked shocked.

Several people immediately stepped forward and repeatedly confirmed with Stephen Thompson.

Stephen Thompson said very firmly every time, and this made everyone have to accept this order.

They don't know whether Charlie is really sure to deal with Wesley, but since Charlie and Stephen Thompson have confirmed it several times, they can only do it.

Seeing that they were persuaded, Charlie once again arched his hands at everyone, and said, "You have worked so hard to stay here, and I will go up the mountain first."

After all, Charlie sat back in Stephen Thompson's car and continued to drive to the top of the mountain.

Charlie took the car all the way up the mountain, feeling full of emotion in his heart.

This is the second time he has visited Wade Mountain, and it is of great significance to him.

On the top of the mountain at this moment, all the direct members of the Wade Family's family have arrived.

In addition, Don Albert, Isaac Cameron and Helena have also arrived.

However, the more than 700 people originally scheduled for the branch of the Wade family almost ran away last night.

The only family member left is Lord Wade's younger brother, Lucas Wade.

And Lucas Wade's son and grandson have also fled Eastcliff overnight and returned to North America in the early hours of yesterday morning.

As for the other hundreds of people, they all ran home with haste.

Chapter 3358

They knew that Dragon Temple was only targeting the Wade Family of Eastcliff this time, and had nothing to do with these collateral branches of them.

In this case, how could they stay and share the troubles with the Wade family?

Charlie got out of the car and saw that there were only so few people at the scene.

He asked in a cold voice, "Isn't it said yesterday that a total of more than 700 members of the Wade family from all over the world came to participate in this ancestor worship ceremony? Are they all gone?"

Lord Wade said embarrassingly, "Charlie, as the so-called catastrophe is about to come, they know that we are inevitable this time, and naturally it is impossible to die with us. It is natural to leave overnight."

Charlie snorted and said lightly, "Who has the list from yesterday? Give it to me."

Corran stepped forward somewhat depressed, and handed a thick roster to Charlie's hands, and said angrily, "Here! Look at it for yourself."

Charlie threw the roster directly to Corran, and said coldly, "Immediately notify everyone who should come here but didn't attend! If they don't show up within an hour, they will have to kneel three times and give nine kowtows every step from the foot of the mountain tomorrow to make atonement!"

Corran suddenly didn't know what to say.

Jon on the side said with a sullen expression, "Charlie, enough of this nonsense, in another hour, Wesley will arrive. Do you still say this kind of pretense, does it make any sense?"

Charlie frowned and looked at him, and asked, "What? Didn't you get enough slaps yesterday?"

Jon took a few steps back in shock, and said angrily, "Okay, I'll shut up! It's only an hour away anyway, I'm here to see how you solve Wesley Drake!"

Charlie didn't bother to pay attention to him, turned to look at Corran, and said lightly, "Call them one by one immediately!"

Corran had no choice but to take out his mobile phone and call them one by one.

He made dozens of phone calls in a row, but none could get through.

Corran opened his hand helplessly, "There is no way to contact them, they all turned off their phones, and I believe they won't turn it on until tomorrow."

"Okay." Charlie nodded blankly, and said, "Then I'll wait and see tomorrow for these seven hundred people to line up and kowtow up the mountain."

At this time, Orrin Sun also drove up the car after recounting the past with Bruce Wade's old ministry.

As soon as the car stopped, the Sun family got out of the car, and the Wade family members were all stunned.

Lord Wade was most surprised.

He asked Orrin dumbfounded, "Orrin...you... why are you here?"

Orrin stepped forward and said respectfully, "Uncle Wade, Bruce is my big brother, and Charlie is my future son-in-law! How could I not come for such an important thing!"

Lord Wade's eyes were reddish, and he sighed, "You are loyal...you are righteous, Uncle understands! But this kind of thing is not a joke, I advise you to hurry back with your wife and child! Anyway, the Wade family can't drag you down!"

Orrin said firmly, "Uncle Wade, what are you talking about? I am Orrin Sun, and you must be aware of it. I will never leave Wade Mountain until this matter is resolved today!"

Lord Wade wanted to say something, but he hesitated for a while, and finally turned into a sigh, "You are a good brother to Bruce!"

Each of the Wade family members was a little bit distressed.

Corran was very depressed.

He and his son have been ignored by the old man since yesterday.

Now even Orrin was praised by him.

He is even more upset. Looking at Orrin Sun, he couldn't help but complain, "Orrin, you are also the Patriarch of the Sun family worth hundreds of billions at any rate. If you really come to help, why don't you even bring a helper? Just your family of three, how can you help?"

Orrin said earnestly, "Corran, I originally wanted to bring up all the people in the Sun family, but that would add trouble for Charlie, so I won't be superfluous."

Corran curled his lips and said disdainfully, "Add trouble? The most fearful thing now is to add trouble! The Dragon Temple will be up at eight o'clock. I really don't know how such a small number of people deal with it."

Lord Wade glared at him and was thinking of reprimanding.

Stephen Thompson received the report on the walkie-talkie and ran to Charlie and said, "Young Master, the people at the foot of the mountain said that there are a few cars that insist on going up the mountain, and that they are yours."

Charlie nodded and said, "It is indeed my people, let them come up."

"Okay!" Stephen Thompson immediately picked up the walkie-talkie and said, "Let them go up!"

Everyone in the Wade family was a little surprised.

They didn't think that Charlie had even asked for help.

At this moment, Brenden whispered to Jon and others beside him, "I don't know what kind of help Charlie found!"

Jon sneered and said with a black face, "What kind of reliable help can he find?"

"I think it is just like that Don Albert and Isaac Cameron, just a few soiled buns from Aurous Hill!"

Chapter 3359

Soon, several off-road vehicles with Aurous Hill license plates drove up all the way from the bottom of the mountain.

Seeing all these cars with Aurous Hill license plates, Jon immediately sneered in front of a few people around him, "You see, what I said is right, that hanging wire from such a small place thinks that he can play any role, and it will kill us all."

The expressions of the few people around him were very agreeable, and they felt that no matter who Charlie got to help at this time, it would be nothing in front of the Dragon Temple.

Several off-road vehicles stopped, and in the passenger seat of the first car, immediately a young woman jumped out wearing a black training suit with a long ponytail tied high behind her head.

When the Wade family saw this woman, their eyes suddenly widened.

Because not only is this woman extremely beautiful and heroic, but they have also seen this woman!

Because this is the bodyguard who has been with Zayne Banks before, Xion Banks!

Moreover, everyone knows what Xion did in Japan some time ago.

Everyone knows better that she was arrested in Japan and finally betrayed by Elder Banks, and her whereabouts are completely unknown.

In Eastcliff at the time, this incident was a sensation. But how could they think that Xion Banks would actually appear on Wade Mountain!

Jon was stunned and said, "Xi...Xion Banks is still alive?! Besides, what happened? Did she come to help Charlie?"

Charlie didn't even think that Xion would come over.

He originally thought that the one who came should be her grandfather, Wilfred Elms and other members of the Elms family, with Zayne and Calum.

But he never expected that Xion was also here.

When Xion saw Charlie, she immediately walked a few steps and came to Charlie, clasping her fist in both hands and said, "Young Master Wade, Xion is here to wait for your dispatch!"

Charlie sighed and said, "Why did you come here today? If you leak your whereabouts, it will cause a lot of trouble."

Xion said indifferently, "I don't care about this! My life was saved by Young Master Wade. At this time, I will naturally come to help Young Master Wade!"

Charlie nodded lightly and said lightly, "After the Dragon Temple matter is resolved, I will tell everyone who sees you today that if anyone dares to leak your whereabouts, I will never forgive him."

At this time, Kairi Elms, Wilfred Elms and others also got out of the car.

The Wade family members were shocked when they saw Wilfred Elms.

"Master Elms?!" Lord Wade exclaimed, and said, "How could you..."

The Elms family was originally a martial arts family under the Banks family, so Lord Wade naturally knew Wilfred Elms.

Some time ago, everyone knew the news about the Elms family and the Banks family, because of Xion Banks's affairs, some conflicts occurred, and then the Elms family completely broke with the Banks family.

Immediately afterwards, there was a message from the martial arts field that Wilfred Elms officially broke into a four-star martial artist, which really caused little shock in the country.

Many people wanted to recruit the Elms family, but Wilfred Elms left Northeast City and his whereabouts are unknown.

Lord Wade didn't even think that Wilfred Elms would actually appear here.

Wilfred Elms hugged his fist at Lord Wade and said, "Greetings Mr. Wade, I came here today to listen to Young Master Wade's dispatch!"

When the Wade family heard this, their eyebrows were instantly overjoyed.

Although they knew that Wilfred Elms and the Elms family could not be opponents of the Dragon Temple, at least the Elms family were martial arts masters, which could bring them a certain sense of security.

Chapter 3360

In addition, the Wade family was also a little puzzled, how could Wilfred Elms, originally from the Banks family, be in service of Charlie?

Charlie and the Banks family are too far apart, right?

At this time, Wilfred Elms had already walked up to Charlie and said respectfully, "Young Master Wade, the old man does not humiliate his mission and has done everything you ordered!"

Charlie nodded slightly and asked him, "Where are the two people now?"

Wilfred said immediately, "They are in the car behind! I have blocked their mouths and also covered their heads with a black cloth bag."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and said, "Thank you, Mr. Elms, arrange for someone to take them out and take them to the tomb of my parents first, and let them kneel down respectfully."

After speaking, Charlie asked again, "In addition, don't open the black cloth bag on their heads yet, I want to save this suspense until the last moment!"

"Yes!" Wilfred replied respectfully, and immediately arranged for several Elms family members to take Zayne and Calum from an SUV behind them.

When the Wade family saw the two men with black cloth bags on their heads brought out of the car by the Elms family, they were all surprised.

