Chapter 1606

'Does he think he can do whatever he wants just because he's a beginner Ruler Ranker?

'If I wasn't protecting the confidants I brought along just now and was worried that they would be wiped out by the aftermath of the battle.

'It is uncertain who would have gained the upper hand!'

"What a joke! You gained some advantage over me just now and you really think that you're invincible as a beginner Ruler Ranker? Let me tell you, it's better to keep a low profile and know your limits. Don't be too arrogant, otherwise..."

Lou was berating David loudly.

Just now, he was beaten ruthlessly by David and now he was being threatened again. There was an anger in his heart that he did not know where to vent.

Although he was not someone important, he was still somewhat famous in the trade area around the Central Sacred Continent.

This outsider in front of him was not showing him any sign of respect.

Therefore, he could not be blamed if anything happened.

As he was talking, Lou's voice trailed off.

At this moment, he was staring wide-eyed at David in front of him in shock.

Because a long red sword had appeared in David's hand at some point.

The long sword was not scary.

What was terrifying was the long sword in the hands of the Eternal Golden Body.

That was no ordinary sword.

It was a Soulbound Weapon, a priceless treasure!

Lou had been a dishonest merchant for so many years, but all his savings added up was still not enough to buy a Soulbound Weapon.

His goal was to have his own Soulbound Weapon one day so his combat power would skyrocket.

The outsider in front of him actually possessed a Soulbound Weapon, and judging from the chill emanating from that sword, it was not an ordinary Soulbound Weapon.

For a moment, Lou was jealous.

He wanted to take the sword in David's hand for himself.

Despite this, as the idea was just germinating, Lou furiously dismissed it.

He was only a small rank higher than the other party.

However, a first-rate Soulbound Weapon could completely make up for this gap and kill him.

There was no need for a fight.

When the opponent took out the Soulbound Weapon, Lou knew he had lost.

Even if he could beat the other party, Lou would not dare to try.

The other party was a young Eternal and he had a first-rate Soulbound Weapon. Thus, Lou would not believe it if he said he did not have a strong background.

'Could he break through Eternal at such a young age without powerful support?

'Can he own the Soulbound Weapon that even I can't buy with my savings after so many years without powerful support?

'I can't afford to offend him!

'I can't!

'I definitely can't afford to insult that guy.

'I should think of a way to quell his anger.

I might have to spend a lot of money today."

Lou shook his head helplessly.

The reason he could be dishonest for so many years and not get into trouble was that he knew to read the situation.

He would never offend people he could not afford to offend.

If he did, he would do anything and pay any price to get the other party's forgiveness.

Normally, the people who knew how to read the room would live longer.

Chapter 1607

Lou was still berating David.

However, his voice suddenly trailed off, puzzling Marlee and others.

Everyone looked at David and saw a long sword suddenly appearing in the hand of David's Eternal Golden Body.

Although the galaxy where the Jung family was located was in Star Kingdom, it was one of the most remote places and was relatively impoverished.

Over there, Eternals were the number one authority, and no one would dare to provoke them.

They heard of Soulbound Weapons before, but they had never seen it.

It was said that this kind of treasure could greatly enhance the combat power of Eternals and achieve the effect of leapfrogging ranks.

According to the legend, the only weapon that could transform into an entity to be used by the Eternal Golden Body was the Soulbound Weapon.

Undoubtedly, the long sword in David's hand was a Soulbound Weapon.

No wonder Lou suddenly went silent while berating David.

It turned out that David was using a Soulbound Weapon.

This was a treasure that could allow its user to fight someone stronger than them.

Originally, David already had an absolute advantage against his opponent.

Now that he had taken out the Soulbound Weapon, his opponent would undoubtedly suffer a crushing defeat.

Marlee looked at David.

“There are too many mysteries surrounding this young man.

‘He even possesses treasures like the Soulbound Weapon.

‘What other secrets is he hiding that I don’t know of?’”

Marlee became more curious about David, and she wanted to find out more about him.

This kind of outcome only made her sink deeper into her fantasies.

“My friend, you don’t have to do this. Please don’t! It’s just a misunderstanding. A misunderstanding!” Lou shouted hastily.

At the same time, he hid his Eternal Golden Body as he talked.

The Eternal Golden Body was an Eternal’s battle form.

At this time, Lou had no urge to fight at all, so he just put it away in case the other party misunderstood and thought that he still wanted to fight by swinging his sword.

It was possible that the other party would do that judging from how he attacked without a word just now.

Right now, there was nothing in Lou’s hand that could block the Soulbound Weapon in the other party’s hand

If he did not show weakness now, it would be too late once his opponent made a move.

