

Married At First Sight Chapter 3625

Married At First Sight Chapter 3625 – Clarissa and Mr. Dunn returned to the company in the evening.

Most of the employees at Farrell Group were still working overtime.

Many people intentionally worked slowly, hoping to stay late to see if Audrey and Mr. Dunn would return. If they did, it would mean the hidden gun incident was a setup and not true. Alternatively, it could mean the police didn't find the gun.

Marco and his two brothers were the most anxious. However, they remained powerless until the secretary informed them that Clarissa and Mr. Dunn had returned.

The three brothers exchanged glances and breathed a sigh of relief.

Noel said, "I knew this had to be a setup. I've been my mother's son for decades and never seen a gun, except for the toy guns and water guns she bought me."

Marco and Sage laughed.

Marco had also never seen Clarissa or Mr. Dunn hide any guns.

The three brothers hurried downstairs to greet Clarissa.

Clarissa walked into the office building with Mr. Dunn, surrounded by bodyguards, as if nothing had happened.

Seeing her sons, she stopped and said, "If nothing's wrong, go home after work. I haven't had dinner yet, so I'll go with Mr. Dunn. I came back so you wouldn't worry."

She added, "This was Audrey's doing. The police turned Mr. Dunn's house upside down but found nothing."

Clarissa sneered, "Now it's Audrey's turn to be uncomfortable."

Since the hidden gun wasn't found, let's see how Audrey handles this.

Marco said, "Mom, it's good we've sorted this out. You and Mr. Dunn should go to dinner. Leave the company matters to us."

Clarissa nodded, instructing her sons to handle a few documents for her. Then she left the company with Mr. Dunn, surrounded by bodyguards.

Meanwhile, at the Queen family's house, Hayden received a call and told Kevin, "Let Brother Zack and the others know the police didn't find any guns at Dunn's place."

Lilian, sitting next to Hayden, said, “Mr. Dakota is out.”

Dakota was Sariyah’s master, a famous thief from decades ago.

Sariyah remarked, “My master went out without telling me.”

She could guess why.

Lilian suggested, “You should go too. It’s late, dark, and the perfect time to visit Dunn’s house. Before you go, ask Young Master Zack’s bodyguard Jim for help. He’s familiar with Jensburg and Dunn’s house layout since he’s visited at night. He can draw you a map so you can figure out where they might hide the guns. They wouldn’t move them out of the Dunn family property.”

“It’s tough to find those hidden guns unless you have inside help. You’ll need Miss Kathryn’s assistance. But Kathryn is Clarissa’s daughter. Even though she’s betrayed her mother before, when it comes to her mother’s life, I’m not sure she’ll turn against her for justice.”

Sariyah said, “Since they’re mother and daughter, we can’t count on her to side with us. Aunt Audrey said we’d find out by tomorrow if Clarissa plans to invite us all to the Farrell family mansion.”
