

“Mr. Wade I am afraid I won’t be able to take on such an important role “

Charlie pointed at Floyd and said indifferently,

“He didn’t even think he couldn’t handle it, what else do you have to worry about?”

Floyd’s expression instantly became bitter.

He also knew that although he was dozens of years older than Michaela,

He really couldn’t compare to the young Michaela in terms of management ability.

But, being so directly taken up by Charlie to bury, his face was a bit embarrassed.

Charlie saw Michaela still not sure, then opened his mouth and said:

“Miss Joules, with the current situation of the Joules family, only you as the head of the family,”

“You can coordinate everything internally, think about the old man, and then think about your parents and relatives,”

“If you do not sit in the position of the head of the family,”

“What other option do you have to ensure their future life and safety?”

Speaking here, Charlie added:

“If I’m not wrong, your parents are not among the Joules family present tonight, right?”

Chapter 4283

Charlie’s words caused Michaela’s entire body to be slightly stunned.

She had been at sea all this time and hadn't had the chance to have any contact with her parents at all.

And this time when she came back, she also did not see her parents,

Including her brother and sister in the family.

Therefore, she could basically conclude that Eldest Uncle had already kicked,

Her family left the family after he had taken away Grandpa's power.

In the big family, the first thing the new head of the family will do after taking office is,

Definitely to suppress the brothers who are a threat to them, or who have been coincidentally disagreeable to them,

And also to leave a few loyal brothers around as their right-hand men,

And then after the kingdom is firmly established, then this group of loyal brothers will also be driven out,

In this way, basically, even if all threats are cut off,

And these brothers who are driven out of the family become foreign relatives.

If Michaela does not become the head of the family, no matter who is present to succeed,

Her family will not be able to return to the Joules family.

They can only take a small amount of assets and set up their own business outside,

From then on they are just reduced to the Joules family's foreign relatives.

Thinking of this, she immediately clenched her teeth and said to Charlie,

“Mr. Wade, I am willing to be the head of the Joules family!”

Michaela knew very well that this Joules family headship was not a good job.

With her own age, experience, and network resources,

She is afraid it would be difficult to sit firmly in this position.

But she is also very clear, she now has no other way, and can only meet the difficulties.

The things that follow are unknown but in her opinion,

It's just a matter of opening a road on every mountain and building a bridge in case it's water.

Although the difficulty is great, but there is still hope.

Charlie saw Michaela finally take a stand, nodded in satisfaction, looked at Floyd, and spoke:

“The current Joules family head is still you, so it will be hard for you to do the formalities,”

“For the transfer of office in a while, you know this kind of thing, it has to be legal.”

“Okay Mr. Wade, I will definitely cooperate fully!”

Even though Floyd's heart was reluctant, at this moment, he did not dare to say more, and could only promise.

He knew very well in his heart that he had no choice and no right to refuse,

Because of this person Charlie did not play by the usual rules,

He directly brought Dragon Hall to his door, and even shot his precious grandson in front of him,

If he angered him in this situation, he might even pick up a gun and put a bullet in his head.

In this case, even if he is still the head of the Joules family, there is no chance of turning the tide.

The most important thing is to make the most of the time to step aside,

And win a good impression in front of Charlie, so that he can get some benefits for himself in the future.

Subsequently, Charlie looked at Ferdie and said lightly,

“Elder Joules, although the head of the Joules family is Floyd,”

“The majority of the Joules family’s assets should still be under your name, right?”

Floyd hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully,

“Mr. Wade, most of the Joules family’s assets are indeed under my name

Charlie nodded and said, “To be honest, you are not young, if you really want to live a long life,”

“You still need to put away your utilitarianism, I suggest that you might as well,”

“Give all the assets under your name to Miss Joules, since she is the head of the family,”

“You have to give her all the rivers and mountains, just give her the position of head of the family,”

“But the assets are in your hands, it will be a great constraint for her.”

“It would be better to let her unify and centralize the power,”

“Which would also allow the Joules family’s resources to be most effective, what do you think?”

Chapter 4284

Ferdie dared not obey.

Although he was still somewhat uncomfortable and unwilling in his heart just now, but now he has really thought about it.

He thought: “I can live to this day, can get back to the United States,”

“I am what I did not dare to hope before, this kind of time,”

“If the flow of the dominance of the assets does not have any meaning,”

“Rather than giving it to Michaela, it is considered to help her get on the horse

With this thought, he immediately said respectfully,

“Mr. Wade do not worry, I will have my lawyer prepare the documents later,”

“All my assets will be given under Michaela’s domination.”