They didn't know the identities of these two people, or why Charlie brought two prisoners to Wade Mountain at this time.

As a result, they looked at each other one by one, not knowing what the origins of these two men came from, let alone what kind of medicine Charlie had given to all of these people!

.....

At the same time, Jasmine Moore, Lord Moore, and the subordinates brought by the Moore family have joined Yuhiko Ito, and Nanako Ito.

Nearly a hundred people under the Moore Family, most of them were ordinary warriors with weaker strength, and some were not even warriors.

But the strength of the Ito family is obviously extraordinary.

More than one hundred people they brought were all masters of the top four ninja families in Japan.

Since the fight in Tokyo Brawl, the Takahashi family and the Matsumoto family have fallen, and the four major ninja families have all been loyal to the Ito family.

It's just that these ninjas still don't know what they are going to face today.

Jasmine asked Nanako at this time, "Sister Nanako, shall we call Master Wade?"

Nanako thought for a while and said seriously, "No need, Jasmine, I'm afraid Charlie's character will refuse our help, so we'd better go directly to Wade Mountain!"

Then she asked Jasmine, "Jasmine, when will the bus arrive?"

Jasmine said, "I made an appointment with them yesterday. It will arrive at 6:20. I don't know why they haven't come yet. I'll call and ask."

After speaking, she hurriedly took out her phone and called, and said, "I am Ms. Moore who ordered your eight buses. May I ask why your bus is still not coming?"

The other party said embarrassingly on the phone, "I also just heard about the Dragon Temple and Wade family's affair, so I definitely can't drive to Wade Mountain today! I'm really sorry. I'll return the payment to you."

Jasmine suddenly became angry, and blurted out, "How can you do business like this? Do you have regard for honest business?"

The other party was not angry, and smiled and said, "We can't be blamed for this. Eastcliff's car rental company dare not rent a car to Wade Mountain at this time."

Jasmine said, "Then, you can drive us to a distance of one kilometer away from Wade Mountain, right?"

The other party was unmoved and said, "Sorry, we don't want to cause such trouble. Please forgive me."

Jasmine was very angry.

The two hundred people from the Moore family and the Ito family are now eagerly waiting for the departure.

If the car problem cannot be solved, the day lilies will be cold when they walk over.

In desperation, Jasmine said immediately, "In this way, I will not force you. You ask the driver to bring the car to me. I will arrange for someone to drive there. I will rent the car for as much as the buying price and you don't need to go to Wade Mountain. After today, these cars will still be yours!"

The other party exclaimed, "Eight cars are nearly five million, are you kidding me?"

Jasmine blurted out, "I'm not that boring! As long as you agree, I will transfer two million to you now, and I will transfer the remaining three million to you when the car arrives!"

"Okay, okay!" As soon as the other party heard this, he almost agreed without thinking.

Anyway, these cars have been driving for a few years, and the residual value is not even half of the original price.

And even if Dragon Temple came to the door, the car rental company would have a reasonable excuse, after all, they just let the car rented, and it has nothing to do with where the guest drives.

Twenty minutes later, eight tourist buses finally arrived, so the two families shared eight buses and headed to Wade Mountain in a mighty manner!

Chapter 3361

At exactly seven o'clock.

Wesley and all the soldiers of the Dragon Temple have put on white filial attire made of burlap.

This funeral procession of more than a hundred people is ready to set off.

Lord Banks, who was drunk last night, also got up early and hurried to the grave of the Drake family.

According to the original plan, he was going to Wade Mountain with the funeral procession of Wesley.

Today, Lord Banks is already excited and intolerable deep in his heart.

As soon as he arrived at the ancestral tomb of the Drake family, he found Wesley dressed in white filial attire, and sighed, "Wesley! All of the big families in Eastcliff didn't expect what you did yesterday! You have been away for twenty years, and now you returned like a king! If you step on the Wade family today, all the big families in Eastcliff will respect you in the future!"

Wesley said with an indifferent expression, "It's already time to set off. I'll let someone prepare a filial attire for you. Hurry up and change in and follow to set off!"

Lord Banks smiled a little embarrassedly, "Wesley, you see I am a lot older, much older than your parents, is it inappropriate to wear filial piety..."

Wesley said coldly, "I want you to wear it for my parents' funeral today, everyone in my Dragon Temple wears sackcloth and filial piety. If you don't wear it, you can forget joining the procession!"

Lord Banks really didn't think that Wesley would be unkind when talking to him. Although he was suffocated with fire in his heart, he definitely did not dare to leave at this time. Wesley's solution to the Wade family was just one less competitor for the Banks family.

But if he wants the Banks family to reach a higher level in the future, he must have a good relationship with Wesley.

After all, with the powerful background of Dragon Temple, he can sit back and relax.

Especially the mysterious master hidden in Aurous Hill, who has always been Lord Banks's thorn. He knew that it was impossible to solve it by himself, and the only way was to put his hope in Wesley.

So, he immediately said flatteringly, "Wesley, you are right, after all, it is your parent's funeral, so I should put on sackcloth and filial piety."

After saying this, Lord Banks himself felt a burst of heat on his face.

He has never kneeled and bowed to anyone like this in his entire life.

Seeing that he agrees to put on the clothes, Wesley nodded in satisfaction and said, "I'll give you two minutes to change into your filial piety. We are going to set off now!"

"Okay!" Lord Banks took the clothes handed over by Wesley's men, and while putting on himself, he said to Wesley, "Wesley, after solving the Wade family, you must remember, you have to think about your Uncle Zayne."

Chapter 3362

"It's been too long since your Uncle's disappearance, and I'm afraid he will be ill-fated."

Wesley said with a solemn expression, "Uncle Zayne is the great benefactor of my Drake family. I will naturally do everything possible to rescue him safely. At the same time, I will also find out who is behind the scenes and help Uncle Zayne solve all the troubles!"

Having said that, Wesley said again, "Today, after my parents are buried at Wade Mountain, I will go to the Middle East first to solve the problem there, but I will leave Apollo Wainwright and let him take someone to Aurous Hill to investigate first. After I have settled the Middle East issues, I will come back immediately and find Uncle Zayne by myself!"

Lord Banks finally let go and said happily, "Oh, that's really great!"

As he spoke, he had already put on the filial piety attire.

At this time, Wesley's funeral team had assembled.

Holding the brazier for burning paper for his parents, he came to the forefront of the team, staring at the direction of Wade Mountain and was silent for a long time.

Apollo stepped forward and whispered in his ear, "My Lord, it is time!"

"Okay!" Wesley yelled and said loudly, "All the soldiers of the Dragon Temple follow the orders!"

More than a hundred people immediately shouted in unison, "Please give us the order, our Lord!"

Wesley shouted, "Today, you follow me to avenge my parents."

The crowd also shouted in unison, "We will follow you and avenge your parents, our Lord!"

Wesley immediately said loudly, "Everyone, let's go!!!"

After that, he slammed the brazier in his hand to the ground with a bang, and black and gray ash puffed everywhere.

Immediately afterwards, eight five-star generals in the Dragon Temple, who were dressed in linen and filial piety, lifted two coffins.

And more than one hundred masters of the Dragon Temple, amidst the beating of the braziers, with a solemn expression, stepped neatly toward Wade Mountain!

.....

At this moment, at Wade Mountain.

The Wade family stared at the hands on their respective watches.

The time left for them is already less than an hour.

Corran became more anxious, his eyes always secretly looking at the pile of filial clothes not far away for the ancestor worship ceremony.

Last night, he let his son sneak out and buy the filial clothes and hid it.

If the situation is not right later, he will quickly go over and put it on.

At this moment, Bruce Wade's old ministry at the foot of Wade Mountain sent another message, saying, "The Banks family's wife and eldest lady are here and ask to go to the mountain to see the young master!"

The Wade family couldn't help being a little surprised.

They couldn't understand why Deana Thorne and Zara Banks came back here.

Charlie didn't even think that the mother and daughter were here, so he said, "Let them come up."

Bruce Wade's old ministry received the order and immediately let them in.

Soon, Zara Banks drove her mother all the way up the mountain.

After the car stopped steadily, she immediately got out of the car, came to Charlie, and said respectfully, "Benefactor!"

Charlie asked in surprise, "Why are you here?"

Zara hurriedly said, "I heard that you are in trouble, so my mom and I rushed over to help."

Deana also walked up to Charlie at this time and respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, I had some connections with Kevin Drake and Wesley back then. Later, when he comes, I should be able to say a few words and I hope it can be of some help to you."

Deana's remarks greatly relieved many Wade family members.

Because they all knew that Kevin Drake only got up little by little with the help of Zayne Banks.

Therefore, the Drake family has always respected Zayne Banks.

Deana and Zayne are not yet officially divorced, so she is still the eldest wife of the Banks family.

When Wesley came up, if Deana came out to intercede, he would definitely give Deana some face.

Lord Wade couldn't help sighing at this moment, "Deana! You have worked so hard to make a special trip for the Wade family!"

Deana Thorne said seriously, "Uncle Wade, both Zara and I were saved by Mr. Wade. Naturally, we must do our best to help at this time."

The other Wade family members were a little puzzled, wondering that Charlie had even rescued Deana and Zara.

But think about it carefully. Some time ago, Deana and Zara had an accident in Aurous Hill.

And Charlie has been developing in Aurous Hill, and he is regarded as a master of Aurous Hill.

Therefore, it is reasonable that he might save the mother and daughter in Aurous Hill.

Just as the Wade family members were relieved, Charlie shook his head helplessly, and said to Deana, "Aunt Deana, I understand your kindness, but after Wesley comes, I don't need you to help me. Please, as long as you don't intercede to him for me, I would be very grateful!"

Chapter 3363

Everyone dropped their jaws when they heard Charlie's words.

People kindly came to help Charlie to intercede with Wesley, but Charlie even uttered wild words.

