

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3641-3702

Chapter 3641

The so-called 'I don't give a shit' is actually a swear word in American English. It probably means, I don't care about the f*ck, or: I don't f*cking care about you.

The reason why Charlie chose an American swear word was to simply and rudely express his attitude to James Smith that in front of Healing Salve Pills, does he still want to talk about your rules?

When James Smith heard this sentence, he immediately understood Charlie's attitude completely.

Healing Salve Pills are placed here.

Although it is a life-saving magic medicine, in front of the rules, they are the nuclear weapons that God blocks and kills God and Buddha.

In addition, its output is scarce, which is even more demanding by everyone.

In this case, everything is a pure seller's market, and the seller is the father.

Therefore, he could only say apologetically, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, I just misworded..."

After saying that, he quickly expressed his attitude, "Don't worry, we are willing to pay you for the medicine, but we don't know exactly how to price your medicine?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Since you are the head of the FDA, you should know that the research and development cost of many specific drugs is very high, so their price is also very expensive...”

Speaking of this, Charlie deliberately changed the topic and said with a smile, “By the way, I heard that your FDA just approved a specific drug some time ago, and it costs more than 200 million dollars per injection? Is this the case?”

“Yes...” James Smith wiped a cold sweat and hesitantly said, “That medicine is from Novartis. It is a specific medicine for spinal cord muscle atrophy in children.”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “Then the price of our super specific drugs that can treat end-stage cancer must not be too low, don’t you think so?”

James Smith said quickly, “Mr. Wade, the reason why Novartis’s medicine is very expensive is that it can be cured with one injection...”

“After all, Healing Salve Pills are drugs that need to be taken for a long time.”

“If the price is set too high, I’m afraid no one can afford it...”

Charlie laughed and said, “Don’t be afraid. We can’t sell more than 200 million dollars a box of medicine. Isn’t that a calf?”

James Smith was a little relieved.

He was really afraid that Charlie’s lion would open his mouth.

At this time, he couldn’t help muttering in his heart, “If it’s really a box of $2 million dollars, I’m afraid no one can afford it except the top rich with assets of billions of dollars.”

“After all, a box of medicine has only seven pills, and if a patient takes medicine alone a year, he will get one billion dollars. It’s better to die than die...”

Charlie said at this time, “I think our medicine should be just a box of one million dollars. The price is quite appropriate.”

When James Smith heard this, he immediately collapsed and blurted, “One million dollars per box, 52 boxes a year...”

“That is to say, the cost of treatment a year costs fifty two million dollars, which is too expensive...”

Charlie spread out his hand and said, “There’s nothing we can do.”

“Our research and development costs are very high, the production costs are very high, and the output is very small.”

“It may not exceed one hundred thousand boxes all year round.”

“If you sell one million per box, the annual sales volume is only a billion US dollars.”

Chapter 3642

“Is it very high? A monoclonal antibody drug in your Western pharmaceutical company has a sales volume of more than ten billion dollars a year. What do I say about you?”

With that, Charlie said again, “You should understand that in traditional oriental medicine, raw materials rely on all kinds of heavenly materials and earth treasures.”

“Unlike your chemicals, as long as you develop a molecular formula, you can put them in the production line and produce in large quantities.”

Charlie really can't produce Healing Salve pills in batches. At least he is far from that ability now.

After all, this medicine really relies on blood-scattering elixir.

He can't do nothing all day long and just stay at home to alchemy.

Therefore, even if he has the heart to help the world, he has no ability to save everyone at all.

That's why the output of this medicine is bound to be very small.

The reason why he made this medicine was not to make money, but to help Oracle Pharmaceutical open the door to the markets of various countries.

When James Smith heard this, he immediately inferred, “The reason why Oracle Pharmaceutical can't produce this drug in large quantities must be because its own production technology level is insufficient, so the output cannot be broken through!”

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said, “Mr. Weaver, Mr. Wade, I wonder if you two are interested in selling the patent of this medicine to American pharmaceutical companies?”

When Charlie heard this, he squinted at James Smith.

In his opinion, the old fox's tail is finally about to be exposed.

So he said firmly, "Impossible. We will never sell this patent!"

James Smith said quickly, "What if American companies can pay a huge buyout fee?"

"For example, tens of billions of dollars or more?"

Charlie still shook his head, "Not to mention tens of billions, even if it's hundreds of billions or trillions of dollars, we won't sell it."

The main reason why Charlie is unwilling to sell is that he can't sell it at all.

This recipe can be given to anyone at any time, but no one can produce it.

If the other party can't produce it, how can it be willing to pay the buyout fee?

This is not to fool Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals at the beginning.

On the contrary, Ichiro Kobayashi came to grab medicine and gave his father a fake to die, and he could only suffer dumb losses.

If this is sold, it is a billion-dollar patent transaction.

I'm afraid the whole world will be shocked.

If the other party gets the patent and finds that he has been fooled, the designation will be an international scandal.

James Smith thought that Oracle Pharmaceutical was unwilling to sell patents, which was purely self-appreciating, so he hurriedly advised, "Mr. Wade, the discovery of penicillin at the beginning was also a revolutionary progress in the medical field, but you may not know that because it was extremely difficult to prepare penicillin in those years, the production capacity of penicillin has been unable to increase."

"Going up, the strain that several large laboratories have painstakingly cultivated are not enough to treat a person, so they can't serve all mankind at all."

Speaking of this, James Smith paused slightly and said, "However, in the following years, thanks to the efforts of various pharmaceutical, chemists and biological experts, the production process of penicillin has been continuously optimized, and has also achieved the development from extremely low output to overcapacity step by step, thus benefiting all mankind."

"With all due respect, I think Oracle Pharmaceutical is like a team that discovered penicillin at the beginning."

"Although it was found, it could not be mass-produced."

"However, our American industry, pharmaceutical and chemical foundation are the top in the world!"

"If we can develop based on this formula, we may achieve large-scale mass production in a few years!"

"Isn't it a great thing that we will work together to benefit all mankind then?"

Charlie was amused by him and said happily, "Mr. Smith, I find that you are really good, with unique eyes and foresight!"

"No wonder people like you can be the head of the FDA! This state alone is amazing!"

James Smith thought Charlie was really moved by him, so he said with a smile, "Mr. Wade is welcome. I'm not far-sighted."

"I just want to benefit all mankind as much as possible."

Charlie nodded solemnly and said, "Mr. Smith, a drug for cancer, no matter how beneficial it is, it can benefit tens of millions of people..."

Speaking of this, Charlie turned around and said seriously, "However, since your scientific research base in the United States is so strong, why don't you study and research how to cheap a large amount of synthetic oil?"

"If you can reduce the manufacturing cost of each barrel of oil to one dollar and produce it five, six, seven, and eight hundred billion barrels a year, then you not only solve the global energy crisis, but also don't have to send troops by you for various reasons in the Middle East."

"Isn't that really benefiting more than seven billion people around the world?"

At this, James Smith stabbed all over in embarrassment.

He found that he knew that Charlie was bullsh!t and that he was being sarcastic himself, but he could not refute him.

Because no matter how much he retorted, he seemed to be hitting himself in the face.

He couldn't help sighing in his heart, "D*mn it, you're f*cking a f*cking loss."

"It's really a good material for operation... I boast that I'm smart, and I was ridiculed for being speechless..."

Chapter 3643

In desperation, James Smith could only ask Charlie, “Mr. Wade, if we decide to introduce Healing Salve Pills at a price of 1 million US dollars at this stage, how many boxes of medicines can you provide us with?”

Charlie waved his hand, “The price can’t be so low now. If you want to introduce it, you can get five million dollars a box, and you can get twenty boxes at a time.”

James Smith almost spat blood and subconsciously asked, “Mr. Wade, didn’t you just say that it would be more expensive than Novartis’s medicine?”

“This is three million more expensive than Novartis!”

Charlie laughed and said, “The price of one million dollars is the price after the official listing.”

“I always say the same. After the official listing, if the price exceeds one million dollars, we will give you the patent for free.”

“However, at this stage, the price is five million per box, which is not negotiable.”

James Smith is no longer able to complain about Charlie’s shamelessness.

He has now figured out that since Oracle Pharmaceutical is unwilling to sell patents, his current task is to make as many Healing Salve pills as possible.

On the one hand, it can shame his son’s medicine, and on the other hand, it can let pharmaceutical enterprises secretly conquer the formula.

When the formula is conquered and produced directly in large quantities in India, Oracle Pharmaceutical will definitely not even cry.

So he said, "Mr. Weaver and Mr. Wade, I will sort out all your requirements and submit them to the FDA committee and the National Assembly for review as soon as possible."

"If there is any results, I will give feedback to you as soon as possible!"

Liam Weaver thought that since Charlie put himself up his posture, he knocked on the table and said, "Mr. Smith, let those people in your country hurry up."

"We don't have much patience to wait all the time."

James Smith nodded quickly, "Don't worry, you two. I will finish this matter as soon as possible!"

After verbally agreeing to a series of harsh terms put forward by Charlie, Liam Weaver took the initiative to end the dinner, and Don Albert immediately sent someone to send James Smith back to Shangri-La Hotel.

As soon as James Smith left, Liam Weaver couldn't wait to ask Charlie, "Master Wade, James Smith is so eager to get Healing Salve pills. I don't think it's not only for his son, but also for other intentions!"

Charlie smiled and said, "You don't have to think about it."

"They must be planning to decipher the recipe of Healing Salve Pills and find a way to imitate it."

Liam Weaver also said with an agreed face, "I think so! These people are really promiscuous!"

Charlie said without care, "It's okay. Let them study it. Even if they invest all the GDP of the whole United States, it is impossible to crack the production process of Healing Salve pills, but it's just a waste of research and development funds."

Chapter 3644

After saying that, Charlie said again, "Next, you don't have to connect with them in this regard and do your best to promote the market and sale of our conventional drugs around the world."

"Now we already have the best stepping stone in our hands, and I believe no country will reject us."

Liam Weaver said excitedly, "Master Wade, don't worry, I will do my best!"

At this time, as soon as James Smith returned to Shangri-La Hotel, he immediately reported on his progress in detail with the head of the Ministry of Health.

Charlie's several conditions, although very harsh for the United States, are not impossible to agree.

Therefore, after a simple negotiation, they immediately agreed to all Charlie's requests, including tariff reduction and exemption for all drugs and health care products, and endorsement of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

As for the introduction of Healing Salve Pills in the early stage, a box of huge sums of money costing five million dollars, the White House agreed without thinking much.

After all, they want to further improve their international influence by cracking and optimizing formulas, and then let India take the blame and make a profit from pirated drugs, so such a little investment is just a drop in them.

Therefore, that afternoon, Oracle Pharmaceutical received a billion US dollars from the FDA.

Immediately afterwards, the Mayo Center in the United States announced a blockbuster news to the world, "A pharmaceutical company from China has produced super specific drugs that can treat all types of end-stage cancer!"

With Jimmy's treatment also announced, the Mayo Center declared to the world that the drug has unprecedented therapeutic effects for end-stage cancer, and may completely rewrite the history of cancer treatment!

The news passed through the Mayo Center and immediately triggered experts in the field of cancer around the world.

Jimmy's treatment results in just one night clearly show the powerful therapeutic effect of Healing Salve Pills on end-stage cancer.

Therefore, no one doubts that the content published by the Mayo Center is fake.

Immediately afterwards, the news continued to ferment through the media, which made the whole world rejoice!

The Oracle Pharmaceutical also became popular all over the world in an instant!

For a while, almost all national drug administrations took the initiative to send invitations to Oracle Pharmaceutical, earnestly inviting Oracle Pharmaceuticals to enter their market as soon as possible, and agreeing to give the green light to all processes.

Under Charlie's instruction, Liam Weaver immediately publicly stated to the world through the official channels of Oracle Pharmaceutical, 'Healing Salve Pills are still in a very difficult small-scale preparation stage, and clinical trials and process reforms have not yet been completed.'

Therefore, the time it will go on the market around the world is temporarily unpredictable, and it is not optimistic.

This time node may be several years or even decades.

Charlie hopes that the whole world will know Oracle Pharmaceutical through Healing Salve Pills and greatly increase their recognition of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

But he didn't hope that the whole world would pin its hopes on Healing Salve Pills.

After all, this is a difficult or almost impossible drug to mass-produce.

If the whole world pins its hopes on Healing Salve Pills to change the fate of every cancer patient, it is doomed to be unrealistic.

Although Oracle Pharmaceutical came out in person to pour cold water on the whole world, everyone is still full of expectations for Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Many people even compare Oracle Pharmaceutical to the light of mankind, believing that since they can develop such drugs, they will definitely break through the last shackles.

For a while, Oracle Pharmaceutical's global popularity was much higher than those of the world's top pharmaceutical companies.

Charlie also obeyed the agreement very much and sent twenty boxes of Healing Salve pills to James Smith.

James Smith, who got Healing Salve Pills, burst into tears with excitement.

Then he immediately called the Minister of Health and said to him, "I have got twenty boxes of Healing Salve pills, and I'm ready to book the earliest ticket back to the United States immediately!"

"Don't worry!" The other party immediately said, "You are in possession of such an important medicine now that you can never come back by civil airliner."

"That's too unsafe! I'll contact you now to see which American pharmaceutical company is equipped with private planes in the China branch."

"If so, I will requisition it immediately and send you back safely."

Soon, he requisitioned a private plane from Merckardton, a well-known pharmaceutical company.

The plane was on standby in Eastcliff at this time.

After being requisitioned, it immediately flew to Aurous Hill to send James Smith back to United States.

James Smith tied twenty boxes of Healing Salve pills to his waist with tape, so he safely and boldly boarded the plane to the United States.

At this time, experts from several top pharmaceutical groups and pharmaceutical laboratories in the United States have all gathered in a secret laboratory in Washington.

They were ready one by one, waiting for James Smith to take Healing Salve Pills back, and then began to crack the recipe as soon as possible!

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3645-3648

Chapter 3645

After 12 hours of flying, James Smith finally returned to Washington.

Interestingly, the plane he was on did not land at Washington Airport, but was guided all the way by air traffic controllers to a military airport on the outskirts of Washington.

The reason why it wanted to guide the plane to land at a military airport was because the 20 boxes of Healing Salve pills he was carrying were no longer as simple as priceless treasures in the eyes of the United States.

They are even likely to be a big piece of international competition in the peaceful era.

After the plane landed, it was immediately led by the ground guidance vehicle to a military hangar specially used to park bombers.

At this time, the hangar has been completely emptied, and nearly a hundred people have been waiting here for a long time.

Among these people, there are military leaders, high-level health officials, elites from major laboratories, and experimental teams from several top pharmaceutical companies.

In addition, there are some serious men in suits.

In James Smith's experience, these should be agents of the CIA.

James Smith never expected that he would come back this time, and there would be such a big battle to greet him.

The moment the door of the plane opened, before he recovered, he rushed up to many soldiers.

As soon as they got on the plane, these soldiers immediately ordered, "Everyone will queue up and get off the plane with their belongings."

"This aircraft will undergo a comprehensive inspection soon."

"If you hide any sensitive items on your body or on the aircraft, we will deal with you seriously!"

James Smith said embarrassingly, "Are you afraid that we will smuggle some contraband back to China?"

The soldier said with a cold face, "Mr. Smith, you must make sure that every box and every piece of Healing Salve Pill is intact."

James Smith instantly understood the motives of these soldiers.

They were afraid that he would keep the Healing Salve Pills privately, or they were afraid that they would leave the Healing Salve Pills on the plane, or leave it to the crew, and then transfer it to other countries in the future.

It's not that they are too sensitive, after all, in their opinion, the value of Healing Salve Pill is too great to be estimated, and they must be cautious.

James Smith had to open his clothes, and lighted out the 20 boxes of Healing Salve Pill wrapped around his waist, and said, "Don't worry, I will carry all the medicine next to me."

The soldier nodded, and still said blankly, "It's best to be like this."

Soon, James Smith walked out of the cabin accompanied by soldiers.

At this time, Minister of Health Rutgers strode over and said excitedly, "Mr. Smith, you are finally back!"

James Smith said awkwardly, "How did you make such a big battle?"

Rutgers smiled and said, "Since I heard you that Oracle Pharmaceutical has not found the mass production process of Healing Salve Pills, the White House has paid great attention to this matter!"

As he said, Rutgers said again, "If you think about it, if they can't break through this limit, then their drug will not be able to truly produce checks and balances in the international arena."

Chapter 3646

"If we can break through this limit, then this medicine can play a huge role in our hands!"

James Smith nodded and said, "I have brought the medicine back. If you want to study it, take it and study it, but I want ten boxes for my son to treat!"

"Ten boxes?" Rutgers frowned and blurted out, "Mr. Smith, you have to know that this money comes from our Ministry of Health."

“Ten boxes are $50 million! If you just take it away, how should I tell my superior report?”

When James Smith became nervous, he asked, “What do you mean? My son is still waiting for help!”

Seeing that he was very nervous, Rutgers hurriedly laughed and said, “Oh, don’t be so sensitive, don’t be so nervous.”

“I mean, your son is taking the normal dose. Only one medicine a day is needed.”

“Four boxes are enough. He can take it for a month.”

As he said, Rutgers patted James Smith on the shoulder, and said, “With our pharmacy ability, maybe we have achieved a complete imitation in a month, and I will give it myself by then.”

“A hundred boxes are delivered to your home!”

James Smith immediately yelled emotionally, “No! What if you don’t achieve it in a month?”

“Should I continue to watch my son wait to die? I don’t care about anything else, this batch of medicine, I need 10 boxes, one less box will not work!”

As he said, James Smith said again, “Don’t think that I don’t understand pharmacy.”

“If you really want to figure out what formula is in this medicine. You don’t need a lot of medicine as a sample.”

“Each experimental team only needs to divide two or three pills.”

“Enough for them to do a long experiment! Ten boxes are seventy, which is definitely enough for you!”

Rutgers sighed helplessly, and whispered to James Smith, “Think about it. Since the Mayo Center released all your son’s treatment information, how excited cancer patients all over the world are!”

“And if you think about it, there are so many cancer patients now, those politicians in the White House, whose relatives and friends have one or two cancer patients?”

“They are all looking forward to this batch of medicines coming in!”

“It is the result of my hard work to keep four boxes of medicines for your son!”

James Smith suddenly looked stunned.

He already understood the meaning of Rutgers’ words.

And it’s easy to understand.

As he said, among his relatives and friends, there are not one or two cancer patients yet?

If it is a distant relative, it would be better to say, if it is a close relative, who is not like yourself, trying to save them with all your best?

Now these twenty boxes of Healing Salve Pills, I am afraid it has become their biggest expectation.

Thinking of this, James Smith could only compromise and said to Rutgers, “You must urge them to crack the drug as quickly as possible!”

“Don’t worry.” Rutgers nodded and said, “This matter is now supervised by me. From now on, all my energy will be on this matter.”

James Smith nodded, took the Healing Salve Pill from his body, and said, “Give you sixteen boxes. I will take the rest to the hospital for my son.”

Rutgers shook his head and said solemnly, “Mr. Smith, the special envoy of the White House has already said that all teams developing this drug and all patients who need to be treated with this drug must be gathered and supervised by the military. “

As he said, Rutgers said again, “That means you have to take your son to the laboratory provided by the military, and the medicine will also be under the strict supervision of the military.”

“When your son take the medicine every day, the medicine will also be given by the doctor appointed by the military.”

James Smith asked dumbfounded, “Is this... so strict?”

“It’s not over yet!” Rutgers said again, “The White House didn’t know about it, so it was not able to collect your son’s excreta in time.”

“So from now on, any patient who takes the medicine, the excrement will be collected by the military uniformly and must not be leaked.”

“All of this will be strictly controlled in accordance with the highest biosafety level!”

As he said, Rutgers whispered in his ear, “You also know that no medicine can be completely absorbed by the human body.”

“In case the excrement carries effective ingredients, it is a risk to leak out.”

“We must pay for it in Oracle Pharmaceutical.”

“Strictly guard against this before launching this drug formally!”

“Never let the second country have the same opportunity!”

Chapter 3647

Soon, everyone, including James Smith, took a military car to the top laboratory that had already been prepared.

It has been taken over by the military and managed by the strictest control measures.

James Smith’s son was also picked up from Mayo Center and sent directly here.

In addition to him, four patients with very hard connections were also sent in.

The military has set up a special medical team to treat these 5 patients.

At the same time, there is a comprehensive shooting team to track and record all the details of the five patients after taking the medicine.

To James Smith’s relief, his son finally took the Healing Salve Pills he brought back.

Miracles continue to occur.

After his son took the medicine, all the physical indicators were improved and treated at a rate visible to the naked eye.

The other 4 patients were even better than James Smith's son.

Because they have not taken Healing Salve Pills before, they can clearly feel the unparalleled effect of the medicine as soon as they take them.

All the relevant data excited the researchers here, because they witnessed the strength of Healing Salve Pills, which made them eager to conquer this medicine.

Several teams began to conduct in-depth research on Healing Salve Pills at the same time.

Almost all the world's top pharmacy experts and related equipment are concentrated here.

Different teams studied the composition of Healing Salve Pills in different ways, and soon reached a unified conclusion.

That is, Healing Salve Pills are pure natural plant ingredients, not synthetic hormones or some new chemical products.

Everyone was very surprised to get this conclusion.

Because they have never thought that pure natural plant ingredients can have such a strong effect on cancer.

But at present, their research results on Healing Salve Pills are exactly so anti-scientific.

In their view, the treatment of cancer requires the development of extremely complex chemicals.

It's like there is indeed a natural anti-cancer drug called paclitaxel in cancer. Although it is extracted from purple shirts, it must also be extracted and concentrated by chemical means. Nearly thirty catties of purple shirt bark can extract a gram of effective substances!

Moreover, if the patient directly nibbles thirty catties of paclitaxel bark, it must be useless.

In a way, anti-cancer drugs, like atomic bombs, must be concentrated in a certain proportion of radioactive raw materials to succeed.

However, it is impossible for such a high concentration of radioactive material in nature. The only possibility is to continuously purify and concentrate through centrifuges before it reaches the weapon-level concentration.

Chapter 3648

However, when they found that Healing Salve Pills were all pure natural plant ingredients, it gave them the feeling that someone had made a 20 million tons of TNT equivalent atomic bomb with a pile of flowers and plants.

If you hadn't seen it with your own eyes, everything would sound like a fantasy.

This time, it confused all the top experts.

They even speculate whether these natural plant ingredients will undergo a chemical reaction beyond their known range in patients.

Therefore, these teams soon began to carry out reverse research and development.

They marked all the raw materials analyzed, and then bought a large pile as soon as possible to transport them to the laboratory.

Then there are all kinds of experiments and attempts.

Because they do have a strong scientific research foundation, one of their teams has found almost exactly the same ratio as Healing Salve Pills within no more than 24 hours!

As soon as the news came out, the whole laboratory was jubilant.

Rutgers immediately asked the team to give patients the drugs developed in the opposite direction for trial use.

Originally, they should at least try the lethal dosage of this medicine on mice first, and then see what adverse reactions there will be.

But time is pressing. In addition, the drugs used are all natural ingredients and the side effects are very controllable, so Rutgers made a thoughtless decision and asked the patient to start clinical trials directly.

Five patients, including James Smith's son, were gathered together to give them intensive medicine.

James Smith was also excited to participate in it. At this time, he, like other doctors, was extremely excited and full of confidence.

After all, in their opinion, if a drug can make its ingredients and proportions almost identical, it can be said that it has completely imitated the same thing.

The ingredients are the same, the measurements and ratios are the same, and the effect must be the same.

Seeing that all five patients took the trial drugs, Rutgers said to Smith confidently, excitedly and contemptuously, "Let me tell you, this thing is the same as the Soviet MiG 25 fighter jet. Before you took it apart, you fucking couldn't figure out how the Soviets could fight a battle. Fighting machine, driving to three times the speed of sound, driving faster than a missile, you even thought at one time whether they had mastered some top new materials, even alien materials."

"However, when you really got a MiG 25 and took it apart, you knew that there was no new material, that is, a large amount of stainless steel without any technical content..."

With that, he smiled sarcastically and said, "This medicine of China is the same as MiG 25. I thought there would be some complicated chemical ingredients in it, but I didn't expect that it was all natural plant ingredients. I have participated in a lot of reverse research and development in my life. It was the first time I developed it so quickly! That's interesting!"

In fact, it is not difficult to develop a drug in reverse direction.

Just like many cancer-specific drugs, small pharmaceutical factories in India can easily imitate them, and the efficacy is almost the same.

This is because as long as chemicals master the molecular formula and develop the synthesis method in the reverse direction, as long as the molecular formula is made, there is no problem.

It's like some people prepare hydrogen with electrolytic water, and some people use aluminum and acid reaction to prepare hydrogen. Although the methods are completely different, all the hydrogen obtained is the molecular formula H₂. There will be no difference between the hydrogen prepared by these two methods.

Since generic drugs are so simple, the fundamental reason why countries, except India, do not imitate them is that everyone must abide by the rules of international patents. No country except India will allow generic drugs that infringe patents to be sold on the market.

Therefore, even the drugs imitated by India can only be sold in India in theory. Patients in other countries can only buy them through some grayer special ways.

Although some Chinese prescriptions do not have any special chemical ingredients, their plant ingredients are also clear at a glance in front of professional analytical equipment, so they can't stand the reverse research and development of others.

The way to protect Chinese prescriptions from reverse is to register patents as soon as possible.

However, what China suffers is that many Chinese prescriptions are handed down in traditional medical classics. When Chinese people themselves did not know how to register patents, they were snatched by Japan and South Korea.

It is precisely because it is very simple to reverse, so these researchers can reverse Healing Salve Pills in the shortest time.

At this time, James Smith touched his chin and said, "I have also been dealing with medicine at the FDA for half my life. I really don't understand how it can have such a good effect if it's just plant ingredients?"

Rutgers shrugged his shoulders, spread out his hand and said, "Only God knows, and we only need to know its production process and actual effect, not its actual principle. Many things in the world can't understand the principle, just like metaphysics often said by Orientals, you fucking can't understand it at all."

By this time, five patients had taken the medicine for two minutes.

A large number of doctors surrounded them, constantly monitoring their physical indicators, and also constantly asking them how they felt after taking the medicine.

However, two minutes later, although their blood pressure, heart rate and other indicators have slightly improved, and patients themselves can also detect a certain sense of strength, their tumor indicators have not changed substantially.

That is to say, these drugs enter the patient's stomach, except that the patient can feel that his physical strength has been improved, and has no therapeutic effect on cancer at all.

