

Chapter 681

Donald stared blankly at Charlie as he swallowed the Rejuvenating Pill and he suddenly became very angry!

It was only then that he realized that Charlie was only messing with him from the very beginning to the end!

He had never intended to sell the Rejuvenating Pill to him! Charlie was simply trying to embarrass both the father and son in public!

Moreover, Donald really could not believe that he was naïve enough to believe that Charlie would be touched just because of the one billion dollars that he had quoted him. How could he believe that Charlie would agree to sell the Rejuvenating Pill to him just because he had apologized to him?

Donald was really furious and frustrated when he realized that Charlie had been playing around with him. Besides that, Charlie had even broken his son's hand!

Donald stood up immediately before he shouted, "Charlie! I won't call myself a man anymore if I don't kill you today!"

After that, Donald took out his cell phone as he called his bodyguards for help.

All of his bodyguards were the best of their kind. They were all god of wars who had retreated and retired from the army!

These people might look like any other ordinary people but they were in fact top killers in their own class!

It could easily be said that all of his bodyguards were top killers!

At this time, Charlie still remained very calm and composed.

He could feel a warm and strong heat wave in his stomach after eating the Rejuvenating Pill. He had already taken six of these pills. Even though he would not get any younger because of these pills, his physical fitness could be improved massively. Therefore, Charlie was filled with immense strength and energy at this time but there was no way for him to release this energy. If any of the Webb family's bodyguards dared to approach him, then he would definitely be able to clean them all up in one go!

However, Charlie really did not expect Lord Moore to suddenly snort in a cold manner. After that, Lord Moore stood up before he shouted angrily, "Donald! Even though the Webb family is very powerful and influential, the Moore family isn't to be messed with either! I'm really interested to see how powerful the Webb family is! Who gave you the rights to hurt my most distinguished guest in the Moore family mansion today?"

After that, Lord Moore shouted, "Men, gather here! I want all of you to surround the banquet hall immediately. If anyone dares to lay a finger on Master Wade, I want you to beat that person to death immediately!"

Donald stared at Lord Moore and he gritted his teeth angrily as he said, "Uncle Moore, he was making fun of and messing with me and my son! He even broke my son's hand. Are you still going to protect him? Is the Moore family really going to publicly declare war against the Webb family?"

Lord Moore simply replied in a cold manner, "Master Wade is my benefactor and he is the one who has given me a new life! If you're looking for trouble with Master Wade, then you're also directly looking for trouble with the Moore family!"

"Good! Good! Good!"

Donald gritted his teeth as he said, "The Moore family is really amazing! It seems as though you don't have any regards or respect for the Webb family at all. Do you really think that you can trample all over the Webb family just because this is your territory?"

Lord Moore replied arrogantly, "I'm not the kind of arrogant person who would trample all over anyone else. However, if someone is going to target my benefactor on my property, then I'm sorry but I won't give face or be merciful towards that person at all, regardless of that person's identity or status!"

Everyone at the scene was shocked when they heard Lord Moore shouting.

The old man has already experienced countless hurdles and challenges in his life, as well as all sorts of battles in his life. Therefore, there was a strong and majestic aura surrounding him. Besides that, his physical body has just been refreshed and strengthened after eating the Rejuvenating Pill. When he was filled with anger and rage, it was really a very shocking sight.

Donald also felt a little distressed!

He had come to Aurous Hill with only a few bodyguards with him.

Even though these bodyguards were all masters and the best of the best, there was definitely no way they could defeat so many people from the Moore family.

After all, this was the Moore family's home base. There were dozens of bodyguards working for the Moore family standing in front of them at this time. Moreover, Donald did not know how many bodyguards were probably hidden from their sight at all.

Donald knew that he would never be able to win this fight!

His top rate bodyguards might be able to fight and get rid of some of these people but he knew that both he and his son would not be able to fight back at all. If things got out of hand, they might even get injured and be detained by the Moore family.

Even though the Webb family was very powerful, they were all based in Southaven! Donald knew very well that a slow remedy would never be able to address the current emergency that they were facing!

As he thought about it, Donald decided that he could only avoid the confrontation at the moment.

Therefore, he sneered before he said, "Uncle Moore, do you mean to say that you are going to declare war with the Webb family then? Okay! In that case, I will represent the Webb family to break off all ties and friendship with the Moore family. From this day onwards, the Moore family and the Webb family will no longer have anything to do with each other!"

Chapter 682

At this time, Reuben hurriedly stood up before he said, "Grandpa, the Moore family has already shared a friendship and connection with the Webb family for so many years! Please think twice before making a decision!"

Reuben really did not want to see the Moore family and the Webb family breaking all ties and connections with one another.

After all, he was still hoping that he would be able to get Jasmine to marry into the Webb family. If the two families broke all ties with one another, then what he hoped for would never be possible!

Lord Moore glanced at Reuben before he said lightly, "There's nothing left to think about! The Webb family is the top and most influential family in the South Region and the Moore family cannot afford this friendship! I declare that the Moore family will break off all ties and connections with the Webb family from this day onwards!"

Everyone at the scene was dumbfounded as soon as Lord Moore said those words.

No one would have expected a fallout between the Webb family, which was the top family in the South Region, and the Moore family, the top family in Aurous Hill, at Lord Moore's birthday banquet today.

It seemed as though there was going to be a huge change in Aurous Hill in the future!

Donald's cold gaze flickered across Lord Moore and Charlie before he said angrily, "Alright then! Lord Moore and Master Wade, I'll definitely remember both of you! Just wait and see how I'm going to deal with you. Sean, let's go now!"

After that, Donald helped Sean up to his feet before they turned around to walk away.

At this time, Charlie said lightly, "Do you really think that this matter is over just like that?"

Donald turned around to look at Charlie with a murderous intent on his face as he asked, "What else do you want, Master Wade?"

Charlie replied, "I broke your son's hand to teach him a lesson. However, since you smashed and destroyed Dr. Simmons' clinic, you will still have to compensate him for his losses!"

After that, Charlie continued speaking, "I will give you three days' time to pay up ten times the compensation for the losses that you owe to Dr. Simmons. I also want you to apologize to Dr. Simmons and to beg for his forgiveness. If you fail to do so, I will make sure to break Sean's other hand too!"

As soon as Donald heard Charlie's words, he glared at him with a cold and murderous expression on his face!

He was very furious and he roared out loud, "Charlie! Do you really think you're that great? Do you even know what position and status the Webb family enjoys in the whole South Region? If you're going to continue provoking and challenging the Webb family, I'll make sure that you suffer a fate worse than death!"

Charlie sneered before he said, "You can stop trying to threaten me. The Webb family means nothing to me at all! I'd advise you to get out of Aurous Hill as soon as possible after you pay Dr. Simmons the compensation you owe him! Otherwise, both you and your son are going to pay for this with your lives!"

"You..."

Donald really did not expect Charlie to be so brave!

He had really wanted to kill Charlie but when he thought about Lord Moore's threat, he could only endure and subdue his anger temporarily.

Donald already decided in his heart that Charlie would have to die!

However, it was not time to kill him yet.

After he returns to Southaven, he would draw up a brand new plan. If it was not sufficient, he would gather a group of hitmen working for the Webb family to come and deal with Charlie and the Moore family!

As he thought about this, Donald waved his hand fiercely before he said, "Sean, let's go now!"

After that, he brought Sean who had a broken hand with him as they left the Moore family mansion in a very embarrassed state.

Reuben stared at Donald's back as he left before he turned around to look at Jasmine and Lord Moore, who was already looking ten years younger at this time. Reuben could not help but grit his teeth in anger as there was a very unwilling and frustrated look in his eyes.

He had really suffered a great loss today!

His grandfather, that old man, suddenly had another ten years to live. Besides that, Charlie had also given Jasmine all the credit for his action. What was even more important was the fact that his grandfather had actually broken off all connections and turned his back on the Webb family because of Charlie...

If this continued, Reuben was afraid that his grandfather would suddenly announce that Jasmine would become the next heir of the Moore family one day!

If that happened, wouldn't all of his efforts be in vain?

Chapter 683

Donald and Sean, the father and son, were filled with incomparable resentment as they left the Moore family villa.

Sean clutched tightly onto his broken hand as he cried out in tears, "Dad! I'd already told you not to go and beg that pathetic piece of trash but you refused to listen to me! Now, not only have I broken my hand but he also embarrassed and humiliated you in public! Don't you find it really very embarrassing?"

Donald looked at his son with a black face as he said, "The one with the last name Wade is simply seeking his own death! So, he shouldn't blame me for not being merciful towards him in the future. Don't worry, Sean. Dad will definitely avenge you!"

Sean blurted out, "Then, can we kill Charlie tonight?"

"No!" Donald replied coldly. "We have to act according to our original plan. The first thing that we have to do is to kill Don Albert first so we can get rid of Don Albert's firepower! After that, it will be so much easier for us to get rid of Charlie and the Moore family!"

Sean hurriedly asked, "Dad, what are your specific plans?"

Donald replied, "We will get someone to treat and heal your hand first. After that, we will discuss this further before coming up with a solid plan!"

As both of them spoke, they have already walked out of the Moore family compound.

At this time, Mr. Lloyd, who had been driven out earlier, was waiting for Donald and Sean. When he saw both of them coming out from the Moore family mansion, Mr. Lloyd covered his red and swollen face before he ran forward to quickly greet both of them.

"Mr. Webb...Young Master Webb..." Mr. Lloyd ran up to them with the intention of asking them whether they had already dealt with that piece of trash Charlie on his behalf. He wanted to know whether they had avenged him.

However, at this time, Mr. Lloyd suddenly noticed Sean's pale complexion. Moreover, he noticed that Sean was desperately clutching his right wrist as he walked. Mr. Lloyd felt a slight tug in his heart and he could not help but sense that something was seriously wrong.