After that, he said with some emotion, “I don’t have a year or two left to live,”

“And I’ve experienced so many things, I’ve already looked away from money.”

Charlie satisfied with a slight nod, spoke:

“I know, until now you have not had an easy fight in this life,”

“Now that you are also old, and so much money earned, normally speaking,”

“There is no longer much meaning for you, and because of the matter of money,”

“Even let your own son have moved to kill you, to say the least, I feel sad for you.”

Ferdie sighed and said with a melancholy face, “Mr. Wade you are right

“After reaching my age, there is no longer any positive meaning

Charlie smiled faintly and said lightly,

“Normally it is indeed true, however, I can give you a chance to spend money.”

Ferdie was stunned and quickly asked, “Mr. Wade, what do you mean?”

Charlie smiled blandly: “Haven’t you always wanted to buy the Rejuvenation Pill?”

“If I remember correctly, at the auction in Aurous Hill,”

“You were bidding two hundred and ten billion at that time.”

When Ferdie heard this, although he was still unsure of what Charlie meant,

He was already excited beyond control and said in a loud voice,

“Yes Yes Mr. Wade At that time I

“It is true that I asked for two hundred and ten billion

“You How did you remember to ask this?”

Charlie smiled playfully and didn't answer his question, but looked at Michaela and spoke,

"Miss Joules, after you successfully succeeded as the head of the Joules family,"

"And succeeded to the domination of all of Elder Joules's assets,"

"In order to express my congratulations, I can make an exception,"

"And give you an opportunity to purchase the Rejuvenation Pill!"

Hearing these words, Ferdie's entire body instantly fell into ecstasy!

"Rejuvenation Pill!"

"Mr. Charlie is actually willing to sell Michaela the Rejuvenation Pill!"

"If I can get this rejuvenation pill, I can live at least another ten or twenty years"

"This Could this be the case of a stuffed horse, not knowing what is not a blessing?!"

Thinking about this, deep inside Ferdie's heart suddenly began to worry again.

Because what Charlie just said was very clear,

This opportunity to make an exception to buy the Rejuvenation Pill was not for himself,

But for his granddaughter, Michaela.

Moreover, it must wait until after the granddaughter becomes the head of the Joules family,

And inherits the right to dominate the assets.

This will test the character and temperament of granddaughter Michaela.

If she really takes herself as a grandfather seriously,

She will certainly be willing to pay for the Rejuvenation Pill.

However, if she is also the same as her eldest son Floyd,

Not willing to pay this money for him, then he will be empty again.

So, he subconsciously looked at Michaela, his eyes full of eager expectation.

Michaela did not let Ferdie down.

She was also very excited at this moment and said:

“Mr. Wade, is what you said true? Can you really make an exception,”

“And give me a chance to buy the Rejuvenation Pill?”

Chapter 4285

Charlie nodded and said indifferently, “I have always been true to my word.”

Saying that he looked at Ferdie and added:

“That day at the auction, you asked for two hundred and ten billion dollars,”

“Today, for the sake of you, I will give you the change wiped off, two hundred billion dollars a piece.”

Without thinking, Michaela said offhandedly, “Good! I’ll buy it!”

When Ferdie heard Michaela’s unwavering decision, he was so excited that he could not attach it.

However, he also kept an extra eye on it.

Because, Michaela only said that she would buy this rejuvenation pill, but to whom she buys it for,

She has not yet started her position.

Ferdie had experienced several ups and downs during this period of time,

So he naturally had a few more concerns in his heart about such matters.

At this time, Michaela looked at him and said very seriously,

“Grandpa, later on, I will pay the payment to Mr. Wade,”

“And this rejuvenation pill will be left for you to take!”

Only when he heard this did Ferdie finally put his heart down,

And was so excited that he burst into tears.

He was too eager to get a rejuvenation pill.

Originally, he thought that he might not have a chance with the Rejuvenation Pill in this life.

But unexpectedly, it was Charlie and his granddaughter who had given him such a huge surprise!

At this time, he was so excited that he choked a little and said to Charlie:

“Mr. Wade Thank you Thank you!”

“Your kindness, I will definitely remember it in my heart forever!”

