

Chapter 664

At this moment, he received a text from Jasmine: [Master Wade, I hope you don't take what happened earlier personally. With the Moore family around, the Webb family will not be too presumptuous.]

Charlie smiled and replied: [Of course, I don't mind, they are nothing but a bunch of circus clowns.]

Meanwhile, Donald and Sean were sitting in the VIP seats on the other side.

Sean looked at Jasmine, then at Charlie, and saw that both of them were looking at their phones. When she put it down, he picked it up, and when he put it down, she picked it up again. It was obvious that they were exchanging texts.

As he watched their exchange, he was even more agitated. He had added Jasmine as his Facebook friend, but she had set her profile as private!

In fact, she rarely responded whenever he chatted with her.

However, as he watched the frequency of her chatting with Charlie now, she was so acute and responsive, almost as though she was afraid to miss his message for even a second. She even had a sweet little smile on her face as she looked at her phone.

Sean was very experienced in courting girls, and he could see that Jasmine was indeed in love with Charlie now.

As he glared at them, the wrath of fury started to ignite inside him again.

He leaned against his father and said in a low voice, "Dad, I want Charlie dead! Tonight!"

Donald sighed at Sean's agitated expression and shook his head. "Do you know what is the only thing that I'm quite disappointed with in you?"

Sean shook his head, puzzled.

Donald sighed again and said, "You are too impulsive and hasty. You can't get your priorities straight."

Then, he continued, "Charlie is just a nobody with no background, we can kill him whenever we want. Don't ruin the relationship with the Moore family because of him. The most important thing right now is to let you win Jasmine's heart!"

Sean was still a little annoyed, but he nodded heavy heartedly. "I know. Okay, I'll wait for another two days, and then I'll get someone to kill him!"

"Calm down and observe him first. Although Charlie is a nobody, he has many supporters in the city. Not only the Quinton family, the White family, and Don Albert, but even the Moore family supports him. He can be a problem for us."

"What should we do?"

"We first need to sketch out a perfect plan if we want to kill him!"

Then, Donald explained further, “Even though Albert is just a thug, he has many men under him. If we get on his nerves, he can easily summon thousands of men in a split second, so we should beware of him. If we kill Charlie, he may retaliate, and if that happens, we may not be able to escape Aurous Hill alive.”

“Albert?” Sean frowned and blurted, “Let’s kill him first, then!”

Donald nodded. “Yes, that’s what I thought as well. First, let Albert be caught off guard and we’ll kill him when he doesn’t notice. Then, we’ll help Cain Lloyd take over his place and become the new king of the underworld!”

A sinister tinge flashed across Donald’s expression. “By that time, we will have a strong foundation of power and forces in Aurous Hill! It will be a piece of cake to wipe Charlie and those futile families off the grid!”

Sean was getting more and more excited as he listened to his father’s plan and blurted, “So, Dad, when do we kill Albert? I can’t stand him anymore!”

“Relax, I have a plan laid out. My men will send Albert across the Rainbow Bridge tonight!”

Chapter 665

Sean shivered in elation at the thought of killing Albert tonight!

His father was right, Don Albert was Charlie’s firearm in Aurous Hill!

If they wanted to attack Charlie, they must first remove his firearm!

Not only must they remove his firearm, but they also had to turn the firearm into their own!

That way, the firearm would become the bridgehead for the Webb family to march into Aurous Hill in the future!

At that time, Charlie would pay the price with his own life for insulting them and tackling Sean’s girl!

The Quinton family and the White family would also pay the price for not taking the Webb family’s side!

Donald looked at Sean and said flatly, “You must learn to calm down and put up a poker face, don’t let your true emotions show so easily on your face and body language.”

Sean quickly retracted his grin. “Okay, Dad, I understand!”

“Good.” Donald nodded, putting Charlie’s matter behind him, and he asked, “Have you prepared the birthday gift for Lord Moore?”

Sean nodded. “Yes, I have. I’ve inquired and found out that Lord Moore likes the works of Johannes Vermeer. He owns a tiny collection himself, so I specially asked someone to take a copy of The Geographer from our home gallery as the birthday gift. It is worth at least two to three billion, I believe he will like it!”

Donald nodded, a hint of satisfaction appearing in his eyes.

The Geographer was a treasure among treasures in the Webb family. With the painting as a stepping stone, he was certain that it would open the Moore family's door and be more welcoming to their family, and they might even agree to the marriage proposal.

Finally, the birthday banquet had officially begun.

Lord Moore walked onto the small stage and thanked all the guests present for attending his 80-year-old birthday banquet.

After a short speech, the next agenda was the guests taking turns to congratulate Lord Moore and present their gifts.

Two bodyguards in black suits carried an imperial armchair onto the stage and assisted Lord Moore to sit on the chair.

Reuben's father, his third uncle, and fourth uncle stood up first and lined up on the stage.

They knelt and bowed before Lord Moore before offering their gifts one by one.

Oscar, the family's head butler, stood beside Lord Moore to receive the gift while announcing the gift and its value to the guests.

This was also the tacit understanding and habit that the upper-class family had long formed.

"The eldest son, Tyler Moore, presents a tropical island in the Maldives, worth 500 million!"

Loud gasps echoed through the banquet hall!

Tyler was indeed generous as his gift was an island!

Tyler was Reuben's father, Jasmine's uncle.

Tyler spoke to Lord Moore, "Father, I heard that you were not feeling well a few days ago, so I bought a tropical island for you so that you can go there to escape the cold when winter comes!"

Lord Moore smiled and nodded. "Good, good. Tyler, thank you!"

"The third son, Branson Moore, presents a villa in Hawaii, worth 200 million!"

A middle-aged man who was much younger than Tyler said hurriedly, "Father, I didn't expect that Tyler would give you an island, the villa really pales in comparison!"

Lord Moore smiled warmly. "Nonsense, my son. I appreciate your thought. Thank you for your gift."

"The fourth son, Anders Moore, presents a luxury yacht worth 150 million!"

Another middle-aged man hurriedly said, "Father, Branson and I bought the yacht and the villa for you. When you go to Hawaii, you can enjoy a day or two on the yacht."

Then, he said complementing, “But we didn’t expect that Tyler would give you an island! We can send you to the Maldives with the yacht!”

Lord Moore laughed. “Good, good, when winter comes, we can go to the island in the Maldives for a vacation!”

Chapter 666

After the three sons, Jasmine and Reuben walked on stage, knelt in front of Lord Moore, and presented their gifts.

Oscar then announced:

After the family finished their rounds, the guests stepped forward one after another, giving gifts.

Although the guests’ gifts were not as valuable as the Moore family members’, they were also quite pricey between the range of 10 to 30 million.

Next, Donald and Sean stood up. Sean held the gift carefully and walked toward Lord Moore with his father.

On his way, Sean shot a scornful look at Charlie.

He was about to give Lord Moore a priceless piece of authentic painting from Vermeer, it had to be the most valuable gift among all the guests!

He was certain that Charlie’s gift would pale in comparison to his gift, he would know by then that they were from different worlds!

Sean was feeling extremely proud of himself as he imagined the scene. He held the painting carefully and bowed before Lord Moore. Then, he marched forward and said with a smile, “Grandpa Moore, this is a gift from me! I heard that you like Johannes Vermeer’s painting, so I had someone bring one from our house, The Geographer, which is worth hundreds of millions of dollars. I hope you like it.”

Then, Oscar immediately announced loudly, “The eldest son of the Webb family presents a copy of Vermeer’s original The Geographer, with a value of over 100 million!”

His announcement attracted curious gazes and attention from all the guests.

Vermeer’s paintings were relatively few and rare in the market, and every piece of his painting was extremely priceless.

Any of the most common paintings came with a price tag of at least 30 to 40 million, let alone the extremely rare ones.

Previously, Vermeer's The Girl with the Pearl Earring had been sold abroad for 3.6 billion dollars.

The Geographer was also one of Vermeer's rare treasures. Five years ago, it had been sold to a mysterious rich man at an auction at a price of nearly 200 million dollars. There was almost no news about the painting ever since.

