Chapter 1471

Now that a decision has been made, Celeste did not hesitate anymore.

She said to Eira, "Master, my alluring body has been activated."

When Eira heard this, the cold light in her eyes became piercing.

However, she still did not speak.

However, the anger in her heart had begun to accumulate, and it might have exploded at any time.

Seeing that her teacher did not speak, Celeste continued, "Master, I'm still confused as to exactly how my alluring body activated. In truth, I still haven't figured it out yet."

"What do you mean?"

Eira spat out those four words.

"When I was carrying out the task of a Universe Enforcer, I was suddenly pulled into a fantasy, and then..."

Celeste began to talk about what happened to her.

Basically, she was retelling the first time David had intercourse with her.

However, she left David out.

She replaced him with a stranger who she did not know and had never met in reality.

After Celeste finished speaking, Eira was lost in thought.

'According to Red, she should have entered a fantasy.'

'Can fantasies also activate the alluring body?'

Eira was not sure because there were too few alluring bodies in the universe and there was no record of them in history.

As soon as Eira stretched out her hand, Celeste's hand automatically lifted and fell into hers.

Celeste had no resistance in front of her teacher.

Of course, even if she did, it would be useless.

Their difference in strength was too great.

Eira held Celeste's hand, frowning slightly after a while.

'Looks like Red is telling the truth.

'Her alluring body was activated in a fantasy because her body is still untouched.

'It's impossible for her to fake this.

'Moreover, there is a unique energy suppressed in Red's body, which should be the desire generated after her body was activated.'

They had always thought that only by having sex with a man could they activate the alluring body.

Eira did not expect it to be activated in fantasy.

In any case, her alluring body was indeed activated.

Therefore, their plan was disrupted.

However, it was not Red's fault, and Eira could not blame her for anything.

After knowing the truth of the matter, the anger in Eira's heart was still not extinguished.

The four sisters had been preparing for so many years, and they had reached the final stage. When they were about to succeed, this accident occurred.

If Eira could not direct her anger at Red, she could only find the culprit: the man who activated Red's alluring body in the fantasy.

Eira had to find him and kill him.

"Red, where did you get pulled into the fantasy? And who is that man?" Eira asked, suppressing the anger in her heart.

"Master, I know where it happened. I will never forget that place in my life, but I don't know who the other party is. I was controlled by the other party from the beginning to the end. I don't even have the power to resist, so I couldn't see his face," Celeste shook her head and said bitterly.

Eira struggled to believe this.

'What's the use of not seeing the other person's face, but only remembering the location?'

Even if they rushed over now, the man would have been gone.

'If he's able to easily control Red in the fantasy, there is no doubt that the opponent's mind power is very strong.'

Eira had some doubts. 'Could it be a partial Saint from the Star Kingdom or even a Saint? The other party must have been spying on Red for a long time.'

Chapter 1472

He took advantage of the situation and acted when Red went out to perform a mission this time.

As for why he did not directly do it, it must be because he was afraid of leaving evidence and facing the retaliation of the Iridescent Sect in the future.

The more she thought about it, the more Eira felt that this was very possible.

Otherwise, how could it be possible for Celeste to meet a partial Saint or above in a mid or low-level civilization?

However, the current situation was making a Saint like Eira somewhat uncomfortable.

Her plans that she had prepared for many years would be destroyed.

The key was that they still had not found the instigator.

Therefore, there was no place for her to vent her anger.

"Okay, I get it. Red, you must be tired, so you should take a good rest," Eira said in a weary tone.

Celeste could see that her teacher was not in a good mood, but she still asked, "Master, my body is suppressing a very strong desire now, can it be resolved?"

"We need to slowly study this after we go back. There are too few alluring bodies in the universe, and there is no experience left by your predecessors. Therefore, we need to explore this matter ourselves. Okay, let's talk about it when we go back. I will leave now."

Eira turned around after finishing speaking, she was about to tear apart the four-dimensional space and leave.

She had to go back and tell the other three sisters the news so that they could discuss what to do next.

At this moment, Celeste suddenly stopped her and said, "Master, wait!"

"Is there anything else?" Eira turned around and asked.