Isn't this a self-defeating way?

Jon almost hated Charlie, and cursed in his heart, "This Charlie really does pretend to be forced and wants to die! Deana Thorne came to help, and yet you are still pretending to be forced? Why? Are you really going to fight Wesley's sh*t? Deana is here to help you intercede, but you are telling people not to intercede with Wesley. You are really a d*mn mudslide!"

Not to mention Jon, even Lord Wade felt that Charlie was a little bit overwhelmed.

He couldn't help sighing inwardly, "Mrs. Banks' family came here personally and prepared to brush her face to intercede for you. Why can't you give a positive response? Not only are you not thankful, but you are still holding the air here. When I get angry, I will shake my hand and leave, and there are no tears to cry!"

Brenden was about to collapse too, and whispered to his father William, "Dad! Charlie, this guy is really an idiot... The Dragon Temple is on their way here, and Deana Thorne is here to help. Even if he said "no need", it would be enough to pretend to be coercive, but in the end he could still say something like this... In this world, for a normal person, he couldn't think of such a coercive method. D*mn it..."

William said with a black face, "God sh*t, isn't this just exasperating?"

Behind William, there was a young man who was only fourteen or fifteen years old.

He was Brenden's own younger brother, named Jasper Wade. He was stunned at this time and said, "This...this is clearly like my classmates. It is often said, 'The king of the kings', even if you die, you have to pretend to be powerful until the last second. It's really amazing!"

William slapped him directly on the forehead and cursed, "Every day, people go to school like a dog, what the f*ck are you studying!"

Jasper clutched his head, not daring to answer.

At this time, the other Wade family members also felt that Charlie was a little brazen, and even feared that Deana would be angry and leave.

But when Deana heard this, not only was she not angry, but she really felt relieved.

She and Zara both knew that Charlie was very powerful, but neither of them knew whether Charlie could beat Wesley and Dragon Temple.

But now that they see Charlie so confident, they all believe that this is not Charlie's arrogance, but that Charlie does have full confidence.

Charlie did not deliberately reject Deana's kindness, nor did he deliberately make Deana uncomfortable. He said this because he was really afraid that Deana would turn her head and intercede to Wesley. After all, Wesley is the only son of Zayne Banks' old friend, Kevin Drake.

Chapter 3364

If he really wants to kill Wesley here, who knows if Deana will sympathize with him and immediately intercede for him? If she really pleads, the nature of this matter will change completely. She originally came to help Charlie, but after she came, she might start to help Charlie's opponent. Wouldn't it be embarrassing then?

Therefore, Charlie felt that he had to speak first, as long as she didn't intercede for anyone for a while.

When Deana heard this, she immediately understood that Charlie didn't put Wesley in his eyes at all, but she came to intercede for him, which really looked down upon him. So Deana hurriedly said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, I didn't think about it well."

Charlie hurriedly said, "Aunt Deana, I don't mean anything else, I just hope that you can understand."

Deana nodded, "Okay, Mr. Wade, I see!"

Corran hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Deana! Charlie is young and energetic. At this time, he is unwilling to bow his head and be soft. Let's say a few good things!"

Corran's words can be regarded as expressing the common aspirations of other Wade family members.

Deana only smiled faintly when she heard it, and said, "Corran, you should have a little more trust in Mr. Wade. Since he has said so, I believe he is absolutely sure."

Corran sighed grimly, "He lacks understanding of Dragon Temple, otherwise it would be absolutely impossible to say such a thing!"

Charlie didn't speak, but looked at the mountain intently.

At this time, the mist gradually dissipated, and the scenery around Wade Mountain gradually emerged.

I have to say that this place is indeed a rare Feng shui treasure.

Looking at the whole country, it is almost rare to achieve this kind of Feng shui overall situation.

This is the Feng shui Array built by Mr. Orion Exeor for several years, and it is also this Feng shui Array that broke the situation of Dragon Shoal for Charlie.

Now, he's here setting foot on the next new height of life. To destroy the Dragon Temple and become the head of the Wade Family.

At this moment, eight buses suddenly drove down the mountain.

When the Wade family saw these eight buses, they suddenly became nervous.

Jon's voice was a little trembling, and he blurted out, "The Dragon Temple is here! The Dragon Temple is here!"

The other Wade family members also looked shocked.

Eight cars indicate that at least two hundred people have arrived.

This...what is the Wade Family's ability to bear this?

Lord Wade couldn't hide his nervousness and asked Charlie at this moment, "Charlie....there are so many people in Dragon Temple, are you really sure?"

Charlie couldn't help frowning at this time, and said, "If they are from Dragon Temple, why don't you see the coffin of Wesley's parents?"

"This..." Lord Wade said awkwardly, "It's not the time to care about these little details!"

Charlie shook his head and said, "This is not a small detail, it is very important to me. Wesley threatened to pick up my parents' graves and thwart my parents. For what he said, I also want to let him feel what it means to dig his own grave!"

Lord Wade was embarrassed.

Hearing what Charlie said, Charlie wanted to put Wesley's parents down?

Just as the Wade family members were extremely dissatisfied with Charlie's attitude, Bruce Wade's old ministry sent a message to Stephen Thompson through the intercom, "Mr. Stephen, it's not Dragon Temple. They said they were friends of Young Master Wade and came here to help the Young Master. They are the Moore family in Aurous Hill and the Ito family in Japan!"

Charlie was stunned for an instant. He really didn't think that the Moore family and Ito family would also rush over. After all, his identity has never been made public in front of these people, how did they know?

Surprisingly, Charlie also knew that since they had already arrived, he couldn't hide his identity as the Wade family's Young Master, so he told Stephen Thompson, "Mr. Stephen, these are indeed my friends, let them go up the mountain."

When the Wade family heard this, they immediately exploded!

Corran couldn't help widening his eyes, "What?! The people in the big cars below are here to help?"

William also wondered, "What does the Aurous Hill Moore family do? In addition, how come there is also the Ito family from Japan? Are they really the Ito family?! They are now the first family in Japan!"

Brenden was also stunned, and blurted out, "The current head of the Ito family, isn't it Nanako Ito?!"

Jasper said excitedly at this time, "Brother! Nanako Ito is recognized as the number one beauty in Asia by the male classmates in our class!"

Brenden glanced at him and said, "Not only in your class, many people, including me! Can you find a woman in Asia who is more beautiful than Nanako Ito?"

Jasper quietly pointed to Stefanie, Xion, and Zara Banks, and whispered, "Those three sisters are all top beauties. Although I can't say that they are more beautiful than Nanako Ito, I think it's close, not bad!"

"Damn..." Brenden couldn't help but quietly glanced at the three stunning beauties next to Charlie, feeling how uncomfortable he is in his heart.

So, he subconsciously pulled Jon and whispered, "Brother Jon, this is such a d*mn nonsense! Why is Charlie surrounded by such beautiful women?! Something happened to the Wade family, so all of them came to help. They're all beauties, and they all f*cking rushed to help him..."

Jon was also looking at the three indispensable women.

Hearing this, he was jealous to death, and subconsciously said, "I don't even want to understand it... It's really a good thing to throw away, people are better than others. It seems that in this society, it's no longer enough to have money. The more d*mn people who love to brag, the better for women!"

After speaking, Jon just remembered that he was slapped by Brenden, and the two of them even tore it.

So when he saw Brenden's face, he became angry in his heart and scolded in annoyance, "Silly idiot! Don't f*ck!ng talk to me! Stay away!"

Chapter 3365

Brenden didn't expect that Jon would suddenly insult himself, and said angrily, "D*mn, are you sick? You catch someone and bite like a mad dog!"

"I'm so f*cking upset!" Jon said coldly, "Brenden, wait for me. If this matter can go through today, I won't spare you! Don't forget, I'm the f*cking eldest grandson of the Wade family. Even if the Wade family kneels down and the assets have shrunk by half, I am still the eldest grandson."

"You are still separated from me by Charlie, are you a fart?" Brenden wanted to refute, but after thinking about it, he felt that what Jon said made sense, so he involuntarily shrank his neck.

At this time, eight buses also drove up to the mountain.

Fortunately, when Wade Mountain was built, a huge open platform was built halfway up the mountain, and it was more than enough to park these eight buses.

After the buses stopped, the first to walk down was Lord Moore from the Moore family. Then, Jasmine Moore in a black dress.

Jasmine Moore's appearance once again surprised everyone.

Many of them know Nanako Ito, after all, she has played domestically before, on TV, and made a big hit in Japan.

However, for Jasmine, these Wade family members hardly know anything.

No one thought that a woman from a small place in Aurous Hill could be so beautiful, with such an outstanding temperament it was incomprehensible.

Immediately after getting off the bus, several servants of the Ito family came down.

The first two passengers each held a folding wheelchair, and immediately opened the wheelchair after getting off the bus.

Afterwards, several people helped Yuhiko Ito and Hiroshi Tanaka, who had lost their legs, get out of the bus and placed them on the wheelchair carefully.

When the two of them sat down in the wheelchair, a beautiful shadow walked out of the car.

Wearing a black kimono with a white cherry blossom pattern and long hair wrapped around her head, this woman is not only gentle and moving, but her facial features are impeccably refined.

Her appearance made everyone on the scene look a little confused.

She is the Japanese recognized as Nanako Ito, the current head of the Ito family, Nanako Ito!

The appearance of Nanako Ito shocked everyone in an instant.

Jon's eyes straightened.

He had seen photos of Nanako Ito in news reports, but he had no idea that this Japanese woman was so beautiful, much more beautiful than the photos and videos!

The beauty and temperament that he saw with his own eyes was like a fairy walking out of the painting, which made him feel a strong sense of unreality.

Brenden was also dumbfounded, the envy, jealousy and hatred deep in his heart could no longer be described in words.