No one expected that the painting would resurface at the Webb family's house. It could be assumed that the mysterious man who bought the painting was them.

Five years ago, the painting was worth 200 million dollars. If it was auctioned off now, the value would possibly be increased to 300 million!

It could even fetch 400 million if they were lucky!

Lord Moore blinked in astonishment when he heard the announcement.

He never expected the Webb family to be so generous in giving him the painting of The Geographer that was worth more than 300 million!

Everyone in Aurous Hill knew that he liked Vermeer's painting, so it was impossible for the Webb family to overlook it.

By presenting Vermeer's The Geographer as a birthday gift, they were completely catering to his pleasure regardless of cost.

Lord Moore couldn't hide his excitement and said, "Sean, thank you, you are so generous! I've been looking for this painting for a long time, thank you for giving it to me. I appreciate it very much!"

Sean was very proud and delighted upon hearing this.

Haha, he had guessed it right! The old man was obsessed with Vermeer, he couldn't get his eyes off the painting!

However, he donned a calm and composed expression and said, "Grandpa Moore, you're welcome. This is just a token of my affection."

Then, he couldn't help but glance at Charlie.

Charlie had not yet come to give his gifts. Now that he had approached the stage first to give the most expensive gift before Charlie, there was no way Charlie could beat him at this!

Hence, he smiled and said, "Brother Wade, I wonder what kind of gifts you have prepared for Grandpa Moore? Grandpa Moore admires you so much, you wouldn't let him down, would you?"

Chapter 667

In Sean's opinion, he was convinced that there was nothing Charlie, the deadbeat moocher, could give to Lord Moore that was comparable to Vermeer's painting!

Thus, he concluded that he would win over Charlie big time and also become the winner in the gift-giving round who surprised the guests and impressed Lord Moore the most.

After all, in Sean's view, Charlie was just a worthless loser who had chosen to marry into his wife's family, it was impossible for him to come out with a decent gift, so no matter what his present was, it couldn't possibly be on par with the precious painting he had given Lord Moore!

Therefore, he sneered, "Grandpa Moore, I heard that Master Wade has been lingering in the feng shui fraud for some time now, he must have accumulated a significant fortune from all the scamming he did. I bet his birthday gift to you must be a precious treasure that is worth hundreds of millions, or maybe even billions of dollars!"

Then, he turned his sneer at Charlie, "The painting I gave is only worth 400 million, I believe your gift must be more expensive than mine!"

Lord Moore frowned at Sean's sarcastic remark, his dissatisfaction toward the young man growing. He then said with a cold expression, "No matter what Master Wade gives to me, they are all priceless treasures!"

Sean was taken aback by the cold treatment and unfriendly tone.

What kind of magic potion had Charlie given to Lord Moore anyway? Why was he taking his side all the time?!

Meanwhile, Charlie stood up and approached the stage since his name had been mentioned.

Everyone glued their eyes at him, wondering what kind of gift he would give.

However, he was not holding anything in his hands nor did it look like he was carrying anything inside his pockets.

Did Charlie plan to play "empty-handed" with Lord Moore on such a glamorous occasion?!

Even if he wanted to give a painting, it was impossible to put it into his pocket no matter how tiny the painting was!

Since Charlie was walking up empty-handed, most people assumed that he did not prepare a gift. Even if he had, it was highly likely to be a worthless piece of shit and completely incomparable to the Vermeer painting.

On the other hand, Lord Moore was sitting at the edge of his chair, his heart in his mouth.

He focused entirely on Charlie.

In truth, he was shaking in wonderment when he saw Charlie approach him empty-handed!

His biggest concern was seeing Charlie holding a gift box, a scroll, or some physical object to come to him.

Because at a moment like this, he didn't want anything except the Rejuvenating Pill!

Vermeer's painting was indeed an awesome present, it truly catered to his preference as antiquity.

However, it was just his hobby.

When you were on the verge of dying, what was the use of putting all his favorite things in front of him?

He would rather exchange all of those things for a few more days to live.

Thus, Lord Moore was looking forward to Charlie giving him the Rejuvenating Pill! It could be regarded as his greatest expectation right now.

At this moment, Charlie had come to a stop in front of Lord Moore, calm and tranquil.

Before he could speak, Sean interjected mockingly, "Hey, Brother Wade, don't you think you're a little bit too stingy? Today is Grandpa Moore's 80th birthday, how could you attend his banquet empty-handed? The nerves you've got!"

Charlie smiled slightly and asked, "Who told you that I didn't prepare any gift?"

"Where is your gift, then? Show us!"

Sean said contemptuously, "Did you simply buy something off the shelf and come? Open your eyes and look around, which of these gifts is worth ten million or below?"

Chapter 668

Charlie smiled at him with feigned ignorance and retrieved a small wooden box from his pocket. Charlie had bought the wooden box by the street for five dollars. He had bought it because he thought it was inappropriate to put the pill directly into his pocket or wrap it with a napkin.

Sean couldn't conceal his disdain when he saw the wooden box and sneered, "Damn, what the heck is that? Did you buy that by the street for ten dollars?"

Charlie smiled. "You are half right. Yes, I bought it by the street, but it only cost me five dollars instead of ten."

Everyone gaped in shock at Charlie's remark!

Did he even take Lord Moore seriously?

How could he come to Lord Moore's birthday with a five-dollar wooden box?!

Even if there was something in the box, it would be some lousy junk, right?

He wouldn't put something valuable inside such a shabby-looking box.

Hence, everyone started booing at Charlie.

Even Reuben covered his mouth and tutted contemptuously.

Sean howled indignantly as if he had caught Charlie red-handed, "Charlie Wade, you are being so disrespectful! How dare you give Grandpa Moore such junk? You're doing this intentionally, aren't you?"

Ignoring him, Charlie opened the small wooden box, revealing the black and round pill inside, and said to Lord Moore, "Mr. Moore, this is the birthday gift I prepared for you by chance, the Rejuvenating Pill. I hope you like it."

He used the term 'by chance' in order to avoid unnecessary problems.

Lord Moore was trembling in excitement when he saw the pill! He stood up, feeling a surge of energy rushing to the top of his head.

He started shaking violently as soon as he got up as the uncontrollable excitement surged through his body!

He had been wishing, even in his dreams, that Master Wade would bless him with the rare chance that he had given to Anthony, but he could only keep it as a secret as he knew the chance was so precious and exceptional.

However, he never expected that his ultimate dream would come true, and it was even better now because it had happened on his birthday!

Master Wade had granted him the precious dream!

Those who didn't know Charlie assumed that Lord Moore was agitated and infuriated by Charlie's mischief as he had never suffered such humiliation in his life. They assumed that he would slap Charlie in the face and kick him out of here.

Sean took a peek and saw the dark, unassuming pill lying in the box, and he couldn't see anything mystical about it. He huffed in disdain, "Charlie, are you honestly going to give Lord Moore a shitty pill on his 80th birthday? Isn't that an enhancement pill you just bought off the street? Are you sure the people who take it won't die?!"

Charlie ignored him and explained to Lord Moore, "Mr. Moore, this Rejuvenating Pill has the effect of prolonging life and improving physical fitness. After taking it, it can make you feel ten years younger, and your life expectancy will be extended by at least ten years."

Sean couldn't help but shake his head in amusement and tease, "Oh my goodness, Charlie, do you think you can fool the almighty and clever Grandpa Moore with that nonsense? What kind of a shitty enhancement pill can make someone ten years younger? What kind of joke are you trying to tell? You're certainly treating all of us as fools, aren't you?"

The guests nodded simultaneously. They all agreed that Charlie's claims were ridiculous and out of this world.

A pill that could make someone ten years younger? Who was he trying to trick?!

However, out of everyone's expectation, Lord Moore came to Charlie, trembling, and suddenly, knelt on the floor!

Loud gasps resonated across the banquet hall instantly, and everyone was so shocked as if they had been struck by lightning!