Charlie waved his hand and said very seriously, “Master Joules, there is one thing I have to say first,”

“Although I am willing to make an exception to sell Miss Joules a rejuvenation pill,”

“And Miss Joules is also willing to give you this rejuvenation pill to take,”

“But this pill I will deliver to Miss Joules in four installments.”

Ferdie subconsciously asked, “In four installments?”

“Right.” Charlie said blandly, “From now on, I will cash out a quarter of the Rejuvenation Pill,”

“To Miss Joules, every three years, until a whole Rejuvenation Pill is fully cashed out.”

Charlie knew very well in his heart that if Elder Joules would not live long,

Then Michaela’s position as the family head would not be secure no matter what.

And after all, he still has his own business to do, can not always escort for Michaela,

So the best way is to let the old man continue to live.

And not only to let him live but also to ensure that when he lives,

He will definitely stand behind Michaela and support her with all his might.

If he let Joules, the old man get a whole rejuvenation pill at once,

Then after he completely solves the problem of survival for the next ten years or so,

His deep-seated desire for power will probably make a comeback.

If that were the case, he would no longer be Michaela’s biggest supporter,

But would instead become Michaela’s biggest enemy.

That’s why Charlie came up with such a strategy of delaying the delivery in batches.

First, give Michaela a quarter of the Rejuvenation Pills,

Let Ferdie in the next three to five years do not have to worry about survival.

However, this would also give Ferdie a strong sense of crisis.

Because he still has three-quarters of the Rejuvenation Pills that he had not gotten.

And as Charlie is the seller, he only recognizes Michaela as the buyer,

So Ferdie must keep his full support for Michaela unchanged,

As long as he still wanted to get the remaining Rejuvenation Pills.

Only then would he be able to obtain the remaining Rejuvenation Pills,

In the remaining three key nodes, thus realizing his wish to extend his life by a decade or two.

Ferdie had lived for more than ninety years and was a full human being,

He instantly understood that the reason why Charlie was doing this was to pinch him.

However, at the moment, how dare he have any dissatisfaction with Charlie's pinching?

In his heart, he could not help but sigh:

"If Charlie pinches me, I can at least live;"

"If he does not pinch me, what other way do I have to go but to die?"

Chapter 4286

Therefore, without thinking, Ferdie said,

“Mr. Wade, everything will be according to your wishes! I have no opinion!”

Charlie nodded, looked at Michaela, and asked her,

“Miss Joules, you don’t have an opinion, right?”

Michaela said: “I I have no opinion All listen to Mr. Wade’s arrangement!”

Michaela at this time also understands the purpose of Charlie to do so,

Knows that Charlie’s purpose is for his own escort,

Her heart is naturally grateful beyond measure, a moment, she even asked herself:

“Mr. Wade is so good to me, his kindness so heavy,”

“What can I do in this life to return his kindness, even a millionth of it

Charlie said smilingly: “I am actually thinking about your family,”

“A one-time out of two hundred billion dollars, there must still be pressure on you,”

“The family will soon face a huge reputation crisis, in addition, to pay huge compensation to the families of the victims,”

“If another two hundred billion are paid to me, the cash flow must be stretched to the limit,”

“Then, after this reputation crisis passed If you want the family,”

“To overcome the difficulties and re-emerge, you will not have enough liquidity on hand.”

Speaking of this, Charlie added: “However, if you deliver the Rejuvenation Pill in batches,”

“You can also pay in batches, each time you only need to pay me fifty billion dollars,”

“From two hundred billion down to fifty billion, for your Joules family, naturally there is no pressure.”

Michaela hurriedly said, “What Mr. Wade said is extremely considerate

“Thank you Mr. Wade for thinking of the Joules family in every way

Ferdie also immediately said gratefully,

“Mr. Wade, you are really the savior of the Joules family

Although he said so, but in his heart, he could not help but sigh:

“This Charlie is really good at putting gold on his face

“In two or three sentences, he twisted the fact that he deliberately pinched me,”

“Into helping the Joules family to tide over the difficult times,”

“And I don’t know how he can be so thick-skinned at such a young age

At this time, Charlie also looked at Floyd and Roger and spoke:

“You two, from today, you have to fully cooperate with all the requirements of Miss Joules,”

“Must shine in the development of the Joules family, if I come to know that you two have any other thoughts,”

“I will definitely let the people of the Dragon Hall come over,”

“And take you to Syria to experience the local customs and traditions properly.”

“When the time comes, I will give you a five-year and eight-year in-depth tour,”

“So that Syria will become your second homeland.”