This is completely different from their performance when they took genuine Healing Salve pills yesterday.

Yesterday, these doctors witnessed the obvious changes in tumors in their bodies.

But today, they didn't catch anything.

After waiting for ten minutes, everything still didn't progress. Rutgers couldn't help frowning, "Is there anything wrong with the medicine we came out in the reverse direction? Are there any differences in ingredients and recipes?"

"No." The team leader who first reversed this medicine said very seriously, "We have even accurately reached the microgram and molecular levels, reaching a level where no difference can be seen at all, almost exactly the same!"

The heads of other teams also agreed, saying that they had also studied the reverse drugs, and compared them with Healing Salve Pills, there was no difference.

However, it is really strange that patients take exactly the same thing without any therapeutic effect.

Half an hour later, five patients still found no therapeutic effect.

Rutgers was disappointed and said, "Give Healing Salve Pills to the patients!"

Doctors immediately began to prepare the second Healing Salve pill for the patients.

The slap in the face immediately appeared.

When all patients took authentic Healing Salve pills, cancer-related indicators were significantly optimized again!

This proves that if Healing Salve Pills are taken, it will immediately have a clear therapeutic effect on tumors!

This makes a lot of people even more at a loss.

Rutgers scolded angrily, "This is fucking unbelievable!"

"It's like that Chinese people make a pizza out of wheat, cheese, vegetables, mushrooms and ketchup. As a result, this pizza can not only fill their stomachs, but also treat cancer!"

"As a result, we made the same pizza with the same wheat, the same cheese, the same vegetables, the same mushrooms and the same ketchup, and then the same recipe process. Except for fucking filling the stomach, there is no other fart!"

“This fucking...not scientific!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3649-3650

Because the test drug failed, the entire laboratory suddenly fell into despair.

The reason for the despair was not that they could not imitate Healing Salve Pill, but that they had imitated it one to one, but the results were quite different.

All of a sudden, everyone fell into a dead end.

If imitating exactly the same is useless, then what should be done to be useful?

Rutgers was also completely dumbfounded.

He was walking back and forth with the imitation pills, and muttered, “What to do next...what else to do next...make it exactly the same? It doesn’t work. Should we try in a different direction next?”

Several pharmacy experts are also frustrated.

They have been in the industry for so many years, and they have not encountered such an unthinkable thing.

James Smith thought for a moment, remembered something, and asked Rutgers, “Could it be that Oracle Pharmaceutical has any different craftsmanship in the preparation process?”

Rutgers touched his forehead and asked, "What do you mean?"

James Smith said, "For example, do they use boiling and then air-drying, or baking, or exposure in the sun for seven or forty-nine days..."

Rutgers asked confusedly, "Why is it seven or forty-nine days? What is the logic?"

James Smith said, "I don't know. My daughter is reading the English version of "Journey to the West", a Chinese mythology."

"The immortals in it refining medicines usually use square numbers, such as seven to forty-nine. Nine to eighty-one..."

Rutgers said awkwardly, "This is too f*cking rigorous, right?"

James Smith said seriously, "This matter has become very metaphysical now, so we also have to think about whether there is something metaphysical that we haven't noticed."

As he said, James Smith said again, "By the way, I heard that Chinese medicine pharmacy itself also has a lot of particularities, such as how much water is added, how long it takes to cook, whether it is boiled on high or low heat, the effect is different..."

James Smith remembered something, and hurriedly added, "By the way, "Journey to the West" also said that sometimes to make a pill, you need to use rootless water."

"If you use other water, you can't achieve the desired medicine effect!"

Rutgers rubbed his temples and asked him, "What is this rootless water?"

James Smith said, "The so-called water without roots, the explanation above in Journey to the West is rain falling from the sky, because the rain comes from the sky, so it is water without roots."

Rutgers almost fainted and blurted out, "No matter where it comes from, isn't the water always H₂O?"

"Why rain is better than other water? Isn't rain also converted from water vapor evaporated from the ocean?"

James Smith opened his hands and said, "So this is metaphysics! If it has a scientific basis, then it is science."

"It is called metaphysics because it has no scientific basis."

Rutgers asked him, "Then what you mean is that we will have different teams try different methods to prepare this recipe?"

"For example, who uses high heat, who uses low heat, who uses natural air drying, Who uses high-temperature baking?"

"Then let them try different water, such as who uses rainwater from the sky, who uses well water from underground, and who uses snow water from snow-capped mountains?"

James Smith said embarrassingly, "I know, it sounds strange, but I really feel that there is no better way now."

Chapter 3650

“The White House has engaged us in such a big battle, and we can’t fail in less than a day, right?”

“In that case, in the eyes of the White House, what is the difference between everyone and a bunch of trash?”

Rutgers wanted to cry without tears, and blurted out, “Mr. Smith...we are all scientists. They are not professional if they let scientists do this kind of metaphysics...”

James Smith said, “No way, just bite the bullet and do it, otherwise, what should we do?”

At this time, an Asian-faced scientific researcher plucked up the courage to speak, “Mr. Rutgers, I suggest that it is best to go to Aurous Hill for a field trip, and then bring a batch of environmental samples back for research, such as the air there, soil, groundwater, surface water, rainwater, etc.”

Seeing that he is an Asian face, Rutgers asked curiously, “Are you from China?”

“No, I am Japanese.”

Rutgers asked again, “Do you think it is so troublesome to go to the local area?”

The man replied with a serious face, “Before I immigrated to the United States, I did microbiological research and development in Japan for many years.”

“At that time, Japan was undergoing an economic boom. Optics, steel, medicine, even the wine industry!”

After speaking, the man continued to explain, “At that time, many Japanese distilleries entrusted us to help them reverse the development of Western whiskey and China Moutai, and then imitate them.”

“Western whiskey is very simple, and we soon have it.”

“It didn’t take long for the Japanese whisky to be more blue than blue.”

“The quality and taste surpassed European products and gained a large market share, but China’s Moutai was the only one that could not be imitated.”

Rutgers asked him, “Why? Is there anything special about Moutai?”

“It’s really special.” The Japanese scientific researcher explained, “We used the same method to reverse the development of Moutai, and found that the taste is always much worse!”

“Later we learned that many local wineries in China have tried to imitate Moutai, but they all ended in failure.”

“The reason for this is very mysterious.”

“The same craftsmanship, the same materials, and the same formula are only in Moutai.”

“Only then can we make Moutai with that taste, leaving that place, even if the imitated resembles it, it still lacks a bit of soul.”

Rutgers hurriedly asked, “Did you finally find out where the problem was?”

“I found it.” The other party explained, “We later carefully studied the microbial flora in the wine brewing process and found that it was because of the wine koji we used, and the microbes were always different from the local wine koji in Moutai.”

“Even if we quietly get the Moutai wine koji and bring it back to Japan for cultivation, it still won’t work.”

After a pause, the other party said, “Our final conclusion is that pure Moutai can only be brewed in the place of Moutai, in their very unique environment, where the climate, altitude, humidity, and local water resources are playing an extremely subtle but extremely important role.”

“I see...” Rutgers gritted his teeth and said, “It seems that this is really mysterious...”

After all, Rutgers asked him with an admiring look, “What is your name? Which company do you work for?”

The other party hurriedly bowed and said, “My name is Shunhei Nakamura.”

“Before immigrating to the United States, I worked at the National Research Institute.”

“Later I moved to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical as a microbial agent research and development team.”

“I am now working at Johnson & Johnson! I am very honored to be able to participate this time.”

“The research and development of this magic drug! I will definitely go all out and do my best!”

“Kobayashi Pharmaceutical...” Rutgers asked in surprise, “Is that the Kobayashi Pharmaceutical that was acquired by Oracle Pharmaceutical?”

“Yes!” Shunhei Nakamura nodded immediately, “Later, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical gave up microbial medicines and fully transformed into Oracle Pharmaceutical, so I left.”

“Okay!” Rutgers nodded and said, “In this case, you will form a team and set off to China for investigation and research!”

“Take a look at the location of Oracle Pharmaceutical, what is so special about it!”

“By the way, I will also trial-produce Healing Salve Pill locally to see if it will work!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3651-3654

Chapter 3651

Hearing that Rutgers let himself lead a team to investigate and study in China, Shunhei Nakamura was extremely excited.

He almost agreed without hesitation, stood up straight like a soldier, then bowed and said, “Please rest assured, Mr. Rutgers, I will do my best to complete the task!”

Rutgers was very satisfied with Nakamura’s attitude, and said, “After you arrive in China, you must give me all the details and don’t miss any clues!”

Shunhei Nakamura nodded again and again, and said without hesitation, “I will do my best!”

Although Shunhei Nakamura has been in the United States for so many years, although he has been working very hard, because he is Asian, he has not received much attention in a team led by Europeans and Americans, so he has always wanted a good chance of promotion.

As the age continues to grow, Nakamura has begun to worry about his future in the past two years.

His current income is not too much in the United States, but it is indeed a lot to say that it is small.

But because his wife is a very traditional Japanese woman, and her daily job is to teach each other at home, so he has to carry all the expenses of the whole family alone.

Shunhei Nakamura has three children. The eldest is going to college, and the younger two are studying in middle school.

However, because the children are halfway immigrants, their English level is not good.

In American schools, the grades are only can be counted as medium.

Especially his eldest son, who is about to go to university, but there is no chance to get a university scholarship.

Therefore, all the expenses of going to university in the future will need at least 30,000 to 40,000 US dollars a year.

Coupled with housing loans, car loans, real estate taxes, and other expenses, Nakamura is under increasing pressure.

Therefore, Shunhei Nakamura, who is in middle age, now only wants to climb up again.

At the very least, it must be easy for his wife and children to cope with their future life and studies without being wronged.

Because of this, he volunteered to stand up just now when he heard the exchange between Rutgers and James Smith, and won Rutgers' favor with some remarks.

Rutgers was indeed very satisfied with him, and said, "Your Japanese culture and customs are all born out of China."

"I believe you must be closer to the core essence of Oracle Pharmaceutical than everyone here, and you are as oriental as you are."

"Faces are safer than others after arriving in China, so you must not let me down."

"After arriving in China, if you have any needs, please speak up, and I will do my best to satisfy you."

"Okay Mr. Rutgers!" Shunhei Nakamura said excitedly, "Then I will start preparing, and set off as soon as possible!"

Rutgers nodded and said to the others, "As long as you are selected by Shunhei Nakamura, you must unconditionally obey his arrangements and dispatch."

"He is the captain of this task force and the only highest commander! "

Everyone dared to have any objections, and they nodded and agreed.

Shunhei Nakamura immediately began to select his team members.

While he was actively preparing for the China trip, the military officer here had already reported Rutgers' decision to the White House.

After learning that the reverse R&D had encountered some difficulties, the White House immediately instructed the CIA to immediately send agents to Aurous Hill to try to obtain all the formulas of Healing Salve Pills directly from within Oracle Pharmaceutical.

For them, this drug is of great significance, and all hopes cannot be suppressed on the path of reverse development.

At the same time, China Aurous Hill.

Healing Salve Pill's news enthusiasm remains high worldwide.

This not only made Oracle Pharmaceutical's reputation, but also caused the sales of Nova Dias to increase rapidly.

Patients who have not used Nova Dias before, because of this huge breakthrough of Healing Salve Pill, took the initiative to choose Nova Dias.

The Nova Dias, with its powerful medicinal effects, made these patients even more admired by Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Taking advantage of this momentum, Liam Weaver started the propaganda work of Liver-Protecting Tablets and Lucent Pill.

Chapter 3652

When the outside world learned that Oracle Pharmaceutical had another new drug and a new health product about to go on the market, almost everyone was waiting for the official release of these two products.

Because in their opinion, Oracle Pharmaceutical can develop even cancer specific drugs, and Nova Dias itself is extremely easy to use, so the level of other products is naturally not bad, and it may even be a leader in the supremacy.

Oracle Pharmaceutical in China and several factories in Japan are all producing at full capacity.

According to Liam Weaver's plan, Liver-Protecting Tablets and Lucent Pill will be officially launched globally in a month.

The entire work of Oracle Pharmaceutical was in full swing, but Liam Weaver noticed a strange smell.

Since the news of Healing Salve Pill came out, he found that there were more people of all kinds near the factory of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

The most popular among them are media reporters.

They all wanted to interview Liam Weaver and ask him for more information about Healing Salve Pill.

This Liam Weaver is also used to it.

In addition, more patients and their families are thinking about buying some Healing Salve Pills.

Although the security guards have been patiently explaining that Healing Salve Pills are not yet on the market, they are still unwilling to leave.

But this didn't make Liam Weaver feel strange.

What really made Liam Weaver aware of the abnormality was that since yesterday, there have been many people with unknown origins near the factory.

Many security guards and employees report that there are more people dressed up as tourists around the factory, and many vehicles of all kinds are parked on the roadside around the factory, and traffic control staff cannot drive them away when they come to post.

In addition, there are some people who specially distribute flyers absent-mindedly near the factory, and some people even hide a few kilometers away and place drones hovering over Oracle Pharmaceutical to take pictures.

After receiving these feedbacks, Liam Weaver felt that the current Oracle Pharmaceutical seemed to have been targeted by countless people, which made him feel a little nervous.

So, he reported the information to Charlie, and now there are still many Healing Salve pills in his office, and he is increasingly worried that someone will start with this batch of medicine.

Charlie immediately asked Isaac Cameron to arrange a number of Dragon Hall soldiers to be stationed at Oracle Pharmaceutical.

The only task of these people was to secretly ensure the safety of Liam Weaver's office.

The incident of Kobayashi Ichiro's stealing medicine was still vivid to Charlie.

Now that Healing Salve Pill is so popular around the world, it is indeed necessary to strictly prevent such things from happening.

Just after giving instructions to Isaac Cameron, Charlie received a call from Wesley.

As soon as the call was made, Wesley said respectfully on the other side of the phone, “Mr. Wade, I heard that the United States is now developing your Healing Salve Pill in reverse.”

Charlie asked curiously, “Really? How did you know?”

Wesley said, “Our intelligence network spreads across the United States, and we have informants in all walks of life.”

“It just so happens that my informant is in one of the reverse R&D teams right now.”

Having said that, Wesley probably reported what he had heard to Charlie.

After listening, Charlie was not surprised by the American practice.

When he asked Liam Weaver to take the Healing Salve Pill to the United States, he expected that the other party would go all out to develop this drug in reverse.

However, he didn’t care about this at all, because he knew very well that even if the United States emptied the entire treasury and used it to develop Healing Salve Pill, it would definitely not be successful.

Therefore, instead of worrying about their reverse R&D, Charlie worried that they would not be fooled.

This fool, as long as they fall in, what awaits them is a never-ending dead end.

However, what Charlie really surprised was Wesley's intelligence network.

He asked Wesley, "I'm a little curious, why would a pharmaceutical research and development expert also become your informant?"

"Besides, how could he remember to disclose this information to you?"

Chapter 3653

Hearing Charlie's question, Wesley explained, "Dragon Hall was in the mercenary field before, and our biggest competitor was in the United States."

"So we set up an anonymous intelligence trading network in the United States."

"In theory, anyone as long as you feel you have some kind of valuable information, you can submit an application for selling clues on our intelligence network."

Charlie asked curiously, "I want to know, how does your trading network actually operate?"

Wesley continued, "First of all, we have found more suitable targets for breakthroughs among the elite groups in all walks of life in the United States."

"Such targets are generally those who have greater desire for money or have financial conditions."

"People with major problems, they want to make money, as long as they have the opportunity, they will not let it go."

"After finding such a person, we will contact the other party anonymously and tell him that we have such a website that allows him to sell information without risk and make a lot of money easily."

“Generally speaking, after they know, they will be tempted.”

After that, Wesley explained, “After he knows about this platform, he can sell any information to us at any time.”

“If he happens to have a confidential information in his hand, he thinks this information can be exchanged for money, then he will be on this website, fill out an application for sale.”

“In the application, he should briefly introduce the general direction of his intelligence and related information.”

“After seeing the application, our auditors will manually screen based on the content they filled in.”

“If there is no valuable information for us, we will not reply, so the transaction will not continue;”

“But if the general direction of the intelligence is valuable to us, we will communicate directly with the other party and consult for more information.”

“After confirming that this intelligence is indeed what we need, we will negotiate a transaction price with the other party, and then conduct intelligence transactions online.”

Charlie asked again, “How can we protect the other party’s safety in such a transaction?”

“He sells confidential information to you, so he must take a lot of risk.”

Wesley said, “We use an absolutely anonymous online communication method.”

“Through our hacker team, we will erase all relevant information of the other party so that no one can find them.”

“Furthermore, we will not settle cash or remittances to them.”

“We all use cryptocurrencies similar to Bitcoins to trade with each other.”

“The composition of encrypted currency is basically a cipher string, and this cipher string is anonymous.”

“So as long as we string this password to him, he can exchange it for U.S. dollars on the trading platform, which greatly protects their safety.”

Speaking of this, Wesley said, “The reason why this information came to me today is because the pharmacy expert feels that Healing Salve Pill is very hot now.”

“Maybe someone is willing to buy its related information, so this person is here.”

“The application was submitted on the website.”

“After our people saw it, they immediately reported to me.”

“In the end, we bought this information from the other party using cryptocurrency worth 500,000 U.S. dollars.”

When Charlie heard this, he couldn't help but admire, “I always thought that Dragon Hall emphasized strength and not strategy, but I didn't expect that you are actually too rough and fine.”

Wesley hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade we have been running this intelligence network for three years, and the amount of intelligence obtained is still very large."

"However, most of the intelligence may not be of any use to us."

Chapter 3654

After that, Wesley said again, "By the way, Mr. Wade, in addition to their active sales of intelligence, we occasionally take the initiative to purchase."

"For example, we will push some keywords to them."

"Take Healing Salve Pill as an example. We are very concerned about it."

"We will directly send information to all informants to tell them that we are buying information related to Healing Salve Pill."

"In this case, the probability of intelligence collection will be greater, so if you need to pay attention in the future for the information, you can tell me the key words, I can ask the relevant person in charge to follow up secretly, or let him directly release clues for information consultation."

Charlie said with satisfaction, "Okay! This information network really exceeded my expectations! Very good! Maybe it will be of great use in the future!"

After that, Charlie said again, "By the way, Wesley, you can ask the relevant person in charge to continue to help me follow other clues about Healing Salve Pill, and there are also Rejuvenating Pills."

Wesley asked hurriedly, "Mr. Wade, do you want to pay attention in secret, or take the initiative to consult?"

Charlie said, "It's good to follow it secretly."

"Okay Mr. Wade!" Wesley said respectfully, "I will inform the person in charge of the intelligence network later, and I will report to you as soon as I have information!"

Charlie gave a hum, and then asked him, "By the way, how is the armed escort thing going on?"

Wesley said, "The soldiers in the Dragon Hall have been prepared."

"Starting from tomorrow and the day after tomorrow, they will continue to board ships to provide armed escort for the freighters of BAIT Shipping."

"Okay." Charlie said with satisfaction, "I'm in Aurous Hill, waiting for your good message from the Gulf of Aden!"

After hanging up the call with Wesley, Charlie summoned Isaac Cameron and Don Albert to Don Albert's kennel for the first time.

After the three met, Charlie went straight to the topic and said, "Wesley revealed to me that there are many teams in the United States that are developing Healing Salve pills in reverse, and even sent a team to Aurous Hill."

"I guess they certainly impossible to have only the direction of reverse research and development, and maybe it will be tricky to Oracle Pharmaceutical."

Isaac Cameron asked hurriedly, "Young Master, what shall we do now?"

Charlie smiled and said, "If they stay on their own territory and do reverse research, I don't care at all, just let them do the research, but if they come around like flies and buzz in my ears, then I have to prepare the fly swatter in advance."

With that said, Charlie looked at Don Albert and said, "Don Albert, you have many brothers under your hand, and you are in all walks of life."

"You can ask them to start paying close attention to the airport and high-speed railway station today, and the airport will pay attention to the customs to see which ones."

"The high-speed rail station will pay attention to the exit gates to see who bought the ticket with a passport."

"As long as you find someone from a foreign country, you will find a way to take a clear picture."

Don Albert nodded immediately and said, "No problem! I'll make arrangements, Master Wade, don't worry!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said to Isaac Cameron, "Isaac, all the photos taken by Don Albert will be passed on to you at that time."

"You let the rest of the Dragon Hall ambush them near Oracle Pharmaceutical."

"Every suspicious person who appeared in the vicinity of Oracle Pharmaceutical had to compare the faces of those people photographed by Don Albert's younger brother."

"Then find a good opportunity to take those people and bring them here for me."

Wesley's intelligence network quickly impressed Charlie again.

When Wesley searched for rejuvenation pill on the intelligence network, he immediately found several pieces of information sold anonymously.

He bought all this information, and then forwarded it to Charlie.

Charlie carefully sorted out this batch of intelligence information related to Rejuvenation Pill and found that the information contained little gold.

There are three more reliable ones:

Compared with the first one, "Now it is known that there is a magic medicine in the world that can revive and rejuvenate."

"It is called rejuvenation Pill. A medicine. It is said that this medicine comes from China. It is extremely mysterious!"

The second article is, "The famous American Chinese Feng Shui master Orion Exeor personally admitted that the reason why his body is still strong today is because he took an oriental mystery rejuvenating pill from a famous Chinese Feng Shui master."

"It is said that this kind of medicine can prolong life for ten to twenty years."

"Now, many Chinese rich people are ready to move, even some American rich people will be suspicious.”

The third is, “Many European royal families are inquiring about Rejuvenation Pills.”

“Among them, the British royal family is the most interested. It is said that Prince Philip attended Helena’s enthronement ceremony in Northern Europe and heard the Queen’s narration about Rejuvenation Pills.”

“But after he returned to Britain, he did not tell the queen of this news.”

“After learning from other sources, the queen was very dissatisfied with Duke Philip, and is now planning to find this magic medicine at any cost!”

Article 1 and Article 2 proved that Helena’s grandmother, and Mr. Orion Exeor are indeed creating momentum for the propaganda of rejuvenation Pill.

The third piece of information is slightly subtle.

The crown prince did not inform the queen about the rejuvenation pill. Did he want to let the queen know the existence of this medicine?

However, Charlie secretly thought that the crown prince might think a little bit, because although the British royal family is quite rich, it is really nothing compared to those rich people who are worth hundreds of billions of dollars at all, even if they have the strength to compete.

The minimum requirements, I’m afraid he can’t escape the fate of accompany running.

After reading these pieces of information, Charlie called Wesley and asked, “Wesley, how much did you spend on these pieces of news?”

Wesley said, "About one hundred thousand dollars."

Charlie smiled and asked, "Why did the information related to Healing Salve just now cost half a million dollars, and the three pieces of information related to Rejuvenation Pills only sold for 100,000?"

Wesley explained, "Mr. Wade, the psychology of the intelligence provider."

"The price is related to the influence of intelligence."

"Now Healing Salve is indeed too popular."

"After the Mayo Center released the information, Healing Salve immediately reached the level of no one knows all over the world."

"Secretly, I don't know how many countries and pharmaceutical companies are coveting this drug, so the mental price of the intelligence provider is naturally high."

Charlie smiled and said, "For the time being, I can only make rejuvenation Pill a little wronged."

After speaking, Charlie asked again, "By the way, is there any information related to me in your intelligence network?"

Wesley hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, I didn't know your existence before I went up Wade Mountain, I didn't dare to inquire about information related to you."

"Moreover, to be honest, our intelligence network is not omnipotent, because it is necessary to ensure its safety, so we cannot publicize it to the whole world."

“We can only develop informants a little bit like an underground intelligence network. So, so far, there are not many people knows about it.”

“In addition, the informants who provide intelligence for it are basically in the United States.”

“In addition to the United States, there are some in the Middle East, and there are very few regions left, and even if someone has uploaded intelligence from other regions but because it has nothing to do with us, we will not buy it.”

“After the uploader finds that the intelligence of other regions cannot be sold here, it will not sell it again.”

“For these reasons, the intelligence network related to China has very little information.”

“Before I went to Wade Mountain, I searched for information related to the Wade family, and there was no relevant content.”

Charlie couldn't help sighing, “This kind of intelligence network does have an embarrassing situation.”

Chapter 3656

“If there are few people who knows about it, the security will be high, but correspondingly, the information content will be less, but if there are more people, the security will be greatly reduced.”

“If the security cannot be guaranteed, the information content will be meaningless. “

“Yes.” Wesley said, “We have started to slowly expand the scale of European informants some time ago, hoping to cover Europe as well.”

Charlie asked him, "Since all of your informants are offline, if they are developed, then their identities are not kept secret for you, right?"

"Yes." Wesley explained, "We know who they are, so that we can ensure that they will not make up some random false information on the intelligence network, but we will do our best to protect their privacy and ensure that after they sell the information to us, only we know and no one else can find it out."

Wesley said again, "By the way, Mr. Wade, if you are interested in this information network, I will push you a software installation package later, and then give you a management account with the highest authority."

"If you want to search for information in the future, you can directly operate it. "

Charlie smiled and said, "If it is convenient, that would be great."

Charlie wanted to search for his father's name in this system to see if he could find any relevant information.

Wesley respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, the entire Dragon Hall is yours, this is just a trivial matter."

Having said that, he immediately added, "Wait a moment, I will push the installation package to you, and the account password will be sent to you via SMS later."

"Before you use it, you need to do face recognition and authentication."

"You can use it after you pass the authentication."

Charlie satisfaction, said, "Well, you send it to me!"

Soon, Wesley put a software installation package to send to Charlie.

After Charlie downloaded and installed the software, the account password was also sent over.

He immediately logged in to the software, entered the account password, performed face recognition, and biometric authentication.

After everything was verified, he entered the background of the software.

On the page, there are all rolling English news, and each one has a simple summary, such as: "The latest developments of the White House in the Middle East, the latest changes within the Blackwater Company, and so on."

Charlie clicked on the Blackwater company.

After entering, there was an interface similar to a newsletter.

It said: "Recently, the internal personnel of the Blackwater company have changed, involving the second and third bosses."

This information contains all the changes. The specific information, a price of 300,000 US dollars.

Below this newsletter, there are two options, one is: "Dialogue with the publisher" and the other is: "Direct purchase."

If you choose to talk to the publisher, you will enter a chat interface.

If you send a message to the other party, the other party will receive it immediately.

If you choose to buy directly, the system will directly transfer 300,000 US dollars worth of cryptocurrency to the other party's e-wallet, and the payment will be made at the real-time exchange rate.