Mr. Lloyd hurriedly asked, "Young Master Webb, what happened to your hand?"

Sean snorted as he broke out in cold sweat and cursed, "It is all that piece of trash Charlie's fault! He actually dared to break my hand in public. I'll definitely make sure he dies without a burial place to rest!"

Sean originally intended to take advantage of this birthday banquet to trample all over Charlie when he found out that Charlie was indeed the man that Jasmine was in love with. He wanted Jasmine to open up her eyes and face reality. He was hoping that when that happened, Jasmine would change her mind and choose to be with him instead.

Unexpectedly, instead of trampling all over Charlie, both he and his father were actually humiliated and played for a fool by Charlie instead!

Moreover, both Sean and his father had actually taken turns to kneel down and apologize to Charlie! This was simply the second most humiliating and shameful event that has happened to the Webb family after his younger brother turned into a poop-eating monster!

What was even more hateful was that this bastard did not only humiliate and embarrass him in front of everyone's watchful eyes, but he even had the guts to break his wrist!

Sean knew that everyone in Aurous Hill would definitely remember that the eldest young master of the top family in the South Region was actually humiliated and disgraced in public by Charlie, who was just an unknown and useless person! He was now a laughing stock in Aurous Hill!

Mr. Lloyd was shocked as soon as he heard Sean's words.

He really did not expect that piece of trash Charlie to have the audacity and courage to hit Sean!

Therefore, Mr. Lloyd could not help but say, "Young Master Webb, you mustn't let Charlie off just like that since he actually did this to you!"

Donald replied coldly, "Don't worry. Charlie won't live for much longer!"

As he spoke, Donald quickly instructed Mr. Lloyd, "Mr. Lloyd, since you're local and familiar with Aurous Hill, I want to entrust you with a very important task."

Mr. Lloyd hurriedly replied, "Please just give me your orders, Mr. Webb!"

Donald said, "I want you to bring Sean to the best orthopedic hospital immediately. I want them to treat and heal the young master's hand and you should not make any mistakes in this matter!"

Mr. Lloyd suddenly realized that Charlie was the one who had broken Sean's hand. After that, he quickly said, "Don't worry, Mr. Webb! I will bring the young master to the best orthopedic hospital now!"

Chapter 684

When Sean heard his father's words, he could not help but ask, "Dad, aren't you going to the hospital with me?"

Donald replied, "There are still a lot of things that I have to deal with today. Now that we have already broken all ties with the Moore family, we have to first find another place to stay for the night. I am going to make a trip to Shangri-La and book one of the presidential suites there. After that, I will visit Isaac Cameron and pay my respects to him. Once you are done receiving treatment for your hand, you can come to Shangri-La to look for me directly. I will tell you about all my plans at that time!"

"You want to visit Isaac Cameron?" Sean could not help but ask out of frustration, "Dad, why do you even need to visit him? Isn't he nothing more than a dog that is working for the Wade family from Eastcliff? Is that even more important than my broken hand?"

Donald frowned before he said, "What do you know? Even though the Webb family dominates the entire South Region, the wealth and power that we have cannot be compared to the Wade family at all. In fact, the Wade family is the real top and most influential family around!"

"You cannot just regard Isaac as the Wade family's dog. He is the spokesperson for the Wade family in Aurous Hill and he is the face that represents the Wade family in the entire Aurous Hill. I have to visit him in person today. If I can achieve a breakthrough, I might be able to build up a relationship with the powerful Wade family instead."

For the Webb family, even though they were indeed the top and most influential family in the entire South Region, they could not be compared to the real top and hidden powerful family such as the Wade family itself.

If Donald could take advantage of this opportunity to build up a connection and relationship with the Wade family, then the Webb family would definitely be able to achieve great success!

Sean stopped complaining as soon as he heard his father's words. After that, he nodded slightly before he said, "Alright, Dad, I understand. You can head to Shangri-La first and I'll see a doctor and get a cast for my broken wrist. After that, I'll look for you."

Donald replied, "Okay, Sean. You should head to the hospital first. I will notify you as soon as I have made all the necessary arrangements."

Sean nodded with a look of expectancy on his face before he followed Mr. Lloyd into the car to head to the hospital and treat his broken hand.

After Sean and Mr. Lloyd left, Donald brought his assistant and bodyguards with him as they headed straight to Shangri-La.

Along the way, Donald was thinking about all the ways that he could use to kill Charlie so that he could resolve his hatred. Besides that, Donald was also thinking about how he could deal with Lord Moore who was nothing but an ignorant fool to him.

Did he really think that he had already become a young teenager who could live a long life just because he took a Rejuvenating Pill?

Since he dared to speak to him in this manner, then he would make sure that the Moore family paid the consequences and price for his action!

Very soon, the convoy arrived at the entrance of Shangri-La Hotel.

Donald asked his bodyguard to take out the most precious Big Red Robe tea leaves that he got from Mount Woolly in order to give it as a gift to Isaac.

His Big Red Robe tea leaves were all picked from the last six remaining mother trees on Mount Woolly. It was very precious and of a very significant value. The annual output of the Big Red Robe tea leaves were only about ten catties and the price for one catty of the Big Red Robe tea leaves could easily reach tens of millions of dollars.

This was not something that just anyone could buy with money.

This was because the annual output of these tea leaves was very limited. Most of it was usually directly supplied to Eastcliff and the rest of the tea leaves, which would then be released to the other market, would not even amount to more than two catties.

Donald had about one catty of the Big Red Robe tea leaves on his hands. He had spent a great deal of money and a lot of effort as well as asked for plenty of favors before he successfully got his hands on it.

Therefore, Donald really regarded his pot of Big Red Robe tea leaves as his most treasured possession that he would carry around with him wherever he went. This way, he could soak a gram or two of the tea leaves in a hot cup of water whenever he felt like drinking it.

Since he has already decided to make the trip to Shangri-La, Donald felt that he should not meet Isaac empty-handed. Therefore, he planned to give this pot of Big Red Robe tea leaves to Isaac just so he could give the other party a very good impression of him.

As soon as he stepped into Shangri-La, Donald walked up to the front desk before he said to the receptionist, "Hello, miss. Please inform Mr. Cameron that Donald from the Webb family in Southaven is here to see him!"

The receptionist working at the front desk of Shangri-La was also no ordinary receptionist. She knew all about the top and powerful families in the entire South Region. When she heard that a member of the Webb family was here to see Isaac, she quickly picked up the phone and dialed Isaac's office immediately.

"Mr. Cameron, Mr. Donald from the Webb family in Southaven would like to see you!"

Chapter 685

Isaac did not know of the conflicts between Donald and Charlie.

As soon as he heard that Donald was here to visit him, he was very respectful and polite as he did not dare to neglect him. Although he was the spokesperson for the Wade family in Aurous Hill, the other party was none other than the eldest son of the top family in the South Region after all. Since Donald has already taken the initiative to come and visit him, Isaac felt that he should also entertain him in a very polite and respectful manner.

Therefore, he hurriedly said, "Please ask Mr. Webb to come to my office now."

The receptionist did not dare to act slowly and she quickly said to Donald, "Mr. Webb, our chairman, Mr. Cameron, invites you to stop by his office. Please come with me."

Donald nodded slightly before he followed the receptionist as she brought him to take the chairman's exclusive elevator to Isaac's office.

As Donald was the eldest son of the Webb family, he naturally had to live in the best hotel if he had to live in a hotel in Aurous Hill.

It just so happened that the best hotel in Aurous Hill was none other than Shangri-La. Therefore, Donald felt that he should also take advantage of this opportunity to visit Isaac to build up a connection and relationship with him.

When Isaac saw Donald coming into his office, he stood up before he smiled and took the initiative to reach out his hand to shake Donald's hand. After that, he greeted him immediately, "I heard that you're usually active in Southaven, Mr. Webb. Why did you decide to come to Aurous Hill this time?"

Donald sighed before he said, "Well, it's a long story. I don't know who my youngest son, Kian, has offended and he is down with a very strange illness. The reason why I'm here in Aurous Hill is because I hope to be able to come up with a solution to fix this problem."

Isaac nodded slightly. Of course, he had also heard about Kian's condition and had even watched the video that was circulating online. When Isaac suddenly recalled the video that he had seen, he could not help but feel a little nauseous and he retched involuntarily.

Donald also had a very embarrassed expression on his face when he saw Isaac's involuntarily retching.

Of course, he knew why Isaac was suddenly retching. In fact, to be honest, when he thought about the video of his youngest son, he could not help but feel a little sick and uncomfortable too.

Therefore, Donald quickly changed the subject as he said, "Forget it. The main reason why I'm here today is to visit you, Chairman Cameron. Therefore, let's not talk about all those upsetting stuff instead. I brought you a gift and I hope you will like it."

After that, Donald quickly handed over the pot of Big Red Robe tea leaves to Isaac.

"Mr. Cameron, this is the Big Red Robe tea leaves from the mother trees on Mount Woolly. It is one of my most prized possessions and I usually do not offer it to just anyone else. If you enjoy having tea, you will definitely like this a lot."

Isaac naturally knew how precious the Big Red Robe tea leaves were. Therefore, he quickly waved his hands as he said, "The Big Red Robe tea leaves are so precious and rare in the market nowadays. Moreover, this is one of your most prized possessions, Mr. Webb. So, how can I possibly accept such a precious and valuable pot of Big Red Robe tea leaves from you?"

Donald immediately said, "Mr. Cameron, please do not be so polite with me. You are the spokesperson for the Wade family in Aurous Hill and the South Region. The Webb family has always looked forward to cooperating and building a connection with the Wade family. I will also have to count on you to help me to build up a relationship with the Wade family in the future, Mr. Cameron."

Isaac quickly waved his hands after listening to Donald's words. "I am just a subordinate who is working for the Wade family. Everything that I do is just within the scope of my responsibilities. Mr. Webb, you are thinking too highly of me."