Chapter 669

No one would have imagined that the 80-year-old Lord Moore would actually kneel to Charlie!

Supposedly, when someone lived to be 80 years old, his parents and elders might have already passed away. No one, not even God himself, deserved the privilege of getting him to kneel before them.

Moreover, Lord Moore was the head of the Moore family! The largest and most prominent family in Aurous Hill!

Their 80-year-old family patriarch had literally knelt before a young man in his twenties!

This was incredibly extraordinary and bizarre!

Sean was equally dumbfounded.

What the hell?!

Had the old man actually knelt for a piece of enhancement pill?

You should've said so sooner!

I could've used the 400 million dollars on the Vermeer's painting to buy enhancement pills, it would have been enough to cater to your needs until your 200th birthday!

I didn't even ask you to kneel to me, betrothing Jasmine to me was all I asked for!

Meanwhile, the Moore family members were all donning different expressions.

Jasmine was filled with uncontrollable thrill and excitement.

Her parents had passed away when she was young. Her grandfather had raised her to adulthood, and she shared a deep and emotional relationship with him.

Besides, she had heard from her grandfather that Dr. Simmons had been given the Rejuvenating Pill some time ago, and she also knew that her grandfather desperately yearned to get the pill himself.

For Jasmine, she hoped that her grandfather could be blessed with such a rare opportunity to get the pill and live healthily for another ten years.

However, the other family members did not share the same thought, especially Reuben, the eldest grandson of the Moore family. He was utterly worried and upset by this scene.

For as long as his grandfather was alive and kicking, he would not completely hand over the power to his father, and it would be difficult for him to become the sole heir of the family inheritance.

As far as he was concerned, Lord Moore had not written any will regarding the division of his inheritance and estate, so, no one knew how much assets he intended to distribute to his three sons after his death as well as Jasmine whose parents had perished.

If Reuben's father couldn't inherit the entire family business, he would get an even smaller inheritance. Thus, he didn't want his grandfather to live longer than he was supposed to.

At this moment, Lord Moore knelt in front of Charlie, tears of astonishment pouring down his cheeks.

With a warm smile on his face, Charlie placed the box in his hand and said gently, "This pill is extremely precious and rare. It's the only one left in the world, so I advise you to take it as soon as possible in case it turns bad."

Lord Moore accepted the wooden box with shaky hands, and he was very elated!

Amidst everyone's intense gaze and stunned gasp, he bowed down, his forehead touching the ground!

The backs of his hands were on the ground, the palms facing upward, and he said earnestly, "I, Jonathan Moore, thank Master Wade for his generosity and opportunity! I can never repay his ultimate favor, and I hereby swear to God that I will do my best to be loyal to Master Wade for the rest of my life!"

Louder exclamations echoed through the hall once again!

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, who could believe that Lord Moore would actually kneel and bow to a young man and say such pious words?!

The most clueless and incomprehensible one of them all was Sean!

Chapter 670

Sean thought that the old thing must have lost his mind or someone had knocked him hard on the head, otherwise, why would he kneel and bow to Charlie?!

Lord Moore was the most senior among all the attendees today. Even though the Webb family was at a higher level than the Moore family in terms of the social class pyramid, his father's power and assets were lesser than the Moore family, not to mention, Lord Moore was an elder.

As for the guests, many of them were from average and above average families, but they were still worth at least over 100 million.

There was only one loser in this hall, and that was Charlie!

Yet, Lord Moore chose to kneel before this loser and even bowed his head to him!

Why?!

What the fuck did Charlie have that he didn't?!

Why did Lord Moore kneel to Charlie so humbly?!

In other words, he would give his granddaughter to this loser, wouldn't he?!

Sean was extremely depressed and infuriated as he thought about it!

If he didn't tarnish Charlie's influence right now, Lord Moore might even be willing to let Jasmine be the loser's mistress!

So, he gritted his teeth and said indignantly, "Grandpa Moore! How could you believe this loser and his bullshit? That pill there, it's obvious that he bought it from a lousy doctor by the street! The box is five dollars, the pill must be ten at best! Please don't be fooled by him! You may ruin your health if you take it!"

Lord Moore glared at Sean and chided him coldly, "Sean, you are my family's guest, but Master Wade is my savior. He saved my life and did me favors that I cannot repay. If you dare to insult him again, I'll make this very personal!"

Sean stomped his feet anxiously. "Grandpa Moore, are you out of your mind? How can you believe in such bullshit?!"

Jasmine rose to her feet and angrily said, "Sean Webb! Watch your tongue!"

Sean frowned at Jasmine and asked, "Your grandpa is confused, and you too? The pill is just a worthless piece of shit that people use to scam the dull-witted elderly! You are an educated person! You graduated from a prestigious university in The States, and yet, are you saying that you also believe in Charlie's bullshit?!"

"Of course I do!" Jasmine burst out without hesitation, "I'll never doubt anything Master Wade says! As for you, if you attack Master Wade again and insult my grandfather, I'll kick you out of here!"

"You..." Sean's blood was boiling.

What the hell was all this?!

How did a shabby little pill turn Lord Moore and Jasmine into such ignorant fools?!

He wouldn't even bother to take a look at the piece of shit if someone gave it to him!

Why did they treat it as a priceless treasure?

Lord Moore had only said a simple 'thank you' to his fucking 400 million dollar painting, but he had knelt before Charlie for a worthless enhancement pill!

Damn it! If they wanted to measure the gifts by value, Lord Moore should have buried his knees deep into the floor for Sean!

He turned to the guests and shouted in great dismay, "Come, let me listen to your judgment. What is the value of an enhancement pill like this? Is it more precious than my Vermeer painting? You, the Moore family! Why are you treating this loser so respectfully instead of me?!"

Donald was equally enraged as his son had received such a cold treatment after giving such an expensive gift. He stood up and snorted angrily, "Uncle Moore, indeed, your family is at the top of the social pyramid in Aurous Hill, but you can't taunt our family like this! Why are you being so respectful and gracious to the person who gives away a piece of the rubbish, but you treat my son coldly when he has given you such a rare painting?"

"If you don't give us a reasonable explanation today, I can only assume that the Moore family deliberately looks down upon our family!"

Holding the Rejuvenating Pill carefully in his hands, Lord Moore chided sternly, "Donald Webb, you are the eldest son of the Webb family, but I never knew that you were so ignorant and have such a narrow vision! Do you truly think that this pill is rubbish? To tell you the truth, if you knew the effect of this pill, you would also kneel in front of Master Wade and beg him to give you one!"

Donald said coldly, "Huh, me? Don't make me laugh! I'm not even 60 yet, do you think I'm as confused and stupid as you are?!"

Charlie smiled as he glanced at Donald's resolute and somewhat sarcastic expression, and he said to Lord Moore, "There is a lyric that sings, 'Miner's lady, a stranger to blue water'. The lady who lives at the coal mine all year round will never know the blue hue of the ocean, similar to the person who doesn't believe that there is a God in this world because they have never seen miracles."

Then, he chuckled ambiguously and said flatly, "In that case, why don't you take the pill here so that they can see what kind of miraculous effect the pill brings!"

Chapter 671

Lord Moore had been very enthusiastic after receiving the Rejuvenating Pill, and he wanted to swallow it the minute he received it.

After all, he had seen the magical effect materialize on Anthony after the latter had taken the pill, so he was very worried about damaging it when he held it in his hand.

The only way to feel assured was to eat it!

Since Charlie had said so, Lord Moore nodded and said gratefully, "Okay, Master Wade, I'll take it now!"

Then, he carefully put the pill into his mouth and swallowed it!

As the pill was being digested, he felt that the pill had transformed into a stream of heat that surged into his limbs and veins, warming his body, and every cell in his body was full of vitality. It was as if he had returned to his teenage years, feeling youthful and energetic.

Just like Anthony, Lord Moore felt that every part of his body had been nourished by the pill to the point that it was glowing with long-lost youth.

