

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1893

"Stop! If they are not from my Dragon Guard Pavilion, could they be from your Prince of West Lucozia?" Ji Yuanzun shouted with red eyes.

"Yes, they are indeed all my people."

Dustin admitted straightforwardly: "When you led the team to ambush us, my troops had already taken advantage of the opportunity and captured your base. Now , this place belongs to me!"

"Dustin! Stop scaring people here!"

Ji Yuanzun shouted with a ferocious look: "Although I brought a lot of elites out this time, there are still at least 30,000 soldiers and horses in the base. , coupled with various defensive measures, without more than 100,000 troops, it is impossible to attack in a short time. Your West Lucozia Black Dragon Army is under my surveillance. If you mobilize more than 100,000 troops, how can I possibly Don't know?"

"Who said I was calling the Black Dragon Army?"

Dustin said with an indifferent expression: "You can naturally think of anything I can think of, so this time, in order to wipe out the remnants of you, I specially invited Foreign aid."

Last night, he sent a letter with Thorian Rhys, asking him to spread it quickly, just to move reinforcements.

Fortunately, the reinforcements arrived in time and completed all his plans.

"Foreign aid? What foreign aid?"

Ji Yuanzun frowned, feeling inexplicably uneasy.

"The largest army closest to West Lucozia is the White Tiger Army in the southwest, and the commander of the White Tiger Army is the military god Adam Spanner. Unfortunately, Adam Spanner is my best friend." Dustin said calmly.

"White Tiger Army? Adam Spanner? How is that possible? You are lying!"

Ji Yuanzun shook his head wildly, completely unable to believe Dustin's words.

"If you don't believe me, look back and see for yourself."

Dustin did not explain, but raised his chin behind him.

Ji Yuanzun seemed to feel something. He looked back and saw the gate of the city wall slowly opening.

Immediately afterwards, a young man wearing silver armor and a handsome mask walked out with a team of elite soldiers, his head held high.

The young man is none other than the military god Adam Spanner!

"Ji Yuanzun, how are you? Are you surprised?"

"In order to deal with you, I dispatched 200,000 white tiger troops this time, plus 30,000 black dragon troops from West Lucozia, and finally captured This your base." Adam Spanner had a smile on his lips, but his eyes were cold.

The person in front of him has too big a plan. It can be said that he is extremely ambitious to control the Prince of West Lucozia, hold the imperial power, and become the common ruler of the world.

But unfortunately, it fell short in the end.

The reason was that he underestimated the enemy too much and did not take Kirin seriously.

"Adam Spanner? Is it really you?!"

Ji Yuanzun's body shook, as if his whole body had been struck by lightning.

When he saw Adam Spanner walking out of the base, he understood that Dustin was not lying.

The base has fallen, and he is completely defeated now!

"How could this happen? How could this happen?"

Ji Yuanzun kept shaking his head, still finding it difficult to accept the fact: "No...no! It is impossible to mobilize an army of 200,000 without imperial orders, and I have already planted spies around the emperor. If he wants to mobilize the army, I should know about it soon." "Mobilizing the army does not require an official order in person, just a military talisman is enough." Adam Spanner said with a smile.

"It can't be done in one night from West Lucozia to Stonia and then back to Stonia!" Ji Yuanzun denied again.

"Why go to Stonia to get the military talisman? Dustin has a key person beside him who can act on behalf of the officials."

Adam Spanner said, taking the initiative to move out of the way, and at the same time bent down to salute: "Your Highness, please."

As soon as he finished speaking, a graceful woman wearing white clothes and a hat and veil slowly walked out.

The woman is none other than the princess of the Dragonmarsh Kingdom, Margaret, who is at the top of the rouge list!