Donald replied sincerely, "Mr. Cameron, you are simply too humble."

When Isaac saw Donald's sincere attitude, he said, "Since you are so sincere and thoughtful, Mr. Webb, then I will not be polite anymore. I have a few bottles of collectors' Louis XIII here. I will give you a few bottles to taste later."

Donald was very flattered and he hurriedly said, "Oh, thank you so much, Mr. Cameron! I really appreciate it!"

Isaac smiled slightly before he said, "Mr. Webb, I believe that the reason why you are here to visit me today isn't just because you wanted to send some tea leaves to me, right?"

Donald nodded before he said, "That's right. In fact, me, my eldest son, my assistant, and a few of my bodyguards will be staying in Aurous Hill for a period of time. Therefore, I would like to book some rooms at Shangri-La for us during this period of time. I will have to trouble you then."

Isaac laughed before he said, "Oh, you are more than welcomed here! Mr. Webb, since you're here, you're naturally one of our most distinguished guests. I will arrange for a presidential suite for you and your son immediately. You can stay here as long as you like."

Donald was very grateful and he hurriedly replied, "Oh, thank you so much, Mr. Cameron!"

Isaac smiled before he said, "Mr. Webb, you do not need to be so polite with me."

After a short while, Isaac suddenly asked out of curiosity, "By the way, Mr. Webb, where is your son? Why didn't he come here with you?"

Chapter 686

Donald was too embarrassed to tell Isaac that someone had broken his son's wrist. Therefore, he simply said, "He has to go out to do something. He will come over here later. I will bring him over here to visit you when he comes later!"

Isaac nodded slightly before he said, "Okay then. Why don't I arrange for someone to take you to your presidential suite now so that you can rest first? When your son returns in the evening, we can have dinner together. I will be your host and pick you up for dinner tonight."

Donald was overjoyed and he hurriedly said, "Alright then, Mr. Cameron."

He felt that even though he had simply been acquaintances with Isaac in the past, now that Isaac has already accepted his gift after his visit here today, this was equivalent to him getting one step closer to the Wade family.

This was what Donald really desired.

As the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill, Isaac was a stepping stone that Donald could use to secure his future. As long as he could maintain and continue building up a good relationship with Isaac, then he would definitely be able to take advantage of this opportunity to embrace the towering tall Wade family in future.

Besides that, Donald has already thought everything through.

He felt that if the Webb family could not find anyone who would be able to treat Kian's strange illness, then he could eventually ask the Wade family to take action on his behalf once he shared a very close relationship with the Wade family.

Donald believed that no one would dare to refuse or turn down any requests made by the Wade family.

Isaac did not put too much thought into this matter. After all, the Webb family was the top family in the South Region and it was only natural for him to give them face.

After chatting with Donald for a short while, Isaac arranged for some people to send him to his presidential suite so that he could rest for a short while.

Donald took a few bodyguards with him into the luxurious presidential suite. After that, he called Sean before he asked him to come and rendezvous with him at Shangri-La as soon as possible.

At this time, Sean has just finished receiving his treatment and cast at the hospital. After receiving the call from his father, Sean and Mr. Lloyd headed straight to Shangri-La Hotel together.

Sean has a very gloomy expression on his face and he was extremely depressed when he was in the car.

When Mr. Lloyd saw this, he quickly said, "Young Master Webb, the doctor has just advised you not to be angry and to cheer up after putting on the cast. Otherwise, it will affect the healing of the bones and cause a sequela."

Sean replied angrily, "I won't let that Charlie off so easily! When I see him, I'm going to chop off both of his hands!"

Mr. Lloyd was overjoyed when he heard Sean's words. In fact, he was very happy and excited that Sean had been beaten up and got his hand broken by Charlie. This way, the Webb family would definitely not let Charlie off so easily. When the Webb family dealt with Charlie, then the enmity that Mr. Lloyd felt for Charlie because of the words he carved on his son's forehead would finally be avenged!

However, Mr. Lloyd pretended to be extremely concerned about Sean as he said, "Young Master Webb, you have to take good care of your own health. After all, it won't be too late for you to take revenge once you're well and healthy."

Sean sneered before he said fiercely, "Just wait and see. Charlie will not live for much longer."

As soon as they arrived at Shangri-La, Sean took Mr. Lloyd with him to the presidential suite where Donald was waiting for them.

After knocking on the door, the bodyguard opened the door from inside the presidential suite.

After stepping into the huge living room, Sean quickly greeted his father who was sitting on the sofa at this time. "Dad, I am back."

Donald nodded before he asked, "How's your hand? What did the doctor say?"

Sean's face darkened as he said, "The doctor said that my hand is broken and he put a plaster cast on it. He said that it's going to take me a few months to fully recover."

Donald nodded before he said, "You should be more careful and pay more attention to your hand. Make sure that you don't suffer from any sequelae because of this."

Sean blurted out, "Dad, my hand isn't the most important thing right now. Can you tell me how we're going to deal with Charlie?"

Donald sneered before he said, "If you want to kill Charlie, then we'll have to kill Don Albert first tonight!"

Chapter 687

When Mr. Lloyd heard Donald saying that they were going to kill Don Albert tonight, he suddenly became very excited!

He has already been expecting and hoping for Don Albert to die. However, he really did not expect his wish to be fulfilled now!

Moreover, after Don Albert was killed, then not only would he be able to get revenge on him but the Webb family would also be able to take advantage of this situation to place him in the top position in the underground world.

If that was the case, wouldn't he become the next underground mobster boss in Aurous Hill?

As he thought about this, Mr. Lloyd could not help but tremble in excitement.

Sean quickly asked, "Dad, Don Albert has so many men in Aurous Hill. Would it be so easy for us to kill him?"

Donald replied lightly, "You have to remember something, son. To kill Don Albert, we do not have to kill all of his men first!"

"Dad, what do you mean?"

Donald replied coldly, "Don Albert might have a lot of men under his control. However, all of his men are not around him all the time. We only need to know the specific time and location that he would be at and when we find him, we can just kill him directly!"

Mr. Lloyd hurriedly replied, "I know! Even though Don Albert's whereabouts are very uncertain during the day, he would always be at Heaven Springs at night. This is because Heaven Springs is very famous in Aurous Hill and many of his friends usually dine there at night."

Donald asked, "So, how many security guards are there at Heaven Springs?"

Mr. Lloyd thought for a brief moment before he said, "I think that there are about ten security guards working at Heaven Springs, while the rest of them are waiters."

Donald snorted coldly as he said, "Ten security guards are not a threat to us at all. All of my bodyguards are very well-trained masters in the army. Which one of them wouldn't be able to defeat just ten security guards?"

After that, Donald looked at a burly middle-aged man who was the leader of five of his bodyguards before he said, "Jones Zizhou, you've been with me the longest and you're the strongest and most efficient bodyguard that I have. If I asked you to bring your men to Heaven Springs to kill Don Albert tonight and if I instruct you to kill anyone who gets in your way, will you be able to do that?"

Jones clasped his hands together before he said, "Mr. Webb, there is nothing that you have to worry about. A dozen security guards are just ants in front of the few of us. As for Don Albert, we will definitely be able to deal with him!"

Donald nodded in satisfaction before he looked at Mr. Lloyd and said, "Mr. Lloyd, don't you have a bloody vendetta against Don Albert? I am giving you the chance to take revenge on him tonight. You will lead all of my men to Heaven Springs to kill and get rid of Don Albert tonight. You will be under the protection of the Webb family and after Don Albert is dead, I will make you the new underground mobster boss in Aurous Hill!"

As soon as Mr. Lloyd heard Donald's words, he could feel the deep hatred in his heart and he was also very excited to take action!

What was the main reason he had been working so hard as a dog for the Webb family?

It was because he wanted to take revenge on Charlie and Don Albert!

Now, Donald was actually giving him an opportunity to become the underground mobster boss in Aurous Hill!

How could he possibly turn down such an amazing opportunity?

Moreover, Mr. Lloyd knew that all the bodyguards hired by the Webb family were all soldiers who had retired from the army.

Sending five of these bodyguards to Heaven Springs to kill Don Albert was definitely more than enough!

As soon as Don Albert is dead, all of his men would no longer have a leader!

At this time, the Webb family would come up to back him up.

It would be easy for him to become the new underground mobster boss in Aurous Hill!

As long as he continued relying on his connection with the Webb family, it was very likely that he would reach the pinnacle of his life!

Chapter 688

At this time, at Lord Moore's birthday banquet, Charlie was waiting for the banquet to officially begin. He wanted to offer a toast to Lord Moore so that he could make a trip to Anthony's Serene Medical Clinic to take a look at the situation there.

As they sat around the dinner table, Zeke, Graham, Aurora, Don Albert, Liam, and even Doris were all looking at Charlie with even more admiration and respect than before.

The miraculous effect of the Rejuvenating Pill was really impressive.

However, at this time, none of them has actively mentioned the Rejuvenating Pill in front of Charlie.

Even though Charlie still had about twenty Rejuvenating Pills left, he was not ready to take them out as a gift at this time.

Even though Zeke, Graham and Don Albert were not young, they were all far from reaching old age.

Therefore, Charlie felt that there was no need for them to take the Rejuvenating Pill now.

If they continue working hard and following him in a steady and loyal manner, then he would definitely give each of them a Rejuvenating Pill in the future when the time was right.

At this time, Charlie looked at Liam, who was seated at the dinner table. Since he has not seen him for a few days, he could not help but asked curiously, "How is Weaver Pharmaceuticals doing now?"

Liam hurriedly replied in a respectful manner, "Master Wade, the development of Weaver Pharmaceuticals is going smoothly. I am also organizing and making preparations for some of the older Chinese medicine practitioners and pharmacists to explore and study some of the ancient Chinese prescriptions. I would like to introduce some ancient Chinese medicine into the Western culture."

