Chapter 846 Bourne frowned.

His energy that was about to peak had been interrupted!

Initially, his idea was to use his partial Super-God energy to suppress Mason and quickly end the battle.

He would not give Mason any chance to resist at all.

Even if he was a super strong partial Super-God, he was still someone from centuries ago.

He was nearly two hundred years old before he fell asleep.

Now, he had not recovered to his peak yet.

He did not want to fight a war of attrition with Mason.

Naturally he could not afford to do so.

Mason was fighting with his life, and so was he.

Unless he broke through the realm again and injected new energy into his body, his life would soon reach its limit.

The loud explosion attracted the attention of everyone around Dark Cape Peak. They were all looking in the direction of the sound.

They then saw a bright spot that looked like a shooting star flying towards Dark Cape Peak at lightning speed from the direction of Somerland.

A sudden accident temporarily interrupted Mason and Bourne's battle, so they also wanted to see what was happening

David was very anxious on the way.

He was afraid that Mason would have already been killed by the time he arrived.

Not only would the Somerlanders not forgive him, but he would also not forgive himself.

Hence, he used his partial Super -God's extreme speed throughout the entire journey, and at the same time, he wrapped himself with materialized mind power, forming a protective shield around the body. This would prevent his body from rubbing directly against the air.

Otherwise, at this extreme speed, the high temperature caused by friction with air molecules would burn all his clothes instantly.

However, the materialized mind power and the friction of the air would also generate an extremely high temperature. It made David feel like he was being wrapped in a fireball at that moment.

In addition to the extreme speed, he now looked like a shooting star.

'I'm here!

David saw the scene on Dark Cape Peak from a distance.

His sight, smell, and hearing were all very powerful when he was in this realm.

When he saw Mason and a thin old man standing face to face, David's heart tightened.

If the opponent acted now, he would be unable to stop him in time.

He gritted his teeth.

'I'm going all out!' David took a deep breath.

The strength in his whole body skyrocketed to the extremes.

His speed also increased a lot.

However, this would not last long. Once he exhaled , his speed would decrease quickly.

Boom!

After David's speed increased, the sound of the explosion also became louder. It caused the hearts of everyone around Dark Cape Peak to skip a beat.

'W-What the hell was that?

'A meteor? 'Or a meteorite?

'And it seems to be aiming for Dark Cape Peak.'

Everyone began to become alert.

If a meteor hit them, they would be in huge trouble. The aftermath of this impact was no worse than the damage from a super-peak God Ranker. Bourne narrowed his eyes and watched the thing that was rushing toward him.

He and David were the only two powerful partial Super Gods on the planet.

Therefore, his eyesight was naturally not bad.

As David got closer to them, Bourne saw what it was.

It was a flaming fireball and inside the fireball was... a person?

Chapter 847

It was a man in a silver mask.

A man with a silver mask?'

This seemed familiar.

Suddenly, Bourne shuddered.

'Is it Somerland's Silver Face?

'Is that person Silver Face, who once seriously injured Marlon?'

After that, Bourne was a little puzzled.

According to Marlon's description, even though Silver Face was stronger than Marlon, he was just a peak God Ranker.

'Can a peak God Ranker have such a speed?

'Impossible!

Bourne's mind was filled with confusion.

At this time, many helicopters turned their cameras and directed them toward the sound.

What appeared in the eyes of tens of billions of people around the world was a meteor flying rapidly. This accident also made Julia, who was already crying in front of the television, stop crying temporarily.

Her great-grandpa was just about to be killed by the enemy.

Although Julia did not think this accident could save her great-grandpa, she would have more hope if he could live a little longer.

At this time, she was clasping her hands together and praying in her heart. 'I hope there will be a miracle to help Great-grandpa survive this catastrophe safely.'

David again appeared in Julia's mind. The man who surprised her from the moment he appeared.

With powerful medical skills, her great-grandpa, who was already on the brink of death, was rescued.

Unfortunately, this time he was powerless.

