

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1531

Chapter 1531

This was the second time in more than a thousand years since Nek became a Saint that he was rendered speechless.

The first time was by David.

Both times happened in one day.

When Nek became a Saint, he was invited to the Saints Association.

He also met other Saints in the Saints Association.

Both parties were very polite.

However, as he was facing the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect, it was clear that the other party was not taking him seriously.

This puzzled Nek.

Nek also learned a lot about Saints from the Saints Association.

There was a sentence engraved on the outside of the Saints Association.

'All Saints under the sky are family.'

The sky here referred to Star Kingdom.

In the eyes of the Saints Association, all Saints in Star Kingdom could be regarded as a big family.

They would all rise and fall together.

Hence, Nek also misunderstood and assumed that Saints were as easy-going as the people in the Saints Association.

He did not know that the Saints Association was actually established for the Star Kingdom, which was why it was advertised like that.

In addition to that, every Saint had their own force.

When Star Kingdom was not in crisis, everyone needed to be considerate of the force they belonged to.

Although the Simmons family had a grandmaster who was also a Saint, he had been in seclusion for tens of thousands of years, and it was rumored that he was recuperating from his injuries.

Nek had not seen him either.

The grandmaster never showed up even when he broke through to Saint Realm.

Instead, he only sent a voice message to Nek.

First, he praised Nek and then asked Nek to not be arrogant and impetuous. Furthermore, he stated that Nek needed to continue to work hard.

Star Kingdom was a very complicated place, and a Pre-Saint like him was not strong enough to gain a foothold in Star Kingdom.

Therefore, although the Simmons family had a grandmaster who was also a Saint this whole time, Nek. did not know much about Saints.

So much so that after he became Saint, he became a little arrogant.

He felt that since all Saints in Star Kingdom had joined the Saints Association and fell under unified management. Since the Universe Convention formulated by the Saints Association also stipulated that the two Saints were not allowed to fight in the Star Kingdom, he believed he could do whatever he wanted in Star Kingdom.

Therefore, even when Nek realized it was his fault the matter regarding Celeste, he still dared to come here to demand an explanation.

This was the power of Saint.

However, the appearance of the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect made him feel that things were not as simple as he thought.

He knew the grandmaster was right.

“Looks like Star Kingdom is too complex.

‘I have just entered Saint Realm. My strength is not enough, and I know too little.’”

Nek slowly let go of David's head.

He knew he could not win against the four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect because there was absolutely no chance of him beating them.

David was freed and his body fell to the ground.

He squatted on the ground, holding his head that was about to burst with both hands, and gasped for air.

Everything happened in a very short period.

It had only been a little more than ten seconds since he was caught by Nek to now.

However, in those seconds, David has gone through several life-and-death challenges.

If it were not for his powerful mind power and if he did not compress his mind power together and gather it around his head, Nek would have already crushed his skull.

Even though he managed to stop the blow, David had a splitting headache now.

There were also five deep fingerprints on his head.

This was left behind by Nek with 30% of his strength.

How could a Saint's 30% strength be so easy to resist?

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1532

Chapter 1532

Nek was about to deal with David with 80% of his strength.

In reality, it would not take that much at all.

He only needed to increase his strength to 50% and David's mind power would struggle to resist him. Upon seeing this, Celeste quickly approached David and asked worriedly, "David, how are you?"

"I'm fine! C-Celeste, don't worry," David replied through gritted teeth.

His head felt as if it was about to explode.

“Reputable Elder, I, Nek Simmons, will remember what happened today, and I will see you around.” After Nek said that, he glanced at David and Celeste and was about to leave the Iridescent Sect.

At this moment, a gust of strong wind appeared and hit Nek in the chest with lightning speed. Before Nek could react, he was hit by the strong wind, and his body directly fell to the ground.

Thud!

There was a loud thud.

Nek created a huge pit in the ground.

No one at the scene could register the sudden event.

Saint Realm was an unattainable height for people like them and Saints were also invincible existences.

They did not expect p Nek to suddenly be attacked. Moreover, he was hit.

Before the dust had time to disperse, a figure flew out of the deep pit and stood in the air with a gloomy expression.

It was Nek.

This blow did not cause any substantial damage to him, but it was a great insult.

He was a dignified Saint, but he was attacked unexpectedly.

At the same time, it also caused him to create a big pit in the ground.

“Reputable Elder, what’s the meaning of this?” Nek asked with a cold face.

At the same time, he also confirmed that the person who attacked him was at least a True Saint.

Otherwise, he would not be hit so easily.