As soon as he spoke up, Liam had a regretful expression on his face as he said, "The Chinese ancestors have left behind so many good ancient prescriptions. However, most of them are either lost or have been stolen by pharmaceutical companies from other countries without acknowledging its origins at all. I think that it is a real shame and I really want to do everything in my own capacity to explore the possibilities of introducing ancient Chinese medicine into the pharmaceutical market."

Charlie nodded slightly before he said approvingly, "I think that it's an excellent idea. Most of the good things left behind by the Chinese ancestors have all been robbed and taken away by the Japanese and Korean companies to use as their own. If we don't pay any attention to it, then I'm afraid that all these ancient Chinese prescriptions would end up becoming the bragging right of these small countries."

As he spoke, Charlie suddenly thought of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in Japan.

In fact, Charlie had cheated more than ten billion dollars out of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals was at its weakest and most fragile point but Charlie also left a hidden danger for Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals.

Jiro, the second son of the Kobayashi family, thought that his elder brother was already dead. However, he would never be able to imagine that his elder brother, Ichiro, was actually alive and well and he was currently feeding dogs and shoveling shit at Don Albert's dog farm now.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals was at risk of failure, then that would be fine with him. However, if Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals was going to continue rising, then Charlie would send Ichiro back to Japan to fight for the rights to take Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals back from Jiro.

As he thought about this, Charlie asked Liam, "How is Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in Japan currently holding up?"

Liam replied, "Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals was facing some problems not too long ago. It seems as though they have lost quite a huge amount of their capital. Therefore, they faced some difficulties in their capital turnover. However, since there are so many hot-selling drugs produced by Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, I believe that they should be able to stabilize and restore their position within a short period of time."

Charlie nodded as he thought about it.

When Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals was restored to its former glory, he would then arrange for Ichiro to be sent back to Japan so that he could try to take the pharmaceutical company back from his younger brother, Jiro.

That way, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals would basically belong to him.

Therefore, Charlie told Liam, "If there are any changes or movements in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, please give me feedback and updates immediately."

"Okay, Master Wade." Liam nodded before he said respectfully, "I will definitely pay close attention to it."

At this time, Charlie suddenly asked, "By the way, how are your father and brother doing on Mount Golim?"

Liam smiled slightly before he said, "Don Albert and I take turns to send people up to Mount Golim to keep an eye on them. I heard that the temperature on Mount Golim has fallen recently and there is a huge amount of snow covering the mountain. Therefore, both of them cannot harvest enough ginseng in time because there is always a short supply. They won't have enough food or clothing for quite some time."

Charlie nodded as he said, "It doesn't matter if they do not have enough food or clothing as long as they don't die."

Liam replied immediately, "Master Wade, you can rest assured. Even though I hate both of them to the core, they are still my family no matter what happened in the past. Therefore, I will make sure that they do not die so they can continue reflecting on themselves as they dig for ginseng on Mount Golim for the rest of their lives!"

Chapter 689

At this time, the energetic Lord Moore brought a group of Moore family members with him to give Charlie a toast.

The group of people followed closely behind Lord Moore as they greeted Master Wade respectfully.

Charlie stood up and picked up his wine glass before he said, "Lord Moore, you don't have to be so polite with me. I wish to give you a toast with this glass of wine and I wish you a long and healthy life!"

After he was done speaking, Charlie raised his head before he finished the glass of wine. After that, he said, "I am going to the Serene Medical Clinic to see Anthony after this so I will leave in a short while."

Lord Moore sighed before he said, "Oh, it is really sad to see Dr. Simmons' medical hall being smashed and destroyed. I should also go over and take a look myself. However, there are still so many guests at the scene here today so I really can't get away..."

Charlie nodded slightly before he smiled and said, "Lord Moore, it's your birthday today, so it's only natural for you to stay back and enjoy this special day with everyone. I have already called Xyla earlier and she told me that they were both not injured in the incident. Only the clinic was smashed badly. Therefore, you don't need to worry at all."

Lord Moore hurriedly replied, "Alright then. Master Wade, why don't you allow Jasmine to accompany you then? After all, Jasmine is the one who picked you up today so it isn't really convenient for you to go over to Dr. Simmons' clinic on your own."

Charlie did not turn down Lord Moore's request and he simply nodded in agreement. After that, Charlie turned around and told the several people seated around his table, "Dear friends, please eat and drink well. I will take my leave first."

Everyone got up to see Charlie off but after Charlie gestured at them, they quickly sat back in their seat, one after the other.

As Charlie was leaving the banquet hall, he instructed Don Albert, "Don Albert, it seems like my father-in-law has plans to have dinner at Heaven Springs tonight. If you're going to Heaven Springs tonight, please help me to take good care of him. If you aren't going over there tonight, then please help me inform the person-in-charge to look after him and take care of him on my behalf."

Don Albert hurriedly replied, "Don't worry, Master Wade. I will usually be at Heaven Springs at night. I will make sure to take good care of your father-in-law when he arrives tonight."

"Okay." Charlie nodded before he said, "Thank you for your hard work."

Don Albert said, "Master Wade, why are you so polite with me? This is simply what I should be doing!"

In Charlie's eyes, his father-in-law, Jacob, was actually a pretty good person. In fact, after getting to know some things about his past, Charlie felt that his father-in-law was actually very pitiful. Therefore, he instinctively wanted to take better care of him.

After bidding farewell to everyone, Charlie stepped out of the Moore family mansion accompanied by Jasmine.

Jasmine led Charlie all the way to her car before she personally opened the car door for Charlie. Jasmine only got into the car after making sure that Charlie was already seated inside the car.

As soon as she got into the car, Jasmine looked at Charlie with a grateful expression on her face as she said sincerely, "Master Wade, thank you so much for everything that you've done today..."

Charlie smiled slightly before he said, "Jasmine, you don't have to thank me. I gave the Rejuvenating Pill to your grandfather so it's already more than enough for him to thank me."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "Master Wade, I am not just thanking you for that. I am feeling very grateful and I am thanking you for what you said to my grandpa earlier..."

Jasmine was very grateful to Charlie, mainly because of what Charlie said to Lord Moore.

This was because Jasmine had lost her parents when she was still a young child. Even though she was brought up very well in the Moore family, she rarely received any family affection as she was growing up. Jasmine had never experienced what it felt like to be taken care of and protected by others at all times.

However, Charlie had actually spoken up for her just now and he even gave her all the credit for the Rejuvenating Pill that he has given to her grandfather. Jasmine knew that the reason why Charlie did that was because he wanted to help her to establish her position in the Moore family. To Jasmine, it felt as though Charlie was protecting her in general, and this filled her heart with a kind of warmth and affection that she has never experienced in her life before.

It had not been easy for her to live and grow up in the Moore family on her own.

Charlie looked at Jasmine before he smiled slightly and said, "I honestly think that you are the most suitable candidate from the third generation of the Moore family to inherit the Moore family. As for your cousin, I honestly feel that he isn't suited to run the family at all. If your grandfather decides to hand the Moore family over to him, then everything will definitely go downhill for the Moore family."

Chapter 690

Jasmine hurriedly waved her hand before she said, "Actually, my cousin is pretty capable too. In fact, I really have no intention of inheriting the Moore family in the future. I simply want to make sure that my grandfather will not just be swept out of the house after he dies..."

Charlie smiled slightly before he replied in a serious manner, "As long as I am around, I will never allow this sort of thing to happen."

Jasmine was really very grateful and she was overwhelmed with emotions at this time. She rubbed her eyes before she said, "Master Wade, I will send you to the Serene Medical Clinic now."

After that, Jasmine started the car before she drove out of the Moore family mansion.

At this time at Serene Medical Clinic, Anthony and Xyla were both cleaning up all the herbs and materials from the medicine cabinet that had been smashed to the ground by the Webb family's bodyguards.

When Anthony saw Charlie and Jasmine walking into Serene Medical Clinic, he hurriedly stepped forward and said in surprise, "Master Wade, why are you here? And Miss Moore, isn't it your grandfather's birthday today?"

Charlie smiled slightly before he said, "Xyla told me that the Webb family came here and caused some trouble for you. That's why I decided to come here to take a look at your situation. Did you suffer a huge loss?"

Anthony waved his hand before he replied indifferently, "No. We simply lost some medicine cabinets, herbs, and materials."

Charlie nodded before he said, "I already broke Sean's right hand as a small punishment for his actions. In addition, I also told them they would have to come and apologize to you within the next three days."

As soon as Anthony heard his words, he hurriedly said, "Master Wade, you really don't need to start a war with the Webb family because of someone like me! The Webb family is the top and most influential family in the South Region. I am afraid that they will hold a grudge against you and try to take revenge on you..."

Charlie replied calmly, "Don't worry. If the Webb family really wants to retaliate and take revenge on me, then they can just come at me. When the time comes, I will use the end results to show them that Aurous Hill isn't Southaven and there's a price they'll have to pay for pretending to be tough."

Xyla could not help but stare at Charlie with a look of admiration on her face as she said, "Master Wade, thank you so much for helping my grandpa and I to take revenge on those hooligans. The father and son from the Webb family are really too much. I am really glad that you taught them a lesson and put them in their own place!"

Anthony looked at Xyla before he reprimanded her. "What are you talking about? How many times have I told you not to cause any trouble for Master Wade? Why don't you listen to me or understand anything that I am saying at all?"

Xyla lowered her head with an aggrieved expression on her face. She did not dare to say anything else.

At this moment, Charlie suddenly said, "Dr. Simmons, to be honest, the reason why the father and son from the Webb family came to look for you and cause trouble for you is also related to me to some extent."

Anthony, Xyla, and Jasmine were all a little surprised when they heard Charlie's words. They did not understand what he was saying.