Floyd’s body trembled with fear.

In his heart, he said: “D*mn, I’d rather stay with the family and serve as a dog for Michaela,”

“But definitely not willing to run to Syria to experience the so-called local customs,”

“This surnamed Wade’s words are really fcuking detrimental, the prisoner just say prisoner,”

“But also what to experience the local customs, what is there to experience in that place?”

“What five or eight years of in-depth travel, that is not five or eight years of imprisonment?”

Frightened, he hurriedly bowed ninety degrees and said respectfully,

“Mr. Wade, please don’t worry, I, swear to God that I will do my best,”

“To help Michaela govern the Joules family, and will never do anything that infringes on the interests of the Joules family!”

Roger also followed and bowed to state, “Please rest assured, Mr. Wade, I will never let you down

“Good.” Charlie very satisfied with a slight nod spoke: “Since you guys are so up to date,”

“I believe that Miss Joules will also arrange a relatively comfortable job for you in the Joules family in the future.”

Saying that he looked around for a while, and said:

“But I want to remind you all, from now on, do not engage in anymore, hook, line and sinker!”

“What’s more, don’t follow the example of that Patrick to do any wrong!”

The crowd nodded in obedience, no one dared to say a word more.

Charlie looked at Michaela again and explained, “Miss Joules, in the future,”

“The family must have an internal review team,”

“Regularly conduct strict investigations on every member of the Joules family every once in a while,”

“And if any problems are found, I will cut them off quickly, won’t give them a chance to develop!”

Chapter 4287

In Charlie’s opinion, the primary condition for a family to prosper and flourish must be internal unity.

The biggest advantage of unity is that it can avoid internal conflict to the maximum extent possible,

And all the energy of this family will be used to do useful work.

In this way, even if the family is facing unsteady waters,

The family will certainly maintain an upward trend.

But if there is a split and confrontation within the family,

The vast majority of energy will be consumed in the internal struggle.

In this way, the family not only does not have enough energy to do useful work,

But also because of the constant internal depletion, the fall into the quagmire of regression is unavoidable.

If it keeps consuming a lot internally, even if it is trillions of family assets, there will be a day when it is exhausted.

That's why Charlie reminded Stella that she must keep a complete eye on the Joules family members to ensure,

That they all keep up with her, and once she finds a problem,

She must not be merciful and must kill the issue it early in the cradle.

Stella naturally understood Charlie's meaning, nodded repeatedly, and said,

"Mr. Wade, please rest assured, I will definitely pay more attention."

Charlie saw that she seemed to be more or less apprehensive,

So he gave her an encouraging look and said seriously,

"After you finish dealing with the matter of Randal,"

"The Joules family will definitely fall into an unprecedented low because of this incident,"

"But I believe in your ability and you will definitely be able to lead the Joules family out of the low."

Stella said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for your encouragement,"

"I will do my best to get the Joules family through the trough as soon as possible."

Saying that she gave a slight pause, her hot eyes fixed on Charlie,

And said offhandedly, “In the future, if Mr. Wade has anything for the Joules family,”

“Just ask, no one in the Joules family dares to disobey!”

Charlie nodded and said, “If there is a need, I will not be polite with you.”

After saying that, he looked at Flint Yeager Yeager beside the old man and said,

“Among these martial arts experts of the Joules family, you are the strongest,”

“So you will be ensuring Miss Joules’s safety from now on.”

Flint Yeager was busy saying respectfully, “Mr. Wade I should have returned to my division to return to my orders,”

“In the future, my junior brother Parker will be responsible for the safety of the Joules family.”

Charlie frowned and said, “Parker? It can’t be that five-star martial artist, right?”

Flint Yeager asked, “Mr. Wade has met Junior brother Parker?”

Charlie sneered, “No surprise, he should still be kneeling in the restaurant.”

After saying that, he looked at Roger and said in a cold voice, “Go and call Parker over.”

Roger dared not disobey and hurriedly said, “Mr. Wade wait a moment, I will go and call”

Soon, Roger came over with Parker, whose legs were constantly swinging.

At this time, between the crotch of the legs of Parker, there has been a large white stain,

Accompanied by a burst of foul odor, so that people can immediately guess...

That is the urine alkali formed after urinating his pants.

