

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2337

But just when the short man was about to attack David, a strong wind suddenly came!

"Roar..."

The giant lion monster actually launched an attack on the short man!

A roar and a huge breath directly scared the short man back again and again!

After the short man retreated, the giant lion slowly walked up to David, licked David with his tongue, and then opened his bloody mouth!

Seeing this, the short man knew that the giant lion wanted to eat David, but he didn't stop him, as long as he could leave ahead. Holding David's head, he could still deal with that Leng Wudao!

The short man put away his long knife and watched from a distance as the giant lion devoured David. David was dead anyway, and the short man didn't want to deal with the giant lion alone. Not the opponent of the giant lion!

"Roar..."

The giant lion roared and scratched David's body with its claws, but the sharp claws of the giant lion couldn't break David's hard body at all!

Then he began to bite with his teeth, but he still couldn't break through David's body. At this time, David was like a stone. The giant lion wanted to bite, but he couldn't bite at all!

The helpless giant lion looked at the unconscious David, and then slapped David's head with its paw!

But just when the boulder's claws were about to hit David's head, a bright light suddenly flashed on David's chest!

Immediately afterward, a golden light cluster slowly emerged from David's body!

The moment the golden light ball appeared, a vast aura began to pervade, and the giant lion backed away in fright!

The golden ball of light grew bigger and bigger, and finally began to spread out slowly, turning into a fire phoenix, circling around David!

Seeing the sudden appearance of the fire phoenix, the giant lion's eyes were full of fear, and after a terrified roar, it knelt down directly on the ground!> The giant lion lowered its head as if worshipping the fire phoenix!

The short man was shocked when he saw this scene. He didn't understand why a fire phoenix suddenly flew out of David's body.

The fire phoenix let out a cry, and finally rushed into David's forehead, and on David's forehead, a mark of the fire phoenix appeared, but soon, the mark disappeared!

After the fire phoenix disappeared, the giant lion was still lying on the ground, with eyes as docile as a house cat!

Seeing that the giant lion did not dare to eat David, the short man drew out his long knife and prepared to finish David by himself!

But when the short man stepped forward, the huge lion, which was lying motionless, suddenly rushed towards the short man with murderous eyes in his eyes!

Seeing this, the short man rolled and dodged, but the giant lion refused to let go, and continued to attack the short man desperately!

At this time, the giant lion fights against the short man, and the dragon sword fights against the tall man!

David was lying on the ground in a coma, motionless...

"Roar..."

The giant lion roared, and the short man couldn't hold back any longer. The other arm was bitten by the giant lion and tore off..

"Ah..." The

severe pain caused the short man to scream heart-piercingly!

Hearing the scream, the tall man couldn't help being distracted, and his head was instantly chopped off by the dragon sword!

And the short man was also bitten by the head of the giant lion, and swallowed his head!

One tall and one short man died, David was safe for the time being!

The dragon-slaying sword returned to David's body, and after the giant lion licked David, he picked up David in one bite, and left quickly!

But not long after the giant lion left with David in its mouth, a group of people came here after hearing the roar just now! ! !

Chapter 2338

The leader was Yao Qing, the leader of the Burning Heaven Sect. They heard the roar of monsters and the sound of fighting, so they rushed over!

You must know that the beast pills of monsters are excellent cultivation resources, and the monsters in this secret realm must be much stronger than those in the hidden world.

But when Yao Qing brought people to arrive, there were only two dead bodies on the ground!

Yao Qing observed the corpse on the ground, and then gently stroked the corpse with one hand, and the scene of the fight just now appeared in front of his eyes!

“What a powerful giant lion...” Yao Qing narrowed his eyes slightly, then lightly touched another corpse, and then his eyes flashed “This spirit sword has opened its spirit wisdom. It seems that Chen There are so many good things in Ping, let me chase them...”

Yao Qing led his men and quickly chased in the direction where the giant lion was fleeing.

Now in the entire secret realm, almost everyone is looking for David!

Some people killed David to get the resources of the Flying Star faction, some people killed David to get his treasures!

Some people found David and wanted to help him!

For a while, there were people looking for David everywhere in the secret realm, but fortunately, the secret realm was big enough, and trying to find someone in it was like looking for a needle in a haystack!

"Damn it, where did this kid go?"

Leng Wudao couldn't help feeling anxious when he saw that there had been no news from David for a long time!

"Brother Leng, this secret place is so big, it's not that simple to find someone. If you want to know where David is, ask the fortune teller to do a divination for you, and it will be..."

Tong Haiyang Said to Leng Wudao.

Leng Wudao suddenly brightened his eyes and said, "Yeah, why did I forget this guy, I'll send someone to find him..."

Leng Wudao sent someone out, but he looked for the fortune teller, and soon he was An old man with a goatee who was invited over!

This person is the No. 1 divination master in the hidden world, the divine operator. He asks about astronomy and geography. The divine operator only needs three copper coins to know!

It is also because of this that the fortune teller's divination gang can also stand in the hidden world.

"Governor Leng invited me to divination the hiding place of David, right?"

Seeing Leng Wudao, the fortune teller said straightforwardly.

"Master of Divine Fortune is indeed well-deserved of its reputation. I invite you here to calculate the location of David's hiding place. I also ask Master of Divine Fortune to help you!"

Leng Wudao said very politely to the divine fortune teller!

"Divination directions is a piece of cake, but Lord Leng should know my rules, right?"

said the fortune teller with a haughty attitude.

"Of course, I know, as long as the divine fortune teller finds out the hiding place of David, I will definitely send a large number of resources..."

Leng Wudao said hastily.

Shen Suanzi nodded, "Okay!"

After speaking, Shen Suanzi took out three copper coins, and then threw the three copper coins high into the air!

The three copper coins emitted light, suspended in mid-air, and began to spin continuously!

Leng Wudao and Tong Haiyang looked up at the copper coin, they were very curious, how could this magic operator use three copper coins to divination everything?

"Master of fortune telling, what kind of ancient gods are these three copper coins?"

Tong Haiyang couldn't help asking.

"It's just three ordinary copper coins, how come there are ancient gods." The fortune teller smiled lightly.

"But why can these three ordinary copper coins be able to divination everything in the hands of the master of fortune?"

Tong Haiyang asked.

"The heavenly secret must not be revealed, and I have nothing to say." After the magic operator finished speaking, he pinched his hands together, and the three copper coins kept changing their positions in midair!

About ten minutes later, the magic operator still didn't respond, and his hands were still pinching the formula, but Leng Wudao was a little anxious!

It had been more than ten minutes, and there was no response. He didn't know whether the magic operator was a trick to bluff people. After all, he had never asked the magic operator to help him. The reputation of the magic operator was just heard!
