

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2800 –

Chapter 2800

Hazel was very surprised: “Why didn’t he agree? Dad and mother... didn’t they all agree?”

Hazel thought that her parents and brothers agreed, and this matter would be fine.

“He thinks he won’t live long, and he doesn’t want to hurt me.” Layla replied.

“Oh...that’s it! Wasn’t the operation a success?” Hazel was puzzled, “Since it was successful, he should be able to live for a long time, right?”

Avery answered the question from her youngest daughter: “The heart transplant operation was successful, but there will be rejection after the operation. After all, it is someone else’s heart. The body’s rejection will always be there. It needs to be maintained by drugs. So no one can say how long he will live. It may live for a long time, may not live for a long time.”

Hazel understood.

This matter was really difficult.

Hazel undoubtedly desired for Layla to be with the person she liked. But Eric’s physical condition was like this.

“Sister, do you know this and still decide to be with him?” Hazel asked.

Layla nodded: “It’s like you know that the night shift is very hard, but you are still very happy to decide to do it.”

Hazel understood her sister’s mood.

She decided to do her best to help her sister.

When they got home, the car stopped in the yard.

Robert immediately came out to greet them and helped them carry their luggage.

“Robert, why didn’t you pick us up at the airport?” Layla got out of the car and asked Robert.

Robert scratched his head: “When you arrived at the airport, I was still in class!”

“Why didn’t you ask for leave? Don’t you like to ask for leave?” Of course Layla knew why Robert didn’t ask for leave to pick up the airport.

Because of the oolong incident last time, Robert had not been able to raise his head until now.

“The final exam is coming soon, so it’s not easy to ask for leave.” Robert entered the room with the luggage.

Avery glanced at Layla, and said in a low voice: “Robert already knows he was wrong, so don’t blame him for that.”

Layla knew that Robert was very honest recently, and she also knew that his brother did something like that last time. Oolong is just an accident.

“Mom, I can’t help it!” After finishing speaking, Layla followed Robert into the room with big strides.

Elliot took Avery’s hand and signaled with his eyes that she didn’t have to worry, and didn’t worry about the bickering between the siblings.

Layla and Robert had been fighting since childhood.

Even if Layla teased and ridiculed Robert, he would not feel any psychological shadow.

“Robert, what does that girl you looked for last time look like? Show me.” Layla reached out to Robert.

Robert knew that he couldn’t escape, so he was already mentally prepared.

Robert took out his mobile phone, clicked on the big sweet potato, found the woman’s account, and handed the mobile phone to Layla.

The woman in the photo looked quite harmless to human beings and animals, and had a relatively recognizable appearance. She could be regarded as a unique beauty.

Layla mainly depended on Robert’s preferences.

Robert waved his hands again and again: “No. I just look at her face and think she should be a good person...”

Layla: “Oh, when will you know the face?”

“It’s the feeling she gave me.” Of course Robert would not look at the face.

“Then why did you make a fuss when you saw her in person?” Layla asked deliberately.

Being a girl herself, Layla was aware that the majority of the attractive images on the Internet had been beautified.

“She looks quite different from the photos in person, and her dress is also different. It scares me.” Robert feels flustered now thinking about it, “Sister, I will never dare to make random appointments online again.”

Layla returned Robert’s cell phone to him: “I believe you have been cheated. If you really wanted to mess around, you wouldn’t invite someone to your house.”

Robert nodded sharply.

Layla sighed, “But it’s good to have you in our family. If everyone is too smart, it would be too boring.”

Robert: “Sister, I feel that you are scolding me.”

“Yes, you heard it.” Layla smiled and put a vegetable in her mouth, “But you don’t have to keep remembering this.”

Robert’s eyes lit up immediately.

Layla added, “Because I will help you remember it for a lifetime hahaha!”

“Sister, it’s worth it for me to make you so happy.” Robert also laughed, “You eat more meat.”

Layla: “I’m already gaining weight, and you still let me eat more meat.”

Robert: “How can you be fat? The doctor said that eating more meat and supplementing nutrition is good for your health.”

At this point, Robert thought of Eric, “Should I call Eric my brother-in-law in the future?”

Layla: “Eric didn’t agree it!”

Robert’s reaction was the same as Hazel’s before, very surprised.

“Brother, let’s go see him together this weekend!” Hazel said.

“Okay!” Robert originally wanted to visit Eric.

Eric saved his sister’s life, and Robert especially thanked him.

After dinner, Hazel quietly came to Robert’s room.

Hazel: “Brother, I want to discuss something with you.”

Robert had just finished taking a shower and was wiping his hair with a towel: “What’s the matter? It’s so mysterious.”

“My sister wants to marry Eric, but Eric doesn’t agree now. I want to help my sister.” Hazel said in her heart, “Eric’s body has not fully recovered yet, and his mind must be relatively sensitive and fragile, so we have no way to persuade him, we can only think of other ways.”

“Then what can we do to make him change his mind?” Robert sat down by the bed and began to think of a way, “If it doesn’t make sense, there seems to be no way. Let’s do it!”

“We can be more tactful.” Hazel put forward her own idea, “We can give him books.”

Robert: “What books?”

Hazel: “It’s similar to the kind of people who still work hard to live and pursue true love after being seriously injured.”

“Oh, there seem to be a lot of books of this type. No...it’s a lot of movies of this type.” Robert remembered that he seemed to have seen this type of movie, “But I can’t remember the name for a while. “

Hazel: “Brother, I’ll look for books on this topic, and you can look for movies on this topic.”

“Okay. Your method is not bad. We don’t know, but Eric must have seen the gift.” Robert was full of praise to his younger sister, “You are so smart.”

“I don’t want to see my sister sad. My sister asked me to be her bridesmaid in the future, and she wants to get married within a year.” Hazel said, “The kind of begging is an uncomfortable feeling.”

“But our method may not be effective.” Robert reminded.

“Let’s try it first! I can’t think of a better way now.” Hazel said ideally, “Maybe Eric will be able to figure it out when he gets better after a while.”

Robert: “I hope!”

weekends.

Layla took her younger siblings to Eric’s house to visit Eric.

The two elders of the Santos family knew in advance that they would come today, so they prepared sumptuous snacks and snacks, and bought vegetables in advance, planning to keep them for lunch at noon.

“Uncle Eric, thank you for saving my sister. My sister and I are very grateful to you. So I prepared some gifts for you.” Robert handed the gifts brought by himself and his sister to Eric.

Both of their gifts were wrapped in wrapping paper.

Layla had no idea that the two of them had brought gifts.

“What did you two give? It’s so beautifully wrapped in wrapping paper.” Layla asked curiously.