As soon as Parker saw Charlie, he couldn't help but kneel on the ground and choked:

"Mr. Wade I have been listening to your instructions kneeling in the dining room,"

"Even for a moment, I did not get up, please,"

"For the sake of my loyalty, please restore my cultivation"

Saying that he can not control the wailing.

Decades of cultivation, in an instant turned into nothing,

This kind of blow to Parker can be called a disaster of extinction.

So, as long as he can get back his cultivation, let him do anything he is willing to do.

Flint Yeager didn't expect that, after only half a month of not seeing him,

His spirited senior brother had fallen to this state.

He was then surprised to find that Parker, at this time, had no trace of cultivation on his body,

And had just become an ordinary person, which made him startled and said offhandedly,

"Junior brother Parkar, what's wrong with you?"

Parker had focused all the attention on Charlie, suddenly heard Flint Yeager speak,

Then realized that his senior brother had actually returned,

Chapter 4288

So Parker immediately acted like an aggrieved child after seeing his parents,

Crying and said, "Senior Brother Yeager You are finally back, senior brother Yeager"

Flint Yeager hurriedly went forward, while supporting him, while painfully said,

"Junior brother Parkar, how did your cultivation get lost?!"

Parker said with remorse, "Brother, you do not know, today noon, Mr. Wade came to the house for a banquet,"

"I had no eyes, did not know his stature, in front of Mr. Wade I was reckless,"

"Mr. Wade then abolished my cultivation, let me have been kneeling in the restaurant until now"

After saying that, he suddenly remembered something and said offhandedly,

"Brother, Mr. Wade said that someone will come back to teach me a lesson for him,"

"And he should be talking about you, right"

Flint Yeager was shocked.

He knew that Charlie was very strong, so strong that he was unpredictable,

But he did not expect that he had directly nullified all of Parker's cultivation.

What he couldn't believe was that although Parker had lost his cultivation,

His meridians were intact, and there was no sign of fracture and ruin,

Which meant that Parker's cultivation had not been violently destroyed.

This point alone made Flint Yeager's expression awe-inspiring.

Violently destroying a person's cultivation is actually not that difficult,

As long as he is not your opponent, you can violently destroy all his meridians while knocking him down.

This is the same as picking off a person's tendons and hamstrings, simple and crude.

However, Charlie can do it this way, it comes out even more bizarre.

The meridians were intact, but the cultivation was completely ruined,

Which gave Flint Yeager a feeling as if Charlie had used some kind of power to completely seal Parker's cultivation.

If Charlie really had this kind of strength,

Then he would no longer be on the same level as the martial artists in the world.

Thinking of this, he was extremely shocked in his heart.

At the same time, he also subconsciously wanted to plead for mercy for his poor brother.

However, as soon as he thought of what Parker had just said,

He immediately realized that since Charlie had asked him to teach Senior Brother Parkar a lesson for him,

He could not directly ask Charlie for mercy.

So, he looked at Parker and slapped him across the face, and shouted angrily,

“Parker, how dare you! How dare you even offend Mr. Wade! Do you really not know how much you weigh?!”

Parker was frozen by the slap of his brother, but he also quickly understood,

That he had livened up Charlie, it was impossible to pull out safely,

Now he could only think of every way to make Charlie satisfied.

And brother slapped him, it is to give Charlie an explanation.

Thinking of this, he also hurriedly said with remorse:

“Brother, I know I’m wrong It was my eyes that offended Mr. Wade, please punish senior brother

Flint Yeager slapped again and said coldly, “Of course, I have to chastise you!”

“Otherwise, with a character like you, do you still want Mr. Wade to personally take action?”

After saying that, the remaining light quietly glanced at Charlie,

And saw that Charlie’s expression was cold and unmoved,

So he could not help but grit his teeth and rushed forward,

Kicking Parker to the ground and cursing angrily,

“Today, I will teach you a good lesson for Mr. Wade, you blind bastard!”

After saying that, he grabbed Parker and slapped him on the face one after another,

And for a while, he slapped Parker’s nose and face.

Parker was slapped one after another, but did not dare to have any anger,

But with a humble face choked: "Brother is right, a thousand mistakes,"

"It is my eyes without pearls that caused the disaster, I am a bastard, I deserve to die
....."

Charlie who can see these two people's bitter plan coldly spoke:

"All right! You brothers do not have to act in front of me! You Mr. Flint Yeager seven-star martial artist,"

"Beat a cripple with so many slaps, but not even a tooth came out,"

"You really think I am stupid, so you are here to trick me?"