Surprisingly, he found that the old wounds and illnesses that had lingered in his body for many decades were gradually disappearing, and the wrinkles on his face began to smoothen, and his skin started to tighten.

He felt an itch on his scalp as well, and it seemed that new hair was starting to grow!

Lord Moore was experiencing astonishing physical and internal changes right in front of everyone's eyes!

He was slightly crouching in the beginning. He slowly stood straight and upright. His hair, although not all, was starting to turn black.

The senile lines on his face had also faded to a visible extent, and his spirit and dynamic were completely different from before!

If one were to say Lord Moore looked like an old man in his eighties earlier, now, he looked like he was in his sixties at best!

In fact, he suddenly looked very energized and active, his dynamic eyes even suggested that he was a middle-aged man!

Those who had dismissed the Rejuvenating Pill earlier were stunned by Lord Moore's incredible and supernatural changes!

No one had ever seen such a miraculous sight, and even Jasmine was completely taken aback by the sight!

The former rickety old man had now become a gray-haired middle-aged man. This reminded Jasmine of the time the old man had taken her into his arms when her father had passed away a decade ago and told her not to be afraid and that he would always be there for her.

Her grandfather had only been in his sixties at the time, and right now, he looked almost the same as he did back then.

In other words, it could be said that her grandfather's biological clock had been reversed thanks to the Rejuvenating Pill!

It also meant that his life would be extended by ten more years...

Did that mean that her grandfather could live until he was 100 years old!?

Jasmine burst into joyful tears all of a sudden!

The rest of the Moore family members did not truly care about her. When her father had died, they were grieving on the outside, but celebrating in their hearts, delighted that there was one less person in the inheritance war among them.

As such, her only relative in the world who sincerely cared about her was her grandfather!

So, of course she hoped that her grandfather could live a long life!

When Lord Moore was dying, he had once told her that his biggest regret was that he couldn't walk her down the aisle.

Lord Moore had said that Jasmine was the one he was most worried about because she had lost her parents since she was a child, and he adored her very much. She was also the only child who was the most sincere and filial to him.

Hence, his biggest concern was that Jasmine hadn't started a family when he died. Then, Jasmine would become lonely.

Lord Moore hoped to watch her marry a man who loved her and whom she loved in return, a capable and reliable man who could take care of and protect her.

Only in that way could he leave the world peacefully.

However, now, Jasmine knew that he didn't have to worry about any of that any longer.

Not only could he walk her down the aisle, but he could also see her having kids and building her own family. He could even enjoy the happiness of four generations living together!

When this thought flashed through Jasmine's mind, she couldn't help looking at Charlie.

Chapter 672

Charlie was her ideal partner if she ever wanted to marry someone and have children with.

But would Charlie fall in love with her?

Would Charlie be willing to give up on his current loveless marriage and be with her?

Jasmine was a little worried.

On the other hand, the rest of the crowd cheered loudly!

They were so excited when they saw with their own eyes the exceptional changes that happened to Lord Moore!

“How... how is it possible... How did Lord Moore become so young suddenly?!”

“Oh my goodness, is this the effect of the Rejuvenating Pill?!”

“A pill that can make someone ten years younger! This is a magical pill!”

“Master Wade was indeed the true dragon!”

“I... I want the pill too...”

“Me too... I’m willing to buy it for 10 million!”

“One million? You must be kidding! I’ll buy it for 100 million!”

“Damn it! If Master Wade wants to sell the pill, I’ll pay 200 million!”

Ear-deafening astonishment and exclamations resonated in the hall!

If they hadn’t seen it with their own eyes, no one would have believed that a literal rejuvenation pill was real!

This kind of thing could only happen on TV, the movies, and in dramas, but it had happened in real life!

All the guests today were successful people who were in their 40s and 50s, or even older. People of this age had already felt the despair and hardship of the passing of time, and in this case, youth.

They had started to have wrinkles crawling up their faces and necks, their physique was much worse than when they were young. Backaches, knee pains, muscle strains, and so on, were inevitable.

In addition, hair loss, obesity, getting up at night, and rapid sexual deterioration was also unspeakable misery suffered by these men.

No one in their 50s and 60s would not miss the happiness and joy in their youth!

Unfortunately, back when they were young, most of these men were healthy but had no money, and as they grew older, their fortune expanded, but their health dissipated.

Not many people were as fortunate as Donald who was born with a silver spoon to have money and physical strength ever since the day they were born.

Many of these men did not have the luck to attract women when they were young, but when they had the money and career, and countless young women had started courting them, they lacked the physical and sexual strength to meet their needs.

As such, they stopped dreaming about having both money and youth in their hands at the same time. Instead, they wished that they could reincarnate into a wealthier family in their next life.

Therefore, when they witnessed the miracle that happened to Lord Moore, a hopeful and longing fire started to burn within them!

Even a rich man like Donald was on his tiptoes as he witnessed the miraculous changes on Lord Moore!

Indeed, his youth had been filled with money, energy, and power.

At that time, he was a playboy sought after by countless beauties. His youth life could be described as hopping between different bushes of flowers every day, and it certainly sounded as scandalous and flirtatious as it might. He was as popular as David Beckham, even.

However, it was all in the past, being kept in the folder of his glorious history. His manhood and masculinity had deteriorated day by day.

Hence, he missed those youthful days when he was a bold, free, and casual young man.

At this moment, when he looked at Charlie, there was no longer hatred and resentment. Instead, it was replaced by eagerness and expectation...

He walked up to Charlie, bowed respectfully, and said, "Master Wade, may I know if you still have any Rejuvenating Pills left? If you do, please give me one. I'll pay 500 million dollars for it!"

Chapter 673

No one at the scene would have expected Donald, who was scolding Charlie and pressuring Lord Moore to give him an explanation earlier, to suddenly change so quickly.

Even Sean himself was stunned at this time!

He blurted out subconsciously as he asked, "Dad! Why are you being so polite towards a casual and useless son-in-law such as him? Don't forget that he called our family garbage when we were outside just now!"

At this time, Donald blurted out, "Bastard! You'd better shut up now!"

There were so many things that Donald could not say in front of everyone here.

However, he was already roaring in his heart.

You bastard! What would you know?

Sean was still young and his body was at its peak as he was still in his twenties. That was the reason why he could sing songs every night, party and drink, go to bed at three o'clock in the morning, wake up at nine o'clock in the morning, or even stay up all night. However, he could not do that anymore!

Sean's current physical state was typical of a well-fed man who would never understand how a hungry man would ever feel when he was starving!

His son could eat expensive fish and meat every day. So, how could he possibly understand how a person who has not eaten for three days would bend his waist over just for a mouthful of rice?

That was because he has never experienced hunger in his entire life!

He would never understand the feeling of hunger that would make a person so flustered, as well as experience hair loss, weak limbs, and uneven breathing. He would never understand why a person who was starving would kneel down just for a bun!

For someone like Donald, although he had not reached a very old age yet, he knew that his body was already in a much worse state compared to his younger days. He had money, status, and strength but he did not have his youth anymore. Therefore, when Donald saw the sudden change in Lord Moore's physical body, he really longed for the same thing deep down in his heart.

He would be willing to pay five hundred million dollars to buy a magic medicine like this. In fact, he would even be willing to pay five billion dollars for a pill like that!

The expression on Sean's face turned very ugly after getting scolded by his father.

However, he did not dare to talk back to his father because he understood his father's temper very well. If he continued talking back to him, Sean knew that his father would probably beat him up in public!

As Sean was feeling very down and prepared to retreat, Donald noticed that Charlie was not responding to his offer at all. Therefore, he hurriedly yelled at Sean, who was about to retreat, as he said, "You asshole! Come over here and apologize to Master Wade now!"

Sean had a very aggrieved expression on his face as he subconsciously said, "Dad, are you actually asking me to apologize to him?"

Donald replied coldly, "Yes! I want you to come over here and apologize to Master Wade right now. Otherwise, I won't let you off!"

Sean never would have dreamt that his father would actually reprimand and scold him under the gaze and watchful eyes of so many people. He really felt like dying.