Charlie smiled slightly before he explained, "Since none of you are an outsider to me, then I will just tell you the truth. The reason why the second son of the Webb family has turned out the way he is in the video that was uploaded on the Internet was because I gave him a psychological hint that he needed to do that to live."

"What?" The three of them were all dumbfounded!

No one would have ever imagined that the culprit behind Kian turning into a poop-eating monster who became famous all over the country was none other than Charlie!

Xyla subconsciously asked, "Master Wade, did you have any conflicts with Kian?"

Charlie replied indifferently, "No, I did not have any conflicts with him. However, I simply cannot stand or tolerate someone like him."

After that, Charlie explained, "This kid does not focus on studying well in university but constantly abuses his fellow female students instead. He even tried to manipulate Graham's daughter's best friend into committing suicide because of her love for him. I really cannot accept such behavior so I decided to teach him a lesson instead. This way, he will never be able to abuse and mistreat another girl in his lifetime.”

Xyla could not help but feel even more admiration for Charlie at this point. She blurted out, “Master Wade, you are truly my idol! I have already long heard that Kian was not a good person. Many people are clapping and cheering after finding out that he turned out like this! Unexpectedly, you were the one who put him in his own place, Master Wade!”

Jasmine also could not help but exclaim, “Master Wade, the reason why Donald is still hanging around in Aurous Hill is because he wants to find the culprit who did this to his youngest son, Kian. I really did not expect it to be you...”

Chapter 691

As Jasmine, Xyla, Charlie, and Anthony were talking about Kian’s affair, Charlie’s father-in-law, Jacob, was dressed in a suit as he happily walked out of his house and took a cab to Heaven Springs.

Since he was going to enjoy a little wine tonight, Jacob left his BMW at home. He had already given Charlie his car keys so Charlie could drive to Heaven Springs to pick him up after his dinner.

Jacob has no other hobbies during this period and he simply enjoyed studying antiques, cultural relics, and calligraphy and painting. That was the reason why he joined the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

The reason why Jacob decided to buy everyone dinner tonight was because he wanted to contest for the position of the standing director of the association.

In order to show his respect for the leaders of the association, he deliberately took the twenty thousand dollars that Charlie had transferred to him before he booked a bronze room at Heaven Springs.

Even though this was the cheapest room in Heaven Springs, it was still much better than all the other restaurants in the city.

When Jacob arrived at Heaven Springs, Don Albert was still on his way there.

The waiter did not know Jacob’s identity so he led Jacob directly to the bronze room that he has reserved for the night.

When Jacob saw that no one else had arrived yet, he started to calm down a little as he was not in a hurry. He simply sat in his seat as he waited patiently for his guests to arrive.

A few minutes later, someone pushed the door of the private room open. At this time, a middle-aged man who was about the same age as Jacob stepped into the room.

After seeing Jacob, the middle-aged man walked up to him before he smiled and said, “You’re early, Brother Jacob! When did you arrive?”

Jacob hurriedly replied, "Brother David, I've already been waiting here for a short while now. Since the president and executive directors are all going to participate in this dinner that I am hosting tonight, I feel very honored and excited. That is the reason why I've come here earlier to wait for everyone to arrive."

The middle-aged man was David Phillips, one of the standing directors of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

He shared a very good relationship with Jacob as the both of them enjoyed looking up antiques, and calligraphy and paintings. Therefore, they would often walk and look around Antique Street together and they eventually became very close friends.

When David heard that Jacob wanted to compete for the position of the executive director, he was the first to stand up and support Jacob's decision.

Furthermore, the reason why many of the leaders and committee members of the association agreed to attend the dinner hosted by Jacob today was because they were all giving David face.

When David saw how polite Jacob was, he could not help but laugh as he said, "Jacob, you're being too polite!"

At this time, Jacob hurriedly gestured at David before he said, "Brother David, please have a seat!"

David was not in a hurry to sit down. Since the other guests had not arrived yet, David took this opportunity to give Jacob a reminder in a low voice, "Brother Jacob, I'm naturally more than happy that you are interested in becoming a standing director. However, other people in the association might not necessarily feel the same way!"

When Jacob heard David's words, he felt a little worried and he quickly said, "Brother David, please tell me more."

David sighed before he said, "The position of the executive director has always been very popular as this is a very authoritative and respected position. Besides that, the executive director of our association would always receive appearance fees of tens of thousands of dollars whenever they participate in any antique programs. Therefore, many people are aiming for the position of the executive director."

David continued speaking, "Let's take Samuel Yount for instance. I heard that he has been bribing the chairman and the other directors recently. He has also given them a lot of gifts in private. In my opinion, he's currently your biggest competitor!"

Chapter 692

"Samuel Yount?" Jacob could not help but frown as he asked, "Are you talking about that old man who likes to brag to the point that he doesn't even remember his last name just because he has a little money?"

David nodded before he said, "Yes. My support for you alone won't be enough. When the other guests arrive later, you'll have to try to win the support of the president and the other directors.

That way, you might actually have a chance to defeat Samuel in the internal voting and become the executive director instead. Do you understand what I'm saying?"

Jacob nodded hurriedly as he said sincerely, "Brother David, thank you for your sincere advice. You're really inspiring! Thank you so much!"

David smiled slightly before he said, "Brother, why are you being so polite with me?"

After that, David glanced at the time on his watch before he said, "The chairman and the rest of the guests will also be here soon. Let's wait for them at the door. That way, it will seem that you are more sincere today."

Jacob nodded repeatedly and he did not dare to return to his seat anymore. At this time, Jacob walked to the door of the private room with David and they both stood there as they waited for the appearance of the president and the other directors of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

After a short while, some of the people from the Calligraphy and Painting Association arrived one after the other.

At this time, an old man arrived at the door of the private room and there were many people surrounding him like the stars around the moon.

When David saw the old man, he immediately stepped forward before he smiled and said, "President!"

Jacob also hurriedly followed after David as he said respectfully, "Mr. Price, you are here!"

Mr. Price nodded slightly as he pretended to complain, "Jacob, look at you! Why did you create such a big scene? Don't you know that the Calligraphy and Painting Association pays attention to simplicity? You should have just hosted the dinner at a regular restaurant instead. Why did you bother to book a private room at Heaven Springs?"

Even though the president said this and although it sounded like he was blaming Jacob for overdoing it, he was only being polite on the surface. That was not what he was thinking in his heart.

If Jacob had really arranged for them to have dinner at a regular restaurant, then he would not even have made an appearance here today. Moreover, Mr. Price would also have avoided having any contact with Jacob in the future.

At this time, Jacob quickly replied, "Every one of my guests here today are leaders. Since all the leaders are here, how can I be so casual or negligent then?"

After that, Jacob laughed before he said, "Since everyone has already arrived, then why don't we take a seat inside the room?"

Mr. Price nodded slightly before he said, "Okay. Everyone, come and have a seat!"

At this moment, a middle-aged man who had been following silently behind Mr. Price suddenly snorted as he said, "Jacob, how can you book the cheapest Bronze Room in Heaven Springs when you're hosting a dinner here tonight? Don't you think that you are being a little disrespectful towards the president and all the other directors?"

The expression on Jacob's face changed as soon as he saw the other party. After that, Jacob said, "Samuel, I invited the president and everyone else here for dinner tonight but I did not invite you here. So, what are you doing here tonight? Besides that, whatever private room I booked has nothing to do with you. Who gave you the right to make such irresponsible remarks here?"

The person standing in front of him was none other than his biggest competitor for the position of the executive director, Samuel Yount.

Samuel replied contemptuously, "You can't say that. Do you know the status of the president and the rest of the directors here today?"

After that, Samuel snorted before he said, "Do you really think that no one knows your purpose for inviting everyone to dinner here today? Isn't it just because you're eyeing the position of the executive director in the Calligraphy and Painting Association? Do you really think that you can get the president and the other directors to support and vote for you just because you've booked the cheapest Bronze Room here tonight? You are obviously too insincere. You're simply treating everyone like country bumpkins who have never seen the world before!"

After he was done speaking, Samuel looked at everyone before he smiled and said, "How can a Bronze Room possibly be worthy of people of your statuses? In order to show my respect to the president and all of the directors, I've specially booked a Gold Room upstairs today. Why don't we move over to the room that I've booked for dinner tonight instead?"

Chapter 693

When everyone in the room heard that Samuel had actually booked a Gold Room upstairs, they were all shocked!

Heaven Springs was one of the top restaurants in the entire Aurous Hill.

Even some of the savvy and prestigious figures from the upper class society in Aurous Hill hardly had the opportunity to book a Gold Room even if they spent a lot of money or made use of the connections that they had to do so.

Among everyone present here tonight, even Mr. Price who had the highest status had never had the chance to enter the Gold Room for dinner. They had never been able to step into the Gold Room to see how luxurious it was.

Now, Samuel was actually offering to entertain all of his guests in the Gold Room at Heaven Springs tonight. All of the guests in the room were in fact very surprised and excited when they heard that they would have the opportunity to go in and see the Gold Room for themselves!

In comparison, Jacob's small Bronze Room was now completely incomparable to the Gold Room offered by Samuel.

As they thought about this, all the guests could not help but feel a little disappointed in Jacob.

However, they had an indescribable admiration and appreciation for Samuel at this moment.

Mr. Price was also a little moved by Samuel's offer. However, since he has already agreed to attend Jacob's dinner, he felt that it would not be right for him to make a decision directly. Therefore, he deliberately asked for everyone's opinion by saying, "What do you guys think about Samuel's kind invitation?"

At this time, someone quickly replied, "President, I have never been to the Gold Room at Heaven Springs before. I would really love to have the opportunity to take a look and experience dining in the room for myself!"

"Yes, President! I think that it would really be great if we could go to the Gold Room and take a few photos to post and share it with our own circle of friends!"

When Mr. Price saw how eager everyone was to go to the Gold Room, he smiled before he said, "Since everyone is feeling this way, then why don't we go and take a look at the Gold Room instead?"