If after communicating with the other party, a new price is negotiated, such as 100,000 U.S. dollars, then the intelligence seller will modify the price in his back office, and the buyer only needs to pay after the other party has modified the price to complete the transaction.

The entire transaction process and logic are actually similar to transactions between merchants and buyers on e-commerce websites.

Charlie returned to the homepage of the software and tried to search for his name in the search bar, including Chinese characters, but there was no information related to him in the result.

He searched for the name of his father Bruce Wade, but there was no result.

Charlie couldn't help being disappointed.

However, on second thought, it has been almost 20 years since his father passed away.

The information network of Wesley has only worked for a few years.

After so many years, it is normal that there is no relevant information about his father in it.

Although this intelligence network can't help to find out the truth about the cause of death of his parents, it must be of great use to lead the Wade Family to the world in the future!

In the next two days, a large number of Don Albert's younger brothers gathered at the airport and high-speed rail station.

They dressed up in various disguise and secretly photographed all the foreigners who entered Aurous Hill in the past two days, and then gathered the photos to Isaac Cameron.

More than a dozen soldiers in Dragon Hall are hiding near the factory of Oracle Pharmaceuticals to screen every suspicious person who appears here.

However, after Shunhei Nakamura and his party arrived in Aurous Hill, they did not immediately go to the vicinity of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

They first rented a villa in the suburbs of Aurous Hill, waiting for the United States to use special channels to give them the instruments and equipment needed to solve various tests.

At the same time, the popularity of Healing Salve Pills is also constantly rising.

Because reverse research and development has not been successful, Americans dare not violate the agreement reached between James Smith and Charlie.

Therefore, the Mayo Center also announces the physical changes after Jimmy takes Healing Salve Pills every day.

In addition, the treatment process and results of the other four patients receiving Healing Salve Pills were also announced after their names and identities were hidden.

After receiving Healing Salve Pills, these four patients with end-stage cancer are in constant physical condition and their vital signs have been steadily stable.

Their excellent medicinal effect has made the world more respected for Healing Salve Pills.

At the same time, Oracle Pharmaceutical has also opened applications for free drug testing in China.

There are a hundred people in China for free drug testing this time.

After all, the FDA spent a billion dollars to get just twenty boxes of Healing Salve pills.

This time, Oracle Pharmaceutical actually took out more than six hundred boxes to promote free trial drugs in China.

As soon as the news came out, the people of the whole country's favor with Oracle Pharmaceuticals were doubled.

The application conditions of Oracle Pharmaceutical are very clear this time.

Only patients who meet the final clinical definition can apply for the test drug.

How to select this hundred people requires a very detailed and perfect points policy.

This points policy is determined by multiple factors.

These include: “The patient’s academic qualifications, the patient’s various recognitions, whether the patient has a criminal record, the actual economic situation of the patient’s family, the patient’s family members, etc., which have a great impact on the points.”

Theoretically speaking, patients with high education, high quality, no criminal record, repeated praise but poor family background, and at the same time, they are young and middle-aged.

Patients with old age and younger age are the easiest to be selected.

Charlie is also very clear that such screening may not be able to achieve a hundred percent fairness.

Everyone can understand such things as high education, high quality and no criminal record.

After all, such people’s contribution to society and value are naturally greater, and from the perspective of traditional Chinese morality, good people’s longevity is the most reasonable.

What really makes the society more heatedly discussed is why people with poor families are preferred.

Many people ask on the Internet, don’t people with rich families have a chance to survive?

In order to answer this question, Charlie wrote a paragraph and asked Liam Weaver to publish it in the official micro account of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

This passage reads: “It may take ten years for cancer patients who are also in the end of the end of the disease.”

“It may take ten years from the detection of the disease to the end of the disease; but if the economic conditions are poor, it may only take half a year from the detection of the pathway to the end of the end.”

“In other words, patients with good economic conditions have won a longer survival cycle for themselves in the past.”

Chapter 3658

“So, we prefer to give this limited opportunity to those from poor families so that they can live longer and take on more for their families.”

After this statement came out, the public opinion finally settled the discussion on why the rich could not participate in the test of Healing Salve Pills.

In order to ensure that the patient is no longer there after passing the evaluation, Charlie asked Liam Weaver to complete all the reviews within a week and publish the list at the same time.

A week later, a hundred selected patients should start taking Healing Salve Pills.

Then, in the Gulf of Aden, which has been uneven recently, suddenly came out of a big news.

A number of pirate forces in the Gulf of Aden dispatched neatly and hijacked six cargo ships at noon that day.

The news shocked the whole world!

Charlie, who is in China, received pushes from major news media at the first time.

The way pirates hijack cargo ships in the Gulf of Aden is very simple and rude.

It is nothing more than to chase the slow-moving cargo ship with speeds, deter the other party from giving up resistance with various weapons, and then board the ship to control all the crew, and then drive the ship to their base camp, waiting for the ship-owner to take money to redeem people.

This time, when they hijacked several other ships, they were resisted by international security personnel, and there were casualties on both sides.

However, the process of hijacking the BAIT Shipping was extremely smooth.

Because the BAIT Shipping had almost no resistance throughout the whole process, it was nothing more than several crew members who symbolically sprayed the high-pressure water column with high-pressure water guns.

After the pirates threatened to shoot, the crew was scared that they even stopped the high-pressure water gun.

Subsequently, the pirates boarded the cargo ship smoothly and was happy to find that the owner of the BAIT Shipping ship was too stingy to hire security personnel for the ship.

Therefore, they were elated and controlled dozens of crew members of the whole ship.

Then, the BAIT Shipping began to change course and sail towards their base camp.

As soon as the BAIT Shipping turned around, these pirates couldn't wait to report the news of the successful hijacking to their leaders.

The leader was naturally happy to hear that a freighter with nearly twenty thousand containers was successfully robbed and felt that he was caught a big fish.

Therefore, he immediately announced that the BAIT Shipping had been hijacked by him, and called on the owner of the BAIT Shipping to pay a ransom of tens of millions of dollars to them.

They don't know who the owner of the BAIT Shipping is at all.

However, according to their experience, as long as they disclose the information of the ship to the public, the ship-owner will come to the door without stopping.

According to past experience, after confirming that the ship was indeed hijacked, the ship-owner will immediately communicate with the leader of pirate organizations, asking them not to hurt the crew on the one hand, and bargaining about the price on the other hand.

Pirates can afford to kidnap the kind of hijacking, but the ship-owner can't afford it.

Now the sea freight price is so high that you can't wait to make a billion dollars in a trip.

If you really delay for a period of time because of hijacking, you will not only lose a heavy transportation revenue, but also compensate the owner for the loss.

Sometimes, the loss caused by a day's delay may exceed millions of dollars.

But to the surprise of the pirate leader, BAIT Shipping from China did not contact them immediately.

On the contrary, Charlie received a call from Stella Scott as soon as possible.

As soon as the phone called, she said nervously, "Mr. Wade, our ship has been hijacked!"

“Yes.” Charlie smiled and said, “I saw the news.”

Stella Scott said anxiously, “The robbers asked for a ransom of ten million dollars.”

“I haven’t replied to them yet. Didn’t you just arrange for the people from Dragon Hall to escort them?”

“The ship just gave feedback eight hours ago that the soldiers of Dragon Hall had boarded the ship.”

“How could this happen...”

Charlie smiled and said, “This is the request I set for Dragon Hall.”

“Ah?” Stella Scott was stunned and blurted out and asked, “Why?”

Charlie smiled and said, “Don’t worry. The ship will definitely be fine.”

“As for why, you will know soon.”

Chapter 3659-3662

Chapter 3659

At the same time, the pirate leader who hijacked the BAIT Shipping waited for more than an hour at the base camp, but did not received any response from BAIT Shipping.

This indifferent attitude of BAIT Shipping is the first time he has encountered it in his 20 years of pirate work.

Moreover, he had been a pirate for 20 years, and for the first time he grabbed a ship of such a large tonnage, and was ignored by the owner, which made him lose patience immediately.

He paced back and forth in his headquarters, cursing in his mouth, "Is this BAIT shipping frightened? Otherwise, why doesn't he respond to my request now?"

A pirate holding the AK next door opened his mouth, "Boss, they were expected to drag first, and returned to bid."

"Bargain?" The pirate leader sinks in disgust, "This is a large ship with nearly 20,000 containers loaded to Europe."

"I don't know if there's anything inside."

"So much good stuff, they don't even want to cut a penny!"

"If they don't pay, I will open all of these almost 20,000 containers!"

The soldier shyly said, "Boss, our terminal has only one tow that can lift a container, how can we drop more than 20,000 containers?"

The pirate leader smiled and said, "Isn't it easy? Then open the box straight to the sea!"

"Valuable things will be left behind."

“Throw a container into the sea. As far as it is not worth money, just throw the things into the sea with boxes and stuff!”

The pirate soldier replied, “with so many boxes, I don’t know if we can get anything good!”

The pirate leader sneered, “Don’t worry, there must be many good things, maybe there will be a Porsche sports car!”

Another soldier next to him hurriedly said, “Boss, that ship went to Europe from China, but the Porsche is made in Europe, so the possibility of a Porsche on the ship is almost zero.”

That pirate leader slapped and cursed, “D*mn, did I said that you can talk more?!”

“You know a lot, don’t you?”

“The soldier who was slapped in the face immediately took a few steps back, bowed his head with a sad expression.”

At this moment, BAIT Shipping, who was hijacked by his subordinates, suddenly received the news via radio.

On the radio, a foreign man said, “Which one is Bald? Let him talk to me.”

The pirate leader was shocked and frowns, “Who’s talking?!”

A correspondent guarding the radio station shook his head blankly, and said, “It seems to be sent from the China freighter that we kidnapped... and it is not ours who listens to the sound...”

“D*mn!” The pirate leader Bald scolded angrily, “Did their brains be eaten by dogs?”

“Why did they reveal my name to others?”

With that said, he had walked up to the radio station, reached out and picked up the intercom, and asked in a cold voice, “Are you guys kidnapping a ship for the first time?!”

“Why let a hostage talk to me directly?!”

An objection came from a radio station, and then the other party said with full force.

“I just want to let you know that your subordinates have been controlled by Dragon Hall.”

“Two of them were killed by us because of stubborn resistance.”

“For the remaining six, you should immediately take six million dollars for redemption, otherwise you will be at your own risk! “

Chapter 3660

“What?!” Bald was silent, and immediately cursed, “Who are you?”

“You dare do something to my people, I think you’re bored of life, right?!”

The other party said coldly, “I said, I belong to Dragon Hall, I know Somalia is very retarded, but you haven’t even heard of Dragon Hall, right?”

After hearing it, his heart was suddenly shocked.

He didn't expect that the world-famous Dragon Hall of the mercenary would have anything to do with the cargo ship he hijacked.

He unconsciously asked, "What is my business relationship with your Dragon Hall?"

Another radio channel said, "Dragon Hall has now officially begun armed patrol in Aden Bay, if you dare to hijack the ship that we are guarding, then we, the Dragon Hall will never hesitate!"

"F*ck it!" Bald has been out for 20 years and has never been threatened like this by anyone.

He suddenly got angry and gritted his teeth and cursed, "I don't care whether you are Dragon Hall or any other mercenary organization, the Bay of Aden belongs to me."

"I've been here for twenty years, and there is no one dare talk to me like this!"

"If you don't release my people from now on, as long as it's a cargo ship controlled by your Dragon Hall, I will leave the ship on board and kill everybody!"

Bald is not afraid of Dragon Hall.

That's because he was also considered a war commander in the Bay of Aden, with his own team and his own headquarters.

He had thousands of people and dozens of ships in his hands, and every soldier was fully armed.

There has been a ceiling level presence in the area, so he naturally ignored the Dragon Hall.

Not to mention Dragon Hall, even if it was a North Russian guard fleet, which was always vicious, he was not afraid.

In the last two years, the North Russian guard warship has sank its three speedboats.

Since then, he has retaliated against the North Russian trade ship.

Besides worrying about his submarine facing a warship at sea, he really doesn't have to worry.

The North Russian clerk was so vicious that he could only wander in the open sea and dare not enter territorial waters, so he felt that he stayed on the shoreline for so long, and nothing terrible would happen.

At this moment, Dragon Hall soldiers on the other end of the communication system are speaking very seriously, "I'll give you three seconds to take back what you just said and apologize."

"If not, Dragon Hall, will declare war!"

"F*ck!" Bald grits his teeth and curses, "Do you think I'm afraid of you?"

"From now on, who dares to hire you, will be a dead end!"

"As long as you dare show up in the Bay of Aden, I'll kill you all! "

"Okay!" Dragon Hall soldier said lightly, "You will pay for what you just said."

After that he hung up the phone.

Bald was angry, and he carried his fist and cursed, "D*mn! Brave paid soldier shout at me!"

"Somewhere else, you may still play a role in Dragon Hall, but in Aden Bay, you don't even have a f*cking fart."

After that, he immediately said to the soldier next to him, "Immediately send a warning to all the cruise companies in the world."

"Every ship that dares to hire people from Dragon Hall to guard, I will kill them all!"

The soldier said with concern, "Boss, there are tens of thousands of mercenaries trained at Dragon Hall."

"If you declare war on them like this, is it too impulsive?"

Bald kicked him to the ground, and then stepped on his face, pulled out the gun and pointed it to his forehead, and said, "What are you doing here?! Is this your command or mine?"

The soldier became pale out of fear and quickly begged for mercy, "Boss ... I talk too much... Please don't be like me, I'll issue a warning!"

Bald lifted his legs, stepped on his chest, and then immediately heard a broken rib.

The soldiers rolled on the ground in pain, while Bald looked at the others around him with a grumpy expression, and said, "You all think I'm too much, so I declared war with the Dragon Hall, right?"

Everybody bow their heads down. The brave people look into her eyes directly.

Bald snore cold right now, and said in disgust, "You trash, you don't know what strategy is!"

"If I fear him today, the news spread that Dragon Hall is armed in Aden Bay."

"The control fame is definitely an instant hit."

"At that time, all ship owners will rush to invite them to escort."

"What shall we do then? Should we turn around when we see Dragon Hall?"

Seeing no one dares to speak, Bald said in an arrogant cold voice, "The reason why I want to officially declare war with Dragon Hall, and release my words, to kill all the ships that will hire Dragon Hall, so all ship owners will stay away from Dragon Hall!"

"Dragon Hall is very strong in the field of mercenaries, but in the Bay of Aden, there's no place for them to play!"

"No matter how strong they are, they cannot drive a warship, so what should they fear?"

"As long as I can make Dragon Hall unprofitable in the Bay of Aden, their gang of mercenaries would naturally stop!"

Chapter 3661

Soon, the global shipping industry received a shocking message.

The pirate organization, known as the “Black Hawks,” even openly issued a warning not to allow any cruise company to cooperate in armed control with the Dragon Hall, otherwise they will use extreme actions to retaliate.

As soon as this message comes out, the first thing that shocked the whole shipping industry is that they didn’t expect that the very powerful and well-known mercenary organization like Dragon Hall would also start stepping foot in control of Gulf of Aden!

Let alone listening to the information released by the black hawks, it seems that both have made a knot.

Ten minutes later, Dragon Hall also officially issued a short announcement, which contains only simple words, “God obstructs and kills the gods, and the Buddha obstructs and killed the Buddha!”

The entire shipping industry is shocked.

A mercenary organization has stepped foot in armed control, this is the first time in history.

Especially the reputation of Dragon Hall is really good.

Companies, ship owners, and employees in the shipping industry can’t wait to see who gets the last laugh.

At the same time, in the waters of Aden Bay, BAIT Shipping at full force, heading towards the Red Sea.

Several Dragon Hall soldiers on board have carried six pirates whose weapons were stripped to the cemetery.

The sixth robbers did not realize that the disaster was near, on the contrary, they seemed unsure, one by one with their mouths and eyes staring, as if they would rush to fight against the soldiers of Dragon

Hall any day.

One of them held his head with both hands, and said arrogantly, "If you know each other, let us go soon, if not, we'll definitely make you pay a higher price!"

"Not that we haven't been caught by the guards but none of them dares to do anything to us!"

What the pirate said is basically right.

In Aden Bay, kidnapping is a very difficult problem for the guard fleet.

The right given by the UN to the guard fleet is to protect caravans, until they generally expel pirates, rather than destroy them.

There is also a very shameful reason. If the fight is too fierce, the robbers will retaliate their own merchant ships.

However, the size of the control fleet is limited, and it is impossible to protect every merchant ship in time.

Especially if they catch pirates, they will face a shameful situation without law enforcement and no dependence.

However, for any country that went to guard the Bay of Aden, because they were far from the land, they were against the pirates of Aden Bay.

There is no power of law enforcement.

Therefore, if they catch a pirate, the basic operation is to find time to land and free the people.

Exactly because this is why these robbers feel confident and not worried about what the Dragon Hall soldiers dare to do with themselves.

However, they underestimate the determination of Dragon Hall.

When Wesley received an order from Charlie to carry out armed control, he had delivered Charlie's request to everyone, because he must be famous and stylish.

Therefore, they have been making all the preparations long ago, and carefully prepared a special gift for this pirate.

After bringing six robbers, the captain of the Dragon Hall guard team said to the six, "Because your boss doesn't want to pay ransom for you, we are in a humanitarian spirit, I hope you will be able to reflect on self and fix evil from now on!"

The pirate who threatened Dragon Hall immediately laughed, and said with ridicule, "I think you have some extraordinary abilities, don't you want to honestly release us?!"

Chapter 3662

Dragon Hall team leader smiled a little and said, "If I don't let you go, will you still leave you on the ship to eat our food and drink our fresh water?"

"I say, our preparation will not be fed, even if they are used to feed dogs."

When he said, he greeted one of his men next to him, "Put down the sage and let them out of here! "

Some pirates glanced at each other, and their expressions are a little proud.

In their view, they are not only the rulers of the Bay of Aden, but they also have a circle of light that no one dares to provoke.

Every time they go out to rob a merchant ship, they will come back if they fail, and if they succeed, they will exchange money.

Even if they are caught, the other party will honestly release them.

This almost invincible aura like this makes them more swollen.

At this time, the tow truck next to the ship's gunwale immediately placed a suspended sockets on the ship's Gunwale.

Dragon Hall team leader said to the six, "Wake them up quick!"

The six pirates was grumpy and getting on the boat one by one.

When the six pirates board the ship, they were truly relieved, and their expression when they saw the people at Dragon Hall a bit blurry and hostile, and they seemed very unsure in their hearts.

Their thoughts right now are very simple, as long as they leave here, they will soon hurry back to their headquarters, and wait for their next comeback.

Wherever arrested, they don't care at all.

As a pirate in Aden Bay, who hasn't been arrested yet?

It's just that every time he's arrested he'll be returned whole.

Dragon Hall team leader looked at them and said lightly, "I wanted to straighten at your place at first, but based on humanity, I will let you live life..."

When he just said this, some robbers were mouth-watering, with disgusting expressions.

Every time they are arrested and then released, the other party has to say almost the exact same thing.

They don't take it seriously. They think the reason why these people don't dare to kill them is because they are afraid of the revenge of their organization.

In other words, they are clearly scared, and they have to pretend to let go, which makes their hearts so hated.

But at this moment, the leader of Dragon Hall's team smiled strangely, and said, "Using the old Chinese proverb, we don't know each other anymore."

"Before leaving, I shoot my gun to drive you away. This is a celebration."

"Shoot a gun to celebrate?" Some pirates looked at each other, wondering what the other parties meant by firing a gun to celebrate.

In the pirate field, there seems to be no such rule.

At this moment, the leader of Dragon Hall team lifted his rifle and fired more than twenty shots!

The noise of gunshots suddenly became louder, and the robbers thought that the other party deliberately killed them, and one by one they hugged their heads in the bag and cried loudly.

However, when the gunfire stopped, they slowly opened their eyes, and found with fear the remaining, apparently no one was shot!

When they sigh of relief, they suddenly discover that the other party's reversible aircraft bullet had made dozens of light radiation holes at the bottom of the sockets, and also destroyed the engine at the back of the sockets into ruins!

And the leader of the Dragon Hall squad, after all the bullets exploded, said to the six robbers seriously, "Once you return, you must change your mind and become a new person!"

The six pirates are still not satisfied, but at this point they are getting very confused.

One of them yelled and shouted, "D*mn! What an asshole!"

"You deliberately left the boat broken, this is killing us on purpose!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3663-3666

Chapter 3663

The team leader of the Dragon Hall said with a serious face, "What are you talking about?"

“You ran over to rob the freighter we escorted.”

“Instead of killing you, we gave you a lifeboat.”

“Now you’re saying that we’re killing you? Even if I sell all of you six scums, it’s not worth this lifeboat!”

The pirate cried angrily, “Then you guys, do it to the end, at least leave an engine so that we can drive back to the base!”

The team leader smiled and said, “It’s okay. I think your base is more than a hundred nautical miles away. You can go back from here by rowing your boat.”

“Stroke back...” The pirate collapsed. He cried and protested, “Even if we really can go back, it will take at least a few days!”

“We have no food or water, so what can we do to go back alive...”

The team leader asked with a surprised look, “Aren’t you pirates?”

“Are the pirates afraid that there is no food or water on the sea?”

“There are so many merchant ships in the Gulf of Aden, you can grab what you need!”

Hearing this, the pirates looked desperate.

Their weapons were all confiscated, even a rope that could climb the freighter was gone, and the lifeboat had no power, it was all holes.

In this case, let alone hijack the freighter, even if the freighter passed by and broke open.

The surge will also overturn them.

At this time, the leader of the Dragon Hall soldiers spoke and said, "Well, it is late, you must hit the road."

He ordered subordinates to the side and said, "Put the lifeboat under the lift to start immediately, starting from the lifeboat, slowly descended from the side of the ship."

The pirates didn't have the original arrogant posture at this time, all of them crying, as if they were dying.

Seeing that the lifeboat has been put down continuously, the leader yelled in horror, "Brother, give us some fresh water...or we really can't hold on..."

The leader leaned on the side fence and said with a smile, "I think it's more realistic for you to pray that God will rain on you."

The man looked at the surrounding sky, and the sky over the entire Gulf of Aden could be said to be clear and cloudless.

According to this posture, there may not be rain in a week.

At this moment, the leader took out a pistol from his waist, and even fired several shots, hitting the rope suspending the lifeboat with great precision.

Immediately afterwards, the rope broke, and the entire lifeboat fell suddenly from the ship's side a few meters high and hit the sea.

Accompanied by the crazy screams of six people, the entire lifeboat slammed into the sea, and the bullet holes that had been pierced by the gun before spewed straight water jets because of the pressure.

These six people were also thrown into the sea. Some people even fell.

At the same time, when the giant ship moved forward, it pushed up high surges on both sides, rushing them out of the boat with people.

Some people fell into the sea and didn't come up again, while the remaining few people on the boat.

After desperately holding the ship's hull, they began to splash water with their hands, and even some people used both hands and feet to try to block more than 20 bullet holes in the bottom of the boat.

Chapter 3664

At this time, the team leader of the Dragon Hall remembered something and asked his subordinates next to him, "Oh, yes, there is no life jacket in the boat?"

The other party replied, "Captain, rest assured that there are life jackets, but they are all punctured in advance and they will be exhausted in blowing it up."

As he said, the other party said, "In addition, the bottled water in it, we also replaced it with sea water in advance."

"As for the compressed biscuits, we kept a little bit for them, but the more they ate, the more thirsty they will. I guess it's not as good as there is."

The captain gave a thumbs up and exclaimed sincerely, "Well done!"

Sure enough, the few people in the lifeboat saw that there was no hope of plugging the leak, and the leader immediately shouted, "Find the emergency box!"

"There must be an emergency box in this lifeboat!"

"Maybe there are life jackets, food and water!"

A group of people immediately found the emergency box hidden under the deck from the rear of the lifeboat.

Then they churned ecstatically, and found out a whole dozen bottled water, dozens of packets of compressed biscuits and a few pieces of life jackets without blowing from the inside.

Seeing these materials, these people were immediately ecstatic!

They first snatched a life jacket by themselves, and then immediately put them on, and began to breathe through the blowing port on the shoulder.

However, no matter how they blow, the life jackets on their bodies have not changed, like a thin layer of plastic waistcoat attached to their bodies.

Just as everyone looked at each other, a person cursed desperately, "F*ck, the life jackets are all pierced!"

"Air is leaking everywhere!"

The leader suddenly collapsed, "It seems that this group of beasts had planned for a long time!"

Then he looked at those bottled water and biscuits, laments, "At least this group of people considered the conscience points, left us some food and water, the provincial point of use, may be able to make it back alive....."

When he finished speaking, he picked up a bottle of water and planned to take a sip, twisted it gently, and found that there was no damping feeling at all, and he suddenly felt a bit in his heart.

When he took a sip with his mouth cautiously, he immediately threw the water into the sea, spitting out and cursing in his mouth, "Bah, baah, f*ck! It turned out to be sea water!"

"What kind of devil is this group of people!"

Others didn't believe it and hurriedly opened the rest of the water one by one to taste.

This taste did not matter, everyone suddenly became more desperate, because the rest of the water was all brackish sea water.

Several people were extremely angry, and they continued to curse.

At this time, they looked down and realized that a large amount of seawater had been poured into the cabin.

If this continued, the boat would no doubt sink.

As a result, they could only desperately, continuously splashing the water in the cabin out of the boat with their hands.

There is no way a pirate should look like at this time.

While splashing water desperately, the pirate leader couldn't stop crying, and he kept choking and cursing in his mouth, "Dragon Hall, this d*mn bastard... They don't have a d*mn humanitarian spirit!"

"Don't they know that pirates are also human! Pirates also have human rights!"

A pirate on the opposite side blurted out, "Everyone faster, or the boat will really sink!"

At this time, the ship was farther and farther away.

At the beginning, everyone could see the pirates splashing water frantically on the lifeboat, but as the distance got farther and farther, the lifeboat disappeared on the sea level.

At this time, the captain of the Dragon Hall instructed his subordinates, "Send the video you just made to the Internet."

"Okay captain!"

Soon, a video went viral on the global video website.

The video was released by Dragon Hall, which recorded the entire process of Dragon Hall's disposal of these pirates.

Less than an hour after the video was released, it attracted hundreds of millions of netizens on the Internet to watch, received millions of likes and hundreds of thousands of comments.

Although the practice of the Dragon Hall is a bit cruel, and even mixed with some black humor, netizens all over the world, except for the very few Madonna protesting against the inhumane practice of the Dragon Hall in the comment area, most of them praise their practices!