This was especially so because Jasmine was also staring at him with ridicule in her eyes...

This made Sean feel as though he was suffocating at this time!

He could not stop himself from blurting out, "Dad! Even if you kill me, I'll never apologize to this kind of useless and pathetic jerk!"

After that, Sean turned around and walked away immediately.

Donald was very angry and furious when he witnessed this situation!

He knew that his son's biggest shortcoming was that he never knew how he should be acting and behaving in every situation.

Even if they were billionaires, there were also times when they would have to lower themselves and bow before other people. At a time like this, even if they had to kneel down, they should be kneeling down willingly.

The Rejuvenating Pill was indeed a very magical medicine. It would be fine if he had never seen this medicine before. However, now that he had witnessed it for himself, he did not want to miss out on it!

Donald knew that it would be the biggest regret of his lifetime if he missed out on this opportunity!

How much was his son's dignity worth in the face of this kind of opportunity?

Just as Donald was about to stop his son from leaving, Charlie, who had been silent this entire time, simply smiled slightly as he said, "Mr. Webb, since Sean is unhappy, there's no point in making things difficult for him. As the saying goes, nothing forcibly done can ever be agreeable. Similarly, a forced apology wouldn't be acceptable too."

After that, Charlie turned his attention away from Donald before he focused his attention on Lord Moore instead. "Lord Moore, the Rejuvenating Pill can at least extend your life for another ten or more years. I believe that you can easily live up to a hundred years old. I hope that you won't forget to invite me to your hundredth birthday banquet when the time comes!"

When Lord Moore heard Charlie's words, his eyes were filled with tears as he was extremely excited. At this time, he quickly knelt to the ground with a thud as he said piously, "I thank you for your kindness, Master Wade! I will never forget your kindness and graciousness towards an old man like me!"

Charlie smiled faintly before he nodded and said, "Don't just thank me. You should also be thanking your good and filial granddaughter, Jasmine. If it weren't because of her, I wouldn't have gotten to know you or the Moore family at all, let alone give you this precious and valuable Rejuvenating Pill! Therefore, you shouldn't forget what she has done for you and you must remember to treat her right in the future!"

Jasmine could not help but trembled a little when she heard Charlie's words.

She knew that Charlie was giving her a big gift at this time!

It was a very big gift that could even ensure that she would be able to inherit the Moore family from her grandfather!

Chapter 674

Jasmine looked at Charlie with gratitude in her eyes and the feelings that she had for him increased intensely again!

She felt that she would never be able to repay Charlie's kindness towards herself even if she willingly gave her life to him!

When Reuben heard this, he felt very angry inside.

He was very annoyed!

He blamed and hated Charlie for being so nosy!

He blamed Charlie for renewing and prolonging Lord Moore's life!

He even blamed Charlie for giving all the credit to Jasmine!

However, he did not dare to display even the slightest resentment that he was feeling deep within his heart and he could only subdue the murderous intent that he was feeling inside.

At this time, Lord Moore nodded repeatedly as he replied sincerely, "Yes! I will always keep Master Wade's instructions to heart!"

After that, Lord Moore kowtowed in front of Charlie again to express his gratitude and thanks to him.

Charlie had the opportunity to stop Lord Moore from kneeling down and kowtowing to him twice, but he did not do so.

His reason was very simple. Charlie felt that it was only right for Lord Moore to kneel before him!

After all, Charlie was giving him such good fortune and the medicine that he had given him was going to prolong his life expectancy for another ten long years at least! This kind of good fortune was so great and rare that it would not even be an exaggeration if Lord Moore had to kneel down and kowtow before Charlie twice every day for the rest of his life!

An ordinary man who believed in god would worship his god at least three times a day, but could the god actually give him another ten years of life?

No!

God could not do that, but Charlie could!

Therefore, it was only natural for Charlie to receive these two kowtows from Lord Moore!

When they saw this scene, all the sons of the Moore family also came forward, one after the other. The first person to step forward was Tyler, who was none other than Lord Moore's eldest son, followed by his third and fourth brothers.

At this time, the three brothers stepped up as they knelt down behind Lord Moore immediately.

Tyler held up his arched hands as he proclaimed, "Thank you, Master Wade, for blessing my father with such a good and rare opportunity. I, Tyler Moore, the son of the Moore family, would like to offer my sincere gratitude and thanks to Master Wade!"

After he was done speaking, Tyler kowtowed in front of Charlie without raising his head for the longest time.

After he did so, his third and fourth brother also quickly followed suit as they expressed their thanks and gratitude to Charlie.

At this time, Reuben and Jasmine also walked up and knelt down behind them.

Even though Reuben was very angry, he still shouted in a very pious voice, "Thank you, Master Wade for giving my grandfather, Lord Moore, this precious opportunity. Thank you once again, Master Wade!"

Jasmine glanced at Charlie with a very complicated and deep expression in her eyes. She was filled with gratitude, admiration, affection, and awe at this time.

After kneeling down on the ground, Jasmine also spoke up in her soft and beautiful voice. "Thank you, Master Wade, for everything you've done for the Moore family. As Lord Moore's granddaughter, I would like to offer my most sincere thanks to you, Master Wade!"

The remaining grandchildren and members of the Moore family also followed suit as they knelt down in front of Charlie to thank him.

It was Lord Moore's eightieth birthday today.

Originally, he should have been the person who would be sitting at the main seat to receive words of blessings from all of his descendants.

However, at this time, all the members of the Moore family, from the eighty-year-old head of the family to the youngest seven or eight-year-old grandchild were all kneeling down in front of Charlie in an extremely respectful manner to thank him!

This scene really stunned every single guest who had attended Lord Moore's birthday banquet today!

The Moore family was the top and most powerful family in Aurous Hill!

However, all of them were now kneeling down and kowtowing in front of Master Wade!

No one at the scene felt that it was a shameful thing for the whole family to kneel down in front of Charlie.

On the contrary, they all felt very envious in their hearts. Some of them were even filled with jealousy!

Why?

Why didn't this great opportunity fall on them instead?

Chapter 675

Donald also developed a very strong sense of jealousy towards Lord Moore.

If he knew that this medicine was so amazing, he would have grabbed the pill in his own hands no matter what it would have cost him!

However, it was really a pity that he had blindly offended Charlie.

Before this, he was actually plotting to get Charlie killed so that his son could have a better opportunity to pursue Jasmine.

However, after witnessing everything today, he simply wanted to obtain a Rejuvenating Pill from Charlie.

As for whom his son would be marrying in the future, that question was not even that important anymore in the face of the Rejuvenating Pill.

Therefore, he took advantage of this situation when the members of the Moore family were all kneeling on the ground before Charlie to rush out of the Moore family mansion to bring back his resentful son, Sean.

Sean asked angrily, "Dad, do you know what you're asking me to do? You want me to go back and apologize to that piece of trash?"

"That's right!" Donald replied sharply. "I want you to apologize to him immediately. If an apology does not work, then I want you to kneel down and apologize to him. If kneeling down and apologizing to him does not work, then I want you to kowtow and apologize to him! In short, no matter what it takes, you have to beg for his forgiveness and get him to accept your apology today!"

"Why?" Sean exploded immediately.

"Why do you want me to kowtow and apologize to him? If you want me to do that, then you should just kill me instead! Can't you see that Jasmine is obviously in love with him? If I kowtow before him and apologize for my mistake, then I won't ever have any chance to pursue Jasmine in the future!"

Donald replied coldly, "The most important thing right now isn't whether you'll be able to marry Jasmine. Instead, the most important thing at this time is whether I can get my hands on Charlie's Rejuvenating Pill!"

Sean blurted out, "Dad, you're still so young! Why are you even interested in something like that?"

"Young?" Donald snorted as he laughed and said, "In any case, I must make sure that I get a Rejuvenating Pill from Charlie no matter what it costs me. Nothing else is more important than this!"

Sean stared at his father with wide opened eyes as he said, "Dad! Have you forgotten about our plan? We were going to kill Don Albert today and Charlie tomorrow! Are you telling me that you're going to forget all about our plan just because of a Rejuvenating Pill?"