“Weren’t you stubborn just now? Didn’t you say it’s impossible? What’s the matter now?” David swung the Evil-Splitting Sword in his hand and pointed it at Lou.

Lou felt a chill down his spine when he was pointed by the long red sword.

“What kind of damn sword is this?

‘From such a distance, I can still feel a chill rushing towards my face.’”

Lou had seen Soulbound Weapons before, but this was the first time he saw someone who could pose such a big threat to him before even making a move,

‘How invincible!

'This kid is absolutely invincible!'

"I was blind, so I didn't recognize how powerful you were. This time, I will admit my defeat. No matter what you ask, I, Lou Surr, will do my best. Didn't you say you want that kid Willie to come over and apologize? I'll ask him to bring his *ss over now," Lou wryly smiled.

"If I remember correctly, you just said that you don't know that Willie person," David sarcastically said.

"Um... My friend, forgive me! We are just people struggling at the bottom. Star Kingdom's limited resources are controlled by major forces, so it is very difficult to find a way to get some resources to improve ourselves," Lou shook his head and said helplessly.

"I can understand that you want to get resources, but isn't it a little unreasonable to use such indecent means to trap those who are visiting the Central Sacred Continent for the first time? You want to improve. but what about them? It'll be fine for them if they can even survive."

"You're right. You've taught me a lesson today. I will never do this kind of thing again in the future, and 13 will definitely be an upright merchant and never harm anyone ever again."

Chapter 1608

Lou's attitude surprised David.

The ones who could be adaptable to circumstances were the most difficult to deal with.

The other party's attitude was very sincere, so David could not bring himself to continue attacking.

The main reason for this was that their strength was similar.

They were both Eternal Realm Ruler Rankers.

Even with his Evil-Splitting Sword, it would still be difficult for David to kill his opponent.

Since he could not kill his opponent, he would not attack in case he was left with serious repercussions.

David would be fine, but he was worried that this guy would target Marlee and the others.

“I’m waiting for your reply. If you don’t satisfy me today, you know the consequences.”

After he finished, David retracted his Eternal Golden Body and returned to the roof of the merchant ship. Naturally, dozens of adoring gazes greeted him.

The little girl Peggy immediately ran over and hugged David’s thigh. She squealed happily, “Mister, you are so amazing! From now on, Mom and I will rely on you to protect us.”

Marlee blushed when she heard that.

Then she reprimanded seriously, “Peggy, what are you talking about? Come here and don’t bother Master David. Have I spoiled you too much recently? Just wait and see how I’ll deal with you later.”

Would Marlee really not want what her daughter had mentioned?

All these years, she had wanted to find a reliable man to rely on.

However, Marlee was self-aware.

A man like David was destined to not have any relationship with her.

Even if she did not have children, she was still not worthy of David.

Furthermore, she had a daughter now.

The little girl looked at Marlee with an aggrieved expression.

She reluctantly let go of David’s thighs before going to Marlee. However, David suddenly picked her up.

“It’s okay, Marlee. She’s just a kid! Children’s words carry no harm,” David hugged the little girl and said.

with a smile.

Although he was an Eternal, in front of his friends, he never put on airs.

He would be the same even if he became a Saint in the future.

“Okay! Everyone, go back to your posts first!”

Marlee dismissed the group.

Then, she said, "David, don't mind her. Peggy never thinks before she speaks."

"It's okay, Marlee! I don't mind."

At this time, the little girl interrupted again and said, "Mom, I have thought about it, you are my dearest person, and Mister is my favorite person. He is so powerful, as long as he protects us in the future, we will not be bullied."

"Peggy!"

Marlee glared at the little girl.

Peggy was so scared that she quickly put her head on David's chest, not daring to look at her mother. "Okay, okay! From now on, I will protect you and make sure no one dares to bully you," David said dotingly. "Look, Mom, Mister agreed," the little girl said with her head buried in David's chest.

"David, don't spoil her too much. She will only become more and more presumptuous in the future."

"It's okay! She's just a kid so she should be pampered. By the way, Marlee, if they come to apologize later, just extort them and don't show mercy. You never know how many people these guys cheated over the years and how much dishonest money they made. Make them pay severely. I won't show my face later, but just call me if you need me."

"Okay, I see!" Marlee nodded and said.

The opponent did not dare to start a fight as they were very afraid of David.

Hence, if their request was not too excessive, the other party would definitely agree.

"Alright, I'll get going now."

After he finished speaking. David walked down the cabin with the little girl in his arms.

Marlee stared at David's back in a daze.

He was so loving and doted on Peggy

'If only Peggy was really David's daughter.

Then their family of three....

'That scene would be too beautiful to imagine.'