At this time, there were more than two hundred people in the buses behind them, many of whom had a firm complexion and a healthy body. This made the Wade family even more relieved.

It is said that there are only more than hundreds of masters in the Dragon Temple in Eastcliff.

Now, there are more than two hundred people who came to help Charlie one after another, and at least they have a little support in the battle.

What's more, there is also Deana, Zayne Banks' wife, who will be able to get the other side open from the level of human relations.

In this way, the chances of getting through this catastrophe are higher.

At this time, Lord Moore and the father and daughter of the Ito family came to Charlie together.

Chapter 3366

Lord Moore first spoke, "Master Wade! I heard that you are having some troubles, and I came to join the Ito family to make a meager effort for you!"

Yuhiko Ito also opened his mouth and said, "Mr. Wade! All more than one hundred top ninjas from the four major ninja families in Japan are here. No matter what the other side is, they will fight with all their strength!"

Yuhiko Ito has not dared to mention the words 'Dragon Temple' so far, because he is afraid that after these ninjas knew it, their combat effectiveness will be affected.

As soon as he said this, the Wade family was shocked and excited!

To their shock, they didn't think that Yuhiko Ito of the Ito family, who had both broken his legs, could run to China to help Charlie!

More importantly, he also brought the top ninjas in Japan.

They have heard of the strength of Japanese ninjas, and they are basically similar to those of domestic martial arts.

Although they didn't know that the real strength of these Japanese ninjas might be equal to a few star warriors, one thing is certain is that each of these ninjas can be regarded as a martial artist.

The strength of more than a hundred ninjas, even if they are not as good as the Dragon Temple, they are definitely not to be underestimated.

Maybe they can really beat them.

Besides, isn't there anyone else in this family who can?

Moreover, there is also Xion Banks, a master who has been missing for a long time. She can destroy the Matsumoto family in Japan, and she is definitely not weak if you think about it.

Coupled with the nearly one hundred people from the Aurous Hill Moore family, this strength is also incredible.

At this time, Nanako Ito looked at Charlie, with affectionate eyes and calm tone, even with a sense of homecoming, and said, "Charlie! Nanako is also ready to fight with all my strength! No matter who is looking for trouble for you today! We will never agree!"

Jon was almost uncomfortable seeing this, and he secretly cursed, "What the hell did you see in Charlie! Why is Charlie awesome?! Even the Japanese celebrity Nanako Ito, the top beauty and Japan's national treasure, is full of love for Charlie! Is this a f*cking joke?!"

Brenden also collapsed, crying in his heart, "D*mn! I've grown up so much, and I haven't seen so many top beauties at one time, but so many beauties seem to like Charlie when they look like that! Why! Why can't I have so many beauties too?"

The rest of the Wade family were also shocked by Nanako Ito's attitude.

But what shocked them most was actually Charlie's unbelievable network.

Originally, they thought that Charlie just took the Emgrand Group and 10 billion in cash from the old man. After all, Charlie is just a hanging wire in the hearts of most of them.

But who would have thought that when the Wade family suffered such a disaster, and even their collateral branches ran away, many people would come to Wade Mountain to help Charlie!

Among them, not only the Aurous Hill local family, but also the well-known Elms family in the martial arts field, the Sun family of trillions of wealth, and even the eldest wife and eldest lady of the Banks family came.

Not only that, but the most unbelievable is that even the Ito family in Japan came with many people.

Looking at the Wade family, not only the relatives are gone, but even a friend is not here.

In front of Charlie's rubbish contacts, they can't even count as a fart!

Lord Wade really didn't think that Charlie could manage such a strong relationship, and that so many people would be willing to risk their lives to help him. This made Lord Wade not only shocked, but also a little ashamed. He is ashamed that he has been making good friends for so many years, but no one can come to help him at the critical moment. Compared with Charlie, his popularity is extremely bad!

At this moment, Charlie's heart was indeed very moved.

While moved, he also reluctantly said to Nanako, Jasmine and others, "Everyone, it's just a small matter. I didn't want to disturb everyone. I thought it would be hard for you to come all the way, I'm really sorry."

Jasmine hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, we receive a lot of favor from you, how can we stand by and watch this situation..."

Charlie couldn't help asking, "How did you guess my identity? Whose credit is it?"

Jasmine stuck out her tongue and pointed at Nanako and said, "Nanako guessed it, but it was originally a guess. After it was confirmed by other things, we hurried over."

Charlie suddenly came back to his senses and blurted out, "It was the call yesterday that helped you confirm it? I seemed to tell you on the phone that I was in Eastcliff to show others Feng Shui."

Jasmine said awkwardly, "Yes...Master Wade, don't be angry. I didn't mean to test you. I was just too curious about your identity, so I just..."

Nanako was ashamed and said hurriedly, "Charlie, please don't blame Jasmine. All this is my idea. I instructed Jasmine to do this..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said seriously, "Why? You all came so far because of me, so how can I blame you."

Nanako breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly asked, "Charlie, are you sure about today's affairs?"

Charlie nodded and smiled, and said, "Of course, I never fight a battle that is unsure."

With that said, Charlie looked at the Japanese ninjas and Moore family's subordinates standing neatly in a few rows not far behind, and said, "Nanako, don't take any action with the ninjas. Jasmine, it's the same with your men! Just let them watch silently behind me."

Jasmine couldn't help saying, "Master Wade...you...what are you going to do...?"

Charlie smiled faintly, "If I have to find a helper even to deal with a Dragon Temple, then do I still have such a face for you to call me Master Wade?"

At this time, the Wade family didn't know what to say.

Jon, Brenden, and others were not even urged to sigh inwardly.

What do you say? They felt that Charlie had already installed everything that could be installed in this world.

What is a Dragon Temple...

In that tone, it was as if Dragon Temple was not a top mercenary organization, but a three-year-old child.

Lord Wade also had a numb scalp.

He was really afraid that the helpers that Charlie found would not help out one by one.

So, a heart that had just relaxed, became extremely worried again...

It's already seven forty in the morning.

On the road at the foot of the mountain that can only lead to Wade Mountain, a funeral procession can already be seen.

There are about a hundred people in this procession, each wearing white filial attire, and the eight leading people are carrying two coffins, and they are rushing towards Wade Mountain!

When Charlie saw this scene, the corners of his mouth rose slightly.

"Wesley, Wesley, you are finally here!"

Chapter 3367

This funeral procession of hundreds of people moved very fast.

Even if someone in front of the team is carrying two coffins, the speed of marching is no different from that of a rapid march.

And this procession was wearing the same tactical leather boots, and when walking fast on the concrete floor, they made uniform footsteps, resounding throughout the valley.

In the procession, there is an old man who is walking fast at this time, but already exhausted and panting.

The young people around him didn't give him a chance to stop and take a breath. Instead, they kept urging him to continue walking fast. Some people even pushed him when he was about to fall behind, or roughly pulled the hemp rope on his filial piety clothes to force him to go forward.

This old man is Lord Banks.

At this time, at the top of Wade Mountain.

Charlie and the others had already seen the constantly approaching procession.

In the morning sun, everyone can see the two eye-catching black coffins, so everyone knows very well that this group of people must be the Dragon Temple.

The Wade family suddenly felt like a big enemy was on the way to kill, all of them fidgeting nervously.

Charlie looked at the funeral procession at the foot of the mountain from a distance, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth.

At this moment, Charlie secretly sighed in his heart, "Wesley, you are finally here! Not only that I'm waiting for you in a hurry, your general Calum, and your benefactor Zayne Banks, is also waiting for you!"

At this point, Charlie said to Stephen Thompson, "Mr. Stephen, give my order to let the Dragon Temple make its way up the mountain!"

"Yes!" Stephen Thompson immediately notified Bruce Wade's old ministry and told them to clear the way.

Although these people were upset at the Dragon Temple, because it was Charlie's order, everyone could only follow suit.

As a result, they moved to both sides and gave way to the mountain.

Wesley strode forward. When passing by these people, he just glanced at them and saw that they were not obstructed, so he didn't look at them again, and walked forward halfway up the mountain!

The road up the mountain was part of the foundation project of Wade Mountain which the Wade family invested heavily in construction.

The whole road is wide and flat, and even the supercar with the lowest chassis can be easily driven up it.

Therefore, the people of Dragon Temple walking up the mountain are even more flat.

It's seven fifty-five in the morning.

Wesley led the soldiers of the Dragon Temple, violently passed the last corner, and walked directly toward the white marble archway of the ancestral graves!

This group of well-trained masters of the Dragon Temple are full of murderous aura, marching, like a guard of honor, every step is neat and powerful, and the closer they get, the more shocking it felt.

At this moment, when Wesley saw two or three hundred people from the Wade family gathered here, there was actually no one wearing hemp and filial piety, and he was furious, his eyes were full of murderous intent.

Apollo Wainwright, who was next to him, also saw that no one in the Wade family was wearing hemp or filial piety, and said angrily, "My Lord, you have given the Wade family a chance to survive. It seems that they don't want it!"

Wesley sneered, "It's okay, since they don't want to give respect, then they will have to give up the Wade family's ancestral grave first, and leave Bruce Wade's bones. Then I will bury my parents in a great burial and kill the Wade family one by one!"

Lord Banks was about to run and break his leg at this time, and said out of breath, "Wesley...the Wade family...they would rather die than surrender..."

Wesley said disdainfully, "If this is the case, then they are all going to die!"

After that, he took the lead and walked towards the archway of the ancestral graves, and Charlie also walked under the archway at this time.

Except for Lord Wade and Charlie's Auntie, Ciara Wade, everyone else in the Wade family didn't dare to go too far, and each of them tried to back up as much as possible.

However, the people who rushed to help Charlie stood beside Charlie one by one, and even the few girls were not half scared.