She knew it was impossible, but at this moment, Julia still hoped that David could suddenly appear and save her great-grandpa.

Countless Somerlanders watching the broadcast all let out sighs of relief.

Once Mason died, Somerland would be doomed. This was something that none of the Somerlanders wanted to see. Selena and Celia were also watching the live broadcast. When they saw a meteor rushing towards Dark Cape, Selena was stunned. Just now, when David left, she also saw a meteor flying over Capital City, and the sound was the same as what was playing on the television. Although she struggled to believe it, that was the fact. David was the meteor. As for how he did it, Selena had no idea because it was entirely beyond her imagination. There has never been such an incident in the historical records of the King family for thousands of years. A person could turn into a meteor and cross more than half of Somerland in such a short period. She could not wrap her head around this. This was incomprehensible and unimaginable! She thought she was the only one who knew David's true strength, but in the end, she was also deceived by David. Furthermore, this godlike character had been like a stay-at-home husband for them over the past few days. He cooked for them and ferried them to and from school. Selena felt like she could feel proud for a lifetime. Of course, the proudest should be Celia. How was this girl so lucky? After getting along these days, Selena could see it. David's love for Celia was set deep into his bones. She would be lying if she said she was not jealous. Celia also turned her head to look at Selena this time. Then, she asked with a slight stutter, "Miss Selena, i-is that..." Selena nodded wryly and said, "That should be David." "H-How did he do it? Can martial artists be so powerful?" Celia continued to ask with wide eyes. "I don't know either because this is completely beyond my imagination. Ordinary martial artists can't do this, but David can because he is a god-like character who God sent to save the world, Celia. To be honest, I really envy you." "Miss Selena, you don't have to envy me, because David will belong to both of us in the future." "Yeah, thank you, Celia." David was such a godlike character, so who would not want to be his woman? He could cook, and he could also fight on the battlefield.

Chapter 848

Boom!

The gas explosion also got louder as David got closer to Dark Cape Peak.

At this moment, tens of billions of people stared at this sudden meteor.

'It's coming!

Bourne growled inwardly.

He had adjusted his body to be in the best possible position.

He knew that the other party did not come in peace.

When he saw that it was Silver Face, he started preparing.

Woosh! A flaming figure descended in an arc from several thousand meters away and charged directly at Bourne.

It was incredibly fast and dazzling to the eyes.

Boom!

Boom!

Then, one after the other, one loud followed by one significantly softer collision sound resounded through Dark Cape Peak like thunder. Then, it spread across all of Dark Cape.

The first one was the sound of David and Bourne colliding.

Due to the strong momentum generated by David's extreme speed, this hit could be said to be David's most substantial blow so far.

It was also the most significant blow that he could deal in his current realm.

Bourne, the peerless powerhouse who had reached partial Super-God rank four hundred years ago, was blasted by David into a small mountain opposite.

The second sound was the sound of Bourne hitting the mountain.

The small mountain peak was knocked down like it had been cut off.

The impact was so strong.

The collision's strong shockwave made people feel like they were in a Category 12 hurricane. The dozens of heavy-duty helicopters that were close to them were directly overturned before crashing to the ground.

Continuous explosions could be heard.

However, this sound was much softer than the sound of the collision just now.

Even Mason, the supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank, was pushed hundreds of meters away by the aftermath before finally stopping.

His eyes were full of shock, let alone the others.

However, since they were far away, they did not feel it as intensely as Mason did.

Meanwhile, the ground was a mess.

Countless giant trees swayed to and fro as if they were experiencing a natural disaster.

When everyone opened their eyes, they saw a figure standing silently in the air.

Mason had retreated to the top of Dark Cape Peak.

Bourne, on the other hand, was buried under the collapsed peak. Everyone on the scene, as well as the tens of billions of people watching the live broadcast, watched this scene in shock.

'That meteor just now was actually a person?' When they saw this figure wearing a silver mask on his face, countless people from the forces shuddered. 'Is that Silver Face from Somerland?'