"Yes, yes!" everyone agreed immediately.

Samuel was overjoyed and he quickly said with a big smile on his face, "Everyone, please come upstairs with me."

Jacob was obviously feeling very depressed!

He had already planned for this dinner that he was hosting tonight but he never would have expected Samuel to steal the limelight from him halfway through!

This guy had actually booked a Gold Room before cutting off all of Jacob's plans when he came over to invite everyone over to his room for dinner instead.

Jacob had spent twenty thousand dollars to book this Bronze Room for dinner tonight. The most important point was not the fact that this money was completely wasted. However, what was even more hateful was the fact that Jacob seems to be looked down upon by everyone because of Samuel's sudden appearance...

This made Jacob feel extremely annoyed. This time, it seemed as though he had really caused trouble for himself.

As everyone was making their move to head to the Gold Room upstairs, Samuel looked at Jacob with a smug expression on his face. After that, he said sarcastically, "Jacob, you're so pathetic that I believe you must not have seen the luxurious Gold Room for yourself before, right? Would you like to come up and join us for dinner too?"

Jacob felt even more embarrassed and angry when he heard Samuel's words!

At this time, he retorted angrily, "Samuel! Who says that I am pathetic? Do you really think that I'm someone who has not seen the world? Let me tell you something. I've even been to a private room on the tenth floor of Glorious Club! Why do you make the Gold Room at Heaven Springs sound as though it is better than the king's palace?"

Samuel laughed before he said, "Oh, Jacob! Are you really trying to make me laugh to death? You are telling me that someone like you has actually been to the Glorious Club? Moreover, you're even saying that you've been to the tenth floor of Glorious Club, which is a privilege that only VIP members can actually enjoy? Did you go there to clean and tidy up the place?"

Everyone could not help but laughed out loud when they heard Samuel's ridicule.

In fact, all of them had the same opinion as Samuel. Any ordinary person could reserve the Bronze Room at Heaven Springs but the Glorious Club was only reserved for its members.

Besides that, there was a very high set of requirements that had to be met before a person could become a member of the Glorious Club. If someone's qualifications, abilities, or financial resources were not up to standard, then they would not even have the opportunity to step into the Glorious Club to spend any money there.

Chapter 694

Therefore, among all the people present here today, not one of them had even been up to the fifth floor of Glorious Club.

Even Samuel himself could only afford the lowest Classic membership tier at Glorious Club.

Therefore, everyone naturally did not believe it when Jacob said that he had been to the tenth floor of Glorious Club before.

Jacob really did not expect everyone to think that he was only bragging when he was simply telling them the truth. Therefore, he replied uncomfortably, "My son-in-law was the one who arranged for me and some of my old classmates to go up to the tenth floor of the Glorious Club that night."

Samuel laughed before he said, "I know who your son-in-law is. He is just a useless and casual son-in-law in Aurous Hill, isn't it? I heard that he's just a vagrant who is living off his wife. He's almost as pathetic as you, so can he really afford to bring you to the Glorious Club?"

Jacob snorted coldly before he said, "It is entirely up to you whether you believe me or not."

Samuel smiled before he said, "If you really had this kind of ability, then why didn't you invite the president and the other directors to Glorious Club for entertainment tonight instead? Why did you choose to buy them dinner at the cheapest Bronze Room at Heaven Springs?"

After he spoke, Samuel acted as though he came to a sudden realization as he said, "Oh! I understand now! You don't think that the president and the other directors are worthy enough! You think that people of their status are only worthy enough to be seated in the Bronze Room! Do you not think that they deserve to go to the Glorious Club at all?"

Jacob was completely at a loss for words and he could not refute Samuel's words.

Samuel was really a very horrible person and he was very quick-witted indeed. He could make up all sorts of excuses and reasons that would leave a person with no room left to breathe at all.

Therefore, even though Jacob was very angry and annoyed at Samuel, he really could not find any words to refute Samuel's words at this moment.

He could only reply angrily, "I don't mean that..."

When Samuel saw that his opponent's combat power was so weak, he could not help but wave his hand and said, "Forget it. I can't be bothered to continue arguing with a pathetic fool like you. Do you really think that someone like you deserves to take on the role of the executive director? Wouldn't you be made a laughing stock in the future?"

After that, Samuel turned around and looked at Mr. Price and the other directors with a warm smile on his face before he said, "Mr. Price, please come with me."

Since Samuel had booked a Gold Room at Heaven Springs tonight, he has already won the favor of many of the people present here. At this point, even the few directors who were usually very neutral in their opinions were also smiling kindly at him.

Jacob could not help but stomp his feet in anger when he saw this scene. He felt completely helpless.

At this time, David quickly grabbed hold of Jacob before he whispered to him, "Brother Jacob, you shouldn't be discouraged. The current situation is just a slight dispute! You shouldn't give up so easily!"

After that, David leaned in as he said, "In my opinion, you cannot lose your temper and get angry. Instead, you have to come to the Gold Room with us and perform well in front of the president and the other directors. You have to persevere and continue fighting for what you want. If you choose to give up now, I am afraid that the position of the executive director will really fall directly into Samuel's hands!"

Jacob felt as though he had just woken up from his dream!

David was right indeed!

Even though he lost to Samuel in terms of the dinner tonight, this did not necessarily mean that the other party would be the ultimate winner.

If he really chose to give up because of the rage that he was feeling right now, then all the effort and hard work that he had put in previously would have all been in vain!

Therefore, Jacob quickly thanked David before he said, "Brother David, thank you so much for your kind reminder. I will come along with everyone else so that I can see what Samuel is really capable of!"

After that, Jacob walked up to Samuel before he said, "Since you're so sincere, then I'll also come along with you to the Gold Room to gain some insights and experience it for myself."

Samuel snorted disdainfully before he said, "I've already said that you are nothing but a pathetic fool! However, you simply refuse to admit it! If you really do miss out on this opportunity to come to the Gold Room with me tonight, then I think you'll wake up several times in the middle of the night as you'll be filled with so much regret!"

Chapter 695

The expression on Jacob's face was obviously very ugly after getting ridiculed by Samuel.

However, Jacob kept David's reminder in mind and he reminded himself that the most important thing was to win the position of the executive director at the end of the day. Therefore, he should not lose his temper and get angry at Samuel.

Jacob held back his anger and he did not say anything anymore. Instead, he simply followed the crowd of people as they followed Samuel all the way to the Gold Room that he had already booked upstairs.

As soon as they stepped into the Gold Room, everyone was very surprised as they admired the luxurious decorations in the Gold Room.

At this time, one of the directors could not help but exclaim out loud, "It's all thanks to Samuel that we can get this opportunity to take a look at the Gold Room inside Heaven Springs today!"

Someone echoed, "Yes! Not too long ago, a friend of mine who had tens of millions of dollars wanted to book the Gold Room. However, even though he tried all sorts of ways and methods, he could not get a reservation at all. Therefore, he only ended up getting the Silver Room."

As soon as everyone heard this, they became even more curious. Some of them quickly asked, "Samuel, how did you manage to book the Gold Room? Did you get someone to help you out?"

Samuel replied arrogantly, "Why would I need to ask for anyone's help if I want to book a Gold Room? To put it bluntly, if I want to book a room here, I can always get the room I want whenever I want to!"

After he was done speaking, Samuel continued explaining, "To tell you the truth, I'm a regular customer of Heaven Springs. I come here for dinner very often. Besides that, I'm also a close friend of Don Albert. Therefore, as long as I want to book any rooms below the Diamond level, all the rooms at Heaven Springs will always be open for me at any time!"

Everyone sitting in the room were all amazed when they heard Samuel's words!

Mr. Price replied with an incredulous expression on his face, "Samuel, you're really amazing! You're actually close friends with Don Albert, the underground mobster boss in Aurous Hill?"

"Of course!"

Samuel replied arrogantly, "If I am not familiar with him, then how can I have the face to easily book the Gold Room here?"

Even though Samuel was bragging that he was close friends with Don Albert, the fact was that he knew Don Albert but Don Albert did not know him at all!

The reason why he was able to book the Gold Room tonight was not because of his connection to Don Albert, but was simply because he spent a lot more money than the original price of the Gold Room to buy over this room from someone else for the night.

Moreover, Samuel was intentionally bragging and mentioning Don Albert at this time because he wanted to pretend to be really cool and well-connected so that he would have more face in front of everyone.

After all, no one would possibly doubt the truth behind his statement since they were all already seated inside the luxurious Gold Room at this time. Everyone in the room believed that Samuel was telling the truth and they could not stop praising and complimenting him.

At this time, Samuel was feeling even more arrogant because everyone was praising him. Therefore, he looked at Jacob before he said sarcastically, "Jacob, can't you see that the president and all the directors are already seated? Are you really that slow witted? Why aren't you pouring us tea now?"

Jacob had a very ugly expression on his face as he said, "Samuel, what do you mean by that?"

Samuel replied contemptuously, "What do I mean? Why don't you look around you? Among everyone seated here today, which one of the guests does not have a higher status than you? You're just a pathetic fool. If you don't serve us tea, then do you really expect us to be serving you instead?"

The expression on Jacob's face became even uglier as he said angrily, "I'll admit it if you say that my status isn't as great or comparable to that of the president and the other directors here tonight. I'll admit that. However, don't you know of your own status? You're also just an ordinary member of the Calligraphy and Painting Association just like me, so why are you pretending to be above me? You can dream on if you really think that I'm going to serve you tea!"

At this time, David who was sitting next to Jacob was also a little annoyed. "Samuel, don't you think that it's a little too much for you to speak like this?"

Samuel laughed before he said, "Why is it wrong for me to speak like this? Jacob can only blame himself for being such a useless and pathetic person! If he could just book a Gold Room tonight, I wouldn't mind having to serve him tea the entire night. However, the problem is that he simply doesn't have this ability!"