Zara Banks recognized that in the opponent's camp, the old man wearing filthy filial piety was her grandfather Lord Banks, and suddenly asked in surprise, "Grandpa, you...you are..."

Lord Banks never dreamed that his granddaughter was here!

Chapter 3368

Looking down at the filial attire he was wearing, he only felt that his old face was hot for a while, and he wished to fall through a crack in the ground.

When he was embarrassed, he suddenly saw Deana Thorne next to Zara Banks. Seeing Deana was a surprise, and at the same time, with a bit of contempt, his face became even hotter.

Lord Banks just wanted to avoid Deana's eyes, but found another figure in the crowd that shocked him!

It was actually his other granddaughter, Zayne Banks's illegitimate daughter, Xion!

At this moment, Lord Banks's heart was shocked, "Xion is still alive... Why is her mother here too?! There is Wilfred Elms! Damn, why did the Elms family come to help the Wade family?!"

Lord Banks's heart was a little hot, and then he thought about it, he secretly thought in his heart, "What about his family? They are not the opponents of the Dragon Temple at all!"

Lord Wade was very annoyed when he saw Lord Banks at this moment, and couldn't help but say, "Oh, it turns out that it is Brother Banks! Is it possible that you are so old and couldn't recognize your brother?"

Lord Banks's face was hot, and he blurted out, "Brother Wade, you still care about yourself! After today, your Wade family will only have a dead end! So hurry up and put on filial piety, kneel down and beg for mercy, and know that your ancestral grave will be stripped from you!"

Lord Wade sternly said, "Brother Banks, you old dog! The mouth is buried in the brow bones, and you even put a piece of hemp and filial piety on! What a shame! I, Lord Wade, will not be like an old dog like you, for the benefit of outsiders. Wagging to beg for mercy!"

Lord Banks was anxious and frustrated, "Your Wade family had a chance, but since you didn't take it seriously, then don't blame me if your Wade family perishes!"

At this time, Wesley stepped to a stop three meters in front of Charlie.

He looked at Charlie and the others in front of him, gritted his teeth and said coldly, "Wade family, I already gave you a message yesterday. If you want to survive, you will put on a linen and wear filial piety today and kneel to welcome my parents' coffin. But none of you did it! It seems that you are not afraid to die!"

Charlie smiled faintly at this time, "I don't know if others are afraid of death, I only know, I am not afraid!"

Most of the Wade family members were nervous to die, and Corran even whispered to Jon, "Quick! Go quietly and get the filial clothes!"

Jon nodded hurriedly, walked backwards, took out two sets of linen filial piety from a pile of ancestor worship items, and then immediately carried it into his arms like a thief.

What surprised him was that Brenden also took out a few sets of filial piety from a tin box containing incense, and held them in his arms like a pregnant woman.

The two looked at each other, they both saw the surprise in each other's eyes and guessed the other's intentions, and then both of them didn't care, and turned their heads and sneaked into the crowd.

Immediately afterwards, Corran and William's family had a set of filial attire, and they all carried the filial attire in their arms one after another. When the situation goes wrong, they will immediately surrender.

Charlie didn't answer Wesley's words, he just looked up and down Wesley, assessing this person's overall strength.

This was the first time he saw Wesley.

I have to say that this person is really murderous. Moreover, his cultivation is very solid, and all the Chi meridians and eight meridians have been opened up. In the martial arts field, Wesley is indeed the strongest one Charlie has seen so far.

However, in Charlie's eyes, even an eight-star martial artist like Wesley was still scum.

There is no reiki, and only relying on internal force, even if all eight meridians are opened up, and all of them reach the realm of 100% perfection, it still can't escape the category of mortal bones.

According to the records of the "Apocalyptic Book", martial arts is actually just a small introductory stage of ancient Chinese martial arts.

The ancient martial arts of China is an extremely profound cultivation method, which contains a lot of realms. And even if Wesley were all 100% perfect in the Eight Meridians, they still belonged only to the first realm.

Only by breaking through another big realm can you enter the dark realm.

But behind the Dark Realm, there are the Transformation Realm and the Grand Master Realm.

Therefore, Wesley is just the one with the best academic performance in the kindergarten class.

But if you go to the first grade of elementary school to get a person out, you can crush him in all directions.

Not to mention that there are junior high schools, high schools and even college level in the back.

At this moment, Wesley found that Charlie was looking at himself, and couldn't help but look at Charlie.

He saw that Charlie was just a weak scholar, and he didn't seem to have any cultivation skills. He couldn't help being a little surprised, "I don't have the slightest murderous aura at this moment. Even ordinary warriors dare not look at my cultivation base, why are you so courageous? Is this a newborn calf who is not afraid of tigers?"

Immediately, he looked at the people around Charlie and found that there were many martial artists, and many others who were six or seven points similar to martial artists, and at the same time had three or four points different.

As a result, he wiped a smile at the corner of his mouth, and said coldly, "I was curious why the Wade family is so stubborn. It turned out that you already found a helper, I didn't expect that there would be a four-star warrior and if I am not mistaken, there should also be Japanese ninjas?!"

As soon as Wesley said this, the expressions of Wilfred Elms and Nanako Ito changed slightly.

Wilfred Elms thought that the other party could see his cultivation level at a glance!

And Nanako Ito didn't even think that Wesley could tell with his eyes that they were ninjas!

Moreover, it can be seen that among them, there are two top-notch masters.

This shows that Wesley's strength is not a little bit stronger than them.

However, Charlie smiled slightly at this time, and said calmly, "I'm sorry, you guessed wrong, to deal with your three-legged cat Kung Fu rubbish, there is really no need to ask for help. I invited them all to come here to witness how I deal with you in front of a large audience!"

Chapter 3369

No one on the scene expected that Charlie would not be afraid of seeing Wesley.

The few people in the Wade family who were wearing filial piety scolded in their hearts almost at the same time that Charlie simply didn't have enough to die.

Wesley is in front of him , and he dares to say such pretending words, he's f*cking pretentious....

Even Lord Wade was so frightened that his liver trembled, for fear that Charlie would annoy Wesley, and the opponent would kill him directly, then everything would be done.

Wesley was even more furious.

He really didn't expect that someone in the Wade family would dare to talk to him like this!

So he asked in a cold voice, "Boy! You are a bit arrogant, if you don't know how to write dead words, I can teach you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "No, I can write dead words, and I can engrave your head for free later."

After speaking, he asked loudly, "Where is Don Albert?"

Don Albert immediately raised his hand and said loudly, "Master Wade, I am here!"

Charlie didn't turn his head, smiled at Wesley and asked Don Albert, "Did you bring your knife?"

"I brought it!" Don Albert said loudly, "Master Wade, will I carve his head later?"

"Yes!" Charlie nodded and smiled, "You are still the best at carving!"

"Of course." Don Albert said with a smile, "Master Wade, I have also practiced this human calligraphy. We have experience!"

Wesley's face was already pale for a while.

He clenched his fists, wishing to rush to kill Charlie immediately.

Just when he almost couldn't control it, Apollo Wainwright on the side pointed at Charlie and cursed coldly, "Boy! It's you again! Yesterday you were the most arrogant! Now you even dare to yell at our Lord! You! You are so tired of living!"

He gritted his teeth and added, "I said yesterday that if I don't see you kneeling here today, I will be the first to kill you and take your life!"

As soon as Apollo Wainwright's voice fell, he was about to rush and attack Charlie.

However, at this time, Wesley suddenly gave him a hand, making him unable to move.

Immediately, Wesley stared at Charlie and said blankly, "Boy, I think you are familiar. Who are you from the Wade family? Who is your father?"

Charlie put away his smile and said coldly, "My name is Charlie Wade! My father is Bruce Wade!"

"What?" When Wesley heard Bruce Wade's name, he gritted his teeth and took a long breath!

Lord Banks on the side was also stunned!

He never dreamed that Bruce Wade's son who was missing for so many years was still alive, and had returned to Wade's house!

At this time, Wesley looked at Charlie with a grin, and blurted out with a bit of excitement, "I said you look so familiar! You really look like Bruce Wade!"

Having said that, he suddenly looked up to the sky and laughed, and said with a bit of madness, "Hahaha! I have been thinking and always thinking, Bruce Wade has been dead for so many years, how should I retaliate against him! The best method I can think of is to dig out his coffin and thwart him! But I didn't expect that his son was still alive!"

Immediately afterwards, Wesley put aside his smile, stared at Charlie as if looking at a dead person, and said coldly, "Today, in front of Bruce Wade's grave, I will cut off your head! I want him to see this scene. The souls of hell will never rest, and will never be transcended!"

Charlie was irritated by his words, but he didn't act immediately, but said lightly, "Remember, villains generally die from talking too much!"

Apollo couldn't stand it and blurted out, "Charlie, right? You f*cking don't cry without seeing the coffin! To deal with your trash, our Lord doesn't need to take the initiative, I'll kill you myself!"

Wesley shouted sternly, "You shut up! He is the son of my father's enemy. I have to kill him personally to relieve my hatred!"

Apollo Wainwright hurriedly said, "My Lord, I apologize for talking a lot, please punish me!"

Wesley paid no attention to him, but looked at Charlie and said coldly, "Don't say I won't give you a chance, in front of your parents and my parents, let's have a good match and see who is stronger!"

Wesley at this moment was anxious to kill Charlie on the spot in front of his parents' coffin and in front of Charlie's parents' mausoleum!

Because, only in this way is the best and most perfect way of revenge!

Only in this way can he tell his parents that their son is stronger than Bruce Wade's son!

Chapter 3370

Only in this way can the parents understand that they had won against Bruce Wade, by defeating Bruce Wade's son!

This means that his father finally beat Bruce Wade!

At the same time, it can also let Bruce Wade's spirit of the sky see clearly that what he won 20 years ago is nothing, 20 years later, he will even get back all the profits!

