

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2117

Kuchan Temple!

After two days of self-cultivation, Shi Qingpei and Shi Yan's father and son have become the same person!

And in the past two days, they have also seen the power of the power of faith!

Many believers travel thousands of miles and come to worship devoutly. The power of faith generated by such believers is terrifying.

"Uncle, you have so many believers, but how do you distinguish these believers and which ones are the most devout?"

Shi Yan asked Jue Yuan curiously.

"It's not easy, just look at the power of faith they generate..."

Jue Yuan said, pinching the magic formula, and then waving his palm forward!

I saw that in the main hall, dozens of believers who visited the temple slowly emerged with the power of faith!

It's just that the power of faith emerging from those people at this time is not a color!

There are white, blue, and purple...

This time, Shi Yan was dumbfounded. He didn't understand how he could see the color all of a sudden!

"Do you see that the power of belief in white is the weakest, while the power in purple is the strongest..."

Jue Yuan said with a faint smile.

Shi Yan saw that among the dozens of believers, there was a girl with a beautiful face. Above her head was the power of faith in purple, which meant that the girl was the most devout believer!

Jueyuan saw Shi Yan looking at the girl, so he smiled slightly and said, "Eldest nephew, do you think that girl is very beautiful?" Shi

Yan nodded: "She really looks good..."

After living in Kuchan Temple for two days, Shi Yan felt that he hadn't touched a woman for a long time, so when he looked at the girl, there was a bit of desire in his eyes!

"Hahaha, a devout believer like this is no different from a puppet, let me show you..."

After speaking, Jueyuan waved his hand and called a disciple, and then whispered a few words!

The disciple quickly walked up to the girl and said something, and the girl followed!

When she saw Jueyuan, the girl was full of surprise, and then she burst into tears!

It was like seeing an idol, crying with excitement!

"Female benefactor, I see that you have a relationship with my Kuchan Temple, so I want to practice Joyful Zen with the female benefactor. I wonder if the female benefactor can agree!"

Jueyuan asked with a profound look.

The girl was full of excitement and nodded again and again: "Master, I am willing, I am willing..."

"Well, now you can take off your clothes..."

Jueyuan said to the girl.

The girl was not shy, she took off her clothes, Shi Yan was dumbfounded!

"Eldest nephew, go to practice..."

Jueyuan patted Shi Yan on the shoulder.

Only then did Shi Yan react, he picked up the girl and entered the room!

A few minutes later, Shi Yan came out sweating profusely, his face full of satisfaction!

"Uncle, you...you are so awesome, how did you do this?"

Shi Yan asked Jueyuan.

"Haha, believers like this, even if I let them die, they will not hesitate."

"Being able to meet me and practice with me is a blessing from their previous life..."

"This kind of girl, How much do I want, how much..."

Jue Yuan said with a proud face.

When Shi Yan heard this, he knelt down in front of Jueyuan with a thud:
"Uncle, please accept me as a disciple. I want to stay in Kuchan Temple and never go back to Bailian Pavilion."

At this moment, Shi Qingpei came over, Seeing that his son was going to stay in the Kuchan Temple, he immediately said with a cold face: "Naughty, your uncle has no time to take care of you, I am just a son like you, and Bailian Pavilion still expects you to inherit!"

"Dad, what else do you inherit? Ah, I think Bailian Pavilion is in ruins now, so how could David keep those magic tools and don't want them!"

"There are no magic tools, and what Bailian Pavilion is still inherited, waiting for you to refine so many. Dharma instruments, it's the year of the monkey and the month of the horse, I think Uncle's Kuchan Temple is pretty good." Shi Yan said to Shi Qingpei.

Chapter 2118

"This David, I will smash his body into ten thousand pieces..."

Shi Qingpei listened to Shi Yan's words, and his heart was aching.

"Junior brother, since you have recovered now, take me to David, and I will avenge you!"

Jue Yuan said casually.

"Thank you, Senior Brother..."

Shi Qingpei came to Jueyuan just for him to avenge himself.

"Let's go now..."

After Jueyuan finished speaking, he arranged the work of Xiakuchan Temple, and then followed Shi Qingpei and his son on the road of revenge!

In the secret realm!

David and the others came to Wuyadong again, and this time, Sonya and the others did not have anything unusual!

It seems that it is caused by their special physique. Now that the special physique disappears, nothing will happen!

David looked at the statues in Wuya Cave, he knew that the problem must lie with these statues!

Slowly reaching out, David injected a spiritual power into the statues. He wanted to try to see if he could know the origin of these statues!

It's a pity that no matter what David did, there was no history of these statues in the Wordless Book, which made David a little annoyed!

If the origin of this Wuya Cave and these statues cannot be found out, David will not be able to heal Sonya and the others and rescue the secret realm!

Finally, David looked at the statue with his right hand stretched forward, and covered the gods one after another towards the statue!

Even the wordless scripture shows words on this statue, which proves that this statue is different from other statues!

Since the Wordless Heavenly Book does not have the origin of these statues, David wants to use his divine sense to find out what is inside these statues!

How could it be able to withstand the devastation of David's terrifying power, but still stand upright without being damaged in the slightest!

When David's consciousness entered the statue, he was suddenly stunned, the whole person seemed to be immobilized!

"Brother David..."

"David..."

Sonya and the others saw David's strangeness and hurriedly shouted!

But David seemed to have not heard it!

David's pupils are getting bigger and bigger, and his expression is getting more and more hideous!

This frightened Sonya and the three of them!

But no matter how they shouted, David remained motionless!

After half an hour, Davidping suddenly fell to the ground, his eyes stared straight at the top of the cave, and his breath became very weak!

"Sister Yuqi, this... what's going on? What happened to Brother David?"

Seeing this, Xiao Ru was so frightened that she almost didn't cry!

"I don't know either." Sonya was also at a loss at this time!

At this time, David was stunned, but all of his divine consciousness had already entered the statue!

"This...what is this place?"

David felt that he was in a vast land, surrounded by birds and beasts, with abundant spiritual energy, even more than in the secret realm!

Just when David was confused, eight people came towards him, and these people were all wearing very simple clothes, but the three words "Wu Zong" were embroidered on the clothes!

"They... they are..."

David looked at the eight people approaching with surprise in his eyes!

Because he found that the appearance of these eight people was exactly the same as the statue in Wuya Cave!

David wanted to stop these eight people and ask them to understand, but these eight people seemed to be unable to see David at all, and walked straight past David!

Only the person holding a book in his hand frowned slightly when he passed by David and looked around!

"Elder, what are you looking at? The sect master called our Pan Zong to ask, there is no delay!"

At this time, a person with a bun on his head asked.