This group of people has done a lot of evil, hijacked merchant ships from all over the world all the year round, and their attitude is extremely arrogant, and they have long become public enemies of the whole people on a global scale.

However, due to some special reasons, no one has been able to pay them off in a real sense.

Among them, special political reasons account for a large part.

However, these are not problems for Dragon Hall.

Because Dragon Hall is a mercenary organization, international law cannot restrict them.

To put it bluntly, mercenary organizations and pirate organizations are typical extrajudicial fanatics internationally.

Chapter 3665

Soon, with the fire of video, Dragon Hall became a enthusiastic target of global netizens.

Many people who had no feelings about the mercenary organization before, and even a little disgusted, were also ignited by the behavior of the Dragon Hall at this time, and praised the Dragon Hall.

This allowed Dragon Hall to instantly gain a large number of passersby fans, and also allowed their reputation to increase rapidly.

On the Internet, there have even been collective joint names of many netizens.

They asked Dragon Hall to completely wipe out these overbearing pirates, so that the pirates, a group that should have long since disappeared in civilized society, completely withdrew from the stage of history.

In the past few decades, pirates in the Gulf of Aden have been repeatedly banned, and the Gulf of Aden, as the throat of sea transportation, has no alternative.

Therefore, the whole world has nothing to do with these pirates.

However, the performance of Dragon Hall today has given many people hope.

Charlie originally thought that it would take at least one or two years for the Dragon Hall to gradually become white.

But the high praise of Dragon Hall on the Internet today made him realize that in fact, Dragon Hall will be cleaned up very simple.

Just find a heinous bad guy as a stepping stone to step on his corpse.

Now, there is a good opportunity ahead.

As long as the first battle between the Dragon Hall and the pirates is successful, it will be enough to make the reputation of the Dragon Hall soar.

At this time, Bald, who was in the base camp, didn't know that he had become the first stepping stone in the Dragon Hall.

When he saw the video posted by Dragon Hall, he was instantly furious.

He can't wait to send all the speedboats to seek revenge on this freighter.

However, for pirates like them, it is almost impossible to find a specific ship in the vast ocean.

Bald immediately asked his men to announce that from now on, he would be incompatible with the Dragon Hall.

At the same time, he also transferred his anger to the owner of the BAIT Shipping.

He immediately issued a public statement, demanding that the owner of the BAIT Shipping ship of China, must compensate him with US$50 million in cash.

At the same time, he also released a ruthless remark that BAIT Shipping must permanently abandon the armed escort service of the Dragon Hall.

Otherwise, all BAIT Shipping's ships will be ambushed in the Gulf of Aden, causing BAIT Shipping to pay a heavy price!

He even let out the words that in the future, any ship-owner or shipping company who dares to cooperate with Dragon Hall will suffer endless retaliation from him.

Once this statement was issued, public opinion was suddenly uproar.

No one thought that a pirate leader could be so arrogant, not only to be an enemy of the Dragon Hall, but also to retaliate against a shipping company.

But to everyone's surprise, BAIT Shipping did not pay attention to Bald at all.

Chapter 3666

They even publicly declared that all the armed escort business of BAIT Shipping has been exclusively entrusted to Dragon Hall.

In the future, every freighter of BAIT Shipping that passes through the Gulf of Aden will be provided with armed escort by Dragon Hall.

As soon as this announcement came out, the whole world greatly appreciated BAIT Shipping's tough attitude.

Bald was furious and immediately clamored that BAIT Shipping must pay the most painful price and that BAIT Shipping could never set foot in the Gulf of Aden.

Just when Bald's announcement was just released, Wesley called Charlie and said, "Mr. Wade, I just saw the announcement issued by the pirate organization."

"It's a bit of a life and death, do you think we want to decapitate him as soon as possible?"

Charlie said without hesitation, "Of course! Not only must the decapitation be performed as soon as possible, but also clean and beautiful!"

Wesley received Charlie's approval and immediately said, "Then I will let Calum lead few five-star warriors to sneak in tonight, and directly kill that Bald!"

Calum's strength in Dragon Hall is second only to Wesley. Led by him, assassinating a pirate leader is naturally extremely easy.

So Charlie opened his mouth and said, "After killing him, Dragon Hall will immediately announced that this beheading operation was to maintain the safety of the Gulf of Aden route."

"If the pirates in the Gulf of Aden continue to fight against the Dragon Hall, Dragon Hall will reserve the right to resolve all threats by force."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "Now the ship-owners and shipping companies all over the world are paying attention to this conflict between Dragon Hall and Bald."

"Through this incident, all ship-owners and shipping companies will have great trust in Dragon Hall."

"At the same time, the pirate organizations must understand a truth."

"If they dare to fight with Dragon Hall, they will only have a dead end!"

"Our ultimate goal is that as long as the freighter is armed and escorted by the Dragon Hall, no pirate will dare to get involved."

"In this way, the Dragon Hall can achieve absolute supremacy in the field of armed escort."

Wesley hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, if this is the case, these pirates will have no way of making money."

"I am afraid they will die."

“Dragon Hall is not afraid of these shrimp soldiers, but if they really take extreme measures to retaliate against merchant ships, I am afraid it will cause other losses.”

Charlie said with a smile, “So what we will do in the future is the overlord of armed escort, not the monopolist of this industry.”

“The annual throughput of Suez Canal is around 20,000 ships.”

“An escort is calculated for hundreds of thousands of dollars.”

“The armed escort market in the Gulf of Aden alone has tens of billions of dollars a year. We can’t eat all of such a large market.”

“So, you have to follow these ships when the time comes.”

“BAIT Shipping Company made it clear that the Dragon Hall can only cover 50% of the overall escort demand in the Gulf of Aden.”

Speaking of this, Charlie smiled slightly and continued, “As for who will get the quota of 10,000 ships this year, let them bid on their own when the time comes.”

“If the previous price was 500,000 US dollars, then Dragon Hall’s escort contains such a large amount of gold that it takes at least seven to eight hundred thousand dollars to make sense.”

“If the bid is successful, it will naturally be escorted by Dragon Hall.”

“If the bid is unsuccessful, then they can only go to other escort companies.”

“As a result, Dragon Hall can be regarded as leaving a bite of food for those pirates.”

“As long as they don’t come to the Dragon Hall for trouble and the remaining 10,000 freighters, it is their business how they snatch them.”

Charlie told Dragon Hall serves as an armed escort, one is to clean up, and the other is to enable Dragon Hall to continue to make money through serious channels.

Therefore, Dragon Hall is not obliged to wipe out all the pirates in the entire Gulf of Aden.

Moreover, due to the special geographical location and political environment of the Gulf of Aden, it is impossible for the Dragon Hall to attack any pirate organization.

If the pirate organization will be completely defeated.

In Charlie’s view, the most favorable situation for the Dragon Hall is to make all the pirates awe at the Dragon Hall through strong strength and tough hands, and then turn their eyes to the other half of the freighter.

In this way, the cost of escort at Dragon Hall will not only be greatly reduced, but the escort fees will also continue to rise in the competition of major shipping companies.

At the same time, even though the pirates did not dare to provoke the Dragon Hall, they still had food after avoiding the Dragon Hall.

This would not force them to fight the Dragon Hall desperately.

Wesley also immediately understood what Charlie meant, and said respectfully, “I understand Mr. Wade, after the settlement of Bald tonight, I will send someone to talk to these pirate organizations.”

“If the Dragon Hall does the right thing, it will leave them a way out, otherwise, we’ll kill them!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3667-3670

Chapter 3667

In order to maintain his image in his eyes and status in the Gulf of Aden, Bald immediately summoned his men and held a mobilization meeting.

Originally, his shrimp soldiers all seemed a little uneasy after hearing that their boss had declared war with Dragon Hall.

They also know their own limitations.

If they really want to fight against Dragon Hall, people like them don’t even have a slight chance of winning.

The other party is a top mercenary who has been in the battlefield for a long time, but they are just a hanging silk pirate who has not even practiced their shooting skills very well and can only take AK47 blindly at the target.

If they really wants to be an enemy of Dragon Hall, I’m afraid they will all die.

However, Bald still has more or less two brushes to hold the position of the leader of the pirate organization.

He talked passionately from evening to dark to these pirate members who don’t know one big words.

In order to arouse their inner anger, he even took the initiative to use his own movie projection device to loop the video uploaded by Dragon Hall to all his men, and finally successfully ignited the anger of all his men.

Therefore, he immediately incited, "If we don't drive the Dragon Hall out of the Gulf of Aden, our brothers and even ourselves, may suffer the same end in the future."

"At that time, there will be no room for us to live in the Gulf of Aden!"

"Are you willing to give up such a good deal as pirates and row canoes to fish in the sea?"

The group of men immediately shouted out that they didn't want to.

Because they have long been used to piracy, which come to money quickly and risk-free professions, they are naturally unwilling to make another living.

After all, in places like Somalia, it is much more difficult to make money than to go to sea to rob.

Once they are turned back into farmers or fishermen, they would rather fight to the death with guns.

Seeing that their fighting spirit had been mobilized, Bald immediately issued an order and said loudly, "Tonight, everyone should prepare your boats and weapons well."

"Tomorrow morning, we will attack with the whole army and search for cargo ships from BAIT shipping in the Gulf of Aden!"

His second in command couldn't help saying, "Boss, the soldiers of Dragon Hall are extremely strong in fighting individually.”

“I’m afraid it’s difficult for us to knock down the cargo ship escorted by them!”

Bald said coldly, “I know that the soldiers in Dragon Hall are very good at individual, but there will definitely not be many people they can assign to each cargo ship, so our people, after discovering the cargo ship of BAIT Shipping, should not act rashly, but immediately report the coordinate address, and work together to reinforce this cargo ship hijacked!”

With that, Bald continued, “If we don’t suppress the Dragon Hall and the BAIT Shipping this time, the reputation of the Dragon Hall in the Gulf of Aden will continue to improve, and it will only become more and more difficult.”

“Therefore, in any case, we must first successfully hijack a BAIT Shipping freighter, so that the reputation of the Dragon Hall will be discredited, and at the same time, we should also let BAIT Shipping pay a huge price.”

Chapter 3668

The second in command hurriedly asked him, “Big boss, what are you going to do with the cargo ship of BAIT Shipping?”

Bald said with a haze on his face, “After grabbing the ship, kill all the crew members on the ship and the soldiers of Dragon Hall and throw them into the sea!”

“At that time, we will also shoot the whole video and post it online. I want the whole world to know what will annoy us!”

With that, Bald added, “As for the hijacked ship, we’ll offer BAIT Shipping a billion dollars for them to redeem it.”

“If they don’t pay, unload the valuable things on the ship and sink the ship!”

Then Bald continued, “If BAIT Shipping honestly pays one billion dollars, it will give thirty thousand each of the brothers!”

“If any ship grabs the first skill, one hundred thousand per person!”

Thirty thousand dollars is definitely an astronomical figure for Somali pirates.

They lick blood every day. In fact, they can’t make much money.

Most of them are taken away by pirate leaders and senior management, and what they give to them is several times higher than the local average.

Although it is several times higher, in fact, everyone only has thousands of dollars a year.

Therefore, when Bald made a promise of thirty thousand dollars, everyone was extremely excited.

Therefore, the pirates began to prepare overnight and set out tomorrow morning to encircle and suppress the freighter ships of BAIT Shipping.

.....

That night, there was a lot of noise in Bald’s base.

On the coastline, a large number of pirates are carrying out all-round overhaul of their speedboats.

By the time came to four o'clock in the morning, most pirates were already asleep, leaving only a small number of guards watching and standing guards on several towers around the base.

Since their base camp had never been attacked, the group did not feel a sense of crisis at all.

The soldiers smoked cigarettes and chatted in twos and threes, waiting for the shift to change back to rest after dawn.

However, they didn't know that in the dark sea, a number of heavily armed frogmen, holding silent electric propellers, quietly approached the coastline.

These frogmen are the soldiers of the Dragon Hall.

The leader of the team is Calum, the second leader of Dragon Hall.

For Calum, it is indeed a feeling that he can kill chickens with a cow slaughter knife to let him assassinate an inconspicuous pirate leader.

However, Calum did not dare to have any dissatisfaction at the thought that this was extremely important to the Dragon Hall armed escort business.

Therefore, he personally led the soldiers to sneak into Bald's base from the sea in order to give Bald a beautiful beheading operation.

Under the cover of the sound of waves and night, a dozen soldiers of the Dragon Hall landed from an uninhabited beach very smoothly.

Then, with their extremely keen figure, they quickly penetrated into Bald's base.

Calum divided his ten soldiers into two, five of whom followed him to find Bald, and the remaining five lurked on the shore to find opportunities to install bombs on the pirates' speedboats.

According to the requirements of Wesley, they will quietly install all Bald's speedboats with remote-controlled bombs and detonate them after killing Bald.

Blowing up these speedboats can not only make it easy for Calum and his men to retreat, but also give Bald a huge blow to his armed forces.

In this way, whoever picks up a ready-made opportunity and becomes a new leader must reorganize his fleet for a long time.

There are only two kinds of tools for pirates to make a living, one is a ship and the other is a gun.

If there is no boat, even if there is a gun, there is no use.

In this way, the next leader can not only be afraid of the Dragon Hall, but also set an example, so that the pirate organizations in the Gulf of Aden know the end of provoking the Dragon Hall.

At this time, Bald was lying deep asleep between two young girls.

In this place, he is the emperor of the earth and lives an extremely luxurious life.

Just as he was asleep, he suddenly heard someone whispering in his ear.

Then, his hair was pulled hard, pulling him out of bed.

Bald subconsciously opened his eyes and found that he was being pulled by a strange yellow man.

He was so scared that he wanted to shout, but the other party immediately rudely stuffed two pieces of women's underwear into his mouth, making him unable to make any sound.

And the man who caught him was Calum, one of the existing two kings of the Dragon Hall.

He looked at Bald with a frightened face, smiled and said, "Bald, on behalf of the Dragon Hall, say hello to you!"

With that, he twisted Bald's neck with a little force with one hand!

Bald only felt a sharp pain in his neck and instantly saw the bedside behind him.

And in bed, the two beautiful women who spent the good night together were still asleep.

Then, he felt a black in front of him, and his whole body lost all consciousness in an instant!

Chapter 3669

Bald, who dominated the Gulf of Aden, never dreamed that he would be so easily killed.

In Calum's opinion, it is also his fate that such a guy who can't get on the table can die under his hands.

Subsequently, Calum gently put his body back on the bed.

Bald's body was still in a positive posture, but his whole face had sunk into the pillow, revealing only one back of his head.

This kind of picture is a little weird in violation.

At this time, Calum took out a waterproof plastic cylinder from his arms and a brush handwritten by Wesley from it, with only words on it, "God blocks and kills God, Buddha blocks and kills Buddha."

This word is a reminder left by Dragon Hall to the rest of the pirate organization.

At this time, Calum quietly stepped out of the room, greeted his guards outside his door, and went to the beach where they had just landed.

The other five men have also loaded dozens of speedboats on the beach with remote-controlled bombs. Just press the button to blow up all the pirate ships.

One of his men handed Calum the remote control detonation device.

Calum looked at the brightly lit pirate base and gently pressed the detonation button.

After planting for a few seconds, a series of explosions suddenly broke out on the coastline of the pirate base.

Dozens of all kinds of speedboats burst out huge firelight, some of which were even blown into the air.

After the intensive explosion, the whole coastline caught fire.

These speedboats have just been filled with fuel by pirates and are preparing to set out tomorrow morning to encircle the cargo ship of BAIT Shipping.

The full fuel was instantly exploded and ignited, and the fire seemed to be connected to a fire wall on the coastline.

It was also because of such a huge and dense explosion that everyone in the pirate base was awakened.

A large group of pirates looked at the rolling speedboats empty, standing in horror for a long time.

In Bald's room, two sleeping young women were also awakened by the explosion, and then they hurried to wake up Bald, who was still lying on the pillow.

One of the women instantly found that Bald's body was positive, but his head was completely opposite.

She first looked surprised, and then subconsciously pushed Bald, and then found that Bald's body was cold...

This made her scream in horror. Another woman was also scared out of her wits when she saw this scene and stumbled out.

Coincidentally, the second in command rushed to report.

Seeing that the woman was crazy, the second in command quickly asked, "Where's the boss?"

The woman said in horror, "Ba... Bald, he...he...he is dead..."

“What did you say?” The second in command was like a lightning blow in an instant.

After recovering, he ran into the room quickly and found that Bald had been twisted off.

This scene scared his back to a chill.

He couldn't help muttering to himself, “What's going on... What's going on... Who the hell did this...”

Then, an answer suddenly flashed into his mind, “Is it... the Dragon Hall?”

Thinking of this, he suddenly saw that Bald was holding a piece of paper in his hand.

He hurriedly opened it and found that there were Chinese characters written on it.

Although he is the second in command here, he has no education level.

Not to mention Chinese characters, he can't even recognize all 26 English letters.

However, it suddenly occurred to him that he seemed to have seen these words somewhere.

After thinking about it carefully, he remembered that the shape of these Chinese characters is very similar to those in the statement issued by Dragon Hall during the day.

At this moment, he understood that all this was done by Dragon Hall!

Thinking of this, his back was suddenly soaked in a cold sweat!

He didn't expect that they would have wanted to besiege the cargo ship of BAIT Shipping and the escorts of Dragon Hall tomorrow morning, but the action of Dragon Hall was obviously faster.

Chapter 3670

Before they can attack tomorrow, it directly killed their base camp!

And he didn't expect that the strength of Dragon Hall was so strong that everyone was killed at this base with thousands of people!

It took Bald twenty years to knock down this country, and was finally screwed off his neck at his base camp!

Moreover, dozens of boats that Bald has accumulated over the past two decades have also been blown up by Dragon Hall in an instant!

All his twenty years of painstaking efforts, together with himself, were destroyed overnight!

The second in command immediately realized that since Dragon Hall has this ability, in theory, it is easy for them to kill anyone on their side!

He couldn't help looking at Bald's miserable situation again, and he felt that his neck couldn't help chilling!

At this moment, the Dragon Hall has become a lingering nightmare in his heart.

Just then, a soldier rushed in and shouted, "Boss, this is not good!"

“Our speedboat was caught fire. Now the fire is out of control!”

When the second in command heard this, his whole body was instantly awe-inspiring.

Their boats have nearly a hundred tons of gasoline.

Usually, in order to refuel those speedboats for convenience, their tanks are not far from the coastline, and there is no special protection.

If it really explodes, the whole base will be completely useless!

Although the boss is dead, the organization still needs to continue to maintain it, so he immediately ordered, “Have the time to put out the fire!”

“In addition, organize others to evacuate as soon as possible!”

At this time, on the beach, the sky-high firelight made the whole beach as bright as daylight.

A large group of pirates ran around the beach in a panic.

Some went to the sea to carry water to put out the fire, and some took several kilograms of fire extinguishers and sprayed into the blazing fire in vain.

Many people who are afraid of death have dodged far away for fear of being affected by flames and explosions that may occur at any time.

A few minutes later, the second in command organized nearly a hundred people with all the fire extinguishing devices that could be found, trying to put out the burning fire on the tank.

However, their base does not have a fire extinguishing device suitable for extinguishing fuel at all, so if they try their best, the fire is still getting bigger and bigger.

In desperation, the second in command could only order everyone to evacuate quickly.

Immediately afterwards, a large number of pirates quickly fled around.

Many motor vehicles parked nearby were also driven away by pirates for fear of being implicated.

A few minutes later, the oil tank suddenly burst out huge flames and mushroom clouds, followed by a violent explosion that was hundreds of times louder than a thunderstorm, and a strong air wave generated during the explosion!

Almost all rows of simple rooms closest to the oil tank were pushed down by the explosion wave at this moment!

The pirates who only ran a few hundred meters were also overturned by the explosion wave, and the scene was in a mess!

Calum's men were recording all this with cameras on the beach in the distance at this time.

When a violent explosion wave came, several soldiers who were not strong enough could not even stand firm in the aftereffects of the explosion.

Calum stood still, and the powerful explosion wave failed to make his body move a pent.

Seeing that the pirate base had been completely scrapped, Calum said to others with satisfaction, "Okay, let's withdraw!"

Immediately afterwards, the group immediately changed into the frogman's equipment, plunged into the sea and disappeared.

Two hours later, another video became popular on the global network.

This video is the live video of the Bald's Base!

At the same time, there is more shocking news, Bald has been assassinated!

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3671-3674

Chapter 3671

When the news of Bald's death was confirmed, the public opinion of the whole world was stunned!

No one thought Bald would die so suddenly!

Just yesterday, Bald also vowed to retaliate against BAIT Shipping and at the same time let the Dragon Hall exit the Gulf of Aden.

Just when a lot of people believed that the dragon in Dragon Hall was difficult to crush the local snake, it would take a long time to establish prestige in the Gulf of Aden, and also sweat for the shipment of BAIT Shipping, Bald died tragically that night, in his own base!

Also, all the fast boats under his control exploded, and even the oil storage tanks at the base had a big explosion.

You can say the whole base is a mess.

While a series of explosions did not cause a large number of casualties to the pirate organization, it prompted them to lose all their boats overnight.

For this pirate organization, it's definitely a blow to the top!

Without the speedboat, they would completely lose their ability to be pirates.

While Dragon Hall has not publicly recognized that this incident was theirs, this video was released on the same account as the previous video of the six pirates "liberated" by the Dragon Hall at sea.

Therefore internet users all over the world don't need to guess that Bald must have been murdered by Dragon Hall.

For a while, the Dragon Hall's reputation on a global scale reached its peak in an instant.

For so many years, everyone just expelled pirates in the Gulf of Aden, but it was the first time they went directly to the pirate base camp and killed the pirate leader.

Netizens around the world were surprised by Dragon Hall's intolerant and negligent behavior.

In an instant, the Internet was filled with people from all over the world praising Dragon Hall.

The Dragon Hall today has become a national hero!

On the Internet, discussions about Dragon Hall have also become a hot topic on major websites.

Many media are also reporting on this issue wildly.

Almost all the means you can name have claimed the practice of the Dragon Hall.

Although the operation of the Dragon Hall is pretty much illegal, but because this band of pirate really does a lot of evil things, even the media no longer consider the issues legal.

Bald's death also scared all the pirate organizations in the Gulf of Aden.

In the past, they were going to the sea to steal.

Besides, no armed force has ever attacked their base camp.

For the pirate leader, he just needs to send his men and fast boats to make money in base camp without worries.

But now, those days are gone forever.

As soon as Dragon Hall entered the Gulf of Aden, it completely supported its game and previous rules.

If they disagree, they touched base camp and killed the pirate leader, and also flew all the boats.

Chapter 3672

This kind of dying game scared every pirate leader.

Everyone is worried that they will one day end their lives at Dragon Hall in their dreams.

Besides, the strength of Dragon Hall is too strong and they can't help it.

Also, the Dragon Hall base camp is not in the Gulf of Aden.

They can only be hit passively in front of Dragon Hall and they don't have the strength to actively attack.

For a while, the entire Gulf of Aden pirate organization panicked.

Dragon Hall became famous overnight in the Gulf of Aden, and the entire armed escort situation opened instantly.

To make good use of this perfect start as soon as possible, Wesley immediately called Charlie, and after reporting the situation to Charlie, he asked, "Mr. Wade, what shall we do next?"

Charlie urged, "I think we should have a face-to-face meeting with these pirate leaders in the Gulf of Aden and tell them our ambitions and attitudes in the Gulf of Aden."

"At the same time, letting them know that the market the demand for escorts in the Gulf of Aden has been determined by the Dragon Hall."

"If they eat half, they have to familiarize more and not fight against Dragon Hall in the future."

Wesley immediately said, "It's okay, Mr. Wade, I will make arrangements immediately."

Charlie continued, "It is impossible to kill all the pirates in the Gulf of Aden, and we are not obliged to hand over to pirates throughout the Gulf of Aden."

"As long as we can make sure that Dragon Hall escort customer interests, it's the best result, so below, must first discourage these pirates and at the same time establish an information exchange channel with these pirates."

After speaking, Charlie also explained, "That is, before you want these pirates to work on any ship in the future, you must first go through this channel to confirm if the ship escorts to Dragon Hall."

"If the Dragon Hall is responsible for the escort, they must leave immediately."

"If not for Dragon Hall escort, the Dragon Hall won't ask them what they're going to do next."

"Setting up an information exchange channel like this can prevent other escort company pretends to go through Dragon Hall."

Wesley asked, "Mr. Wade, in your opinion, in what way should this interaction channel exist?"

"I worry that if we establish direct contact with pirate organizations, the outside world will criticize us."

"Yes," Charlie said with a smile, "If we have to retrieve the information of our escorted ships to pirates every time, the outside world will know that we are dead friends and poor people, so we can't let them contact directly Dragon Hall, that would also reduce Dragon Hall's identity and compulsion."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "Yesterday I looked at his intelligence network. I think this kind of online platform is really good."

“Dragon Hall can directly create a companion website and put the introduction and price details of Dragon Hall companion business on the website.”

“In addition to BAIT Shipping, if other shipping companies wish to accompany Dragon Hall, they can also apply for this site.”

“At the same time, we will also publish information on each ship escorted by Dragon Hall in real-time on this website, including the name, registration number and photo of the vessel.”

“After this information is published, pirates will be out of fear of Dragon Hall.”

“As long as it’s a cargo escorted by the Dragon Hall, they’ll definitely go very far.”

Wesley immediately understood and said, “I understand, Mr. Wade, I will make someone build the website as soon as possible and, at the same time, I will immediately send a representative to talk with these pirate leaders.”

Charlie hastily said, “Creighton, our current goal is not to actively cooperate with these pirates, or let these pirates actively cooperate with us, but to establish a set of game rules in the Gulf of Aden, forcing those pirates to follow us.”

“Therefore, although we have to talk to them face to face, we must not take the initiative to contact them, otherwise, once the world catch us, they will think that we are cooperating with pirates.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “It should only allow people to publish the news first and say that Dragon Hall will officially accept the Gulf of Aden escort service from now on and leave a mail address electronic as a method of contact to allow those interested first in cooperating to communicate with you.”

“I think after your mailbox is released, the pirates will take the initiative to communicate with you.”

“They must be eager to talk to Dragon Hall now.”

Chapter 3673

When Charlie said he would formulate a set of rules of the game in the Gulf of Aden and force those pirates to play strictly according to this set of rules, Wesley completely understood Charlie’s pattern of doing things.

It’s not difficult to become the hardest fist in the region, but the hardest fist may not make everyone do what he wants.

If you can become a rule maker in the region and let everyone do things according to your rules, whether they like it or not, then this position is obviously higher.