Facing Wesley's provocation, Charlie sneered, pointed to Apollo, and said calmly, "Let him come, I agreed with him first, because he said yesterday that he would kill me first today. You and I, I will deal with you after I finish him!"

Wesley said coldly, "What? Do you want to die under someone else's hands? I tell you, I won't let you do what you want!"

Charlie said contemptuously, "Should be less d*mned and affectionate, I just don't want to come up and bully you first, so I want to pick a softer person. You can watch by the side and wait until I finish cleaning him for you!"

"F*ck!" Wesley was furious!

He pointed to Charlie, gritted his teeth and cursed, "Charlie, you are really shrewd! I have killed countless people for so many years, and there is no one who is more mean than your mouth!"

The other soldiers of the Dragon Temple were almost mad.

They have followed Wesley for so many years, who in the outside world would not knelt down and begged for mercy when he heard the words of Wesley?

Charlie is the only one who cursed their Lord with blood, this is a d*mn shame!

As a result, a person in the Dragon Temple immediately stood up, handed over to Wesley, and said loudly, "My Lord! Please allow me to fight on your behalf and tear up this b*stard's mouth!"

Waiting for Wesley to speak, Charlie looked at him and cursed, "What are you? Get out of here! I said, I have to fulfill my promise with this fool!"

While speaking, Charlie's hand was already pointed at the White Tiger King Apollo Wainwright.

Apollo knew that the idiot in Charlie's mouth was talking about himself. At this moment he was really angry.

He looked at Wesley and said eagerly, "My Lord! Let me go, I will tear him up!"

Wesley glanced at Charlie with a gloomy expression at this time, and then said to Apollo Wainwright, "You can only tear his mouth, his life will be left to me!"

When Apollo heard this, he immediately nodded and said, "I will, my Lord!"

After that, he looked at Charlie, gritted his teeth and said, "Boy! Come on! See how I tear your mouth behind your ears!"

Charlie looked at him with disdain, then looked at Wesley again, and said coldly, "The surname Drake, since it is the spirit of the sky in front of you and my parents, we both make a rule, what do you think?"

Wesley looked at him and asked coldly, "What rules do you want to make?"

Charlie smiled and said, "The rules are very simple. I will fight this idiot for a while. No matter what kind of method I use to deal with him, neither you nor your soldiers can help, let alone run!"

Wesley sneered and said, "Charlie, Charlie, you are really interesting! Apollo is one of my four major kings of war, and his strength is a six-star warrior. Do you think you can win against him?"

Charlie listened, just smiled faintly, and said, "Four Kings of War, Six Star Warriors, it sounds quite bluffing."

As he said, Charlie asked with a playful smile, "But I heard that the most powerful one of your Four Great Wars is called Calum Edwards. Why didn't you bring him along with you when you came to China this time? Where is he now?"

Chapter 3371

Hearing that Charlie suddenly mentioned Calum, Wesley's expression suddenly became very ugly.

Calum is the Blue Eyed Wolf King in Dragon Temple second only to Wesley, and has always been a general that Wesley valued very much.

But such a person under Wesley and over ten thousand people has suffered the most tragic failures in the Middle East since the establishment of the Dragon Temple.

Thousands of people were killed and more than 10,000 were taken as prisoners, making Dragon Temple shame internationally.

Moreover, since then, Calum's whereabouts have been unknown and there has been no news.

No one knew whether he was captured, rebelled, or died.

And Wesley also knew very well that since Charlie could say Calum's name, it proved that he was very clear about Dragon Temple's previous failure in the Middle East.

At this time, Charlie mentioned it deliberately, naturally to make fun of Wesley.

Wesley was angry and said coldly, "Boy, don't be quick to talk here, let alone Calum, you can't win against Apollo!"

After that, he looked at Apollo Wainwright and said sharply, "Apollo, tear his mouth!"

Apollo Wainwright nodded, and stepped forward and said coldly, "Boy, come on, let me see how capable you are, dare to say such crazy things!"

Having said that, Apollo Wainwright's fists suddenly shook, and the powerful internal force converged on the fist, and it turned out to be two deafening explosions out of thin air!

Not only that!

The misty drizzle scattered around his fists, unexpectedly making a squeaking sound like water droplets vaporized at high temperature, like a piece of red iron thrown into the water!

The powerful internal force is like a high-strength radiating magnetic field, making the surrounding warriors and ninjas instantly shocked.

Although Apollo still didn't make a move, the strong wind brought out by his powerful internal force had already made the surrounding martial artists realize that the strength of this person was far beyond their imagination!

Wilfred Elms looked dumbfounded, and exclaimed in a low voice, "This person's internal strength has already been superb, and with every move, he can form a wind, and the internal strength is extremely pure! This...this is the terrifying strength of the six-star warrior!"

Xion was also taken aback, and blurted out, "Grandpa! Why can this person reach the level of a six-star warrior at a young age? Looking at the entire country, there is no such thing as a six-star warrior!"

Wilfred sighed, "If you don't know something, the country will be peaceful and prosperous, and the atmosphere of martial arts will become weaker and weaker. Domestic martial arts masters have gone overseas for decades."

After all, Wilfred Elms looked at Xion and said seriously, "Even with your young age, with the help of Mr. Wade, you can break through the three-star warrior. Presumably, your future achievements will be higher than mine and might reach six stars!"

Xion whispered, "Six-star warrior...I...don't dare to think..."

Wilfred glanced at her and said seriously, "Maybe I didn't dare to think about it before, but you have the good luck and the help of Mr. Wade. Six stars may not be impossible..."

After speaking, Wilfred looked at Xion and said earnestly, "Xion, from today on, the Elms family will be led by you. Seeing that the strength of the young people nowadays is so strong, with my old bones, I'm going to retreat and practice..."

Xion never thought that her Grandpa would suddenly hand over the leadership of the Elms family to her at this time.

But what she didn't know was that when Wilfred actually saw her last night, learned that she was still alive, and learned of all the experiences during this period, he had already made up his mind to let her lead the Elms family.

Because he clearly realized that Charlie would be a nobleman in the Elms family who had never seen him in hundreds of years.

Chapter 3372

As for the entire Elms family, Xion received Charlie's favor most.

As long as she will do her best to stay with Charlie in the future, Charlie will never treat her badly.

As for the crisis in the Dragon Temple today, he believes that it is not a problem for Charlie at all.

At the same time.

Apollo Wainwright, who was ready to fight Charlie with all his strength, saw that Charlie was not prepared, and said with a sneer, "Boy, why haven't you mobilized your internal strength? Don't you plan to resist?"

The most powerful thing about martial artists is that they have internal power. As internal power increases, their physical strength, agility, and striking power will multiply geometrically.

Precisely because internal force is the original strength of the warrior, every warrior must transport the internal force to his hands and feet before attacking in order to display the strongest combat effectiveness.

However, Apollo Wainwright didn't know that Charlie didn't need the so-called internal force at all.

At this moment, his whole body is filled with reiki, and this kind of energy is an existence that the warrior can't reach at all.

So, he yawned and said to Apollo, "You are so inked, you just want to fight, why are the sentences crooked?"

"Damn!" Apollo was humiliated by Charlie in public and was already extremely angry. He gritted his teeth and said, "I'm damn kind to ask you to move first and you don't appreciate it. In that case, don't blame me for being merciless!"

As soon as the voice fell, Apollo immediately attacked Charlie!

The strength of the six-star martial artist was not covered, Apollo suddenly made a move, and everyone who was about to reach Charlie couldn't even see it clearly.

With extremely fast speed and strong strength, this punch actually made a sound of breaking through the air, and it was fierce at first glance!

This is the power of the six-star warrior. Wilfred Elms, a four-star warrior, only needs to look at it, and the depths of his heart are involuntarily filled with despair.

The ninjas of the four major families in Japan were completely stunned at this moment. Apollo Wainwright's performance alone exceeded their level by more than one level!

Everyone immediately looked at Charlie, they wanted to know what kind of method Charlie planned to use to deal with such a fierce attack.

However, what was beyond everyone's expectations was that Charlie didn't move at all.

Even when he saw Apollo's right fist, he suddenly attacked Charlie's chest.

The sound of punching through the air was like a cannonball roaring by, making everyone's expressions tense.

Seeing him doing his best, Wesley was afraid that he would beat Charlie to death with a punch, so he subconsciously shouted, "Apollo, leave him a..."

Wesley wanted to say to keep him alive, but the fate was still not spoken, and he was immediately stunned by the sight in front of him!

He saw that Apollo's right fist had already made a full blow at this time, and suddenly stopped at a position less than 20 centimeters from Charlie's chest.

Neither the person behind Apollo nor the person behind Charlie saw Apollo's right fist, and Charlie had already grasped it tightly at this time!

At this time, Apollo's expression was already extremely shocked! On his fierce face, there was a three-year-old child's shock and panic. He couldn't understand why Charlie could easily grasp his full blow.

What's even more outrageous is that the moment he was caught by him, the mighty force gathered on his arm disappeared out of thin air.

This feeling is like a person jumping from an altitude of 10,000 meters. As the acceleration of gravity gets stronger and stronger, the speed and strength become stronger.

However, just when the speed and strength reached the extreme, the whole person suddenly fell into a state of weightlessness similar to that in space. The big difference between the front and the back is simply subverting common sense!

Everyone, including Wesley, was shocked to add nothing!

Everyone can see that Apollo's punch just now has been extremely powerful!

Wesley was even afraid that he would smash Charlie's internal organs with one punch!

However, this can be called the attack of sparks hitting the earth, and it was silently dissipated by Charlie as soon as Charlie raised his hand. This...this is simply unimaginable!

Just when everyone still didn't understand why this was, Charlie smiled contemptuously, and shouted to Apollo coldly, "Trash! I thought you said that you are so strong, how can you be like a kitten? I was expecting a strong attack from you but it turned out to be trash!"