After that, Samuel looked at Jacob before he said coldly, "Jacob, do you really think that I asked you to come to the Gold Room with us because I wanted to invite you to eat and drink with us? To be honest with you, I'm already giving you a lot of face by letting someone like you come here to pour and serve us tea tonight!"

Chapter 696

Jacob could only grit his teeth in anger.

If he knew that Samuel would be so vicious to keep insulting and humiliating him like this, Jacob would not have agreed to come up to the Gold Room at all.

Jacob was completely speechless and at a loss for words.

At this time, Don Albert has just stopped his car at the entrance of Heaven Springs.

The first thing that he did after getting out of his car was to hurriedly ask the manager who opened the car door for him, "Is there a customer named Jacob Wilson who reserved one of the rooms at our restaurant today?"

"Yes. He booked the Bronze Room No. 3." The manager kept a careful record of the guests who came to the restaurant every day. Therefore, he naturally knew every single guest who booked a room at Heaven Springs today.

Don Albert nodded slightly before he hurriedly said, "Come. Come with me to the Bronze Room No. 3 now!"

While he was still at Lord Moore's birthday banquet, Master Wade had informed him that his father-in-law would be hosting a dinner at his restaurant tonight. Besides that, Charlie even instructed him to take good care of his father-in-law.

How could Don Albert possibly allow Jacob to host his dinner in the small Bronze Room then? Don Albert would have to upgrade him to the Diamond Room!

Therefore, Don Albert hurriedly rushed to the Bronze Room No. 3 but when he arrived at the room, he found the door open with no one in the room at all.

Don Albert was slightly taken aback and he quickly asked the waitress, "Where is Mr. Wilson who reserved this room for the night?"

The waitress hurriedly replied, "Don Albert, Mr. Wilson was here not too long ago but he was invited to go to the Gold Room upstairs by one of his guests just a while ago. He's currently in the Gold Room No. 2."

Don Albert nodded immediately before he told the manager, "Come. Follow me!"

At this time, in the Gold Room, Samuel was staring coldly at Jacob as he sneered, "Jacob, based on your standards, I think that you don't even have the qualifications to join and be a part of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Don't you feel ashamed or embarrassed of yourself for even thinking of competing for the position of the executive director?"

Jacob replied coldly, "You say that I have no qualifications? I think you're the one who isn't qualified! Even if I'm not qualified, at the very least, I once picked up an item on Antique Street for a few thousand dollars that I ended up selling for hundreds of thousands of dollars!"

Samuel replied contemptuously, "You're just blowing your own trumpet! Anyway, your mouth is on your face so no one can stop you from bragging. You can even say that you picked up a piece of junk for a few thousand dollars and sold it for tens of millions of dollars. The problem is whether anyone will believe anything you say anyway."

Jacob snorted as he said, "If you don't believe me, you can go to Antique Street and ask Zachary about it. He was the one who bought the antique from me for a few hundred thousand dollars!"

"Zachary?" Samuel frowned before he blurted out, "Zachary is a very famous profiteer on Antique Street! He's known to be the most treacherous and cunning salesperson on the entire Antique Street. Do you really expect me to believe that he'd actually spend hundreds of thousands of dollars just to buy a piece of junk from you?"

Jacob replied contemptuously, "You can go and ask him about it tomorrow if you don't believe me."

"I'd be a fool to believe you!" Samuel replied as he smirked and said, "I don't want to waste any more time talking nonsense with you. Do you really think that a person of your status is fit and worthy to eat with us? Why don't you get down to work and serve everyone a cup of tea now? If you can't even do something as simple as this, then you should just get out of this room instead of being an eyesore here!"

Jacob trembled in anger but before he could even speak, an angry and loud voice rang behind him. "Who the hell do you think you are? Who gave you the rights to speak to Mr. Wilson in this manner? Are you tired of living?"

Chapter 697

Everyone turned around to look out the door as soon as they heard this voice. At this time, they saw Don Albert walking into the room with the manager.

Samuel naturally knew who Don Albert was. When he saw that Don Albert was here, he quickly stepped forward before he said respectfully, "Don Albert, why are you here personally?"

Unexpectedly, Don Albert glanced at him with a cold expression on his face as he said, "Were you the one who called Mr. Wilson a pathetic fool earlier?"

Samuel was stunned at this time. What was happening? Did Don Albert know Jacob?

As he thought about this, he hurriedly explained, "Don Albert, this is probably all just a misunderstanding. Both Jacob and I are members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association and we share a very good and close relationship with one another. Therefore, it's only natural for us to ridicule and make fun of each other occasionally."

Don Albert frowned before he looked at Jacob and said respectfully, "Mr. Wilson, I really did not expect you to personally visit Heaven Springs today. Please forgive me for my poor welcome!"

Everyone was very surprised to witness this scene!

This was especially so for Samuel. At this time, he was so frightened that he was already breaking out in cold sweat. He could not believe his own eyes!

Don Albert, the underground mobster boss who was so famous and reputable in the whole of Aurous Hill, was actually being so respectful and polite to this pathetic fool, Jacob?

Wasn't this a little too ridiculous?

In fact, Samuel was not the only one who was very surprised at this time. Even Mr. Price and the rest of the directors were all at a loss for words.

At this time, Jacob could not help but ask in surprise, "Do you know me?"

Don Albert had a very humble expression on his face as he explained, "I was fortunate enough to meet you when Master Wade ordered me to dispose of Aaron Phillips and his son-in-law, Jake, at Glorious Club."

Jacob asked again, "When you say Master Wade, are you referring to my son-in-law, Charlie?"

Don Albert replied sternly, "Yes! I am talking about Master Charlie Wade!"

Jacob came to a sudden realization!

He was initially very surprised that someone of Don Albert's status would actually be so respectful and polite towards an ordinary person who had no money or power like him. Jacob finally understood that this was all because of his son-in-law, Charlie.

Although his son-in-law was a big conman, at least he also enjoyed a lot of benefits as a con-man. At the very least, as his father-in-law, he could enjoy some of these benefits before his son-in-law's true colors were revealed.

At this time, Don Albert pointed his finger at Samuel before he asked Jacob, "Mr. Wilson, I heard this person insulting and ridiculing you earlier. Would you like me to teach him a lesson?"

Samuel's face turned pale in fright and he hurriedly said, "Jacob, Brother Jacob, we're all members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Since we're all such close brothers, why don't you put in a good word for me?"

"Why should I put in a good word for you?" Jacob asked as he glared at Samuel. "You were the one who said it for yourself. You said that I'm just a useless and pathetic fool who should be serving you tea. So, why should I speak up for you?"

Samuel cried out loud as he said, "Oh, my dear brother. Don't be so calculative with me! I was just kidding and playing around with you!"

Jacob chuckled as he said, "Oh, please. A pathetic fool like myself would never dare to regard you as my dear brother. I think that it would be better for us to draw a clear line between us at this time!"

Samuel knew that Jacob was still mad and filled with hatred for him. He really regretted his actions. If he had known that Don Albert would be so respectful towards Jacob, he would never have dared to act in that manner and treat him so badly.

Don Albert glared at Samuel before he said coldly, "You're in my territory but you actually dare to be so impolite and disrespectful towards Mr. Wilson? Do you not know how the word 'death' is written?"

Samuel's face turned pale immediately. He looked very cowardly and he could not speak at all as his lips trembled in fear.

Chapter 698

Don Albert pointed his finger at Samuel before he instructed his men, “Guys, come over here! Drag this guy out and beat him up nicely! I want you to focus on hitting his filthy mouth!”

When Samuel heard Don Albert’s words, he was so scared and frightened that he immediately knelt down in front of Don Albert as he cried out, “Don Albert, I am so sorry! I really did not know that Jacob was your distinguished guest! It’s all my fault. I admit to my mistake and I apologize for my actions! Forgive me! Please forgive me this time!”

Samuel really did not expect Jacob’s son-in-law to be so amazing and incredible that even the underground mobster boss of Aurous Hill would actually be Jacob’s lapdog because of him!

Before Samuel could even continue begging for mercy, some of Don Albert’s men had already stepped forwards and slapped him across his face!

Samuel instantly felt dizzy and he fell to the ground when Don Albert’s bodyguards started punching and kicking him. He looked very pathetic and miserable at this time.

Don Albert looked at Samuel coldly before he asked, “Let me ask you. Why are you targeting and attacking Mr. Wilson?”

Samuel’s mouth was filled with blood and he cried as he said, “I’m sorry, Don Albert. I was just competing with Jacob for the position of the executive director of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. That is the reason why I kept targeting and attacking him...please forgive me...”

Don Albert ignored him and he simply looked around the crowd of people in the private room before he asked, “Who’s the president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association?”

Mr. Price hurriedly replied, “Don Albert, I am the president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.”

Don Albert nodded slightly before he pointed his finger at Samuel as he said, “Let me ask you, do you really think that this kind of rubbish is worthy enough to be a part of the Calligraphy and Painting Association? How did you end up becoming the president of the association? Do you even know how you should be acting? If you don’t know how to act as the president, then just give up your position already!”

Mr. Price shuddered in fright. He was very eager to survive and he subconsciously blurted out, “I will resign as the president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association tomorrow! At that time, I will definitely recommend for Jacob to be elected as the next president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association...”

Jacob hurriedly waved his hand when he heard this. “No, no, Mr. Price. I do not have the qualifications to become the president...I would be very satisfied with being an executive director of the association...”

Mr. Price hurriedly said, “Since Don Albert thinks that you’re qualified to be the president, then you’re definitely qualified to become the president!”

Jacob waved his hands repeatedly as he said, “No, I have not accomplished much in this association yet. I can’t possibly be worthy of this position...”

At this time, Don Albert looked at Mr. Price before he said, “Since you’re the president of the association, then let me give you a suggestion now.”