So he immediately said respectfully to Charlie, “Mr. Wade, I understand what you mean. I’ll arrange it now!”

.....

At the same time, other pirates in the Gulf of Aden are panicked and can’t be used all day long.

Almost all pirate organization leaders coincidentally called all the speedboats back from the sea.

Because they were afraid that which speedboat would accidentally provoke Dragon Hall again, at this time, they would rather stop all looting than leave any hidden dangers.

After they recalled the speedboat, they didn’t even dare to leave the speedboat on the dock and beach.

Instead, they dragged it directly to the center of the camp with a tractor and strictly protected it for fear that one would be picked up by Dragon Hall if they were inadvertently.

Subsequently, many leaders quietly held a secret meeting to discuss the next countermeasures.

At the meeting, someone said, "In my opinion, during this period, everyone should not hijack merchant ships for the time being."

"In case you accidentally provoke the head of Dragon Hall again, it will really suffer from extinction!"

Someone sighed helplessly, "Then we can't take all our men to sit and eat the mountain empty!"

"In order to maintain the normal operation of the organization, everyone must continue to do their old professions in the future!"

Another person said, "In this case, there is a very serious problem in front of us."

"Everyone can do their old professions, but they can never provoke Dragon Hall again."

"These people are so cruel. Just because of such a small thing, they directly killed Bald."

Someone asked rhetorically, "If we still eat this bowl of rice in the future, we will inevitably continue to hijack merchant ships."

"Of course, I am willing to avoid the evil stars of Dragon Hall, but how can we hide in practice?"

“I can’t ask my men to hijack a ship before asking if it is escorted by the Dragon Hall, can I?”

“In case everyone says it is escorted by Dragon Hall, will we still do that?”

The man who sighed before nodded and said, “This is a big problem.”

“If Dragon Hall really monopolizes all the escort business, it is clear that it will not leave everyone a way to live.”

“Then I think we might as well fight with them!”

“However, if Dragon Hall does not monopolize this business, then we must have to find a way to verify which ships are escorted by Dragon Hall.”

“As long as it is a ship escorted by Dragon Hall, let’s stay away from them!”

The pirate leader who asked the question agreed and said, “So in this matter, we have to find a way to contact Dragon Hall, first show our respect for them, and then try to reach a non-aggression treaty with them.”

“In the future, can’t we just not touch the ship escorted by Dragon Hall? What do you think?”

The pirate leader’s words immediately aroused strong approval from everyone.

In the face of the killing-like existence of Dragon Hall, they all know that they can’t afford to provoke them, so they all hope to reach an appeasement policy with Dragon Hall.

However, although the idea is to reach a consensus, how to contact Dragon Hall has become their biggest headache at present.

After all, a top mercenary organization like Dragon Hall can find key people by phone if anyone wants to contact.

Just when these people didn't know what to do, Dragon Hall issued another announcement.

From now on, the reservation channel for the escort service of Aden in Dragon Hall was officially opened.

All ship-owners who want to cooperate with Dragon Hall can contact Dragon Hall through the reservation mailbox left by Dragon Hall.

Chapter 3674

At least you can send an interview request to Dragon Hall through this email.

In case Dragon Hall agrees, won't there be room for mediation?

Therefore, a number of pirate leaders immediately elected one of the highest-level cultural level and asked him to contact the Dragon Hall through this mailbox.

Since the mailbox was announced, Wesley has personally stared at the trend of this mailbox.

He knew that Charlie's idea was a good way to kill two birds with one stone.

It can not only take a look at the interest of major shipping companies in the escort of Dragon Hall, but also to establish contact with pirates.

However, what he didn't expect was that the mailbox had just been announced, and thousands of emails were received in less than 10 minutes.

These emails from netizens from all over the world expressed almost the same meaning in different languages around the world, which is to express their support and gratitude to the Dragon Hall's move in the Gulf of Aden.

Wesley didn't expect that the enthusiasm of netizens around the world was so high.

Seeing that the speed of emails coming in was already overwhelmed, he immediately convened a team of dozens of people to help him quickly review these emails.

In addition to tens of thousands of thank-you letters, they screened out dozens of emails from shipping companies around the world.

After identifying themselves, these shipping companies all hope to inquire about the specific details of the Dragon Hall escort, especially the cost and cooperation model.

Wesley asked people to count the contact information of these shipping companies, and also asked them to reply to inform them that Dragon Hall will launch the price and model details of escort services in the near future, and all shipping companies will be notified as soon as possible.

An hour after the announcement was issued, Dragon Hall has received hundreds of thousands of thank-you emails.

Among them, there is also an email from a person who claimed to be the leader of the "Puntland Guard" to the Dragon Hall.

In the email, the leader of the “Puntland Guard” expressed full respect to the Dragon Hall and hoped to have the opportunity to interview the Dragon Hall on behalf of all pirate organizations in the Gulf of Aden.

Wesley asked someone to reply to him with the coordinates of a small uninhabited island in southern Oman, as well as a time of six p.m. that day.

The other party immediately agreed and replied again, indicating that they would arrive at the designated place on time.

Subsequently, Dragon Hall sent a five-star general with several armed personnel to take a helicopter from the temporary base in Oman to the uninhabited island.

When the leader of the “Puntland Guard” arrived on the uninhabited island in a speedboat, several armed soldiers of Dragon Hall had been waiting here for a long time.

After thoroughly checking that the other party did not carry any audio and video equipment, they took the other party to the depths of the uninhabited island and met the five-star general in Dragon Hall.

As soon as he met, the leader of the Puntland Guard said respectfully, “Hello, my name is Sheikh. I’m the head of the Puntland Guard...”

The five-star general of Dragon Hall said blankly, “I don’t care who you are.”

“I just want to know, as a pirate, dare you take the initiative to meet us out. What is the ulterior purpose?”

Sheikh hurriedly said, “The Dragon Hall is prestigious. I and the leaders of other organizations have always respected the Dragon Hall very much, and we also welcome the Dragon Hall to the Gulf of Aden very much.”

“The reason why we want to meet you is that we want to negotiate with the Dragon Hall friendly and see how we two will coexist peacefully in the Gulf of Aden in the future...”

The five-star warlord said coldly, “Our Dragon Hall will not cooperate in any form with pirate organizations like you!”

“You don’t deserve it yet!”

As soon as Sheikh heard this, his heart suddenly cooled down.

If Dragon Hall has this attitude, it really wants to push them to the end.

At this time, the five-star general said again, “But what I can tell you is that our Dragon Hall has a lot of business, the number of ships coming and going to and from the Gulf of Aden is also very large, so we can carry fifty to sixty percent of them at the highest, as long as you people do not share with me from now on, we can let you go!”

When Sheikh heard this, his heart, which had been cool, boiled again in an instant!

He looked at the five-star general and asked excitedly, “Is what you said true?! As long as we are not enemies of Dragon Hall, you can really let us go?!”

The five-star warlord asked him, “Do you think it’s necessary for me to joke with you?”

Sheikh quickly smiled and said, “I didn’t mean that... I believe that your excellency and Dragon Hall are both trustworthy and the same!”

With that, he remembered a very critical question and quickly said, "I don't know if your excellency can inform us of the information of the ships escorted by Dragon Hall in time in the future, so that we can also make a distinction so as not to accidentally injured..."

The Five Star Wars general said with a disgusted face, "Do you think Dragon Hall will maintain some kind of communication and contact with you pirates?"

"Yes, yes..." Sheikh quickly said, "Dragon Hall is a top mercenary organization. Of course, it disdains to be with us pirates..."

After saying that, he said awkwardly, "But...but if we can't tell which ship is escorted by Dragon Hall, it will be difficult to avoid it in time in the future..."

Five Star Wars will sneer, "We will soon launch a website to put all our armed escort businesses on the website, and at the same time, we will disclose the information of our escorted ships to the whole society on the website."

When Sheikh heard this, he said excitedly, "That's great! Great! We will definitely pay attention to this website then!"

"Strictly distinguish! Never interfere with any ship escorted by Dragon Hall! We both do not invade each other!"

The Five-Star warrior immediately scold coldly, "What is infringing against each other?"

"Do you think I'm here today to negotiate terms and cooperation with you?"

"No, no..." Sheikh hurriedly explained, "I didn't mean that. Don't be angry... How can Dragon Hall cooperate with influent pirates like us..."

“I mean, in order to show respect for Dragon Hall, we will definitely stay away from the ships escorted by Dragon Hall in the future!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3675-3678

Chapter 3675

When Sheikh brought the news back to the Gulf of Aden, the whole pirate organizations in the Gulf of Aden were completely relieved, and even felt the rest of their lives after the disaster.

What they fear most is that the Dragon Hall will kill them and completely cut off their wealth.

Unexpectedly, Dragon Hall did not intend to completely monopolize the escort business of the whole Gulf of Aden.

In this way, they are left enough space to survive.

Everyone quickly reached two consensuses happily.

First, before the Dragon Hall escort website went online, all speedboats were rested, and no one could go to sea to hijack merchant ships, so as not to offend Dragon Hall; second, after the Dragon Hall escort website went online, strictly regard the escort website as an action guide, and never touch any ship escorted by Dragon Hall.

Then, something that shocked the shipping industry appeared.

Throughout the Gulf of Aden, there is no more cruising pirate speedboat, and the pirates seem to have withdrawn from this place collectively in an instant.

Charlie didn't expect that the armed escort business of Dragon Hall would go so smoothly.

According to this situation, Dragon Hall can almost make money lying down in the Gulf of Aden.

Under the premise that these pirates dare not provoke Dragon Hall, Dragon Hall does not even need to really send escorts.

They only need to publish the information of the ships that have paid the escort fee on their own escort website, and then they can lie down and collect money.

And those pirates will never be stupid enough to find trouble in Dragon Hall.

After all, there are still half of the merchant ships escorted by other international security companies in the Gulf of Aden.

As for those international security companies, it is not a fear for pirates at all, because there are only a few hundred armed personnel on a larger scale.

It is impossible to kill the leader of a pirate organization at any time like Dragon Hall, and pirates are not afraid of them at all.

Of course, Charlie also does not suggest that Dragon Hall really lie down to make money.

Since it has entered the field of armed escort high, it is natural to fight out of its spiritual outlook.

Therefore, he still told Wesley that the escort work must not be careless, and once the freighter that had been prepared to be a sea base was renovated, it should patrol the Gulf of Aden regularly to remind those pirates to get away.

Just as the Gulf of Aden was temporarily calm, the Aurous Hill, where Charlie was, began to surge undercurrents.

In the past two days, the Mayo Center in the United States has continued to release the therapeutic effect of Healing Salve Pills.

As the patient's condition improves significantly every day, the world's confidence in Healing Salve Pills is also growing.

This also makes all countries in the world a little eager to have this medicine.

Especially after learning that the production of this medicine is not large, many powerful people in the world have also begun to be moved by this medicine.

According to Don Albert's report, there are obviously many more foreigners arriving in Aurous Hill in the past two days than usual.

Usually, they seldom stay in a few five-star hotels, and now they are basically full of customers.

Even Shangri-La Hotel, where business was much deserted before, also lived in many foreigners.

And most of these people come for Healing Salve pills.

Charlie, as the initiator of all this, did not pay attention to this matter at all.

What he really pays attention to is the rejuvenation pill auction that will be held soon.

From the relevant information on Dragon Hall Intelligence Network, it can be seen that rejuvenation pill has had a certain influence among the top groups in Europe and the United States.

Chapter 3676

Although it is not as well known as Healing Salve Pills, it means much more significance to those top dignitaries than Healing Salve Pills.

Nowadays, many top dignitaries in Europe and the United States are trying their best to inquire about rejuvenation pill, but because rejuvenation pill is too mysterious for them, they can't find any substantive clues at all.

At this time, Charlie was still confirming with Isaac Cameron and Jasmine Moore all the details before the official launch of the rejuvenation pill auction.

Jasmine Moore has prepared other auction items at the auction, and her Aurous Hill Hall will also be responsible for the whole auction process.

Isaac Cameron has also developed a registration and capital verification platform for the rejuvenation pills auction.

The hotel schedule has been completely reserved, and even the banquet hall has begun to enter the renovation process.

Regarding the renovation of the banquet hall, Charlie told him, "Isaac, on the day the auction starts, all windows in the banquet hall must be completely sealed, and all the internal surveillance cameras and monitoring rooms must be disconnected from the network to avoid hackers attacking and stealing video information."

“In addition, the monitoring room will be handed over to Dragon Hall at that time.”

“The Dragon hall is responsible for ensuring that all surveillance videos are strictly confidential and not leaking at all!”

Isaac Cameron immediately said, “Young master, don’t worry, I will catch this part of the work myself!”

Charlie nodded and said, “In addition, at that time, five hundred meters around the banquet hall, no outsiders are allowed to approach.”

“All personnel participating in the auction must undergo all-round security checks before entering the venue.”

“Make sure that no one carries any photography and recording equipment.”

“Once anyone is found to hide relevant equipment, immediately deprive him of the right to participate in the auction and drive him out.”

Isaac Cameron quickly asked, “Young master, don’t you let them bring your mobile phone?”

“If our auction amount is too large, they will definitely notify the financial personnel by phone to transfer the remittance.”

Charlie said, “It doesn’t matter. You have prepared several old Nokia blue screen mobile phones on the spot that can only answer and receive calls.”

“If successful bidders need to make calls, they can use the mobile phones we provide to call on the spot.”

Isaac Cameron immediately nodded and said, “Okay young master, I will ask someone to surround the whole banquet hall at that time, leaving only one entrance and exit.”

“The most cutting-edge security equipment is placed at the entrance.”

“No one is allowed to bring any metal items in. It will be sure to be foolproof.”

Charlie nodded with satisfaction and said, “I’ll call Creighton later. At the auction, ask Dragon Hall has to send some more people.”

Isaac Cameron asked him, “Young master, when shall we start the publicity?”

Charlie thought for a moment and said, “Tomorrow! I will start to release the news tomorrow, and then go online to our website and start accepting registration.”

“Okay!” Isaac Cameron said excitedly, “If this news is released, I’m afraid all the top rich in Europe and the United States will be fried.”

“Maybe there will be some top hidden rich people who have never heard of!”

Charlie laughed and said, “In the first year, there should be some people who are skeptical and wait-and-see.”

“Some people may not come for face, but when the auction in the first year is over and the people who bid for rejuvenation pill, eat rejuvenation pill in front of all the top rich people and let everyone see the effect of rejuvenation pill with their own eyes, that is the real way to make them firmly believe in rejuvenation pills.”

Speaking of this, Charlie said with a little playfulness, "So, as long as this year's auction is successful, next year's auction will definitely force all the dignitaries hidden in the dark."

"At that time, I'm afraid that the kings and queens of some countries will also come to bid for the rejuvenation pills in person!"

Chapter 3677

Hearing Charlie, Jasmine Moore said that the publicity and registration of the rejuvenation pills auction will be launched tomorrow, so she hurriedly said to Charlie, "Master Wade, I have selected three candidate auctioneers for the auction."

"Would you like to have a look and screen it first?"

Charlie nodded and smiled, "Okay, auctioneers are still very important for an auction. You must choose carefully."

Jasmine Moore quickly took out her mobile phone, turned out several videos from the album, and played them one by one for Charlie.

At the same time, she introduced, "Master Wade, these three auctioneers are all very senior auctioneers in my antique collection shop."

"Although their qualifications and experience are not as good as those well-known auctioneers of Christie's or Sotheby's, they are absolutely the best in Aurous Hill."

Charlie patiently watched the three videos displayed by Jasmine Moore.

The three candidate auctioneers, two women and one man, are all about forty years old.

Their image, temperament, speech, behavior and even voice can be regarded as upper-middle, and any one should be competent.

However, Charlie always feels that these three people seem to have something missing.

After taking a look at Jasmine Moore in front of him, Charlie realized what the three people lacked.

What they lack is the ladylike and dignified temperament of Jasmine Moore.

As an old friend of Jasmine Moore, Charlie has always appreciated Jasmine Moore's temperament.

Although Jasmine Moore is not the eldest daughter of the top family, as far as her personal temperament is concerned, she is by no means inferior to any top celebrity.

If she can be the auctioneer of this auction, she is definitely one of the most suitable candidates.

Therefore, Charlie said to Jasmine Moore, "Jasmine, in my opinion, no one is more suitable for this auctioneer than you!"

"Me?" Jasmine Moore suddenly said nervously, "Master Wade, I have never been an auctioneer..."

Charlie smiled and said, "It doesn't matter if you haven't done it."

"Anyway, there are at least twenty days left before the auction."

"You can completely practice the auctioneer's words and skills."

With that, Charlie said again, "Jasmine, there is no more suitable candidate in Aurous Hill than you, and you are the owner of the Moore family."

"If you serve as the auctioneer of this auction, the Moore family can also impress the top dignitaries present."

"There is absolutely benefit to the future development of the Moore family.."

Jasmine Moore hesitated for a moment, nodded gently, and blurted out, "Since Master Wade has said that, I'll have a try!"

After saying that, Jasmine Moore remembered something and quickly asked, "Master Wade, will you come to the scene then?"

"With such a big event, I'm afraid I can't control it well by myself..."

Charlie smiled and said, "I will watch the live broadcast in the monitoring room in real time."

"You will equip a headset on the day of the auction."

"If there is any situation, I will communicate with you directly through the headphones."

Jasmine Moore was relieved and said quickly, "Then I'll rest assured!"

.....

At this moment.

Washington, USA.

In the research center provided by the military, many teams are still trying their best to use various metaphysical means to conquer the formula of Healing Salve Pills.

However, no matter how they try, the pills they make have no therapeutic effect on cancer cells.

Although just a few days have passed, James Smith and Rutgers are about to lose patience.

Chapter 3678

Reverse research and development here was not effective, so Rutgers received a special order from the top of the White House envoy.

The order requires Rutgers to take out ten boxes of healing salve pills and hand them over to the special envoy sent by the White House to keep them closely with the nuclear bomb password box in the name of the highest level of strategic materials.

This immediately put Rutgers in an extremely difficult situation.

There are twenty boxes of healing salve pills from James Smith.

Four boxes were reserved for James Smith's son Jimmy, and the rest were distributed to the four patients previously stuffed in by the White House in addition to reverse research and development.

It's overstretched in itself.

Now, the envoy actually wants to take away ten boxes of strategic materials, so that he has little left in his hand.

Rutgers couldn't help complaining to the envoy, "Mr. envoy, Oracle Pharmaceutical's control over this medicine is extremely strict."

"Not only does it release a penny, but even their hundred people in China are completely closed-up."

"Just like we give patients medicine in the base, we have to watch the patient take the medicine with your own eyes."

"In this case, once these twenty boxes of healing salve pills are used up, I'm afraid it won't be that easy if we want to get them again!"

The envoy said very seriously, "It is also because the senior management asked me to set aside ten boxes as strategic reserves."

"What if our senior management needs to use this medicine one day?"

Rutgers said helplessly, "That's not enough to take away so much at a time."

"If you follow it, we can last for a few more days at most, and the medicine will be gone..."

The envoy said beyond doubt, "Mr. Rutgers, you can find a way to overcome the difficulties on your side."

"If it really doesn't work, you can terminate your clinical trial first, so that you can save most of healing salve pills.”

Although there are many great figures in the White House, the envoy only serves the top of the White House.

And those patients who are participating in the test are not relatives at the highest level, so the idea at the highest level is also very simple.

While this medicine still exists, leave a second hand for themselves first.

As for other relatives, it is reasonable to give up as a last resort.

Rutgers was as big as a fight for a while.

The envoy ignored his dilemma and said coldly, “Mr. Rutgers, because this medicine is now the highest level of strategic material, if you don’t give me the medicine immediately, I can authorize the FBI to arrest you in the name of a threat to homeland security!”

Rutgers knew that the other party was not kidding.

Once this thing is defined as the highest level, it is related to homeland security.

If you disobey orders, your official career will come to an end.

Therefore, he did not dare to disobey the orders brought by the envoy, so he could only take out ten boxes from the remaining Healing Salve Pills and give them to the Special Envoy.

After the envoy got the medicine, he immediately left the base by helicopter gunship.

Rutgers could only quickly summon the clinicians and ask them to stop the medicine of the other four patients from now on.

As for James Smith's son Jimmy, he would reserve another box of medicine for him.

After he finished taking this box of medicine, if he could not get an extra healing salve pills, then stop his medicine.

This matter soon reached James Smith's ears.

When he heard about it, he rushed into Rutgers' office, blurted out and shouted at him, "Rutgers! Didn't you say you reserved four boxes of medicine for my son?!"

"Why did the doctor just say that when he finished the last box of medicine, he would be ready to give him routine chemotherapy drugs?!"

Rutgers said helplessly, "Mr. Smith, I don't want to keep my word, but the special envoy from the White House just took ten boxes of healing salve pills from me."

"Now those ten boxes of medicine have become the highest-level strategic material."

"What does this mean? I don't need to explain it to you, right?"

When James Smith heard this, he was immediately discouraged.

Rutgers meant it very well. In this case, neither of them had any say and had no choice but obeyed orders.

Rutgers sighed at this time and said, "Now I can only hope on Shunhei Nakamura."

"If he can develop Healing Salve Pills in Aurous Hill in the opposite direction, all problems will be solved!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3679-3682

Chapter 3679

Shunhei Nakamura, who has high hopes, is not having a good situation at present.

After he temporarily settled down in Aurous Hill, he has been collecting environmental specimens for the past two days.

Air, soil, dust and water have become the objects of his research.

He even made some rivers, lakes, tap water and even mountain springs in Aurous Hill, and took turns to carry out various research in the villa.

However, after researching, he felt more and more that the environment of Aurous Hill was not only not outstanding, but also not as good as Washington.

Other people in his team think so.

Although Aurous Hill is the ancient capital of the Six Dynasties, the environment is really not very good.

Although the air pollution is not so serious, it is not easy to go, and it is also a typical valley landform.

Surrounded by mountains on three sides and facing rivers, the air nestled in it will naturally not be very good.

In addition, the rapid pace of urbanization and the large population will inevitably reduce the number of vegetation and green spaces, and the carrying pressure on the environment is also very large.

In contrast, in the United States, although the population is also in the early three billion, the area of the land is not the same as that of China.

Compared with China, it is also typical of vast and sparse people, and the population density is small, so the pressure on the environment is naturally much less.

Moreover, an established imperialist country like the United States began to move heavily polluted enterprises abroad decades ago, causing other people to be miasma and their own homes still green mountains and rivers.

It is precisely because Aurous Hill's environment is not as good as Washington in all aspects that Shunhei Nakamura can't understand why Oracle Pharmaceutical can produce Healing Salve Pills, an epoch-making drug here.

Just as Shunhei Nakamura was in confusion, he received a call from Rutgers.

As soon as he called, Rutgers asked him, "Nakamura, have you made any progress in your research in Aurous Hill?"

Shunhei Nakamura said quickly, “Mr. Rutgers, we haven’t made any clear progress yet. Please give us more time!”

Rutgers blurted out, “Time is pressing now. You have to find a way to speed up a little!”

Shunhei Nakamura said feebly, “Mr. Rutgers, we have analyzed the environmental situation of Aurous Hill in the past two days and found nothing special.”

“We have ordered a batch of raw materials from local medicinal suppliers, and we have started to make them on a trial production in the past two days to see if there will be any breakthrough.”

With that, Shunhei Nakamura added, “I plan to go to the vicinity of Oracle Pharmaceutical tomorrow and try to take some environmental samples and come back to analyze.”

“Okay.” Rutgers said, “Be sure to speed up. I will help you collect business planes in advance and ask someone to bring them back to Washington as soon as you have samples come out!”

.....

At the same time.

After Charlie decided with Isaac Cameron and Jasmine Moore the details of the rejuvenation pills auction, he asked Isaac Cameron to drive him back to Thompson First Villa.

On the way back, Liam Weaver called Charlie and reported respectfully, “Master wade, I’ll report to you that in the past two days, many foreigners have wanted to ask me out.”

Charlie asked him with a smile, “What kind of people are they?”

Liam Weaver explained, "Some of them are representatives sent by various countries and major pharmaceutical companies."

"They want to talk to us about drug introduction or the cooperation of drug agents."

"In addition, there are also some spokespersons of the top rich who want to buy some drugs from us in private."

"Most of them have cancer patients at home, and their budgets are very full. IT MEANS THAT WE CAN MAKE ANY PRICE."

With that, Liam Weaver added, "At present, there are nearly a hundred countries that want to introduce Healing Salve Pills, and more than thirty people have sent representatives to Aurous Hill."

Chapter 3680

Charlie smiled and said, "All those who come to you about introduction or agency should be rejected directly."

"As for those rich people who want to buy medicine in private, you tell us that we will not open this opening for the time being."

Liam Weaver said again, "By the way, Master Wade, James Smith from the United States also called and said that the FDA wanted to buy another batch of Healing Salve pills at the previous price, or the price would rise a little more."

Charlie sneered and said, "If the FDA wants to purchase Healing Salve Pills, I'm afraid their reverse research and development has encountered a bottleneck."

With that, Charlie told him, "Liam, from now on, except for the batch of Healing Salve pills given to domestic patients for free, all the rest will be sealed."

"No matter how much money they offer, you won't sell any."

Liam Weaver immediately said, "Okay Master Wade, then I'll reply to them one by one."

Charlie hummed and asked him again, "By the way, Liam, have the people of Dragon Hall found anything abnormal near Oracle Pharmaceutical?"

"Yes!" Liam Weaver said quickly, "In the past two days, several suspicious objects have been locked one after another."

"They have secretly stared at each other. They said that it is observed that those suspicious objects should be well-trained agents."

"They are waiting for the time to catch people directly and secretly send them to Don Albert."

"Okay." Charlie told him, "You should be careful recently. It's better to stay in Oracle Pharmaceutical and don't go anywhere for the time being."

Liam Weaver quickly said, "Okay Master Wade!"

.....

The next morning.

Shunhei Nakamura dressed himself as a morning runner and ran all the way from his residence to Oracle Pharmaceutical.

On his way to Oracle Pharmaceuticals, Jasmine Moore announced that her antique collection would hold an auction in Aurous Hill in twenty days, and also announced the information about the collection to be auctioned.

In addition to some celebrity calligraphy and paintings, antique porcelain, there is also an item called rejuvenation pills.

It did not explain much about rejuvenation pills, but only introduced that it is an ancient Chinese prescription with excellent efficacy.

As soon as the news came out, it did not cause any waves locally and domestically in Aurous Hill.

Because the people in the country have long been used to all kinds of pills and elixirs.