Chapter 3373

Who could have imagined that such an anomaly would happen at the scene.

Who would have thought that the full blow of a six-star warrior could only end up with an unbelievable evaluation in Charlie's eyes, "as soft as a lady!"

Apollo Wainwright couldn't even care about anger.

He just stared at his fist stupidly and muttered, "This...this is impossible...this is absolutely impossible..."

Wesley was also stunned.

Although he didn't understand how Charlie did it, he already realized that this Charlie was definitely not an ordinary man!

At this time, the Wade family and everyone who came to help Charlie were equally shocked, but deep in their hearts, they had already begun to cheer!

A six-star warrior, unexpectedly failed to beat Charlie, this proves that Charlie is indeed confident!

Jon also ignored his usual dissatisfaction with Charlie, and whispered to Corran, "Dad...Charlie really knows martial arts? I think this person can't defeat him at all!"

Corran nodded again and again, his expression was already much more relaxed, and he said, "From this point of view, this fellow Charlie is really capable!"

As he said, Corran hurriedly said in a low voice, "Observe again, if Charlie can really deal with the Dragon Temple, you should hide the filial piety clothes again and don't let it be discovered!"

At this time, Lord Wade was also extremely excited.

He looked at Charlie, and recalled Bruce Wade's spirit and full-fledged appearance back then.

Unknowingly, his eyes were already filled with tears.

He couldn't help sighing in his heart, "Back then, the Wade family didn't dare to go with Bruce to fight hard, and because of that, Bruce ran away in anger and died away from home in the end... In this regard, for nearly two decades, I have been very remorseful and regretful in my heart... Now, seeing Charlie standing in front of Wade family and Wade family's graves, he has shown the shadow of Bruce.... Perhaps, this also means that my old bones will give way to him..."

At this time, no one else in the Dragon Temple could understand this scene.

One of the other men asked Wesley in a low voice, "My Lord, the strength of the White Tiger King is stronger than mine. The blow he had just now was indeed very strong. How did the guy stop it?"

Wesley's expression was solemn.

How did Charlie stop it?

He didn't know either.

He only knew that Apollo Wainwright was in danger this time!

And in front of his parents and the spirit of Charlie's parents, he promised that no one in Dragon Temple would come forward to help.

This also means that Apollo Wainwright must face Charlie alone.

Therefore, he immediately shouted at Apollo Wainwright, "Apollo! You must go all out!"

Apollo Wainwright's expression was almost distorted, and he muttered in his heart, "I...I just tried my best...are you really making me fight him hard?"

Chapter 3374

Seeing Apollo stunned, Charlie couldn't help frowning.

Immediately after that, he suddenly raised his hand, slapped Apollo Wainwright's face, and said coldly, "What the hell is it? I asked you to attack me again. Didn't you hear it?!"

Apollo was stunned by this slap.

Charlie didn't use much force, but he was extremely insulting.

Apollo didn't react at all, as he was slapped, he was naturally embarrassed and angry.

So, he took two steps back, shouting in anger and shame, "I will kill you!!!"

After finishing speaking, his body suddenly sank, and the bones all over his body made a crisp sound one after another, and the whole body's internal force suddenly turned like a boiling, and quickly moved to his arms.

Seeing this situation, Wesley's expression suddenly froze.

He knew very well that Apollo was really desperate.

Because what he is using now is his martial arts technique-Shenhu Fist, his strongest move.

The reason why Apollo Wainwright was called the White Tiger King was because he practiced Shenhu Boxing.

In Shenhu Fist, the strongest attack power is that it can quickly increase a person's internal strength by at least 50%.

However, this kind of technique cannot be used casually. Because such a large overdraft will bring a strong backlash to users.

Rather, it takes many days for the body to slowly repair.

In this repair process, the user can only play half of his own strength;

The main reason is that it will cause the user's cultivation base to drop, and it may even take a year or two to recover this part of the cultivation base.

Therefore, this move of the White Tiger King out of the mountain is Apollo Wainwright's life-saving stunt.

Unless it is life-threatening and must work hard, it will never be used lightly.

At this time, Apollo directly used this technique, which shows that he has decided to fight Charlie desperately!

And Wesley also knew very well that Apollo's skill was very strong, even if he didn't dare to take it head-on, otherwise he would be seriously injured.

If Apollo still couldn't win Charlie with this technique, then it was basically certain that Charlie's strength was even better than himself.

At this time, Apollo also ignored it.

Charlie's humiliation of him has far exceeded his psychological endurance.

It's nothing more than insulting oneself, and even slapped himself directly, and still in front of all the core members of the Dragon Temple, this face, he desperately has to get it back!

Charlie also felt the changes in his body in a short period of time, and found that his internal strength had been greatly improved in an instant.

However, Charlie remained unmoved.

Because, no matter how strong the opponent is, it will still be an ant in front of him.

At this moment, Apollo's whole body's bones were absorbed by the powerful internal force, and his body suddenly swelled up, and even his filial piety clothes were opened by countless openings.

Just as everyone was stunned, Apollo suddenly arched up like a tiger descending the mountain, and rushed towards Charlie!

The speed and strength are much stronger than the punch just now!

The people behind Charlie felt a strong wind suddenly engulfing the sand and blowing towards them before they recovered.

Everyone closed their eyes subconsciously, but even so, the small grains of sand hit their faces, and there was pain.

Just as everyone waited for the gust to pass and was about to open their eyes to see what was going on, they found that the scene just now happened again.

Charlie grabbed Apollo's fist once again.

Moreover, this time Charlie grabbed Apollo's two fists with just one hand!

The people behind Charlie didn't see Charlie's actions just now, and they didn't know how Charlie did it.

But all this, Wesley and the soldiers of the Dragon Temple behind him, saw it clearly.

Just now, Apollo threw out his fists together, and pounced on Charlie like a tiger.

Unexpectedly, his original thunderous fists were as weak as the tender fists of a three-year-old in front of Charlie.

Charlie just grabbed both of his fists with ease.

A second ago, Apollo was still a tiger preying with all his strength. But a second later, Apollo changed from a tiger that preyed on to a pet cat that was completely immobile by his owner's two front paws!

Charlie raised his eyes at this time and sneered, "I heard that you are called the White Tiger King. I thought you were really a tiger. I never expected that you are more pathetic than Hello Kitty, it's such a waste!"

Chapter 3375

Hearing Charlie's mockery made Apollo Wainwright embarrassed and indignant.

Seeing Charlie's playful eyes, a strong sense of fear surged deep in his heart.

He subconsciously said, "This...it's impossible! Even an eight-star warrior can't resolve it so easily if I let out my fierce attack! How did you do it?!"

Apollo Wainwright's words also asked the voice of everyone in the Dragon Temple, including Wesley.

Everyone thought that Apollo Wainwright's full blow would still be too weak in front of Charlie.

Their long-standing martial arts worldview was completely subverted, and they never dreamed that there would be such a powerful master in this world.

At this time, Wesley was already soberly aware that he had carefully prepared his revenge plan for twenty years, and he might have declared a failure if he didn't really make a move.

In the face of Apollo Wainwright's fierce attack, he still couldn't see Charlie's true strength at all!

This is like weightlifting. When an athlete desperately lifts the maximum weight he can bear, even a layman can see through his physical and expression state that he has tried his best.

If your opponent seems to have done his best when he surpasses you in weight, or is already struggling and is about to approach the limit, then you can roughly judge his actual strength.

However, if your opponent uses only one hand and can easily lift your limit weight without changing his face, then you don't know where his limit is. He may be able to lift twice as much with one hand. Perhaps two hands can lift four times, eight times or even eighteen times the weight.

But because Apollo Wainwright, who was the standard of reference, was far worse than him, no one knew how strong Charlie was.

Charlie sneered at this moment, and said lightly, "You're such a weak dog and dare to call the tiger out of the mountain? Or should I say, the cockroach out of the cave!"

Wesley looked at Charlie in horror.

Even the mentor of Wesley, the Patriarch of the entire Dragon Temple, did not have such strength.

Because of his mentor, he has been stagnant in the Great Perfection realm for thirty years, and has been able to break through.

For ordinary warriors, breakthroughs in a small realm are as difficult as reaching the sky, let alone such a big realm.

Opening up the Second Meridian itself blocked the vast majority of warriors, and the ones that could get through four meridians or even five or six were even rarer.

But wanting to jump from an eight-star warrior to a dark realm master is even more difficult.

However, in order to achieve the strength that Charlie demonstrated, at least it would be possible to become a legendary dark realm master.

Therefore, Wesley realized that Charlie's strength must have entered the dark realm, even if his mentor is here, it may not be his opponent.

What's more, in order to find a breakthrough, Wesley's mentor began to travel around the world five years ago, and even him, does not know where he is now.

At this time, although Apollo Wainwright had been violently trying to break free, his fists were still unable to move.

He looked at Charlie with a pair of extremely horrified eyes, and asked very nervously, "You...Who are you?!"

Charlie raised his eyes and said calmly, "I said, my name is Charlie."

After that, Charlie smiled and asked him, "Apollo Wainwright, haven't you been shouting that you want to kill me since yesterday? Is this all your strength?"

Apollo Wainwright was even more frightened. He was afraid that Charlie would immediately kill him, and subconsciously pleaded, "Mr. Wade! I have eyes but no knowledge! Please forgive me and spare my life..."

"Spare your life?" Charlie raised his eyelids, and asked coldly, "Did you spare the lives of those who were killed by you before?"

Apollo Wainwright's expression suddenly became dull.

He has killed countless people over the years.

Chapter 3376

With his strength, after so many years of hard work overseas, he has almost never encountered an opponent who can compete with him, so every time he goes out, he can win with a crushing advantage.