He clearly felt it just now, but his body did not have time to react.

Having said that, it was also due to him slacking off.

If only he had been on high alert, he would have been able to dodge that blow.

“This is a small lesson for you. It is best not to do some things that you shouldn’t do even if you are a Saint. Otherwise, the consequences will not be something you, a mere Pre-Saint, can afford.”

Nek was unfamiliar with this voice.

This was not the reputable elders who just talked to him.

Nek was taken aback.

Another reputable elder of the Iridescent Sect appeared.

On the contrary, Celeste was very familiar with this voice.

The person who spoke was her teacher Eira.

“What do you mean?”

“What do I mean? Celeste is my disciple. Who allowed you to plant a mind seed on her without her consent? Do I not exist to you?” Eira asked sharply.

Celeste was excited.

She knew that Master would not ignore her.

The nearly two thousand years of relationship between them could not be faked.

“Reputable Elder, I liked Miss Celeste too much, so that’s why I made this decision. In truth, I didn’t have any malicious intentions. I hope you will forgive me,” Nek explained in a low voice.

This matter was originally his fault.

He could still talk nonsense and be a rascal when facing Nova, and Nova could not do anything to him.

Now, he was facing Eira, who was stronger than him.

Therefore, he did not dare to talk nonsense anymore and could only admit his mistake obediently.

“Hmph! Get lost! You are not allowed to step foot into the Iridescent Sect again,” Eira said.

“Yes, Reputable Elder. Goodbye!”

After Nek finished speaking, he turned around and tore a space crack before quickly getting inside and disappearing.

He did not want to be here anymore.

Who would not be afraid to face two True Saints?

After talking for so long, he could not even judge where his opponents were.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1533

Chapter 1533

The appearance of the two reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect made Nek leave in despair.

He did not even take the two seven fairies he chose.

He did not expect this matter to devolve into such a situation today.

Mainly, Nek miscalculated the attitude of the Iridescent Sect's reputable elders.

They were all Saints from the Saints Association.

They had to see each other all the time, so they should at least show Nek some respect no matter what!

However, the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect were ruthless.

The first one that came out was only verbally warned him.

However, when Celeste's teacher came out, she immediately attacked Nek, utterly shaming Nek the Saint.

In any case, Nek took note of today's matter.

If there was a chance in the future, he would definitely find somewhere to teach the other party a lesson.

However, Nek felt that his chances of winning were very slim if he were to fight the Saint Realm reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect.

Of course, it was not hopeless.

The Iridescent Sect was strong in Star Kingdom, but they were not absolute.

Furthermore, not all forces had a good relationship with the Iridescent Sect, and some had a bad relationship with them.

If he went back and planned well, he believed that he could find a solution to this.

In any case, the Saints had unlimited time.

'We'll cross that bridge when we get to it,' Nek said silently in his heart.

Then, he directly entered the six-dimensional space and rushed toward the direction of the Simmons Continent.

Pre-Saints could only tear apart the five-dimensional space at most and walk in the six-dimensional space.

After Nek left, there was a brief silence among the ruins of the Iridescent Sect's VIP Hall.

Eira and the other reputable elder did not show themselves.

Nova came to David's side.

There was a strange look in her eyes as she looked at this miracle-creating kid,

He, a beginner Ruler Ranker, managed to withstand Nek's Pre-Saint Rank attacks.

This was unprecedented.

Nova searched through the history of Star Kingdom in her mind, and there was no such young man.

Even if Nek did not use his full strength, it was still not something David, a beginner Ruler Rank, should have been able to endure.

Even she might not have survived, let alone a Ruler Ranker.

However, David was okay

Moreover, David was still alive after Nek increased his power in the second attack.

Nova felt that this young man named David had a bright future ahead of him.

As the saying goes, if you survived a catastrophe, your future must be blessed.

What David experienced was a fatal situation.

It did not matter whether he was strong or lucky.

Anyway, it took skills to be able to survive the attacks of a Saint.

Luck was also a manifestation of strength.

Sometimes, luck was even far more important than talent.

In Star Kingdom, people who were not very talented but were super lucky could still become still end up becoming overlords.

People with this kind of luck might even find precious treasures of heaven and earth while taking a casual stroll

If they entered the ruins that would surely have otherwise surely killed them, they might be able to come out of it alive with treasures while others end up dying.

This was the power of having great luck.

When clearly faced with a fatal situation, they would still be able to avert disaster and climb to the summit in the end.

Even so, such people were too rare.

In the entire known history of Star Kingdom, there were only a few of these case.