Not long ago, Silver Face barged into the Mosley family alone.

Silver Face destroying the Mosley family's ancestral home and seriously injuring Marlon had caused a stir in the upper circles of the world.

Who did not know that Somerland now had another supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank?

"Grandmaster!"

"Grandmaster!"

At this time, the people of the Chris family finally reacted, and they quickly flew over to the collapsed mountain.

"Those who dare to cross Somerland shall be punished!"

David stood in the air like a god, and when his resonating voice entered everyone's ears, it made them want to worship him.

At this moment, Mason and the people behind him were excited.

All the Somerlanders watching the live broadcast were thrilled.

Julia, Celia, and Selena were all excited.

Meanwhile, Mason was in tears.

The strength that David just showed made him feel like an ant.

If that blow had been meant for him, then he would definitely have died.

David had broken through.

He had surpassed peak God Rank and reached another level.

Somerland was also safe.

As Julia looked at the figure, tears welled up in her eyes once again.

She knew that a miracle had happened once again, and the person who created this miracle was still the man that occupied her heart.

I'm A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang Chapter 849

Chapter 849 However, this time, his place in her heart had expanded once again. She would never forget this.

Celia looked at the god-like figure on the television with eyes full of stars. That was her man.

The man who was with her last night.

It was so admirable, and she was so proud.

Selena also stared at the figure.

'Not surprisingly, it's him. 'But... he's only twenty-two!

'How did he do it?

'It's really... It's incredible.

'He's such a dazzling man.

'There should be no woman who can resist him.'

The whole of Somerland was drowning in a sea of cheers.

Everyone watching in the plaza began to dance.

They did not know who the man with the silver mask was.

But the sentence 'Those who dare to cross Somerland shall be punished ,' was enough for them. It proved that the masked man who suddenly appeared was from Somerland.

Some people were happy, while some people were sad.

Those who are hostile to Somerland almost had a heart attack when they saw this scene.

The Haran family was one of them.

After David said this one sentence , he did not continue .

He was waiting for Bourne.

A partial Super-God would not die so easily.

Indeed, a few moments later...

Boom! Powerful energy suddenly erupted from under the collapsed mountain. A thin figure emerged from under the mountain peak. In an instant, he reached David, but David was already prepared.

Boom!

The two collided again.

The loud crashing sound once again penetrated everyone's ears.

Both of them were pushed back by the force of the shock.

However, David only retreated a few dozen meters.

Bourne, on the other hand, retreated hundreds of meters backward.

A simple fight showed everyone who had the upper hand.

Everyone at the scene and the tens of billions watching the live broadcast stared nervously at the battle between the two.

Until now, they could probably figure out what was going on.

This battle would determine the state of the world.

If Bourne won, then with no doubt, the whole world would be dominated by the Chris family starting from today onward.

Judging from the authoritarian attitude of the Chris family, those who obeyed them would prosper, and those who opposed them would perish. Everyone had to view them as their master. On the other hand, if the masked man won, Somerland would become the strongest force in the world. Judging from Somerland's past behavior, they were not as authoritarian and ambitious as the Chris family. Therefore, they would not view everyone else as slaves like the Chris family would. Therefore, most of them hoped the masked man could win. After Bourne staggered a few hundred meters backward, he stopped in the air. At this moment, his clothes were tattered, and his hair was messy. He looked like a beggar. There was blood flowing out of the corner of his lips too. David's blow just now inflicted colossal damage on him. If a peak God Ranker took this blow, they would definitely die. After two collisions, Bourne knew he was not Silver Face's opponent. The opponent had definitely broken through peak God Rank and reached partial Super-God rank. Perhaps his peak, Bourne could still fight Silver Face. Unfortunately, he had not fully recovered yet, so he could not continue to confront Silver Face head-on. Otherwise, his body that had just recovered slightly would soon be exhausted again. His life expectancy would also decrease sharply. This was a price he could not bear. He had slept for hundreds of years and finally woken up, so he did not want to die without doing anything.