For example, the price of pills, which has been stir-fried before, is as high as hundreds of thousands of yuan per piece;

Another example is Healing Salve Pill, which has been popular all over the world recently, which is even more valuable.

People think that this rejuvenation pill may also be a kind of pill left over many years ago, and the collection significance may be greater than its medicinal value.

However, very few people know rejuvenation pill, and they are not very shocked by this news.

For example, Graham Quinton, Zeke White and even Travis Lane, who had a rejuvenation pill.

They all know that this medicine was made by Charlie, and they also knew that even Don Albert had taken one rejuvenation pill.

Now Charlie took out one or two rejuvenation pill to hold an auction, which was not big news for them.

However, this news is in the upper class of Europe and the United States thousands of miles away, like a thunderstorm, which makes everyone ecstatic!

These days, they have been listening to others talk about the magical effect of rejuvenation pill, and many people are asking for news about rejuvenation pills everywhere.

Among them, Ferdie Joules, a Chinese millionaire in the United States, is included.

Ferdie Joules sent a team to China for news about rejuvenation pill many days ago, but he has never got anything.

Now suddenly there was news from Aurous Hill that rejuvenating pill was going to shoot.

Ferdie Joules almost hesitated and immediately prepared the private plane to fly to Aurous Hill as soon as possible.

At this time, Jasmine Moore released another news that shocked the whole world.

It requires that all those who want to participate in this auction must cooperate with the capital verification.

Only buyers whose assets are determined to exceed ten billion yuan are eligible to sign up.

Moreover, registration does not mean that you can pass the review!

Because it said that the top two hundred people with the most funds will eventually be selected from qualified applicants.

Only these two hundred people are eligible to come to Aurous Hill to participate in this auction!

This form of auction has existed around the world for hundreds or thousands of years, and everyone has long been used to it, but it is the first time for everyone to hear about auctions with such high demands on participants!

Except for a few people who know the value of rejuvenation pill, others think that it must be crazy, believing that it must have deliberately made such ridiculous stunts and malicious hype.

Seeing the scolding of it on the Internet, Charlie was relieved.

What he wants is this cognitive difference.

Let ordinary people regard it as a joke, and let the real rich people regard it as the most precious thing.

It is also this cognitive difference that makes netizens criticize Jasmine Moore's antique collection.

The registration platform of it has only been launched for two hours, and the number of applicants has exceeded five hundred!

The registration threshold of it is tens of billions of yuan, which is about 16 billion dollars converted.

It sounds like a lot, but in fact, with the clear data that can be counted alone, there are nearly three thousand millionaires with more assets in the world.

In addition, it is not known how many invisible rich people have never disclosed their assets to the public.

Therefore, Charlie was not surprised at all by signing up for five hundred people in two hours.

However, Elaine and Jacob at home rarely began to vent their anger with one nose because of the news of this auction.

When Elaine saw the news push on her mobile phone, she blurted out almost without thinking and scolded, "I'm afraid this antique auction didn't let the donkey kick it out!"

"What kind of broken auction does it take to sign up for the threshold of ten billion assets?"

"Isn't this a calf? Who dares to be so arrogant at the auction!"

In fact, Jacob has always had some shadows on the antique collection in his heart.

It almost scared him out when he knocked the vase in Jasmine Moore's antique collection shop.

After finally throwing the pot at Charlie to run, it turned out to be caught and slapped several times in the face. How embarrassed he was.

Therefore, when he learned the news, he immediately said angrily, “What a f*cking antique collection?”

“I think they are just here to hype it up!”

“I have been in the Aurous Hill antique industry for so many years. Can I still not know the level of it’s antique collection?”

“Not to mention top auctions such as Christie’s and Sotheby’s, even domestic Poly is dozens or hundreds of times better than it.”

With that, Jacob continued disdainfully, “The auctions of Sotheby’s and Christie’s never dare to do anything to do with great fanfare verification.”

“At the other words, they can only pay a million deposit to participate.”

“It’s just a lucky hall, and dares to set a threshold of ten billion yuan. It’s ridiculous to open the door ridiculously!”

Elaine nodded and squinted, “Ah, do you think there is anything special about this rejuvenation pill?”

Jacob curled his lips: “What’s so special about this? Is it possible to promote immortality if you eat it?”

“I think ascension is almost the same! Even if it’s a simple pill, isn’t it just hundreds of thousands of yuan?”

“I think they just want to hype up! This antique collection has not tossed around for so many years, and I guess they want to try some tricks to pay attention to it this time.”

Elaine agreed and said, "You're right. I guess it's like the Internet celebrity named Sister in the past."

"She said with a calm face that her IQ was unmatched three hundred years ago and then three hundred years later."

"Now she still went abroad to make manicure for others?"

Jacob said with a smile, "I thought Jasmine Moore was really capable, but I didn't expect to come up with such a low-level trick. It was really shocking."

With that, he asked Charlie, "By the way, Charlie, aren't you quite familiar with Jasmine Moore?"

"She hold an auction before and sent you an invitation letter. Didn't she discuss it with you this time?"

Charlie said with a smile, "I don't have any business dealings with Miss Moore, and there is no need to discuss it with me."

Jacob said with a serious face, "Aren't you Master Wade among these rich people in Aurous Hill?"

"Don't they ask you to calculate your fortunes before they make a decision?"

"Do you remember that anyone who bought a house before would have to invite you to have a look?"

Speaking of this, Jacob exclaimed and blurted out, "D*mn it... Charlie...you are not a thunderstorm, are you?"

When Elaine heard this, she also asked nervously, "Good son-in-law, are you really thunderous?"

Chapter 3682

“Will anyone still spend millions of yuan to see Feng shui in the future?”

Seeing the nervous appearance of the two, Charlie shook his head and smiled helplessly and said, “My main business now is to look at Feng shui.”

“As you know, looking at Feng shui is basically looking at physical objects, looking at ancestral graves, houses and office space.”

“No matter how much Jasmine Moore believes me, it is impossible to discuss the specific business with me.”

Jacob smacked his lips, nodded and said, “That’s the same...”

With that, he was so busy and asked, “By the way, Charlie, you can ask Jasmine Moore later whether this auction is a hype stunt or really needs to be done.”

“If you really want to do it, see if you can ask her for an invitation letter or something. I’ll see which fool will come to participate then.”

Charlie casually said, “I guess it’s a hype stunt. Dad, don’t pay attention to it.”

“How’s your calligraphy and painting association doing recently?”

“Well!” Jacob said with high spirits, “Our Calligraphy and Painting Association has become more and more influential in the city.”

“We will soon join hands with the city to carry out a series of cultural publicity activities.”

“Our city and Daejeon in South Korea are friendly cities.”

“The city plans to hold a cultural exchange activity with Daejeon in the near future. If this is settled, then I will let you accompany me too.”

Hearing this, Elaine immediately frowned with joy and blurted out, “Jacob, are you going to South Korea?”

Jacob thought that Elaine wanted to mock him for being unqualified, so he subconsciously asked her, “What’s wrong? Can’t I?”

“I, Jacob, is the vice president of the association now, the proper second-in-command!”

“Yes, yes, yes.” Elaine said with a smile, “You are really promising now. If you go to South Korea then, can you take me with you too? I’m so old that I haven’t been abroad yet!”

Jacob said quickly, “Knock it down quickly! I will go to engage in cultural exchanges with Koreans on behalf of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.”

“Do you understand the exchange? It’s all about exchanges between cultural people.”

“What’s the matter with you? They will thought I deliberately took my family on a trip at public expense!”

Hearing this, Elaine immediately said dissatisfiedly, “Aren’t you the vice president? I’m in charge of the second-in-command.”

“Can’t you take your wife with you when you go out for communication?!”

Jacob said, “I won’t take you! I’m not f*cking crazy...”

However, he said solemnly, “This exchange is not organized by our Calligraphy and Painting Association, but by the city.”

“At that time, two or three representatives will be sent to each cultural field.”

“Everyone will form an exchange group to charter a flight together. No one can bring family members.”

As soon as Charlie heard this, he couldn’t help asking him, “By the way, Dad, does the University for the Aged will also send representative?”

Jacob casually said, “Yes, this time it’s mainly cultural exchanges at the middle-aged and elderly level.”

Charlie immediately understood that if he went to the University for the Aged, with Mathilda’s education, temperament and appearance, she must also be the representative of the University for the Aged.

Under such circumstances, it is impossible for him to take his mother-in-law to death.

Elaine didn’t hear the hidden information in the dialogue between the two.

Hearing Jacob say this, although she was a little resentful, she didn’t insist much.

Jacob stood up at this time and said, "It's getting late. I have to go to the association."

With that, he hurried out of the villa and drove away.

Elaine felt uncomfortable and always felt that she had despised Jacob for half his life.

Unexpectedly, Jacob got better and better now, and the sense of gap suddenly fell like a mountain.

She asked Charlie cautiously, "Good son-in-law, do you think mom can also do something about old age?"

Charlie was slightly stunned and immediately asked her, "Mom, what do you want to do?"

Elaine sighed, "Oh, I don't know, but I always feel that your father is thriving in the Calligraphy and Painting Association."

"I have been idle at home, and it's not a problem..."

Charlie laughed and said, "Aren't your legs always not sharp?"

Elaine said quickly, "Isn't this so fast... I've been at home for too long and want to find something to do..."

Charlie thought for a moment and casually said, "Why don't you go to square dance when you're all right?"

"I see that many old men and women jump all day long."

“Some teams also have unified clothes, and the old men and women there look very energetic.”

Elaine waved her hand, “Dancing is a pastime, and it can’t be regarded as a career!”

“Unless there is also a square dance association in the city, let me be a vice president or something...”

Charlie smiled and said, “I really can’t say this, but don’t worry too much. It’s not too late to study it after your legs and feet are completely sharp.”

With that, Charlie suddenly received a document from Jasmine Moore on his mobile phone, as well as a message she sent, which was, “Master Wade, this document contains all the registration information so far, a total of seven hundred and forty people.”

Charlie really wants to see what famous characters are among the applicants so far, especially if there is the Rothschild family or his mother’s family.

So he immediately said to Elaine, “Mom, I have something to deal with. I’ll go back to my room first.”

Elaine said quickly, “Good son-in-law, don’t go yet. Think about it for your mother.”

“What can mom do? Mom can’t let Jacob compare!”

Charlie walked up the stairs and replied, “Mom, don’t worry. I’ll think about it for you later.”

Elaine asked anxiously, “Good son-in-law, when will you come back!”

Charlie said casually without looking back, “When your legs and feet are so sharp, I will definitely figure it out for you!”

With that, he strode upstairs...

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3683-3686

Chapter 3683

When Charlie returned to his room, he immediately watch the list sent by Jasmine Moore and went through it seriously.

He found that the vast majority of applicants came from the United States and Europe.

Among them, more than three hundred people signed up in the United States alone.

And it can be seen from the names of the applicants that there are not only Americans, but also many Chinese, Japanese and Koreans.

Interestingly, most of the applicants in the United States are chaebols and entrepreneurs.

More than half of the applicants in Europe are actually royal families and nobles from all over the world.

Even the Nordic royal family signed up for the auction.

And the applicant is the old queen who just abdicated.

Charlie couldn't help thinking to himself, "I don't know if this Nordic royal assets add up to ten billion yuan. Even if she can barely make up enough, I'm afraid there is no chance to bid at all, right?"

However, he turned to think that the old queen who had just abdicated must be eager for Rejuvenating Pill. Even if she can't shoot the whole Rejuvenating Pill, I'm afraid she will try to shoot a quarter of it. Even if she can't even shoot a quarter, at least she can get close to herself and send a favor.

Maybe the old queen will come to ask for credit, introduce to herself one by one who she pulled the head, and then ask herself for some Rejuvenating Pill to take.

Therefore, even if she don't have enough money, she still want to try to get Rejuvenating Pill. Naturally, the old queen will not let go of this kind of business.

In addition to the applicants from Europe and the United States, there are also a few entrepreneurs in China who have participated in the registration.

Among them, there are actually two repeat customers of Rejuvenating Pill, Travis Lane and Orrin Sun.

As his elder, Orrin Sun has always been very concerned about himself. He signed up for this auction, which must also be to support him.

As for Travis Lane, maybe after picking up a Rejuvenating Pill last time, he misses the Rejuvenating Pill, so he might try to get another one.

What Charlie didn't expect most was that his grandfather also signed up.

In fact, Lord Wade has always known the existence of Rejuvenating Pill.

After all, Orrin Sun was terminally ill at the beginning, and a Rejuvenating Pill made him younger and healthy, which shocked Lord Wade very well.

He has always wanted to find an opportunity to ask Charlie for Rejuvenating Pill. If it really doesn't work, he might try to get a Rejuvenating Pill from Charlie as the head of the family.

Unexpectedly, so many things happened one after another, and in the end, Charlie took the position of the head of the Wade family directly with the assistance of the Dragon Hall.

This once deprived him of his most valuable weight.

When he knew that Charlie was going to auction Rejuvenating Pill in Aurous Hill, his first idea was to report his name first.

If he can grab it then, it will naturally be the best.

It doesn't matter if he can't grab it. He should think of it as coming to support Charlie, and by the way, remind Charlie with practical actions to let Charlie know that he is also full of yearning for Rejuvenating Pill.

He felt that Charlie's heart softened when he was so old to participate in the auction, and maybe he could give himself one directly.

Charlie also guessed Lord Wade's purpose of doing this, but he was not going to give him Rejuvenating Pill back, at least it's not the time yet.

Looking at the whole list, Charlie was most interesting that he did not see the British royal family on the list.

Charlie also saw the movement of the British royal family from the intelligence network of Dragon Hall before. It is said that after the crown prince returned to Britain, he did not truthfully report the situation of Rejuvenating Pill to the Queen. The Queen was once very angry about this matter and was bent on getting this medicine.

However, why did the auction be announced and the queen didn't come to sign up?

Charlie thought about it and thought that it might be the requirement he had set for taking Rejuvenating Pill on the spot, which was a little unacceptable to the queen.

If the queen is really interested in Rejuvenating Pill, her only choice is to come to the auction in person.

There will be two hundred slots in the auction, and each successful quota can carry a companion, which means that there will be four hundred people at the auction site on that day.

Moreover, there is no doubt that these four hundred people are rich and nobles from all over the world. It would be a little embarrassing for the queen to appear on such occasions.

After all, the Queen of Britain has not abdicated yet. She is a nominal monarch of Britain and many countries.

If such a well-known Queen of a country came to Aurous Hill to participate in the auction in person, it would indeed have some impact on her own reputation and the entire British royal family.

After reading the list, Charlie was a little disappointed that he did not see anyone about the Rothschild family from the list, nor did he see anyone related to his mother's family.

The royal family of the Saudi Kingdom in the Middle East also did not appear.

Charlie couldn't help but wonder, don't these three world's top families need to worry about longevity?

Otherwise, why don't they come to this unprecedented auction?

Or are they still waiting secretly for the time being, wanting to see the situation of this auction first, and then make a decision in the future?

Just when Charlie was confused, Jasmine Moore called him and reported, "Master Wade, since the news of the auction was released, Moore Group has received many calls and emails. Many people have expressed their willingness to buy a Rejuvenating Pill in private for more than ten billion yuan, including Britain. The chairman of the U.S. royal family and the Philadelphia Group said that they were willing to pay half a billion dollars immediately to buy a Rejuvenating Pill, which was the highest quotation among everyone.

Charlie smiled softly and said, "Return to them uniformly. That is to say, Moore Group's antique collection was also entrusted by the mysterious shipper for this Rejuvenating Pill auction. You told them that there were only two Rejuvenating Pills in total at this auction. At that time, the auction will be carried out in the form of four quarters and a whole one, and there will be no more than five. Even if it is five billion dollars, it won't be sold. No matter who wants these two Rejuvenating Pills, they must come to Aurous Hill in person to participate in the auction!"

Speaking of this, Charlie added, "By the way, you also need to announce to the public that anyone bidding for Rejuvenating Pill is allowed to bid successfully once, that is to say, if he bids for a quarter first, then he is not eligible to participate in the Rejuvenating Pill later."

Jasmine Moore said respectfully, "Good Master Wade, then I'll ask someone to reply one by one."

With that, Jasmine Moore said again, "Master Wade, there is another thing. Many people are consulting in the registration system whether they can bring their entourage on the day of the auction. We don't have a clear provision yet. How do you think you reply?"

Charlie thought for a moment and said lightly, "Since they want to, everyone who successfully signs up can only bring one entourage at most."

"Okay." Jasmine Moore said quickly, "Then I will also send them an announcement on the registration platform."

Charlie remembered something and immediately told her, "By the way, tell them that although everyone can bring an entourage, if it is a bidding for Rejuvenating Pill, after the auction is successful, it cannot be taken by the entourage, but only by the applicant himself."

Charlie was worried that some people who did not want to reveal their identity would borrow loopholes from the entourage, and then instructed others to take Rejuvenating Pill and take it by himself.

Therefore, such loopholes should be blocked in advance, and no chance will be given any loopholes.

Jasmine Moore said respectfully at the other end of the phone, "Good Master Wade, I will explain it to them."

Charlie hummed and said again, "Our registration window is open for a total of 48 hours. After the time comes, the registration will be stopped. Within 48 hours after the registration is stopped, the final shortlist will be announced!"

Chapter 3685

At this time, Ferdie Joules, who was about to leave for China, suddenly received a phone call.

It was his youngest and favorite granddaughter, Michaela Joules.

Michaela Joules is just twenty-two years old this year, and she is more than seventy years away from Ferdie Joules. She is Ferdie Joules' youngest daughter, who was born to the apple of his eye.

Ferdie Joules' grandchildren are now over fifty years old.

Even his eldest great-grandson is even a few years older than Michaela Joules.

It is also because Michaela Joules is young and has a large generation that she is in the Joules family.

In the eyes of Ferdie Joules, from his children and descendants, Michaela Joules is the youngest apple of his grandchildren.

Not only he loves her, uncles and aunts love her, but those cousins also spoil her.

In the eyes of the later generation of the Joules family, Michaela Joules is the youngest of the whole Joules family. Even those younger generation are older than her or the same age as her, they must respect her.

At the Joules family, Michaela Joules has always received the best elite education. At the age of fifteen, she began to go to college. Under the guidance of her family, she began to practice companies with a market value of more than one billion yuan, so as to see that she was young, but her style of doing things calm and spicy, which was by no means comparable to ordinary peers.

Many days ago, Michaela Joules was entrusted by Ferdie Joules to lead a team to Eastcliff to find clues to Rejuvenating Pill.

However, because she judged the wrong direction at the beginning, Michaela Joules ran west in Eastcliff for several days and never got anything.

After hearing that Moore Group's antique collection was going to auction Rejuvenating Pill publicly, she immediately contacted Moore Group and even raised the offer to one billion dollars, but Moore Group did not let go at all.

So she immediately called her Grandpa and asked with concern, "Grandpa, are you off now?"

Ferdie Joules couldn't hide his excitement and said, "I'm on my way to the airport and I'm right there. Michaela, how's your place?"

Michaela Joules replied, "I'm on my way from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill, and the plane still has half an hour to land."

With that, she sighed and said, "Grandpa, in my opinion, don't come to China for the time being."

"Why?" Ferdie Joules frowned and asked, "Is there anything wrong with China?"

Michaela Joules said truthfully, "I have contacted Moore Group and raised the quotation to one Billion dollars. I really hope they can convey this price of Rejuvenating Pill's client. If they want, they can conclude the deal at this price at any time, but Moore Group refused."

Ferdie Joules' expression was awe-inspiring and exclaimed, "Are they not attracted to half a billion dollars?"

"Yes..." Michaela Joules said helplessly, "I don't understand what they think. It's just a pill. No matter how powerful it is, it's impossible to buy such a terrible price of one billion, right? If I were a client, it would be safer for me to take out the pill directly and exchange it for half a billion dollars instead of taking the risk waiting for the auction."

Ferdie Joules said solemnly, "If this Rejuvenating Pill is really the big opportunity for your Grandpa Orion got at the beginning, the price of one billion dollars is really not high. If it is really on the auction, it is normal to bid tens of billions of dollars at the price..."

Michaela Joules said in surprise, "It's impossible, Grandpa! What's the concept of ten billion dollars... You can buy a Ford-class aircraft carrier! Who will spend so much money on a pill? What's more, I'm afraid most people don't know what's the effect of it, including me."

Chapter 3686

Ferdie Joules sighed and said, "Don't talk about it, even I don't know what the specific effect of Rejuvenating Pill, it will be mine this time, but I have an intuition that if nothing unexpected happens, the final transaction price of this thing must be more than ten billion dollars."

With that, Ferdie Joules remembered something and said, "I see! No wonder the client behind this Rejuvenating Pill is full of confidence! He has already counted everyone in! Rejuvenating Pill will definitely buy a very high price!"

Michaela Joules quickly asked, "Grandpa, what do you mean by counting everyone? I don't understand."

Ferdie Joules said, "Think about it, why do they have to set a rule that successful bidders take Rejuvenating Pill on the spot?"

Michaela Joules said, "I can figure this out. First, they want to use this requirement to ensure that all big shots can't send spokespersons, nor can they call to commission auctions and must be present in person; on the other hand, they want to ensure that this thing will not be hyped twice by willing people; thirdly, they must be right for this medicine. I am full of confidence and want one hundred and ninety-nine other bidders to witness the efficacy of this medicine with their own eyes."

"Yes!" Ferdie Joules sighed, "You analyzed it right, but there is only one missing."

Michaela Joules asked puzzledly, "Grandpa, is there anything else I missed?"

Ferdie Joules said, "Think about it, why did the client take out two Rejuvenating Pills? Moreover, why don't sell them together, or sell one by one, but split one into four parts to sell?

Michaela Joules hesitated for a moment at the other end of the phone, and then blurted out enlightened, "Grandpa, you mean, he wants to pave the way for the final Rejuvenating Pill with the four-part Rejuvenating Pill?"

"That's right!" Ferdie Joules said admiringly, "You can understand it at a little bit. It's really the most promising person for my Joules family!"

Michaela Joules' mood did not fluctuate at all. She said calmly, "Grandpa, you have flattered the prize. I'd better try to understand it without you in the future."

With that, she continued with some worry, "Grandpa, if the client really wants to pave the way with these four split Rejuvenating Pills, there is no doubt that as long as you see the first successful bidder and take the first Rejuvenating Pill, the price of each subsequent part will be higher than the previous one. At the end of the auction, it will be a huge stimulus to the people behind him. Step by step, when the last whole Rejuvenating Pill was reached, I'm afraid it would really hit a sky-high price!"

Ferdie Joules smiled helplessly, "In my opinion, ten billion dollars is not enough at all! Even if it doubles, triples or triples, it may not be enough."

Michaela Joules hesitated and asked him, "Grandpa, what's your psychological price?"

Ferdie Joules didn't say anything for a long time. After a long time, he said seriously, "Grandpa has no psychological price. I aim to get this pill. It's just on this basis, the less money you spend, the better."

Speaking of this, Ferdie Joules couldn't help sighing and saying, "It's just that I don't know who is as determined to win this pill like me. If the other party's strength is stronger than mine, then I can only miss it..."

Michaela Joules said solemnly, "Grandpa, I see... In this way, don't worry about coming over. I have submitted the registration information to them. With our strength, we can definitely be included in the final two hundred people's list."

With that, Michaela Joules said again, "From now on, until the official start of the auction, I will try my best to find out the client of Rejuvenating Pill and try to reach a private transaction agreement with him. Whether it is ten billion dollars or one trillion dollars, I will try my best to help you put this settled!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3687-3690

Chapter 3687

Ferdie Joules accepted his granddaughter's suggestion and gave up his plan to go to Aurous Hill immediately.

He knew very well that since it was difficult for Moore Group and the client behind it to let go before the auction, it made no practical sense for him to go to Aurous Hill now.

After all, he is old, and it is inconvenient to travel.

Now in the past, he can't help anything but add trouble to Michaela Joules.

It's better to let Michaela Joules go to Aurous Hill and try first.

In case she really succeeds, she can directly return to the United States with rejuvenation pill.

If she doesn't succeed, she will go to Aurous Hill to participate in the auction.

In this way, at least he is prepared with two hands, and the chances of success are greater.

Michaela Joules hung up her grandfather's phone call and felt a lot of pressure in her heart.

She knew that her Grandpa attached great importance to Rejuvenation Pill.

Although her Grandpa did not know what the medicinal effect of rejuvenation pill had, according to the evidence obtained by Orion Exeor, rejuvenation pill can extend her Grandpa's life expectancy for at least a few years.

Her Grandpa is in his nineties this year.

If he doesn't seize this opportunity, his life expectancy may be only a year or two or even shorter, but if he seizes this opportunity, living to one hundred years old is by no means a problem.

This also means that whether Grandpa can live to one hundred years old depends on whether he can get the rejuvenating pill.

But what really gives Michaela Joules a headache is that she doesn't have any clues about rejuvenation pill's client.

How to find him has become the most thorny problem at present.

But even if this problem can be solved, there are still bigger challenges waiting for her.

The other party doesn't even care about half a billion dollars, so how can she ask him to take out a rejuvenation pill?

After thinking about it, she decided to put the breakthrough point on Moore Group.

So she said to her assistant beside her, “Shan, in the past two days, I want you to help me find out all the information of the Moore Group, find as much as possible, and then print it all in a book and give it to me.”

The girl named Shan, named Shan Elliott, is a personal assistant cultivated by Michaela Joules.

Hearing Michaela Joules’ order, she immediately said respectfully, “Okay Miss Joules!”

Michaela Joules asked her again, “Have we solved the accommodation problem in Aurous Hill?”

Shan Elliott replied, “Miss Joules, I have booked the presidential suite and multiple luxury suites of the best three five-star hotels in Aurous Hill City.”

“I will give you the hotel information later and you can choose at will.”

“Well done.”

Michaela Joules praised faintly and nodded with satisfaction.

This foolproof style of doing things is the concept she has always instilled in her subordinates.

For Joules family, as long as the money is not counted in billions of dollars, it is not money at all.

Therefore, Michaela Joules went to Aurous Hill to do business.

She didn't have to worry about where to live at all.

Her assistant had booked all the rooms in three five-star hotels in Aurous Hill and paid for the room in advance.

Although the room fees of two hotels are doomed to be wasted, hundreds of thousands of yuan are simply inferior to the Joules family.

Spend hundreds of thousands more to avoid choosing only one hotel but having any temporary emergencies, even if there is only one percent chance, you should absolutely avoid it.