Donald glared at Sean before he replied coldly, "Why don't you know anything about strategy at all? If Charlie is a mountain standing in our way, then of course we'll have to blow him up and flatten him to the ground. However, now that we've found such a priceless and valuable treasure on this mountain, do you think it makes sense to blast him to pieces and flatten him before we get our hands on the treasure?"

At this time, Sean subconsciously asked, "Dad, what do you mean..."

Donald had a sullen expression on his face as he said coldly, "First, we'll try whatever we can to get our hands on the treasure before we blow the mountain into pieces! This is the choice and decision that a wise man would make!"

Sean was very happy when he heard his father's words and he blurted out, "Dad, do you mean to say that you intend to get a Rejuvenation Pill from Charlie before you kill him?"

"Yes!" Donald replied coldly, "Didn't Charlie say that he'd obtained this Rejuvenation Pill by chance? Since he's so willing to give the Rejuvenation Pill to Lord Moore, then this proves that he definitely has more Rejuvenation Pills in his hand! Otherwise, it would be completely impossible for anyone to give their one and only Rejuvenation Pill to someone else!"

As he spoke about this, Donald snorted before he said in a firm manner, "I believe that Charlie is carrying at least another few Rejuvenation Pills on him. If we can get our hands on the pills, then I'll be able to protect the Webb family for at least a hundred years!"

Sean hurriedly asked, "Dad, after getting the Rejuvenation Pills, will we be getting rid of Don Albert and Charlie according to our original plan?"

"Of course!" Donald replied with a gloomy expression on his face. "I won't only be getting rid of both of them, but I'll also get rid of all the people who are supporting and pledging their loyalty to Charlie in Aurous Hill! I'll also get rid of Lord Moore, that nasty old man! Damn it! It's no wonder why that old thing does not even want to give me any face at all. It turns out that Charlie has had such a priceless and valuable treasure in his hand all this while!"

Sean asked tentatively, "Dad, are you going to do something to the Moore family?"

Donald nodded slightly before he looked around to make sure that there was no one around them. After that, he said seriously, "First of all, we'll have to think of a way to get our hands on the Rejuvenation Pill. After that, we'll kill both Don Albert and Charlie. Then, I'll offer the Moore family a way out only if they obediently agree to allow Jasmine to marry you. If they refuse to accept my kind offer at that time, then they can't blame me for not being merciful!"

After that, Donald continued speaking, "However, before we can proceed with this plan, you'll have to listen to and obey all of my instructions. You can't continue being so arrogant!"

Chapter 676

Sean replied excitedly, "I'll listen to you, Dad!"

Donald nodded in satisfaction as he said, "Come, let's go in and ask Charlie to give me one of the Rejuvenation Pill!"

"Ask him for the pill?" Sean hurriedly asked, "How are you going to ask for it?"

"By kneeling!" Donald replied indifferently, "Since the entire Moore family has already knelt down in front of Charlie, then we'll have to kneel down in front of him too!"

"Kneel? You want me to kneel down in front of Charlie?" Sean jumped up as he yelled, "You want me to kneel before him? Dad, why don't you kill me instead?"

Donald could not help but frown as he stared at his son and said, "Did you even hear anything that I was telling you earlier?"

Sean had a very sad and depressed expression on his face as he said, "But Dad, you're asking me to kneel before him! When have I ever knelt down before anyone else aside from you and my grandfather? Didn't you tell me that men should never kneel down in front of anyone else?"

Donald sneered before he replied, "If Han Xin thought the same way as you when he was humiliated in the past, then he wouldn't have been named the God of War in Chinese history!"

After that, Donald asked, "What does it matter if you have to kneel in front of others? You can kneel down in front of a person before stabbing him. That is how a true hero acts!"

Sean nodded slightly when he heard his father's words and he replied, "Okay then, I'll listen to you, Dad."

Donald patted his son gently on his shoulder as he smiled and said, "Being able to conform to change is also a very huge improvement!"

After that, Donald could not hide the excitement on his face as he said, "Come on and follow me into the Moore family mansion now!"

At this time, Charlie has already helped Lord Moore up to his feet.

As Lord Moore stood up, the other members of the Moore family also followed in his steps.

Everyone also stood in line to offer up their birthday gifts to Lord Moore at this moment. Therefore, Charlie returned to his seat as he allowed Lord Moore to continue with his birthday banquet.

After Charlie returned to his seat, a group of people started gathering around him as they spoke to him excitedly.

Everyone was rushing forward to place their bids for a Rejuvenating Pill.

There were also people who had already started the bid from three hundred million dollars, to four hundred million dollars, and even as high as five hundred millions dollars at one go.

However, Charlie simply replied indifferently, "I'm sorry everyone, but I really received the Rejuvenation Pill by accident. I don't have any more of these pills after giving it to Lord Moore."

Someone recognized Charlie and he knew that he was none other than the great Master Wade who had struck Jack Yalman the Feng Shui master from Hong Kong to death at the metaphysics gathering at the White family mansion. Therefore, he shouted out, "Master Wade, I know that you're the supreme leader of the metaphysics circle! I'm sure that you must have refined and concocted this Rejuvenating Pill on your own. Please have some compassion for us and refine a batch of these pills for all the old and elderly men like us. We'll be more than willing to pay you the highest price that we can for this pill!"

At this time, Charlie thought to himself and knew that he would not be able to experience any peace in his life if anyone were to find out that he had the ability to refine the Rejuvenation Pill.

Therefore, he replied lightly, “Even if I am the supreme leader of the metaphysics circle, there are just some things that are way beyond my abilities.”

As Charlie spoke, he had a look of regret on his face as he said, “Based on my personal research, this Rejuvenation Pill was refined by a genius doctor and warlock during the ancient times. It is a pill that was specifically refined for emperors and generals in the army. After many years passed, it seemed as though this medicine has slowly started to fade and even the method of refining and concocting the medicine is already lost. Therefore, I believe it will be impossible for anyone to refine the Rejuvenation Pill now. However, all of you can rest assured that I’ll definitely share this pill with everyone if I have the skills and capability to refine and concoct the Rejuvenation Pill in the future!”

When everyone heard Charlie’s words, they could not help but give up. At the same time, they could only hope that Charlie would really be able to refine the Rejuvenating Pill one day.

Donald and his son had just entered the Moore family mansion at this time. When Sean heard Charlie’s words, he quickly spoke to his father, “Dad, Charlie said that he doesn’t have any more Rejuvenation Pills on him!”

“Doesn’t have any more?” Donald smiled contemptuously before he said confidently, “I don’t believe him!”

Chapter 677

When Sean saw that his father firmly believed that Charlie definitely had more Rejuvenation Pills on him, he looked at his father before he asked, “Dad, are you really going to look for Charlie and beg him to give you a Rejuvenation Pill?”

“That’s right.” Donald nodded slightly before he said, “You’ll come with me later and I’ll apologize to Charlie on your behalf. After that, you’ll kneel down and beg for Charlie’s forgiveness. After that, I’ll take advantage of the opportunity to ask him for a Rejuvenation Pill then.”

Sean had a very depressed expression on his face as he said, “Dad, do you mean that you want me to kneel down before him and apologize and confess to my mistake? After that, you’ll take advantage of this opportunity to ask him for the pill?”

Donald glared at Sean before he asked, “Do you have anything to say about my plan?”

Sean was startled by the look in his father’s eyes and he hurriedly waved his hand as he said, “No...I have no objections at all!”

Donald nodded in satisfaction before he said, “Like I said, a man needs to be as flexible as they possibly can be. If you kneeling down is useless, then I’ll kneel down too. As long as I can get my hands on the Rejuvenation Pill, I’d even be willing to call him my father! In this world, is there anything else more important than life itself?”

“Well...” Sean knew that his father had already been completely hooked by the temptation of the Rejuvenation Pill. Therefore, he knew that it was completely useless for him to say anything at all at this time.