Once there was such a recognized person with great luck, all forces in Star Kingdom would surely fight for them.

However, because luck was too illusory, it could not be detected by any normal means, and it could only be inferred from previous experience.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1534

Chapter 1534

Conversely, talent was detectable

Therefore, the major forces in Star Kingdom would definitely choose people with great talents instead of betting on an illusory possibility

Nova figured that David was likely to be someone with great luck.

Otherwise, how could he have survived the attack of a Pre-Saint as a Ruler Rank?

She needed to find out David's experience so she could properly judge the specific situation.

"David, how are you felling? Do you need help?" Nova knelt and asked in concern.

This is the first time she cared about a young man so much.

"I'm fine," David shook his head and said.

Although his head was still swollen and in pain, David did not want others to help him.

Otherwise, the secret of his mind power would be exposed.

He could not expose too much of his trump cards until he was strong enough.

"David, come with me, I'll take a look for you," Celeste said.

"Okay." David did not refuse Celeste's kindness because the other party knew the secret of his mind.

power.

Furthermore, after getting along for so long, coupled with Celeste's performance when he encountered a life-and-death crisis today, it could be said that David trusted her very much.

Celeste was about to help David up so they could go to her residence and she could examine him.

She had just lifted David, but before she had time to move him, she heard a voice.

– "Red!"

Her teacher Eira was the one who spoke.

Celeste quickly pushed David to Nova's side and asked Nova to help him.

Then, she respectfully replied, "Master!"

"You caused this incident today. It not only caused huge losses to the sect, but you also offended a Saint, resulting in a potential threat to the sect. Do you know your mistake?" Eira said coldly.

Celeste was dumbfounded.

She could not figure out why her teacher would say that.

This incident was indeed caused by her, but it was not her fault.

It was all the scoundrel Nek's fault.

If he had not planted a mind seed in her, everything that followed would not have happened.

"Master, I..."

Celeste wanted to explain, but just after a few words, Eira ruthlessly interrupted her.

"I don't want to listen to explanations, and I don't want to know the process. I will only look at the results. What I see now is that the VIP Hall of the Iridescent Sect has been razed to the ground and turned into ruins. The reputation of this sect will also be severely damaged, and at the same time, you offended a Saint and planted a hidden danger for the future. All of this was caused by you."

Eira's words made Celeste feel wronged and she wanted to cry.

'I can't go back.

"I really can't go back anymore.'

Her teacher was so nice to her back then.

If someone dared to hurt her, her teacher would definitely fight back without hesitation.

Now, her teacher not only ignored her injuries, but she also blamed Celeste for the huge loss she caused to the interests of the sect.

Celeste would like to ask her teacher Eira.

"Was my alluring body really that important?"

'Am I not your disciple anymore now that I have lost it?"

Even though Celeste was stupid, she understood everything now that things had escalated to this stage.

She was normal when she left the sect, but everything changed when she came back.

The reason was because of the activation of her alluring body which caused her to turn from a genius to an ordinary person.

Therefore, her teacher no longer liked her and no longer favored her.

Now, her teacher was pinning all her hope on Lorraine.

‘Indeed.

‘All big shots are too realistic, and they have no emotions at all.’

At this moment, Celeste came to a realization and her heart went cold.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1535

Chapter 1535

“Master, it’s all my fault, and I am willing to be punished!” Celeste said blankly.

Her heart was already cold from being treated like this by someone closest to her.

“Since you have realized your mistake, I will punish you to face the wall in the ice cavern for a hundred years. Do you have any objections?”

As soon as Eira said that, other than David, everyone, including Nova the head, was shocked.

Face the wall in the ice cavern for a hundred years?’

The ice cavern was the place where the Iridescent Sect punished its traitorous disciples.

There was no light there and the extremely cold air could penetrate all defenses.

Even a peak Eternal would have trouble resisting.

Although they would not die, anyone who entered the cavern would suffer from the extreme cold.

90% of the people who entered the ice cavern would be tortured until they went insane.

Even if they did not become insane, their temperament would change drastically after they came out and they would become cold-blooded animals.

‘Elder Red didn’t betray the Iridescent Sect, so how could the reputable elder ask Elder Red to go to the ice cave for a hundred years?’

Those from the Iridescent Sect, including Nova, did not understand.

However, they did not dare to ask out loud.

In the Iridescent Sect, the words of the reputable elders were sacred.

No one dared to violate or question them.

Even Nova, the head, was no different.

Celeste froze for a moment, and then calmly replied, "Master, I have no objections."