This is Michaela Joules' style of doing things, including this time when she came to China, although she only had a team of less than ten people, she transferred two identical private planes from home.

Chapter 3688

These two aircraft are private planes transformed by the brand-new Boeing 787 passenger plane.

Each ex-factory price is nearly three billion US dollars, and the total cost is nearly five billion dollars after the renovation is completed.

Normally, the maximum commercial load of this aircraft is three hundred and thirty people, but Michaela Joules' team of less than ten people occupies two.

She and her subordinates took one of them, while the other flew around as a shadow plane.

The same way the two air forces of the United States President flew on duty, the other plane Michaela Joules took went wherever she was.

If there is any problem with her plane, Michaela Joules and her party can continue flying directly on another plane without any impact.

If there had been no accidents on this plane during her arrival in China, the other plane would have been wasted with more than ten million flight costs.

However, Michaela Joules doesn't care at all.

What she pursues is to solve problems by percent.

Everything else doesn't matter.

Then her assistant handed Michaela Joules a laptop and said, "Miss, this is the information of the three hotels. Please have a look."

Michaela Joules nodded, took the laptop and flipped over.

He whispered to herself, "Aurous Hill International Hotel... Aurous Hill Shangri-La Hotel... Aurous Hill Hilton Hotel..."

Michaela Joules frowned slightly and said, "It looks ordinary."

Shan Elliott said helplessly, "Miss, Aurous Hill's economic development is slightly lagging behind, which is not as good as several first-tier cities in China."

"The best hotel in the area is five-star hotels, and the only six-star hotel is still under construction and has not been completed yet."

Michaela Joules said blankly, “Well... Forget it, that’s it. It doesn’t matter which one to stay tonight, but we may stay in Aurous Hill for a long time this time, so after the plane lands, you can communicate with these three hotels immediately to see which hotel’s room can stay for a month in a row.”

“I don’t want to change places among them. .”

Shan Elliott nodded immediately and said, “Okay, miss, I see!”

.....

Half an hour later, two Boeing 787 passenger planes landed on two runways of Aurous Hill Airport almost at the same time.

While arranging her men to confirm the pick-up fleet, Shan Elliott called three hotels separately to ask if all rooms could be extended for one month.

Michaela Joules usually stays in the best presidential suites when traveling, but most hotels only have one or two presidential suites.

If the presidential suites of any hotel have been booked in the next month, I’m afraid it will be difficult to guarantee Michaela Joules’ delayed demand.

After making a call, Shan Elliott immediately reported to Michaela Joules, “Miss, I have asked about the situation of the three hotels.”

“The rooms of Aurous Hill International Hotel are fine and can be extended for a month, but the presidential suite of the Hilton Hotel will be booked next Saturday.”

“It is said that the customer is a stranger who married his daughter in Aurous Hill and needs to use the hotel's presidential suite."

"Their manager said that he could help us coordinate with the customer, but he didn't guarantee that it would work."

"In addition, the Shangri-La Hotel did not accept all reservations after fifteen days, so we can only stay there for fifteen days now."

After listening to it, Michaela Joules almost thoughtlessly said, "Then it's not difficult. Let's book the Aurous Hill International Hotel directly."

"Okay lady." Shan Elliott said quickly, "Then I'll call the hotel now."

Michaela Joules just nodded and acquiesced, but soon, her beautiful face floated with a dignified look.

She hurriedly stopped Shan Elliott and said, "Shan, wait a minute!"

Shan Elliott quickly asked, "Miss, what else do you want?"

Michaela Joules frowned beautifully, narrowed her eyes, and asked rhetorically, "What hotel will not accept the agreement 15 days later?"

"As far as I know, all hotels are eager to sell their rooms for 10 years, and reservations are not allowed after 15 days."

"This is the first time I've heard about them."

“Yes.” Shan Elliott nodded and said, “Their operation mode is indeed a little strange.”

“I also asked them why, but their service desk said that it was clearly required above.”

“They just carried out the orders of the hotel’s senior management.”

Michaela Joules snorted coldly and said, “If something goes wrong, there must be demons.”

“What makes a hotel give up room sales?”

“There are still nineteen days left before the auction of rejuvenation pill is full.”

“The specific address has not been announced yet.”

“This Shangri-La will not accept reservations after fifteen days. There must be some tricks in it.”

With that, she did not hesitate to make a slap, “Just stay in Shangri-La Hotel!”

Chapter 3689

In fact, Moore Group has not announced the news of co-hosting the auction with Shangri-La Hotel.

That’s what Charlie means.

Some time ago, the outside world thought that the Wade family had been eaten half by the Dragon Hall, and many people deliberately drew a clear line with the Wade family, so the business of hundreds of Shangri-La hotels around the world was greatly affected.

Charlie planned to use this auction to give those rich people a good face this time, so that they must live in Shangri-La Hotel before they can participate in the auction.

However, he did not intend to announce the news immediately, because if the auction venue had been announced early, there would have been many people with intentions or evil intentions who would have stepped on the auction site ahead of schedule.

Maybe someone will still focus on rejuvenation pill and want to do something on the venue.

Therefore, Charlie intends to put this suspense into the final announcement, so that after arriving in Aurous Hill, the organizer will come forward to arrange for them to check in at Shangri-La Hotel.

At that time, the night room rate is one million, ten million, or one hundred million, and you can set the price yourself.

Anyway, Shangri-La Hotel will be closed for management in advance.

If you don't want to come in, you won't have a chance to participate in the auction.

Moreover, during this period, it is possible to secretly prepare the renovation of the banquet hall of Shangri-La Hotel and security work to ensure safety.

However, what Charlie didn't expect was that his intention was detected by a woman who had never met him.

Like Zara Banks, Michaela Joules is an elite class carefully cultivated by the big family, but the only difference is that Michaela Joules began to practice as a teenager, and Zara Banks was a student before she was pushed to the high position of head of the Banks family by Charlie, and even planned to continue to study in the United States.

Therefore, although the age of the two is not much different and the growing environment is not much different, Michaela Joules' style and refinement are much better than Zara Banks'.

When she realized that something was wrong with Shangri-La Hotel, she immediately speculated that Shangri-La Hotel must have something to do with Moore Group.

She is even sure that Shangri-La Hotel is the actual venue of the rejuvenation pills auction.

Therefore, she immediately asked Shan Elliott to reserve a room in Shangri-La Hotel, and then the group was escorted by the pick-up convoy to Shangri-La Hotel.

At this time, business in Shangri-La Hotel is still a little depressed.

Although the executive building is completely closed to the outside world, the occupancy rate of the remaining half of the rooms is only about thirties.

This is simply more deserted for a hotel with a occupancy rate of more than a quarter of the time in the past than during the Spring Festival.

In the lobby of the hotel, there are even more service personnel than the number of guests.

When Michaela Joules stepped into the lobby of the hotel, she was also a little surprised.

It was really unexpected that the business of a five-star hotel was bleak like this.

Just as she stood in the middle of the empty lobby, looking around and wondering, the two men quickly passed her.

As she passed by, she only heard the younger man say, "Sent those people to Don Albert's place."

"As for the researcher, leave him alone and let him study slowly."

The older man nodded and said, "Okay Master Wade."

Chapter 3690

Then, the young man called Master Wade asked again, "Has Jasmine arrived yet?"

The older man hurriedly said, "Miss Moore has arrived."

While talking, the two men had quickly left Michaela Joules' side.

As she passed by, Michaela Joules saw their side faces.

The first thought in her heart was, "This young guy is quite handsome."

And it was Charlie and Isaac Cameron who passed by her.

Charlie happened to ask Jasmine Moore to come and talk about the next details of the auction with Isaac Cameron.

As soon as he arrived at the door of the hotel, Isaac Cameron was already waiting at the door.

When the two met, Isaac Cameron first told him that the soldiers of Dragon Hall who were lying in ambush in Oracle Pharmaceutical last night and at noon today, several agents sneaked into Oracle Pharmaceutical were arrested one after another.

These people have now been strictly controlled, but have not been transferred.

At the same time, the generals of Dragon Hall also found a sneaky man near Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Although this man looks like a Chinese, he was photographed by Don Albert's little brother when he first arrived in Aurous Hill and went out of customs.

Now he is found in Oracle Pharmaceutical and immediately stares at him.

According to Isaac Cameron, the man did nothing but dig soil and collect some plant specimens near Oracle Pharmaceutical, but did not sneak into the interior of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Moreover, according to the investigation of Dragon Hall, it was found that the man's name was Shunhei Nakamura, a Japanese-American microbiologist and pharmacist.

For those agents, Charlie's request was naturally to send it to Don Albert for strict guard.

However, after learning that Shunhei Nakamura was a drug researcher, Charlie was not ready to be caught.

On the contrary, he also asked Isaac Cameron to continue to give instructions.

Don't worry about that guy and let him study casually.

After all, Charlie also hopes that Americans will waste more time and energy on the dead end of reverse research and development.

When Isaac Cameron reported these situations, he was very careful.

He used vague words in many places, and he didn't dare to call Master Wade outside, but he and Charlie didn't expect that just such a little dialogue would still let people listen to it.

Michaela Joules didn't hear much.

She only heard that people were sent to Don Albert.

Who Don Albert was? She didn't know where Don Albert was, and she didn't know him.

However, when she heard Charlie mention the word Jasmine Moore, she immediately paid attention to it.

Because she had a preliminary understanding of the Moore Group before, and she knew that the person in charge of the Moore Group was Jasmine Moore.

Moreover, she heard the words Miss Moore from Isaac Cameron.

Combined with "Jasmine Moore" and "Miss Moore", she immediately made sure that the two were talking about Jasmine Moore of Moore Group.

At this time, she was puzzled and thought to herself, "Is Jasmine Moore also in Shangri-La Hotel now?"

“That’s really in line with my previous speculations about Shangri-La Hotel!”

“In this way, the possibility of holding an auction at Shangri-La Hotel has increased from 70% to 90%!”

Immediately, she speculated to herself, “That young man actually called Jasmine Moore’s name directly, and still ignored her surname.”

“Calling her Jasmine directly, which proves that he has a good relationship with Jasmine Moore, and his social status is no less than Jasmine Moore, and may even be higher than her...”

“Another person calls him Master Wade... But he is young and looks only in his twenties.”

“That man is older than him. Why should he respectfully call him Master?”

“And... who is the middle-aged man beside him?”

“Why does it feel like his home court here?”

Thinking of this, she immediately called Shan Elliott and whispered, “Shan, check the information of the person in charge of this hotel for me, preferably with video materials!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3691-3694

Chapter 3691

When Michaela Joules checked in and moved into the Presidential Suite at Shangri-La Hotel, Charlie was working with Jasmine Moore and Isaac Cameron to determine the follow-up details of the auction.

At present, Charlie attaches the most importance to the security of Shangri-La Hotel at that time.

After all, in the face of rejuvenation pills whose value may exceed tens of billions of dollars at any time, the temptation is too great.

I don't know how many people will use crooked brains about it secretly.

Moreover, almost all of them will come to the top rich.

In this case, it is necessary to ensure the personal safety of these rich people.

Otherwise, in case something goes wrong, who dares to participate in the auction in the future?

Therefore, Charlie asked Shangri-La Hotel to complete a new round of upgrades and transformation within the next fifteen days.

At the same time, Creighton Krueger has to be notified that before the auction starts, a large number of elite personnel will be sent from the Dragon Hall to strictly ensure the safety of Shangri-La Hotel.

Although Isaac Cameron was under great pressure, he still assured Charlie very firmly, "Young master, although rest assured, I will do my best to ensure that the auction will be safe!"

Charlie nodded gently and said, "This year, let's try to get a good start first."

"I have ordered Doris Young to start preparing for a new auction center."

“When the auction center is completed, there will be a special venue for the auction in rejuvenation pills.”

With that, Charlie said to Jasmine Moore again, “Jasmine, the auction center will reserve 20% of the investment share for Moore Group at that time.”

“In the future, this will become a new industry jointly created by the Wade family and the Moore family, and our rejuvenation pills auction will continue to be held, and this auction center.”

“In addition, at other times, Moore Group’s antique collection can be used at will as your own home court.”

Jasmine Moore was surprised and happy, and at the same time said nervously, “Master Wade, this auction can have such a great influence in upper class.”

“It’s all thanks to your rejuvenation pills. Moore Group’s antique collection can come out to preside over this auction.”

“It is lucky for three lifetimes. How dare I to receive your favor in the future auction center...”

Jasmine Moore knew a few cattles and taels of Moore Group’s antique collection.

This time, it is a great opportunity for Jasmine Moore to be able to borrow Charlie’s Rejuvenation Pill to become famous in the richest class in the world.

Now Charlie wants to take the Moore Group on the ship for a long time to cooperate, which is even more of great benefit to the Moore family.

What's more, a brand-new auction center starts with at least billions of investment.

Charlie only allows her to contribute 20% of the investment, but most of the time of this auction center is used by Moore Group's antique collection, which takes up Charlie's great advantage, and she dares not accept anything.

Seeing that she didn't know how she was doing,

Charlie smiled and said seriously, "Jasmine, the auction center is not a big investment in the first place."

"You can also see the popularity of rejuvenation pill."

"If they buy one or two a year, you can harvest tens of billions of dollars from these top rich people."

"An auction center can be done with a maximum of billions of dollars, or even not worth four points."

"It's a rejuvenation pill, so you don't have to be so polite to me. We will have long-term strategic cooperation in the future."

"Don't be bound by such a little thing."

Jasmine Moore nodded gratefully and said seriously, "Master Wade, Moore Group's antique collection will be responsible for the daily operation of the auction center at that time, and all the income from the operation will be handed over to Emgrand Group!"

Chapter 3692

"No." Charlie waved his hand, "The income generated by your operation is normally divided according to the proportion of investment, but if it is for your own use in Moore Group's antique collection, don't report the income.”

Seeing this, Jasmine Moore no longer insisted.

In her eyes, she said affectionately, “Okay Master Wade, Jasmine knows!”

Charlie nodded satisfiedly, and then asked her, “How’s the registration going now?”

Jasmine Moore said quickly, “Master Wade, nearly 700 people have signed up so far.”

With that, she opened a document on the tablet and handed it to Charlie.

She said respectfully, “Master Wade, all the registration information is here.”

“We have begun to review the asset information they submitted.”

“After the registration deadline, we will verify and sort the assets of all applicants, from the top two hundred of the most powerful people were selected to participate in the auction.”

Charlie nodded slightly and then looked through the registration information.

Among the 700 people who have signed up, the person with available data and the highest assets is Bernard Elnor, who is now ranked third in the world’s richest list.

Charlie said curiously, “Why haven’t I heard of Bernard Elnor?”

Jasmine Moore squeezed her lips and snickered, "Master Wade, you don't know Bernard Elnor, but your wife should know."

"Really?" Charlie asked puzzledly, "Why do you say that?"

Jasmine Moore smiled and said, "Because this person is the godfather of global luxury goods..."

"Many of France's top luxury brands are under the name of his group, and the most famous is Louis Vuitton, commonly known as LV."

With that, Jasmine Moore said again, "Moreover, he made a lot of big moves some time ago, and successively acquired a number of French and Italian luxury brands, including the famous Emma."

"Because of his near monopoly hegemony in the luxury goods field, his value has also reached an amazing 170."

"If it is converted into RMB, it will exceed trillions of dollars."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile, "So that's it... It seems that this old man can be called a friend of women around the world!"

With that, Charlie looked at Bernard Elnor's information carefully and found that he was in his seventies and began to worry about prolonging his life.

In fact, since ancient times, the world's top dignitaries have been like this.

People are in their teens to their twenties and thirties, which is a ignorant stage when they are young and frivolous and don't know the precious time.

People of this age only care about the present and the future.

That's why some people are willing to sell one of their kidneys for tens of thousands of yuan, or even a mobile phone, or sacrifice their health or even take risks for a little profit.

Starting from the age of twenty or thirty to the age of fifty or sixty, for most people, it is a stage that really lays the foundation for a lifetime.

Especially for those top rich people, this precious decades is the most prosperous time in their lives.

Almost all the rich have achieved exponential surges in assets at this age group.

With the increasing success of career development, personal wealth and age, these rich people will naturally enter a state of "saving their lives" after success and old age, hoping that they can live longer and have more time to enjoy these outstanding achievements they have created.

The more successful the person is, the more so.

In ancient times, every emperor in China dreamed of immortality.

In modern times, almost every billionaire is also repeating the mistakes of ancient emperors and secretly investing huge costs in finding a way to live forever.

David Rockefeller, the third-generation heir of the Rockefeller family in the United States, spent hundreds of millions of dollars to do six heart transplants and lived to 101 years old.

In addition, many rich people spend hundreds of millions of dollars a year to inject cell needles just to delay aging.

Like Ferdie Joules, there are many rich people who invest billions of dollars in various scientific research projects.

Therefore, rejuvenation pill is particularly attractive to the rich over 70 years old at present.

As long as you spend money on a rejuvenation pill, those investments that are uncertain and long waits in the past can be completely omitted.

But it is also because of different stages and different mentality that Bezos, the first Amazon founder of the world's rich list, and Musk, the second founder of Tesla, did not sign up for the auction.

Charlie was not surprised by this, because neither of them was old.

Bezos is a little older, but he is not yet sixty years old, and Musk is just over fifty.

Both of them, in the field of entrepreneurship, are in their prime.

People in this age are full of money and big things, and there is no particularly urgent need for longevity.

Moreover, these two people are both Internet-born bosses.

They are avant-garde and radical.

They must be skeptical or even negative about rejuvenation pills, so it is impossible to sign up for the auction.

However, Charlie felt that if they waited for more than ten or twenty years, the two of them would definitely flock to Rejuvenation Pill.

Because in his opinion, no one can escape this rule!

Chapter 3693

Charlie continued to look down.

On the list, there was also a man named Ferdie Joules, who attracted his attention.

The amount of assets registered for this Ferdie Joules was one trillion US dollars, but this person's information has never appeared on the Forbes rankings.

There are several people in a similar situation with him.

These people can't find their names on the Forbes ranking, and there is little news on the Internet, but the assets declared one by one are about one trillion dollars.

Charlie vaguely felt that the actual assets of these people should be far above one trillion dollars.

The reason why they are all declared at one trillion dollars is probably that they don't want to leak too much, and they want to firmly lock in a quota, so they just take out part of their assets for capital verification.

What surprised Charlie most was that there was also a British royal family on this list!

He couldn't help sighing, "I thought the British royal family would not come this time."

Jasmine Moore smiled and said, "They just submitted an application a few minutes ago, and it was not the Queen herself who signed up for the auction this time, but the Queen's eldest grandson, Prince Arthur."

With that, Jasmine Moore was also a little surprised and said doubtfully, "Prince Arthur seems to be about forty years old."

"I don't know why he came to participate in the rejuvenation pills auction."

This Prince Arthur, who married a civilian princess in a high-profile way a few years ago and was the second heir to the British throne, has been very topical and well-known in recent years.

Charlie was indeed a little surprised that he suddenly signed up for the auction.

However, Charlie quickly figured out the motives of the British royal family.

He smiled and said, "I don't think the British royal family has thought about competing for rejuvenation pills this year."

"The reason why Prince Arthur signed up is probably that he wants to see what magical effect rejuvenation pill has."

"Let's find out first."

After saying that, Charlie said again, "And to be honest, it's enough to qualify for bidding for the British royal family, but if you really want to bid for rejuvenation pill, they don't have that strength at all."

Charlie did not reject this kind of joining in the fun, because he knew very well that most of the 700 applicants should know that he did not have the strength to compete with those top rich at all.

But this still failed to stop their enthusiasm for signing up.

Charlie estimated that the motivation of these people should be to broaden their horizons and broaden their horizons.

After looking at the top 300 list, Charlie said to Jasmine Moore, “Jasmine, take my grandfather’s name out of the list.”

Jasmine Moore asked quickly, “Master Wade, aren’t you going to let your grandfather participate?”

Charlie smiled and said, “No, he will definitely participate. I have left a few VIP seats on the scene and one for him then.”

Speaking of this, Charlie sighed gently, “Recently, many people have a little contempt for the Wade family because of the Dragon Hall, and it’s time for them to have more respect for the Wade family.”

Jasmine Moore immediately said, “Okay, Master Wade, I’ll arrange it.”

Charlie asked again, “By the way, Jasmine, I didn’t see the information about the Nordic royal family.”

Chapter 3694

“How much are they currently ranked?”

Jasmine Moore said awkwardly, “Mrs. Alyssa Iliad of the Nordic royal family is ranked sixth from the bottom on the list of seven hundred people.”

Alyssa Iliad is the name of the former queen, Helena’s Grandma.

Charlie immediately pulled the list to the end, and immediately understood the embarrassment of the Nordic royal family.

Even if the old queen submits all the asset certificates of the Nordic royal family, the converted into RMB is only more than ten billion, which is the basic threshold for eligibility.

So among these seven hundred people, she is almost at the bottom.

Two hundred out of seven hundred people, according to this order, she is definitely not qualified to participate in this auction.

Seeing this, Charlie couldn’t help laughing, “Well, it seems that the Nordic royal family is indeed a little embarrassing.”

“Its assets are less than one-tenth of that of the British royal family.”

“Yes...” Jasmine Moore said helplessly, “I always thought that the royal family in Europe was very rich. I didn’t expect the Nordic royal family to be so miserable...”

In fact, the old queen who is far away in Northern Europe also knows in her heart that the Nordic royal family has not seized any development opportunities over the years, and there are indeed some assets handed down by their ancestors.

When it comes to ancestral property, she should restrain herself in the palace and convert those antique calligraphy and paintings into it.

It is estimated that there will be hundreds of millions more dollars.

However, those things are inherited in an orderly manner, and there is no market for price.

They can't be evaluated at all.

Otherwise, once they are taken out, the whole world will know that the Nordic royal family has begun to sell their ancestral products.

Moreover, even if those assets are converted, it will not be of any substantive help to their rankings.

Two hundred out of the 700 people, whether they are sixth from the bottom, or even the sixteenth from the bottom, are basically the same result.

In order to prevent her lose, she specially found Helena and pleaded, "Helena, can you call Charlie for your grandmother at your convenience and ask him if he can give me a place to participate in the auction?"

Helena said in a dilemma, "Grandma, Mr. Wade has helped us so much, and I haven't had a chance to repay him this favor. How dare I ask Mr. Wade for help again for such a thing..."

Helena's thoughts are naturally clear to the old queen.

Charlie had a reinvention for Helena.

He directly transformed her from a chess piece used by the royal family to be a new queen in Northern Europe, saving not only her, but also her mother.

Moreover, Charlie was not thin to himself.

If he hadn't had his rejuvenation pill, he would have been killed by Olivia long ago.

No matter what you think, their grandparents and grandchildren owe Charlie too much favor.

At this time, it would be a little cheeky to ask Charlie for help again.

Thinking of this, the old queen couldn't help sighing, "There must be a lot of top bigwigs gathered in China at this auction."

"I happen to abdicate now. I don't have any sensitivity in status."

"It's also a good thing if I have the opportunity to see and expand networking resources for our Nordic royal family..."

Helena looked at her sad grandmother with a speechless expression.

She knew the old lady's idea very well.

She just wanted to take this opportunity to ask Charlie for credit, or to sell face in front of Charlie to see if there could be any unexpected gains.

Although Helena is more grateful to Charlie than anyone else, she also has the pride in her heart.

She doesn't want her grandmother to appear in front of Charlie like an old beggar, which may make Charlie look down on herself even more.

Therefore, she persuaded softly, "Grandma, Mr. Wade's threshold for this auction is really too high."

"Our Nordic royal family does not have this strength. If we insist on it, it will also seem that we are over escalating."

"Instead of this, it's better to keep a low profile."

With that, Helena said again, "Now Mr. Wade's Auntie is actively cooperating with the royal family on behalf of the Wade family, which is also an excellent opportunity for the royal family."

"Our current energy should be used to cooperate well with the Wade family."

"As for the auction of rejuvenation pill, I think it's okay not to go for the time being."

The old queen wanted to say something, but after thinking about it, she still put up with it.

No matter what Helena said, her deep yearning for rejuvenation pill could not be erased.

However, Helena's words are true, which makes her unable to refute, so she can only accept it silently.

At this time, she saw Helena's beautiful eyes full of melancholy, so she couldn't help asking her, "Helena, do you miss Charlie?"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3695-3698

Chapter 3695

Hearing her grandmother's question, Helena was stunned in an instant.

Before the inner shyness could make her blush, she was immediately crushed by the sadness.

Originally, Helena instinctively wanted to deny it.

But somehow, there was a feeling of displeasiness in her heart, so she sighed softly and said quietly, "What can I do if I think about him?"

"After self-administration, my identity became extremely sensitive."

"I can no longer decide where to go, who to meet, what to say or what to do."

"I dream of going to China to meet him, but now I can't bypass diplomatic channels to go to China at all."

"He won't come to Northern Europe again in a short time. I'm afraid I won't even see him in the future."

Speaking of this, Helena's eyes were full of tears, and even overflowed from the corners of her eyes.

She quickly turned her head and quietly wiped away her tears. Then she said, "Grandma, to be honest, the biggest reason why I want to be a queen is to save my mother, and the second is to revenge on Olivia."

"Now my mother is safe and sound, Olivia has also been punished."

"Now the Queen's seat is no longer means to me..."

The old queen said repeatedly, "Don't think nonsense! The royal family now has no heirs to the throne of direct blood relatives!"

"It's impossible for you to abdicate!"

Helena looked at the old queen and subconsciously asked, "Grandma, do you still want to be the queen again?"

The old queen immediately waved her hand and said, "No! I don't want to! Besides, there is no such thing in the world."

"Obviously, if someone was abdicated and re-entered the throne, the royal family would not have a face..."

Helena sighed and said sadly, "When will there be a suitable heir to the throne?"

The old queen said awkwardly, "It depends on you... We, Nordic royal family are not prosperous in the first place."

"You don't even have a first heir now. If you abdicate, I can only borrow an heir from other royal family..."

With that, the old queen told her with a straight face, "Helena, if you want to get rid of the bondage of the throne as soon as possible, the best way is to have a baby quickly and make him crown prince."

"When he grows up, you can abdicate."

"I..." Helena said sadly, "If Charlie wants to give me a son, I will raise him in the palace at that time, and he will inherit everything when he reaches adulthood!"

The old queen's expression was stunned.

She immediately covered her forehead and sighed, "You...are you crazy... If you are unmarried, how can the royal family explain to the people of the whole country?"

Chapter 3696

Helena said seriously, "What's the problem? As long as Charlie really wants to, I will personally make it clear to the people."