And every time he wins, the defeated party will be pleading like he is now, but he has never softened once.

Now, Feng Shui takes turns, and finally it's turn for the White Tiger King to beg others for mercy!

And Charlie, obviously didn't plan to let him go!

He looked at Apollo Wainwright, the corners of his mouth suddenly rose a little, revealing a playful but cruel smile.

Charlie's sudden strange smile made Apollo Wainwright's heart instantly seem to fall into an ice cave.

Although he didn't know what Charlie wanted to do to him, he could realize that he was going to die!

At this moment, Charlie grabbed Apollo Wainwright's hand hard and suddenly twisted his wrist!

Immediately afterwards, Apollo Wainwright felt his two arms as if being sent into a powerful meat grinder.

Afterwards, his two arms were twisted together!

The severe pain started in the wrists of both hands and spread to the arms!

He could even feel that his wrist broke first, followed by his arms, elbows and shoulder joints...

This kind of severe pain deep into the soul's bone marrow is terrible. What's more terrifying is that this kind of severe pain seems to be carrying a virus, and the virus quickly invades one's body, causing all of his internal strength to disappear out of thin air.

At this moment, Apollo Wainwright felt deep fear in his heart!

So, he could no longer hold back, bending his legs, knelt on the ground involuntarily, and shouted in despair, "Ah...my hands...my arms... ..It hurts!"

Charlie used this opportunity to prove that although the so-called master is very strong, he can still feel pain.

Apollo Wainwright has practiced martial arts for so many years, and he has never experienced this kind of pain.

Coupled with the disappearance of the internal strength of his whole body, his psychological and physical defenses also collapsed in an instant.

Therefore, he could only follow the direction of Charlie twisting his arm and kneel on the ground subconsciously.

When everyone on the scene saw this scene, they were all struck by lightning!

Who would have thought that a powerful six-star warrior was not only resolved by Charlie, but his arms are also twisted by Charlie!

Broken bone scum pierced from multiple places of flesh and blood, and gushed out along the wound, it was shocking!

Apollo Wainwright was in deep pain that he had to faint several times, but was awakened by the intense pain, and he had to let out a howl like a pig in order to try to relieve the violent impact of the pain.

At this moment, Charlie said in a cold voice, "It's in vain that you have been practicing martial arts for many years, but in the end you have been relying on it and doing a lot of evil."

"Today, I will walk the way for the sky and abolish all your cultivation skills!"

As soon as the voice fell, Apollo Wainwright felt that the six meridians that had been opened in his body were suddenly rushed in by an extremely powerful force!

This feeling is as if the magma in the earth's crust is about to rush out of the crater, and the force is too strong to bear!

In just an instant, he felt that his six meridians had been broken!

It took years of hard cultivation to become a six-star warrior, but in this instant it was wiped out!

“My meridians...my meridians...it’s all gone!”

Apollo Wainwright muttered to himself, and suddenly burst into tears!

All his psychological support collapsed completely at this moment!

Chapter 3377

Who would have thought that Charlie would have broken off all of Apollo Wainwright’s meridians while twisting his arms!

Being able to easily break all of Apollo Wainwright’s meridians and ruin all of his cultivation bases without making a sensation, this is simply the kind of crushing gap between humans and ants.

At this moment, everyone in the Dragon Hall was desperate.

But everyone around Charlie couldn’t wait to cheer for joy.

As for Lord Banks, who was wearing filial piety, his whole body had collapsed, and his hands and feet trembled involuntarily.

He really didn’t expect the Wade Family have such a powerful existence.

The Dragon Hall that he relied on, and thought that could absolutely crush the Wade family, was not Charlie’s opponent at all!

It suddenly occurred to him that his two granddaughters and his eldest daughter-in-law came to help Charlie, and he said in his heart, "Could it be...Could it be that this Charlie is the top master who has been secretly targeting himself?!"

Thinking of this, Lord Banks's heart was even more desperate.

At this time, Charlie looked at Apollo Wainwright who had completely collapsed, and asked with a smile, "What? The dignified White Tiger King admit defeat so quickly?"

In order to survive, Apollo Wainwright took the initiative to kneel on the ground, crying bitterly while begging, "Mr. Wade, my arms have been completely abolished, and my meridians have all been broken."

"Now I am completely an ordinary and useless man, please raise your hands high and spare my life!"

Apollo Wainwright, who collapsed to his knees and begged for mercy, left Wesley's heart with ashes and horrified the other soldiers in the Dragon Hall.

Although Apollo Wainwright was extremely angry, he still wanted to live, even if there was only a glimmer of hope, he didn't want to give up.

Because he knew Charlie's strength, if he really wanted to kill himself, it would be as simple as moving his fingers.

Apollo Wainwright cried and his arms were twisted into a mess.

He could only use the strength of his back to support himself and bow his head.

While bowing his head, he cried, "Mr. Wade...I was wrong... I shouldn't speak loudly and provoke your majesty...!"

"But...but I don't want to die...I really don't want to die..."

"Please, please, for the sake of me who fell in such a fate, please be merciful and spare my life..."

Charlie looked at him coldly, his voice suddenly raised a little, and he asked sternly, "You dare to be presumptuous in front of my parents' spirit just now."

"You really want to kneel on the ground and beg for mercy so I can spare you a dog's life?"

Apollo Wainwright cried loudly, "I know I was wrong...I really knew I was wrong..."

Charlie slapped it hard, and said coldly, "Now you know it is wrong? When you went to the Wade's house with a cigar in your mouth yesterday, wasn't you so arrogant?"

"Didn't you say that you wanted to kill me first?"

Chapter 3378

As he said, Charlie's eyes drenched, and he said coldly, "By the way, don't you like to smoke cigars? Then I will make you a cigar and let you smoke enough!"

After that, Charlie looked at Don Albert and blurted out, "Don Albert, go get some yellow paper for the grave!"

"Okay Master Wade!" Don Albert hurriedly took out several bundles of yellow paper to be burned in front of the grave from the pile of ancestor worship materials prepared by the Wade family.

Charlie took a thick bundle, rolled it into a paper roll shape as thick as a mineral water bottle, and then directly stuffed one end of it into Apollo Wainwright's mouth, and said to Don Albert, "Come on, Don Albert! Let the White Tiger King smoke a big cigar that I personally made for him!"

Don Albert smiled, and immediately took out the lighter and lit the other end of the paper roll.

While lighting it, he sneered and said, "Mr. Tiger King, you're so f*cking lucky to be able to smoke the cigar made by Master Wade."

"I guess you are the only one in the world who had this opportunity."

As he said, he saw that the paper roll was thicker, so he couldn't light it, so he slapped Apollo Wainwright's face and cursed, "D*mn, you are pumping! If you don't smoke, what the hell am I going to do? Stuck it in your mouth?"

Apollo Wainwright's mouth was filled with this paper roll, and he was ashamed and indignant, but he could only obediently suck.

But the smoke from the burning of this yellow paper can't be compared with mellow Cuban cigar.

As soon as he took the first bite, Apollo Wainwright was choked with the thick smoke and coughed, tears and snot gushing out at the same time.

Charlie glared at him and sneered, "Isn't this your appearance, holding a cigar, spraying and ranting in front of me yesterday?"

Apollo Wainwright shuddered when he thought of his arrogant appearance yesterday.

Charlie looked at him in panic and continued, "Don't forget, you also killed one of my Wade family's bodyguard with cigar!"

"Isn't it just one life for another? I will kill you today!"

Speaking of this, Charlie paused slightly and continued, "Don't you want to survive? First finish smoking this big cigar..."

"After smoking it, I will consider whether to spare you a dog's life, but if you can't finish it, then you must be the first person to die today!"

Hearing this, Apollo Wainwright was desperate in his heart, just wanting to do everything possible to survive.

As a result, he could only desperately smoked the thick roll of yellow paper, and his whole body was almost collapsed by the heavy smoke.

However, he did not dare to have any negligence, and could only do his best to inhale a mouthful of thick smoke into his body

The soldiers of the Dragon Hall at the scene were shocked.

They all knew that Apollo Wainwright loved Cuban cigars, but who would have thought that Apollo Wainwright would end up like this?

Apollo Wainwright tried his best and drew fiercely for a long time.

When he finally drew out a roll of yellow paper, he was about to collapse and die.

When it burned to the end, the burning yellow paper directly burned a bunch of single bubbles around his lips and mouth.

Apollo Wainwright, who had finally survived, looked at Charlie intently, and asked softly, "Wade...Mr. Wade...I've exhausted all the smoke, can you spare my life?"

Charlie sneered and said, "Of course not! If you want to live, it's definitely not that simple! Everything depends on my mood!"

Apollo Wainwright collapsed completely, so he turned his head, looked at Wesley with tears like a child, choked up and pleaded, "My Lord...Save me...My lord save me....."

Wesley's heart at this time was also full of despair.

He never dreamed that this would be the situation in Wade Mountain today.

He looked at Apollo Wainwright's painful and desperate look, then thought of Charlie's incomparable strength, and his heart was already dead.

He knew that his revenge was completely hopeless.

So, he swallowed his saliva and said with a respectful tone and a somewhat hoarse voice, "Charlie...please let him go!"

"If you let him go, my Dragon Hall will immediately retreat this time and this life, we will no longer fight against the Wade family!"

Charlie seemed to have heard his joke, and laughed, "Wesley! Do you think my Wade family's grave is the place where you want to come and leave?"

Wesley gritted his teeth and asked him, "Then what do you want?"

Charlie sneered and said, "What do you think I want? I also want to do what you have planned."

Wesley asked nervously, "You...what do you mean?"

Charlie looked at the two coffins behind him and smiled, "Aren't you threatening to thwart my parents?"

"It just so happens that your parents' coffins are here, so please work hard for them to experience your great idea!"