I'm A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang Chapter 850

Chapter 850 David was hovering in the air.

After just these two short fights, he knew it was just as he thought. This grandmaster of the Chris family had not recovered to his peak. The body also needed energy to sleep for hundreds of years. He could not maintain his peak before falling asleep. Meanwhile, looking at Bourne's appearance, he had not been young before he fell asleep. Of course, if David did not break through to partial Super God rank, he would definitely not be his opponent. On the other hand, since he was, everything was different now. Even if the other party had been in his peak, David would not be afraid, let alone right now when he was not. "I didn't expect a partial Super-God in Somerland. We, the Chris family, were reckless. I apologize to you, but Silver Face, you can't blame this all on me. If you showed this strength earlier, this never would have happened," Bourne said. He did not want to keep fighting David.

However, as a partial Super-God, even if he was not David's opponent, he could not show that he was weak.

Tens of billions of people around the world were watching the live broadcasts.

Thus, he could not afford to lose to this man.

Originally, he wanted to show his strength to the people worldwide so the Chris family could integrate the global forces in the future.

Unexpectedly, he shot himself in the foot instead and helped the reputation of Somerland.

Bourne was forced to suffer in silence.

"Are you saying that it's my fault? Old man, I think you've been sleeping for too long and your brain has stopped working," David sneered.

At this moment, he was furious and had yet to vent it.

Hence, naturally, he would not be polite to Bourne.

Bourne was also a little unhappy when he heard what Silver Face said.

They were in the same realm.

Furthermore, he had already apologized, yet Silver Face still said this in front of people worldwide. How disrespectful!

"Silver Face, I have already apologized to you and given you enough respect. I hope we can just get over this matter. After all, we are the only two partial Super-Gods on Earth. We should stop fighting and work together. We should resist the catastrophe together. I hope you will focus on the overall situation.

"Give me respect? No need! If I am still in peak God Rank, what would have become of Somerland? You know better than me. When you attacked Somerland, we already became enemies, and there is no possibility of reconciliation. As for the overall situation, don't speak of me so highly. I won't f*cking buy it," David cursed sarcastically.

"You... Silver Face, don't go over the line! Continuing to fight will not benefit either of us. In the end, both sides will lose. Now that the catastrophe is imminent, you must consider whether you can afford such consequences. Don't kill everyone just because you want to vent," Bourne said furiously.

He was a few hundred years old and was scolded by Silver Face, who was obviously much younger than him, in front of tens of billions of people around the world.

How would he show his face again in the future?

However, he still tried his best to hold himself back.

Continuing to fight would not be good for him.

It would be best if he could talk Silver Face down.

"I told you not to speak so highly of me. Are you deaf? You old fart, how dare you take action against Somerland? If I were one step late today, Old Master Stefani may have died. Who gave you the courage to attack Somerland? If you think you have lived for too long, I can send you to hell. And as for dealing with the catastrophe, I can handle it without you," David ignored the other party and continued to curse.

"Silver Face, don't be dissatisfied with small gains. Do you really think I'm afraid of you? Do you think you're invincible just because you attacked me and got the upper hand?" Bourne said gloomily.

David insulted him repeatedly and he started to get angry.

Before he fell asleep, he had lived for nearly two hundred years, during which no one had ever dared to scold him like this.

“If you’re not afraid, then let’s continue to fight. Let’s see if I can kill you, you old fart!”

After David finished scolding, he charged directly at Bourne.

He did not give Bourne a chance to continue talking.

Bourne was furious to see that David was not respecting him at all.

Since he could not talk David down, then they should just fight. He also understood that submission would only make Silver Face more savage.

He had slept for hundreds of years.

Now, these people had forgotten the fear of being dominated by Bourne during that era.

The battle between two peerless powerhouses surpassing peak God Rank was not easy to come by.

So far, this was the first.
