

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3522-“I understand. Our family’s fame comes with its own challenges,” the old lady said, patting the back of Camryn’s hand with empathy.

Camryn smiled and replied, “Grandma, I was talking about the past. Now I feel no pressure or inferiority complex. Before, I thought I was lucky that Callum chose me. Now, I believe I have qualities that made you notice me and match me with Callum. You merely set a goal for Callum. His decision to pursue me, get to know me, and develop feelings for me was entirely his own. Over the past year, I’ve come to trust in his genuine love for me.

So, I regained my confidence. Not only because I can see again, but also because I believe I am worthy of Callum. Yes, there is still a significant gap between us, starting with academic qualifications. I fell into darkness at sixteen for ten years, unable to complete high school, let alone attend college. But I won’t stop here. After the New Year, I plan to enroll in further studies. With hard work, I can earn a university degree.”

Camryn paused and continued, “To wear the crown, we must bear its weight. Since I chose to marry Callum, I must be prepared to face all slander and pressure. I can handle it.

Regarding children, Callum understands my physical condition. He said we should spend two years together before rushing to have a baby, even though he wants children. Since he is willing to wait, I will take my medication and adjust my body accordingly.

Besides, having children is a matter between my husband and me. It has nothing to do with outsiders. I’m not having children for them, and they won’t help raise them. Why should I care about what others say? As long as Callum is willing to wait, he is my husband and will spend his life with me. If he doesn’t mind, why should I?”

Camryn believed she had a stronger ability to withstand pressure than Serenity because she had been blind for ten years and faced more slander than Serenity.

Zachary was strong and domineering enough to protect Serenity. Although there were many slanders, few reached Serenity’s ears.

Even Tania's family was anxious. The old lady of the Reading family gave Tania a prescription for infertility. With Zachary around, the Reading family dared not say a word to Serenity.

Even Tania smiled and was cautious in front of Serenity, fearing to add pressure for her to have a baby.

Serenity survived. Now she is pregnant and enjoying the status of a national treasure in the York family. She will wait until the clouds clear and the moon appears.

Camryn believed she could wait for the clouds to clear and the moon to appear in two or three years.

The old lady looked at Camryn with both love and appreciation. Camryn was indeed the granddaughter-in-law she had chosen.

She said lovingly, "Camryn, I'm very happy and relieved that you think this way. You are right to think like this. You don't have to care what others say. As long as Callum has no objections, you can have children whenever you want. Even though I'm old, there are still people who slander me behind my back, saying I'm overbearing and authoritarian, controlling my grandchildren's marriages and not giving them the right to freely choose their own spouses."