"Yes! Master, when I was on a mission, I found a woman with the same physique as mine in a low-level civilization, and now I have taken her as my disciple," Celeste said.

Eira was a little unimpressed at first, but after she thought about it, 'A woman with the same physique as

Red?

'Isn't that... an alluring body?'

"What did you say? You found another alluring body?" Eira asked with a slightly nervous tone.

"Yes, Master!" Celeste replied affirmatively.

"Is it still intact, or has it been activated?"

"It's still intact."

"Where is she now?"

"She's in another room."

"Call her over and let me have a look."

"Okay! Master!"

After she heard Celeste say that she found another alluring body, Eira's spirits were immediately lifted.

Although Red's alluring body was activated, if they could find another intact alluring body, their plan could continue.

Even if the other party's current strength was low, as long as it was still intact, her strength would rise quickly with the help of the abundant resources from the Iridescent Sect and the guidance of the four Saints.

She could even improve faster than Red.

After all, they already had the experience.

Eira and her sisters had planned for so many years, so they could wait a little longer.

Lorraine was in her room concentrating on cultivation with her eyes closed.

Suddenly, she heard the voice of her master Celeste in her ear.

"Lori, come to my room right away, someone wants to see you."

"Yes, Master," Lorraine replied, opening her eyes.

Although she was doubtful about who would want to see her, Lorraine did not ask about it.

She should not ask something that she had no right to know.

This was the standard she set for herself.

She would know who wanted to see her when she was there..

The only thing she was certain was that this person was definitely not someone she had met on the enormous tortoise.

Moreover, the person must also have a high status.

Lorraine felt that her master might be trying to introduce a big shot to her.

After speaking, she got up, tidied her clothes, and then went to Master Celeste's room.

Chapter 1473

Knock knock knock!

Lorraine walked to her master Celeste's room and knocked on the door.

Soon Celeste's voice came from inside.

"Come in!"

Lorraine pushed the door open and went in.

In the red room, there was an older woman beside her master Celeste.

Lorraine had never met this old woman before.

'Who is that person?

'When did she come here?

'She must be the one who wanted to see me.'

Lorraine started speculating when she saw how respectful her master was in front of this old woman.

'This person must have a very scary status.'

From the moment she entered the door, Lorraine noticed that the old woman had been staring at her.

She seemed as if she was trying to see through Lorraine.

Lorraine also felt a little uncomfortable under such an aggressive stare.

Back then, only men would look at her like this.

This time it was an old woman.

Lorraine recomposed herself, walked up to Celeste and Eira, and bowed to them respectively.

Then, she greeted respectfully, "Greetings, Master. Greetings, Senior."

Throughout the whole process, Eira kept her gaze on Lorraine.

Her expression changed like dark clouds that were dissipating, turning from dark to bright.

She was so gloomy when she just found out that Celeste's alluring body was activated, but now she finally revealed a smile.

Eira could tell from the energy emanating from Lorraine's body and her eyes.

Thus, she could already roughly understand Lorraine's physical condition.

'Just as Red said, this is indeed an intact alluring body.

'But I still need further confirmation on the specific situation.

'However, it's pretty much confirmed.'

This delighted Eira.

'I didn't expect this at all.

'Originally, I thought that we have to change our plans since Red's alluring body was activated.

'After all, it is too difficult to find another alluring body in the universe.

'Instead of waiting endlessly, we might as well discuss changing the plan.

'Unexpectedly, Red brought back another alluring body that is completely intact.

'This is really a pleasant surprise.

'Although her strength is still very low, she will be talented because of her body.

'As long as we spend a little energy and some resources to cultivate her well, it won't take too long for her to catch up.

'She might even overtake Red.'

"Lori, let me introduce you, this is my master, Eira, and she is also one of the four reputable elders in the Iridescent Sect," Celeste pointed to the old woman and introduced her.

Lorraine was taken aback when she heard that.

Lorraine looked at this ordinary old woman in disbelief. She did not expect that this woman would be her master's master.

Lorraine had already seen how powerful Master Celeste was.

When they were in Beast Galaxy, her voice could scare dozens of Eternals into kneeling and begging for mercy.
