

Ex Wife 1331

Chapter 1331

It was none other than Seraphina.

She had bribed the nurses working on the floor Quinton was on, and had found out that Renee and the others had gone to the cafeteria to eat.

Once they had left, Seraphina had opened the door and entered Quinton's ward.

Quinton was now lying in bed after the surgery.

He was wearing an oxygen mask and looked very weak.

Seraphina walked to Quinton's bed.

She stared at him for a while, then put something beside his pillow and took off his oxygen mask.

"I'm sorry.

I don't want to be cruel, but I just need you to be in a coma so Renee can learn her lesson.

I didn't expect you to be so tough.

Stefan even helped hire Owen for you..." Her eyes flashed in anger.

"You should blame your shameless sister for this.

She's been pestering Stefan relentlessly even though he's engaged to me, so unfortunately, you have to suffer the consequences!" After that, she avoided the surveillance cameras and left the hospital quietly.

Meanwhile, in the cafeteria, Renee was staring at the food uneasily.

"Ren, it's your favorite cake from Golden Time! No matter how hard I tried, I could never buy it, but here it is.

Mr. Baldwin...

you're awesome! I really admire you," Leia said excitedly to Justin who was seated opposite them.

"Well, it is hard to buy, but where there's a will, there's a way.

Phoenix likes it, and she needs to eat as much as possible," Justin scratched his head and explained helplessly.

He had done everything he could to get Renee to eat more these past few days.

Leia smiled at him teasingly.

"Go ahead and spoil her.

I'm sure you'll make Ren chubby in a few weeks if you keep this up!" "Well, that's not a bad idea.

How cute she'd look!" Leia and Justin chatted happily, but Renee remained silent.

She suddenly stood up with a frown.

"I have to go back and check on him." "Ren, you haven't eaten anything yet.

You..." "Don't worry about me, you guys eat first!" Renee waved at them and quickly returned to her brother's ward.

Things usually went wrong right before the end, so she didn't dare to stay away for too long.

"ventilator! Get the ventilator! The patient isn't breathing.

Hurry! "W Renee saw a lot of nurses standing in Quinton's ward and rushing about, and her mind went blank.

She rushed over frantically and grabbed a nurse.

"What happened? He was fine just now, so why isn't he breathing?" "We don't know either.

Someone took off the patient's oxygen mask, so he stopped breathing temporarily.

We're trying our best to save him." "What? He stopped breathing? Someone took off his oxygen mask?" Renee could not accept it, and collapsed on the cold floor.

"Phoenix!" "Ren! w Both Justin and Leia rushed over, panicked.

"I knew something would happen...

Oh, why did I leave? Now, my brother is dying!" Renee wailed, then turned to Justin hysterically, her eyes wild.

"Are you a spy? You lured me away so someone could harm my brother, right?!"