"That's good. You should go to the ice cavern now!"

"Yes, Master!"

Celeste turned and left after speaking to head to the ice cavern to face the wall.

Before leaving, she glanced at David and Nova.

Nova understood the look in Celeste's eyes.

She nodded slightly to show that she understood.

David, on the other hand, was stunned and did not understand what was going on at all.

'It was obvious that all of this was caused by that fool Nek, so why should Celeste be blamed?

'Where is the ice cavern?

'If she faces the wall for a hundred years, wouldn't it mean she can't come out for a hundred years?

'Is this detention?'

"Nova." This was the voice of another reputable elder.

"Reputable Elder, I'm here!" Nova replied respectfully.

"I will leave the rest to you. You must supervise Nek so he restores the VIP Hall to its original state without any mistakes "

“Yes, Reputable Elder!”

“Also, you have to prepare for the ceremony in three months. This is our group of four’s first appearance after so many years of seclusion, and it is also a good time for the Iridescent Sect to show their strength. We must make the ceremony as grand and majestic as possible.”

“Don’t worry, Reputable Elder, I understand! I will definitely hold the ceremony in three months to a level of unprecedented grandeur.”

“Okay! We’ll get going then. You can contact us if you need anything.”

“Farewell, Reputable Elders!” Nova said loudly.

“Farewell, Reputable Elders!” The middle-aged attendant and the seven fairies also shouted in unison.

After the two reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect left, David was also taken to a small courtyard by Nova to live alone.

The VIP area was destroyed, so he could only stay in the common area.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1536

Chapter 1536

However, David did not care about that.

He could live anywhere.

“David, do you want me to check for you? I can help you see if Nek has left some despicable tricks on you,” Nova sat opposite David and asked.

“No, thank you, Lady Dream.” To avoid exposing his mind power, David declined politely.

Besides, he was very aware of his physical condition.

No harm was done.

However, his mind power was a little damaged after forcefully resisting Nek’s two attacks, so he needed to rest for a while.

“You’re welcome, David, since you call Elder Red by name, then you can do the same to me. Calling me Lady Dream makes me sound distant to you,” Nova said.

She did not insist on checking on David.

David should have his own trump cards and secrets if he could resist both of Nek’s attacks.

Since the other party was unwilling, then forget it.

“Lady Dream, I don’t think this is appropriate!” David hesitated.

“There’s nothing wrong with that! In Star Kingdom, power is everything, so we don’t address each other according to seniority, and my relationship with Elder Red is also very good.”

“Alright then, Nova!”

“That’s right! Young man, don’t be so restrained.”

“Nova, I want to ask you a few questions.”

“Yes!”

“Elder Red’s situation is a bit challenging, so you should stop asking because it’s useless. Even I can’t save her,” Nova shook her head and said.

“Nova, please tell me everything about Celeste then. Even if I can’t help her, I still want to know. I hope you can fulfill my request as I will be very grateful,” David stood up and bowed to Nova after saying sincerely.

David had know what was happening to Celeste and rescue her.

Anyone who wanted to stop him would die!

Even the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect were no exception.

Of course, it would not happen now, but David believed as long as he used the system reasonably, it wouldn’t be long before he would be back to rescue Celeste.

If the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect dared to stop him, he would not mind giving the other party a profound lesson.

It was just Saint Realm. For David, it was nothing more than lavish points.

According to the previous rules, as long as he had hundreds of thousands of lavish points, David could become a Saint

However, ordinary Saints did not seem to be Celeste's teacher's opponent.

If that was the case, he needed to go further.

"David, as I said, it's useless even if you know. It will only make things difficult for yourself."

"But I still want to know!" David was determined.

"Oh Why bother? David, I know you have a very good relationship with Elder Red, but the decision made by reputable elders cannot be changed by anyone, and even I, the head, can't do anything about it. If you want to see Elder Red, you can only wait for a hundred years, but I don't know if she will recognize you by then," Nova sighed.

Anyone who had been in the ice cavern for more than ten years would either go crazy or become a cold-blooded animal that no longer had any feelings.

Elder Red was punished by the reputable elder to face the wall in the ice cavern for a hundred years.

After coming out, Elder Red would surely no longer be the same.

Even if David waited until then, he would not be able to see the person he used to know.

"Nova, please tell me! If I don't know the specific situation, I will definitely not be able to calm down to cultivate," David begged.

The more he listened to Nova, the more he felt that the ice cavern was not a good place.

A hundred years was not a long time for Eternals, but what Nova said made David worry about Celeste!