As the father and son were walking back into the banquet hall, Charlie had already sent everyone who was surrounding him away.

The birthday banquet was about to begin at this time but when Charlie looked around him, he noticed that there were two empty seats at the table that he was sitting at.

These two seats had originally been prepared for Anthony and his granddaughter, Xyla.

Charlie could not help but wonder if something was wrong.

From his understanding, Anthony was a very punctual person who had a good sense of timing and he would always keep all of his promises. Therefore, he was not the kind of person who would be so late.

As he thought about this, Charlie took out his cell phone and called Anthony immediately.

The phone call was connected very quickly.

However, it was Xyla who answered the phone.

“Wade...Master Wade...”

Xyla’s voice was a little nervous and aggrieved.

Charlie hurriedly asked, “Xyla? Where’s your grandfather? Why aren’t both of you here at Lord Moore’s eightieth birthday banquet?”

Xyla replied with an angry voice, “Master Wade, my grandfather’s clinic has been smashed and destroyed! He’s busy cleaning up and fixing up his clinic now. We might not be able to attend the birthday banquet today. My grandfather did not want to tell you and Lord Moore about this matter because he was afraid that it would affect everyone’s mood...”

At this time, Charlie could not help but wonder who would actually be courageous enough to smash the well-known and reputable Dr. Simmons’ clinic?

Charlie hurriedly asked, “Who did this?”

Xyla replied, “The father and son of the Webb family from Sudbury! They wanted to ask my grandfather to make a trip to their home in Sudbury to treat Kian’s illness. However, my grandfather felt that Kian is a very despicable person who deserves to suffer and he refused to agree to their request. That’s the reason why they had asked their men to smash and destroy my grandfather’s clinic!”

Charlie had a very cold expression on his face when he heard Xyla’s words.

It turned out to be the work of Donald and his son?

Anger flashed through Charlie’s heart as he asked, “Xyla, are you or your grandfather hurt in any way?”

Xyla quickly replied, “No. I was not at the clinic at that time. Our clinic had already been smashed and ruined when I came back. The Webb family members had also left with their men at that time. My grandfather is also fine. Only the clinic has been smashed and destroyed.”

When Charlie heard that they were both not injured, he relaxed a little as he said, "Xyla, tell your grandfather that I will help him to deal with this matter."

After he was done speaking, Charlie hung up the phone with a cold expression on his face.

The Webb family were really very arrogant. They did not even bother to constrain themselves now that they were in Aurous Hill and Charlie could not believe that they even dared to smash and destroy Anthony's medical hall.

Chapter 678

First of all, what was the reason that Anthony decided to open the Serene World Clinic in Aurous Hill? It was simply because Anthony wanted to repay Charlie's kindness. That was the main reason that Anthony had decided to move to Aurous Hill.

As a result, Donald and his son actually had the audacity to smash and destroy Anthony's medical hall. He really could not tolerate and swallow the anger that he was feeling!

Unexpectedly, Donald returned to the banquet hall with Sean at this time.

Moreover, instead of bringing Sean back to his table, Donald brought Sean with him as they headed directly to Charlie's table.

As soon as they arrived at Charlie's table, Donald immediately arched his hand as he said in a respectful manner, "Master Wade, I'm sorry if my son has offended you in any way because he didn't know what he was doing and saying earlier. I've brought him here to apologize to you and to ask for your forgiveness now. I hope that you won't take it to heart and I hope that you can accept his apology and forgive him for his mistake."

Charlie had just hung up the phone and he was still feeling very angry at this time. In fact, Charlie knew that the reason why Donald dragged his son, Sean, all the way here to apologize to him was simply because he wanted to get a Rejuvenating Pill from him. Therefore, he smiled as he said, "Mr. Webb, just not too long ago, both you and your son were calling me a useless son-in-law who's nothing more than a pathetic piece of trash. So, how can I be worthy of an apology from you or your son? Mr. Webb, didn't you say that I am just a pathetic piece of trash that you can scold or hit whenever you want to?"

When Donald heard Charlie's words, he knew that Charlie did not intend to forgive them just like that.

Therefore, Donald immediately yelled at Sean, "Asshole! Come here and kneel down to apologize to Master Wade now!"

As soon as Donald spoke up, many people turned around and placed their attention on them.

They could not help but wonder whether Sean from the Webb family would really kneel down before Charlie!

Sean was so angry and frustrated that he could feel his whole body burning up at this time!

No matter what it was, he was still the young master of the Webb family. He was part of the super rich second generation in the entire South Region. How could his father ask him to kneel down in front of a useless son-in-law from Aurous Hill? If words about this matter spreads out to the public, how could he possibly face anyone in the future?

As he was hesitating, Sean turned around and he was frightened and shocked when he saw the expression on his father's face. Sean was afraid that if he continued to refuse and hesitate, his father would be so angry that he would kick him down to the ground and beat him up in front of everyone else. Therefore, Sean could only lower his head as he bent his knees and knelt down in front of Charlie.

"Oh my god! The young master of the Webb family really knelt down in front of him!"

There was a huge uproar in the banquet hall.

Sean's face turned so hot and red and he felt that he was about to die.

Donald did not say anything else after he saw his son kneeling down in front of Charlie. Shortly after, Donald yelled, "Why are you in a daze? Hurry up and apologize to Master Wade now!"

At this time, Sean could only say, "Master Wade, I am sorry. I was wrong. Please forgive me!"

Charlie replied calmly, "I think that it would be better not to say anything at all if you're going to apologize without any sincerity at all. We'll be able to save everyone's time and there will be no hard feelings at all."

When Donald heard Charlie's words, he immediately understood that asking his son to kneel down was not enough to impress and appease Charlie.

Therefore, he shouted angrily at his son as he said, "Hurry up and kowtow in front of Master Wade now! I want you to beg for Master Wade's forgiveness!"

Sean clenched his teeth before he leaned forward and kowtowed before he said, "Master Wade, please forgive me for acting impulsively! I am extremely sorry for my actions and words!"

Charlie laughed playfully before he said, "Since you're already apologizing so sincerely, then we can treat it as though this incident has never happened."

Donald finally heaved a huge sigh of relief when he heard Charlie's words. After that, he blurted out, "Master Wade, there's something else that I would like to ask of you! I wonder if you'll be willing to sell me one of your Rejuvenating Pills? I am willing to pay you one billion dollars in cash for it!"

Everyone at the scene could not help but exclaim in shock!

He was offering him five hundred million dollars just a while ago but it had already become one billion dollars in the blink of an eye? As expected, the Webb family was really rich and one billion dollars or eight hundred million dollars was nothing at all to them.

Charlie smiled slightly at this time before he said, "Mr. Webb, you're really thinking too much. I don't have any more Rejuvenating Pills on me but even if I have one, it would be simply impossible for me to sell it for just one billion dollars. Besides that, even if I was willing to sell it for one billion dollars, I'd never sell it to you!"

As soon as he spoke, Charlie snorted coldly as he said, "I'm a man who holds grudges. I can still clearly remember that you were clamoring for me to be responsible for beating Cain up and you even said that you'll make sure I pay the price for my actions. Now, you actually have the audacity to come and ask me for a Rejuvenating Pill? Do you really think that I'm a goldfish with only seven seconds of memory?"

Chapter 679

Donald felt his heart tighten as soon as he heard Charlie's words.

He knew that Charlie would not give in so easily. However, since he had already offered a sky-high price of one billion dollars, he thought that Charlie would have given in and forgotten all the contradictions that had happened earlier for the sake of the money.

However, he really did not expect this guy to pay no attention to the sky-high price of one billion dollars at all. Instead, Charlie was going through the old account and he was still taking it to heart.

If this was a normal business transaction, Donald would have already left upon encountering an opponent who would be negotiating in this manner, no matter how big the business opportunity was.

However, Donald could not just shake his hands and leave right now.

This was because deep down in his heart, Donald could not resist the temptation of the Rejuvenating Pill at all. It was as though Donald had been completely captivated by the attraction brought about by the Rejuvenating Pill, and the pill and the consequent effect after he took the pill was all that he could think about.