After a short pause, Don Albert pointed at Samuel before he said, "First of all, you should permanently remove this piece of garbage from the Calligraphy and Painting Association."

Mr. Price replied, "Of course! I will make sure that he is completely removed from the association tomorrow!"

Don Albert nodded before he pointed at Jacob and said, "Mr. Wilson has a very high level of knowledge in antiques and calligraphy and painting. Since he is so humble and unwilling to take on the position of the president, then you should give him the position of the executive director in the association. Do you understand me?"

Mr. Price hurriedly promised, "Yes! Yes! I will definitely do as you have instructed."

After that, the expression on Mr. Price's face changed as he glared at Samuel and said, "Samuel Yount, I announce that from this moment onwards, you have been officially removed as a member of the Calligraphy and Painting Association and you will not be able to join this association again in this lifetime!"

Samuel could not help but feel very depressed.

To be honest, Samuel did not have much skills or ability in appraising antiques. The reason he was able to join the Aurous Hill Calligraphy and Painting Association was because he had spent a lot of money before he could finally become a member of the association.

Samuel has always been relying on his membership of the Calligraphy and Painting Association to deceive and cheat others. He had initially thought that it would be so much more convenient for him to continue cheating people of their money if he became the executive director of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. However, he really did not expect to be permanently removed as a member of the association simply because he had offended Jacob!

However, Samuel did not dare to express any dissatisfaction at all. After all, he knew very well that he could never afford to offend Don Albert.

Just as he has already submitted to his own fate, Don Albert looked at him with a cold expression on his face before he said, "I heard that you think very highly of yourself. You seem to think that you have a very high status and identity. If that is the case, then I shall arrange for you to be transported to a place where your identity can be highlighted the most!"

After that, Don Albert instructed his men, "Carry him away! Find the dirtiest pigsty and leave him there to live with the pigs for one week. Make sure that he eats, drinks, and sleeps with all the pigs! He'll eat what the pigs eat, and sleep where the pigs sleep. I want him to be able to truly experience a super VIP treatment!"

Chapter 699

The expression on Samuel's face changed drastically at this time. He was scared to death in an instant and he could not help but feel very desperate at this point!

How could he possibly live and sleep with pigs? How could he possibly eat what pigs ate?

That was too fucking sick, wasn't it?

Besides that, the pigsty was a very messy and disgusting environment. Moreover, the smell of the pigs was also very nasty and smelly. He would definitely feel very sick if he was forced to sleep with all the dirty and smelly pigs!

Furthermore, the food fed to the pigs were always leftovers. Due to the lack of air circulation and the sultry temperature in the pigsty, the leftover food fed to the pigs would usually be rotten within a few hours. What would happen to his health and body that he has taken such good care of for so many years if he had to eat this kind of food?

He even has to live with the pigs for a week. He was afraid that he would belch for the whole entire week there!

As he thought about this, Samuel hurriedly begged Don Albert, "Don Albert, please be merciful and forgive me. I really do not want to sleep and live with the pigs in the pigsty. That place is simply too dirty and nauseating. I cannot stand it..."

Don Albert sneered before he said, "You can't stand it? Alright then! I will double the duration of your punishment. You will spend two weeks living with the pigs!"

Samuel could not help but wail out loud.

Don Albert warned, "You're crying? Alright then, I will add another week to your punishment!"

Jacob felt that since Samuel had already been beaten up so badly, there was no need to send him to live with the pigs in the pigsty for three weeks. Therefore, he said, "It's okay. I think there isn't a need to send him to live with the pigs at the pigsty. That place is really very smelly and dirty."

Don Albert nodded before he said, "Yes, you're right. The pigsty is indeed a very dirty and smelly place. That is the reason why I've never had the intention of running a pigsty."

At this time, Don Albert suddenly thought of something and he said excitedly, "By the way, I own a dog farm in the suburbs where I keep all my expensive fighting dogs. I can just send this guy there and ask my men to chop him up and feed him to the dogs instead. That will save us all a lot of effort and worry. Besides that, my dog farm is also very clean and hygienic. I think that he'll definitely like it there!"

As soon as Samuel heard his words, he was so frightened that he wet his pants.

If he could live, who would be willing to die?

It would be better for him to live than to die! So what if he had to eat and sleep with the pigs?

He would accept that!

Samuel was very eager and desperate to survive. Therefore, he pleaded immediately, "Don Albert, please have mercy on me. Just send me to the pigsty to live with the pigs!"

Don Albert nodded in satisfaction before he said, "Take him down to the dirtiest pigsty that you can find in the city!"

After that, a few strong men came forward before they dragged the bruised and swollen Samuel away from the room. The guests seated around the table were all in shock.

When Mr. Price and the other directors witnessed this scene, they could not stop their faces from twitching. They felt that Samuel was really suffering from a very horrible and miserable fate.

However, Samuel could only blame himself and take the responsibility for his own actions. If he had not treated Jacob so badly, would he have ended up in this situation?

As Samuel was sent away to enjoy his three weeks customized luxurious tour of the pigsty, Don Albert said respectfully to Jacob, "Mr. Wilson, that guy had just pissed on the ground out of fear. In order to give you and your guests a better dining experience, I would like to invite you to move to the Diamond Room at Heaven Springs! Moreover, all of your expenses here tonight will be borne by Heaven Springs!"

Mr. Price and the rest of the directors were all shocked when they heard Don Albert's words!

What? Did they hear him correctly?

It was already very unbelievable that the underground mobster boss of Aurous Hill would actually be so respectful towards Jacob. However, Don Albert was even offering Jacob the most expensive and luxurious Diamond Room in Heaven Springs just to please him?

There were only a handful of people in the whole of Aurous Hill who would be eligible and qualified to book the Diamond Room in Heaven Springs.

Since Don Albert wanted to curry favor with Jacob, he was directly expressing his intention of allowing him to use and dine in the Diamond Room for free!

Who would actually believe it if word about this matter were to spread out to the public?

Chapter 700

Jacob was also a little stunned. He hesitated for a moment before he said, "This...isn't this too inappropriate?"

Don Albert solemnly replied, "Mr. Wilson, since you are Master Wade's son-in-law, of course it is most appropriate for you to dine in the Diamond Room!"

Jacob was very relieved when he heard this and he quickly said, "Don Albert, you are being too polite and courteous with me."

Mr. Price and the other directors finally realized that Jacob was also a very prominent figure.

If they established a good relationship with him, then they would definitely save themselves a lot of worry and trouble in future!

After that, Don Albert personally escorted them to the Diamond Room.

Mr. Price and the rest of the directors followed silently behind Jacob with a respectful expression on their faces. They did not dare to say anything.

Jacob also took notice of this and he was actually feeling very happy and excited inside.

He had obviously been the one who was very eager to invite all of these people over here to have dinner with him. However, now, all of these people were all in awe of him!

At this time, Jacob could not help but feel that he has indeed gained a lot of face and benefits because of his son-in-law, Charlie!

As Jacob was being escorted to the luxurious Diamond Room by Don Albert, Mr. Lloyd, his son, and the five bodyguards from the Webb family which were led by Jones had also arrived at the entrance of Heaven Springs.

Mr. Lloyd has a cold killing intent on his face at this time.

During this period of time, the words 'pathetic jerk' had been plastered on his son Marcus's forehead and he was living a life worse than death.

Before this, Mr. Lloyd did not dare to avenge his son because he knew that he could not afford to provoke the two culprits, Charlie and Don Albert.

What was even more humiliating was the fact that his son had to make a trip to Heaven Springs every week to allow Don Albert to check the lettering and scar on his forehead.

This was the greatest shame and humiliation for both his son and himself!

However, he would be able to exact revenge and make Don Albert pay the price for his actions tonight!

The reason why Mr. Lloyd had brought his son here with him tonight was precisely because his son had to coincidentally come to Heaven Springs for his weekly report to Don Albert. Therefore, Mr. Lloyd decided to use his son to sneak into Heaven Springs and meet up with Don Albert first. This way, he would be able to find out more details about Don Albert and the location tonight.

For instance, Mr. Lloyd needed to determine Don Albert's exact location and the number of men that he had with him in Heaven Springs.

If Mr. Lloyd rushed in without any clear knowledge, then Don Albert could take advantage of this situation to make his escape.

At this time, Mr. Lloyd quickly instructed Marcus who was standing next to him, "Son, when you go in to meet Don Albert later, make sure that you act as you usually would. However, you should also take advantage of this opportunity to observe Don Albert's surroundings. You need to update me on his specific location and the number of subordinates and men that he has inside Heaven Springs. After you have determined all this information, you should come back and report everything to me. Can you do that for me?"

Marcus gritted his teeth before he said bitterly, "Yes, I know what I have to do, Dad! Don't worry. I will figure everything out for you!"

Mr. Lloyd patted him gently on his shoulder with a satisfied expression on his face before he said, "You are my good son! I will definitely avenge you tonight. I will make Don Albert pay for what he has done to you with his life!"

Marcus hurriedly said, "Dad, besides Don Albert, Charlie has also played a very important role in humiliating me! I want him dead too!"

"Don't worry!" Mr. Lloyd replied in a serious tone, "After we successfully kill Don Albert tonight, I'll become the next underground mobster boss of Aurous Hill. At that time, we can cooperate with the Webb family to kill Charlie directly and send him on his way to hell with his companion, Don Albert!"

Marcus was very excited when he recalled the humiliation that he had suffered during this period of time and he could not stop the tears from flowing down his cheeks.

At this time, he touched the scar on his forehead that was carved by Don Albert, and he cried as he said, "Dad, do you think that the scar on my forehead can still be removed?"

Mr. Lloyd replied in a gloomy and vicious voice, "Dear son, don't worry. After we kill these two damned guys, I will bring you to Korea to look for the best plastic surgeon so you can undergo the best cosmetic surgery to remove the scar on your forehead!"