"I will honestly tell everyone that I am willing to have a child for the man I love."

"This is my freedom and no one has the right to interfere."

Speaking of this, she sighed melancholy, "The only thing I'm afraid of about this matter is that Charlie won't agree."

"If he agrees, even if I will be laughed at by the whole world, I don't care at all."

"Okay..." The old queen pressed her temples and sighed, "I think it's more realistic."

"From next year, I'll find a marriage partner of the same age in the royal families of various countries."

"No." Helena flatly refused without thinking, "I won't get married unless I marry Charlie."

The old queen asked her rhetorically, "Charlie has been married for a long time, and you have said that he has countless confidants."

"They have known him for a longer time than you. This is the same as the inheritance order of the royal family."

"Even if he divorces, you are not the first successor."

"Maybe he is ranked out of ten. In this case. You still insist that he doesn't marry. Isn't it obvious that you want to be single all your life?"

Helena said seriously, "It's okay to be single all my life. It's much better than marrying a person you don't love and giving children to a life you don't love."

The old queen said sadly, "If you don't get married, when I die, you will be the only one left in the Nordic royal family!"

"Have you ever seen such a miserable royal family..."

Helena said seriously, "Grandma, if there is no suitable heir to the royal family, then Northern Europe can completely abolish the royal family and change the constitutional monarchy to a presidential republic after my death."

"As for us, just hire ourselves. Why worry too much about what's going on the matter?"

The old queen sighed and said, "If the royal family is really forced to cancel because there is no successor, then I would rather you have a child out of marriage and have a child with Charlie!"

Helena said with a smile, "Look, Grandma, we have finally reached a consensus on this issue."

"Yes, yes..." The old queen seemed to have given up resistance and said quietly, "You're right. The question now is, how can you conceive Charlie's child?"

"If you are pregnant, you will give birth to a Eurasian hybrid, and the royal bloodline will be half damaged."

"How can you explain to the people?"

Helena said seriously, "How to conceive? I have to get a chance to see Charlie first. As for the rest, I have to wait until I am pregnant."

"Oh!" The old queen lamented, "I don't care... You can do it yourself..."

After saying that, she remembered the auction, and couldn't help muttering to herself, "I wish I could have a chance to attend the rejuvenation pills auction."

"By the way, I would also ask Charlie when he will come to Northern Europe when he is free..."

Helena shook her head helplessly and was about to talk when her mobile phone suddenly rang.

She looked down and saw that Charlie called, and immediately said excitedly, "Charlie called me!"

"Really?" The old queen was also a little excited and quickly asked, "Can you tell him about the auction?"

Helena casually replied, "Let me see what he can do with me first."

With that, she stood up, pressed the answer button, and walked to the window.

She didn't want her grandmother to hear the content of her conversation with Charlie, so she avoided it a little.

When she got through the phone, she suppressed her deep excitement and asked softly, "Mr. Wade, why did you suddenly call me?"

Charlie casually laughed and said, "Oh, it's nothing. I just saw the registration information of the rejuvenation pills auction and found that the Nordic royal family had also signed up, so I called you."

Helena said quickly, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, my grandmother operated the registration, and she didn't discuss it with me before."

Charlie smiled and said, "It's okay. I'm calling mainly to tell you that according to the normal approval process, the assets of the Nordic royal family have not reached the top two hundred."

"Yes..." Helena said awkwardly, "The Nordic royal family is not strong in financial resources."

"It is estimated that it has just met the minimum threshold for registration."

"There must be no way to enter the top two hundred."

Charlie hummed and said, "It doesn't matter if you can't get into the first two hundred."

"I have reserved a few VIP seats on the scene, and I will leave one for your grandmother at that time."

"I will ask someone to send the palace to check the invitation letter then, so that your grandmother can pay attention to checking."

Chapter 3697

Helena didn't expect that Charlie called to arrange a VIP seat for her grandmother.

She knows that with the strength of the Nordic royal family, she can't even be ranked in the top two hundred of the registration, and what qualifications she has to occupy fewer VIP seats.

Therefore, she said in horror, "Mr. Wade...I'm so embarrassed... In fact, you don't have to be so troublesome..."

Charlie on the phone smiled faintly and said seriously, "Your grandmother has helped me do a lot of publicity work. Naturally, I want to express my gratitude, but it also depends on her mood. If she is willing to come, it would be best. If she doesn't want to toss around so far, then I won't force her."

Helena said quickly, "No, no... To tell you the truth, Mr. Wade, my grandmother was still telling me about this matter. She felt that it might be difficult for our Nordic royal family to be finally selected, but she really wanted to go to the auction to gain experience and be very depressed. I believe she will be very happy after knowing this!"

Charlie laughed and said, "That's great. Tell her about this and make her happy. As for the invitation, I will send it in a few days.”

“Okay!” Helena said happily, “Thank you, Mr. Wade!”

Charlie smiled and said, “It’s all a trivial matter. Thank you.”

Helena subconsciously asked, “Mr. Wade, can I go then?”

Charlie asked in surprise, “Your identity should be sensitive, right? As you are now, you should go through diplomatic channels to other countries to participate in auctions. I’m afraid it’s not easy to operate in the process.”

Helena said in a depressed voice, “Actually, I know I can’t go... I just subconsciously want to ask...”

Charlie laughed and said, “It doesn’t matter. If this Rejuvenating Pill auction is successful and the time is ripe in the future, you can hold a one in Northern Europe, and then you can hold it jointly with the Nordic royal family. In that case, as the Nordic queen, you can attend as a distinguished guest.”

Helena wants to participate in the Rejuvenating Pill auction, not to see what’s different from the auction, mainly to see Charlie at first sight.

She didn’t know whether Charlie didn’t understand, or deliberately pretended to be stupid, and even talked about holding an auction in Northern Europe in the future.

Helplessly, she could only ask, “Mr. Wade, if you really want to hold an auction in Northern Europe, will you come in person?”

Charlie said with great certainty, “Of course, I will definitely come over in person for such a major matter.”

Helena felt better. If so, she still had a chance to meet Charlie.

So she quickly said, "Mr. Wade, that's settled. Don't forget too many nobles..."

"Don't worry." Charlie said seriously, "I will definitely fulfill this matter."

"Okay..." Helena suddenly became cheerful and said happily, "Then I'll wait for your good news in Northern Europe!"

Charlie agreed. After the two exchanged a few more greetings, Charlie said goodbye to Helena and hung up the phone.

Helena put her mobile phone on her chest and was extremely happy. She did not have the temperament of the previous beautiful queen. She was completely like a girl in love.

The old queen quickly stepped forward and asked curiously, "Helena, is there anything wrong with Charlie calling you?"

Helena said happily, "Grandma, Mr. Wade called me and told me that he had left you a VIP seat at the auction."

"Really?!" When the old queen heard this, she immediately cheered and asked her excitedly, "Mr. Wade, did he really say that?"

"Yes." Helena nodded seriously and said, "Mr. Wade said that the invitation will be sent in a few days, and then you can go to Aurous Hill for the auction, and participate as a VIP."

“Oh, by the way, Mr. Wade also said that he might come to Northern Europe in the future and jointly hold an auction of Rejuvenating Pill with our Nordic royal family!”

Chapter 3698

The old queen was immediately ecstatic and said excitedly, “That’s great, that’s really great! Even those millionaires who are worth hundreds of billions have no chance to get a VIP status. Charlie can give me a VIP, so this time our Nordic royal family will definitely make many people look at him with new eyes! If we can jointly hold an auction of Rejuvenating Pill in the future, our Nordic royal family’s reputation will soar by a level all over the world!”

With that, she couldn’t help sighing, “Oh! Mr. Wade really saves me, an old woman...”

As soon as she said it, she quickly changed her words, “No! Mr. Wade is definitely not for my face, but for yours! Helena, Mr. Wade must have you in his heart! Otherwise, how could people give us so many green lights!”

Hearing this, Helena was sweet-hearted and then seriously told the old queen, “Grandma, although Mr. Wade gave you a VIP seat, you should know that we don’t have the strength to compete for Rejuvenating Pill. At that time, you’d better make a show up. Don’t get involved in the auction of Rejuvenating Pill.”

The old queen nodded and said, “Don’t worry, I know in my heart that my little money may not be enough for the starting price. I won’t go to the auction to be ashamed at that time, so I’ll see the world and expand my contacts by the way.”

“That’s good...” Helena nodded, and then said excitedly, “It’s less than 20 days before the auction began. I’m going to prepare a gift for Mr. Wade as soon as possible. At that time, Grandma can help me bring it and give it to him!”

.....

At the same time, in the presidential suite of Shangri-La Hotel in Aurous Hill.

Michaela Joules has got the information found by Shan Elliott.

As the manager of Shangri-La Hotel in Aurous Hill, although Isaac Cameron rarely appears in public, it is inevitable to leave some video materials in Aurous Hill for so long.

What Shan Elliott found was the live photo of Isaac Cameron donating money to the Aurous Hill Red Cross on behalf of the Shangri-La Hotel in Aurous Hill.

When Michaela Joules saw Isaac Cameron's photo, she immediately confirmed that one of the two men who passed by in the lobby today was Isaac Cameron.

Michaela Joules couldn't help muttering to herself, "Shangri-La Hotel is the property of the Wade family in Eastcliff. Generally speaking, Shangri-La Hotel in every place should be the bridgehead or even the base area of the Wade family in the local area, so Isaac Cameron must be the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill..."

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules added, "The Wade family is in China, and its strength is still very strong. As the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurous Hill, Isaac Cameron's social status in Aurous Hill should be very high. Why is he so respectful to a so-called 'Master Wade'?"

Shan Elliott said, "Miss, the Eastcliff Wade family was sought revenged by the Dragon Hall in the mercenary industry some time ago. It is said that half of the family property was directly taken out to reluctantly let the Dragon Hall let them go. Recently, the status of the Wade family has been declining, which is also the main reason why the hotel business of the Wade family is so deserted. I think the 'Master Wade' you just mentioned may be Mr. Feng Shui who Isaac Cameron was sick and went to the doctor."

Michaela Joules nodded and said seriously, "When I heard the name of Master Wade, I thought so in my heart, but there was a strange thing about this matter. Why did Master Wade meet Isaac Cameron and Jasmine Moore? Combined with my previous speculation that Shangri-La Hotel is most likely the site of the Rejuvenating Pill Auction, is it the Moore family in Aurous Hill and the Eastcliff Wade family that cooperated?”

Shan Elliott agreed and said, “I think it’s very possible. Although the Moore family is very strong in Aurous Hill, their scale is only one or two hundred billion yuan. Although the Wade family was divided half of the property by Dragon Hall, its strength is also much stronger than that of the Moore family. The cooperation between the Moore family and the Wade family is beneficial to both sides. The Moore family can definitely improve their status, and the Wade family can also find their status to a certain extent.”

“Well...” Michaela Joules nodded slightly, but her willow-like eyebrows piled up cutely.

Immediately, she remembered something and said to Shan Elliott, “By the way, I heard that they also talked about a word Don Albert, but I don’t know how to write the word Don Albert in Chinese alphabet. Please help me inquire who Don Albert is!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3699-3702

Chapter 3699

Inquiring about Don Albert in Aurous Hill is like inquiring about the Xiang brothers in Hong Kong.

If you just pull someone on the street, you can also ask about four, five, six.

Therefore, Shan Elliott quickly inquired about Don Albert’s information, and immediately gave feedback to Michaela Joules, “Miss, I have already inquired about Don Albert.”

“He is the leader of the underground forces in Aurous Hill.”

“He is very famous in Aurous Hill, and he is also involved in many industries, including a restaurant called Heaven Spring Mansion, which is one of the top high-end restaurants in Aurous Hill and has a great reputation.”

Michaela Joules nodded and analyzed, “The Master Wade, and Isaac Cameron just casually sent people to Don Albert.”

“Although I don’t know who he is going to send, from the time he said this, it can naturally be seen that Don Albert should also listen to his orders.”

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules couldn’t help but sighed, “If that Master Wade is just a Feng Shui master, then it would be strange that both Isaac Cameron and Don Albert respect him so much?”

Shan Elliott said, “It’s okay, miss, you forgot how much respect the master has for the old Mr. Exeor?”

“Every time you see him, you are respectful.”

Michaela Joules said seriously, “Grandpa Orion is in a different situation.”

“Grandpa Orion is a well-known top Feng shui master in the Chinese circle, and he is highly respected!”

Moreover, his ancestors have been passed down in order for dozens of generations, let alone my grandpa, even if he is settled, when people seeing Grandpa Orion, they are also respectful to him.”

After speaking, she said again, “But that Master Wade, who seems to be in his twenties, does not come from a Feng shui family, how can he have such a big face?”

Shan Elliott shrugged, “Maybe he is young and promising.”

Speaking of this, Shan Elliott thought of something and hurriedly said, "Miss, that Master Wade, is he a member of the Wade family?"

"I thought about what you said." Michaela Joules said, "But I don't think it is very likely."

"If he is from the Wade family, Isaac Cameron shouldn't call him such a strange title as Master Wade, just like you, it is impossible to call me Master Joules without making sense."

After that, she also felt that she couldn't be so absolute, so she said in a convenient way, "Shan, you should check the information of the Wade family."

"Find out all the information of the younger generation of the Wade family and show it to me to see if it can be matched."

Shan Elliott said immediately, "Then I will do it!"

The information of the Wade family members is not easy to find, but it is not difficult for the Joules family.

Soon, Shan Elliott got all the materials of the younger generation of the Wade Family and handed it to Michaela Joules.

Michaela Joules flipped through multiple documents including Franklin Wade and Herbert Wade, and it was indeed not related to that Master Wade that she had seen, so she put the information aside and said lightly, "It seems that he is indeed not a Wade family member, it just happened to be Wade."

After a moment of silence, she frowned again and said, "I'm thinking now, will that Master Wade have anything to do with the Rejuvenation Pill, and whether the client of the Rejuvenation Pill will be him."

Shan Elliott was surprised and said, "Miss, this shouldn't be possible... that young man is only in his twenties... a man in his twenties is unlikely to be able to handle such a large plate and even put hundreds of top rich, not to mention, things like Rejuvenation pills are not like young people have."

Chapter 3700

Michaela Joules also agreed with Shan Elliott's words and nodded, "I have the same idea as yours.

"I always feel that the client behind the Rejuvenation Pill should not be a young man."

After speaking, she said again, "However, Master Wade can make Isaac Cameron and Don Albert respect him so much, and I am somewhat capable of thinking about it."

"Have you inquired about this person?"

"I already inquired." Shan Elliott hurriedly said, "The difference from Don Albert is that Don Albert's name is known to all in Aurous Hill, but Master Wade's name seems to be unknown."

"No one knows?" Michaela Joules was even more surprised, blurting out, "Isaac Cameron treats him with respect."

"But no one in Aurous Hill knows such a person?"

"It is true." Shan Elliott said seriously, "The people we consulted said that they had never heard of Master Wade's name."

In fact, Charlie has always acted very low-key.

Although many people in Aurous Hill knew his Master Wade's name, those people were basically his own.

Charlie's only public appearance was the metaphysical convention, but most of the people who came to participate in the metaphysical convention were not Aurous Hill natives.

What's more, the strength that Charlie showed that time was too tyrannical, so that those people were tight-lipped about Charlie's deeds.

As for people like Don Albert, Liam Weaver, Isaac Cameron, and Graham Quinton, if someone asks them about Charlie's deeds, they will not confide a word.

Therefore, although Aurous Hill is Charlie's home court, there are really not many people who know him and "Master Wade" in Aurous Hill.

This makes Michaela Joules even more puzzled.

Originally, he thought that Charlie should be a well-known local Feng shui master, so some local figures with a good face must give him a bit of face.

But now it seems that he has little popularity in the local area, which is really weird.

Michaela Joules frowned and said, "I always feel that this is something wrong, and that Master Wade, who is surnamed Wade, is also not right, but I won't be able to think of the problem for a while."

Shan Elliott hurriedly comforted, "Miss, don't worry too much."

"Maybe the surname Wade doesn't have any real skills, and there may be no direct contact with rejuvenation pill."

Michaela Joules said very firmly, “Shan, remember, the old ancestors said something abnormal must have a demon.”

“These words are one of the golden standards for judging problems.”

“If anything goes against common sense, we will not see if you understand, then there must be something you haven’t understood.”

“Once you understand it, you can naturally see it through.”

This is the experience Michaela Joules summed up when she was very young.

When she was a child, she watched magicians perform magic tricks.

Every magic trick seemed so wonderful and mysterious, and she couldn’t figure out the reason at all.

When you change to other children, you will directly transform this mystery into worship of magicians, thinking that magicians can really do magic.

However, Michaela Joules always believed in one point.

The reason why all magic is incomprehensible is not that the magician really knows how to do it, but that she has not yet seen the mystery.

Therefore, she asked her family to invite a number of magicians to decrypt the mystery of every magic for her on the spot.

With many magic tricks that seemed unthinkable, or even impossible to accomplish, when the mechanisms and mysteries behind them were unfolded before her eyes one by one, she immediately discovered that all the doubts and shocks disappeared at that moment.

These childhood experiences have strengthened her basic direction and logic of judging things.

The current Charlie is a magic in front of her, a magic that she has not understood the logic behind, so she can't wait to uncover the mystery behind this "magic".

Shan Elliott thought for a moment, and said, "Miss, it's really impossible."

"I can arrange for the accompanying bodyguard to quietly follow Master Wade to see if I can find anything."

"No." Michaela Joules immediately refused, "You can't take risks without knowing how many cattles the other party is."

After finishing speaking, Michaela Joules said again, "We have just arrived in Aurous Hill, and we still have nearly 20 days to go before the Rejuvenation Pill auction begins."

"We are still fighting steadily. Don't rush, let me find a way to determine what the name of Master Wade is."

Shan Elliott said sadly, "Miss, you and Master Wade are only one-on-one."

"Without letting people follow him, it might not be easy to find out who is his last name and name."

Michaela Joules nodded and said, "I have thought of this."

As she said, she smiled slightly and said, "Fortunately, there are two clues, Isaac Cameron and Don Albert."

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules said, "You go to the Heaven Spring Mansion of Don Albert, and ask him what the highest consumption is there, and then give me a month according to the highest standard, and every day at noon and night thereafter, we all go to Heaven Spring Mansion for dinner, I believe there will be gains."

"Okay!" Shan Elliott said immediately, "Don't worry, Miss, I will do it now."

Michaela Joules again said, "By the way, investigate whether there are any well-known top doctors in Aurous Hill, especially Chinese medicine!"

"I always think that Aurous Hill is an inconspicuous place."

"It's really weird to be able to come out with Rejuvenation Pill!"

Shan Elliott nodded immediately and said, "Okay miss, let me find out as soon as possible!"

Chapter 3701

Don Albert has been very leisurely recently.

After going out for a tour every day, he returns to the top floor of Heaven Spring Mansion to drink tea and listen to music, which is unrestrained and comfortable.

However, in the evening, Isaac Cameron suddenly called him and said seriously as soon as he came up,

“Don Albert, your dog farm has to prepare quickly.”

“You have to pick up the new goods tonight.”

Don Albert lay crookedly in the lounge chair and drank tea with the purple casserole handle.

Hearing this, he quickly sat up straight and asked, “Mr. Cameron, how many goods will be tonight?”

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, “If nothing unexpected happens, seven or eight.”

“If there is another door-to-door delivery, I guess it will have to break the even number!”

“I wiped...” Don Albert exclaimed, “Why are there so many...”

Isaac Cameron said helplessly, “Oh, don’t mention it. In the past two days, the agents sent by the West to inquire about Oracle Pharmaceutical have been wave after wave.”

“These seven or eight are still caught in Oracle Pharmaceutical, and dozens of them are wandering around Oracle Pharmaceutical all day long.”

“They haven’t started yet.”

With that, Isaac Cameron said again, “You must be careful about this batch of goods sent to you.”

“These people are all agents and well-trained. Don’t let them run away!”

“Run?” Don Albert smiled and immediately said, “Mr. Cameron, don’t worry, the person who can run out of my dog farm has not been born yet!”

With that, he hurriedly said, “When someone else arrives, I will first ask my men to break their legs, and then each of them will give a pure iron chain, and then put on three large locks weighing one catty, so that they can’t run!”

“Don’t do it too much.” Isaac Cameron said quickly, “The young master said that these people are sensitive in status.”

“It is definitely not appropriate and safe to let them stay to you for a long time, so he plans to send them to Syria when the right time is right.”

“These people have other uses when they arrive in Syria.”

“Ah?” Don Albert asked in surprise, “Send to Syria? These people have special identities. How can they be sent away?”

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, “Just after a while, the young master was going to send a ship to Syria to deliver grain, and by the way, he will pack and deliver all these people.”

“Commander Hamid over there now listens to the young master’s advice and has set up an engineering team specializing in digging caves.”

“The young master means to send these people to Commander Hamid as excavators, which is also to make the best use of everything.”

Hearing this, Don Albert quickly said, "Mr. Cameron, if I can't break their legs, then my security pressure is not really a little high!"

"This is not a two agent, but seven, eight or even dozens of agents. I'm afraid that my people can't defend them at all..."

With that, Don Albert said again, "Those agents in the movie, such as James Bond and Tom Cruise, are so good that nothing can defend them..."

Isaac Cameron laughed and said, "You have watched too many movies, and the real agents are also human beings."

"Do you really think they can do everything in heaven and earth?"

After saying that, Isaac Cameron said again, "The young master has said that he would let you make the strongest cage out."

"At that time, he will strip up all these guys and make sure that they don't hide any tools and lock them in."

"After closing it, you will let people weld the door directly from the outside, let them eat, drink and sleep in it."

"No matter how strong their ability is, it is impossible to escape."

"I don't believe that they can bite open your soldered cage?"

Immediately, Isaac Cameron comforted and said, "Don't be so under such psychological pressure."

“Those villains in the movie are all mentally retarded, so decent characters can’t escape anyway.”

Chapter 3702

“If you really strip them naked and weld them to death in a big iron cage, even hundreds of thousands of 007 piled up, they can’t escape!”

Hearing this, Don Albert was relieved and said with a smile, “That’s a good idea! It’s much easier for me to do it like this!”

“Master Wade ordered me to transform and upgrade the dog farm last time.”

“The new cage I have changed now uses 30mm thick threaded steel, and it is two layers inside and outside, with well-shaped superimposed arrangement.”

“If this cage is really soldered, even elephants can’t run out!”

“That’s good.” Isaac Cameron quickly asked him, “Where are you?”

Don Albert said, “I’m in Heaven Spring Mansion. I’m rushing to the dog farm!”

“Okay!” Isaac Cameron said quickly, “Then I’ll go there too. See you at the dog farm.”

“Okay!”

Don Albert hung up Isaac Cameron’s call, and immediately stood up, took the car key and was ready to go to the dog farm.

At this time, the manager of Heaven Spring Mansion rushed up and said pantingly, “Master, downstairs... There is a big customer downstairs!”

Don Albert frowned and asked, “What big customer?”

The manager said quickly, “Someone wants to pack our diamond box for a month!”

“What...” Don Albert asked in surprise, “Who would come to Heaven Spring Mansion to eat for a month. Are they sick?”

The manager was also very puzzled and said, “I don’t understand. When the person came, she asked our most expensive stall.”

“I quoted her a 200,000 yuan price for the diamond box without drinks. It’s fixed for a month, and it’s two meals at noon and evening. The co-author is sixty meals! Twelve million!”

Don Albert frowned, “Is it crazy? Isn’t it fooling you on purpose?”

“No...” The manager said hurriedly, “That girl is d*mn good, I said if it is true, I will give her a discount, and they will directly call our Heaven Spring Mansion’s collection account on the spot.”

“But she said to let us raise the grade of the dishes again and offer fifteen million...”

After that, the manager said with a gratifying expression, “Master, this is 15 million! Since the opening of our Heaven Spring Mansion, I have never received such a large order!”

Don Albert immediately said angrily, “Who the f*ck asked you to collect the money?”

“I usually have to entertain Master Wade in this diamond box.”

“You are the manager here. You don’t know anything about it?”

Only then did the manager realize that he had done something wrong and said with great shame, “I’m sorry master...”

“I just wanted to talk about a big order and forgot about you want to entertain Master Wade... I’ll go down and tell her and ask the finance department to return the same way.”

Don Albert snorted coldly and blurted out, “Remember, from now on, the diamond box will only be reserved for Master Wade.”

“If Master Wade doesn’t come, it will always be empty for me.”

“No matter how much money others give, you can’t use it.”

“Do you understand?”

The manager immediately nodded in horror and said, “I know, master! Don’t worry, there will be no next time!”

Don Albert’s expression eased a little. He said coldly, “I have something to go out. Get things done quickly.”

With that, he pushed the door directly and took the elevator downstairs.

When Don Albert left Heaven Spring Mansion, he happened to pass by the front desk and saw a woman in professional clothes standing next to the front desk.

Thinking of what the manager had just said, he subconsciously looked at the other party more.

And this woman is Michaela Joules' personal assistant, Shan Elliott.

Shan Elliott also saw Don Albert at this time.

Because she had just checked Don Albert's information, she recognized this middle-aged man around fifty years old, wearing Tang suit and a big bald head.

At this time, the receptionist said respectfully, "Master, are you going out?"

Don Albert hummed and nodded, looking at Shan Elliott and felt that the woman looked at her eyes a little strange.

However, Don Albert didn't think much about it.

After all, time was in a hurry and Isaac Cameron was still waiting for him, so he went straight out of Heaven Spring Mansion, got on the car and went straight to the dog farm.

At this time, the manager of Heaven Spring Mansion also ran down the stairs and came directly to Shan Elliott.

He said apologetically, "Miss, our boss said that the diamond box won't accept reservations, so I'll ask the finance department to return the money to you!"

Shan Elliott asked in surprise, "Why? Why don't you agree with me when you open the door to do business and I pay you a month's fee in one go?"

The manager said helplessly, "This is what our boss means. I'm really sorry!"

Shan Elliott asked rhetorically, "Do you think there is not enough money? If it really doesn't work, I can add more for you!"

The manager hurriedly said, "Miss, it's not a matter of money. It's the rule set by our boss not to accept reservations in the diamond box, and I can't help it."

Shan Elliott was a little angry and asked, "Then can I book individual boxes?"

"Don't you have any gold boxes?"

Hearing this, the manager quickly said, "That's no problem!"

Shan Elliott could only say angrily, "Okay! Then I'll book a gold box!"

"You don't have to refund the money, just prepare meals for us at the level of the diamond box!"