Therefore, Donald knelt down without any hesitation at all as he clasped his hands together before he said to Charlie in a pious and respectful manner, "Master Wade, I didn't know any better. I know that everyone in Aurous Hill treats and regards you as the dragon on earth. Please do not hold anything against an ordinary and common man such as myself!"

Donald was indeed a very eloquent person.

In order to prevent his opponent from having the opportunity to continue stomping and trampling all over him, he had deliberately lifted and praised his opponent. This way, it would basically be very difficult for his opponent to continue insulting him.

However, at this time, Charlie was not angry at the father and son for what they had said to him. Instead, he was angry and furious because he had found out that they actually had the audacity to smash and destroy Anthony's Serene World Clinic.

Charlie would definitely have to avenge Anthony. Otherwise, he would not be at ease.

Therefore, Charlie looked at Donald before he smiled and said, "One billion dollars is indeed a very sincere and tempting offer. However, Mr. Webb, I feel that your manners seem to be a little inferior compared to your son's."

Donald was a little taken aback and he instantly realized that Charlie was referring to the fact that he did not know him.

At this point, Donald did not feel that it was shameful or embarrassing for him to kowtow before Charlie at all. After all, he was doing this for the Rejuvenating Pill!

As he thought about it, Donald hurriedly kowtowed in front of Charlie without any hesitation at all.

After kowtowing to Charlie, Donald raised his head before he said piously, "Master Wade, please give me an opportunity! As long as you're willing to sell a Rejuvenating Pill to me, I will credit one billion dollars in cash to your account immediately!"

Charlie looked at him and he smiled playfully before he said, "The Rejuvenating Pill is a simple matter. In fact, you've guessed it correctly. I do have another Rejuvenating Pill on me and I was originally intending to keep this pill for myself. However, since you're offering me a very good price for the pill, then I can definitely consider selling this pill to you..."

As he spoke, Charlie reached into his pocket before he slowly took out a wooden box, similar to the one that he had given to Lord Moore earlier. After opening the wooden box, there was indeed another Rejuvenating Pill inside the wooden box.

After taking out the Rejuvenating Pill, Charlie stood up before he said to everyone who was present at the scene, "Everyone, the Rejuvenating Pill is indeed a very priceless and valuable treasure. I hid this piece of information from all of you earlier and I hope that you can all forgive me. I'll tell you the truth. There is indeed another Rejuvenating Pill and I was initially intending to keep it for myself. I did not have the intention to sell it to anyone at all. However, since Mr. Webb seems to be so sincere and since he quoted such a high price for the pill, I am going to take his offer into careful consideration."

Even though everyone was very greedy for the Rejuvenation Pill, they did not stand a chance at all.

After all, how many of them could actually offer one billion dollars in cash for the Rejuvenating Pill?

Not more than five of the people present at the birthday banquet today could actually afford to do that.

Besides that, who would dare to compete with the Webb family at a time like this?

Both Donald and his son had already knelt down and kowtowed before Charlie for this medicine. If they tried to take the medicine from him at this time, wouldn't they be incurring the wrath of the Webb family?

Donald looked at the Rejuvenating Pill and he could smell the fresh medicinal fragrance emitting from the pill. He was very excited as he said, "Master Wade, as long as you're willing to sell this pill to me, I will transfer one billion dollars to your account immediately!"

Charlie smiled slightly before he said, "Don't get too excited. Before we talk about the Rejuvenating Pill, there is something else that we haven't talked about yet."

"Something else?" Donald frowned before he asked, "What are you referring to?"

The expression on Charlie's face was very dull and gloomy as he replied coldly, "Anthony and I are very close friends. How are you going to fix things with me, now that you and your son decided to smash and destroy Anthony's Serene World Clinic earlier today?"

As soon as Lord Moore heard Charlie's words, he could not help but frown immediately. He had a very angry and gloomy expression on his face as he said, "Donald! The genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, is an expert doctor who is very well-known in Aurous Hill. He has treated and saved the lives of countless people! Moreover, he's also one of my very close friends! Why did you smash his clinic?"

Donald was very shocked when he heard Charlie and Lord Moore's words.

Unexpectedly, Anthony and Charlie actually shared a strong friendship!

Chapter 680

This was really tricky!

He really did not know about their relationship prior to this!

Donald had simply thought that Anthony was nothing more than a well-known and reputable doctor in the country. Since he could not beat him up, then he could only smash and destroy his clinic to exert a little pressure and force the genius doctor to finally agree to see and treat his youngest son.

He really did not expect to cause more trouble for himself.

However, Donald was very eager to get his hand on the Rejuvenating Pill. At this time, Donald could only turn around as he pointed his finger at his son, Sean, who was kneeling down beside him at this time. After that, he said indignantly, "Hey! This is all my son's fault! He is very impulsive and ill-mannered. I'm sorry that I did not teach my son well!"

Sean could not help but twitch slightly at this time.

He really did not expect that he would have to bear the responsibility for his father's action at this time.

Even though he was very angry, he did not dare to show his dissatisfaction at all.

Since he had no choice but to bear the responsibility on his father's behalf, he could only sigh as he gritted his teeth in anger!

After that, Sean lowered his head before he said, "I'm sorry for acting impulsively. I shouldn't have smashed and destroyed the genius doctor Dr. Simmons' clinic. Please forgive me for my actions, Master Wade!"

Donald also hurriedly said, "Master Wade, you can rest assured that I will definitely give the genius doctor ten times the compensation for all the losses caused from us destroying his clinic."

At this time, Charlie replied lightly, "Some things cannot simply be resolved using money."

Donald hurriedly asked, "So, how do you want to solve this matter then, Master Wade?"

"Me?" Charlie looked at Donald before he smiled and said, "My solution is actually very simple..."

As he spoke, Charlie deliberately slowed down his rhythm as he turned and fixed his gaze on Sean instead.

Sean could not help but feel a little nervous and flustered when he locked eyes with Charlie. After all, Charlie was staring at him with a fierce and intense gaze.

As he was still wondering what kind of solution Charlie would propose, Charlie suddenly reached out his hand as he grabbed hold of Sean's right wrist before he twisted it gently...

With a click, Charlie directly broke Sean's right wrist!

"Ahh!"

Sean screamed in pain and his face turned red immediately before turning pale again.

"Ahh! My wrist is broken! Charlie, you are asking to die!"

Charlie swung Sean's broken wrist aside before he replied coldly, "Since you smashed and destroyed Dr. Simmons' clinic, then it is only right for me to break your hand. This is called a direct exchange!"

Sean yelled out in pain as he shouted, "Dad! This piece of trash actually broke my hand! I want to kill him. I want him dead now!"

Donald was also stunned at the sudden turn of events. He really did not expect Charlie to attack his son directly. Moreover, he would never have expected Charlie to be so cruel to directly break one of his son's hands just like that.

However, at this time, all Donald could think of was the Rejuvenating Pill in Charlie's hand.

In his opinion, if Charlie would be willing to sell him the Rejuvenating Pill, he could still accept it even if his son would have to pay for it with his broken hand. Donald thought that he would only deal with Charlie and settle the score with him after he has taken the Rejuvenating Pill from Charlie!

Therefore, Donald's face darkened as he opened his mouth and said, "Master Wade, I believe that my son has already paid the price for smashing and destroying Dr. Simmons' medical hall. So, can you sell me the Rejuvenating Pill now?"

"The Rejuvenating Pill..." Charlie took the Rejuvenating Pill out of the small wooden box before he waved it in front of Donald a couple of times.

At this time, Donald's eyes were gleaming and shining brightly as he stared at the Rejuvenating Pill.

Donald really did not expect Charlie to smile faintly at this time before he said, "Compared to the one billion dollars that you are going to give me, I think that it would be better for me to take this pill myself instead!"

After he was done speaking, Charlie raised his hand before he placed the Rejuvenating Pill into his mouth and chewed twice before directly swallowing the pill!
