

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1915

Leo Alexander's sudden hostility made Dustin slightly startled and a little confused.

He asked himself that this was the first time the two of them met and there was no grudge between them. Why was this guy in front of him so arrogant?

"Captain Leo, have we met before?" Dustin asked calmly.

The raised hand was slowly lowered.

"I haven't seen it before." Leo Alexander had a cold face.

"Since I haven't seen him before, why do you say this?" Dustin asked.

"I'm just thinking about Miss Li."

Leo Alexander said calmly: "The Death Desert is full of dangers. People who go in will almost die. Without strong strength, professional knowledge, and rich experience, ordinary people can't survive in it. It only lasts for one day.

Miss Li spent a lot of money to invite me over, so I am naturally responsible for her safety. From your appearance and behavior, it is obvious that you are not a professional bodyguard, so I am very doubtful about your ability. In case of death If you encounter any danger in the desert, I'm afraid that you won't be able to protect Miss Li, but will harm others and yourself!"

These words were simple and rude, without any mercy.

"Captain Leo, Margaret has her own reasons for inviting me over. Your duty is to lead the way and let us avoid various risks, that's all. You don't need to worry about the rest. Just do your part. Don't cross the line, it's not your turn to teach me whether I can do it or not." Dustin said in an indifferent tone.

Although he has an easy-going personality, he doesn't like to be told what to do.

"You have to make money according to your ability. This matter is related to your wealth and life, so you can't be careless."

Leo Alexander said, turning his eyes to Margaret, and said seriously: "Miss Li, regarding bodyguards, I know a few powerful people. Experts, if you trust me, I can invite them for you, but it will cost a little more money."

"Captain Leo, I appreciate your kindness, but I believe in Dustin's ability. With him here, There will be no problem with my safety." Margaret said calmly.

As the tenth strongest man on the world-shattering list, even Dustin couldn't solve the dangers in the desert of death.

Then these people can only wait to die.

"Miss Li..."

Leo Alexander was about to say something, but was interrupted by Margaret raising his hand: "Okay, Captain Leo, no need to say more, you first go and inquire about the death desert, and try your best to Let's collect more information and we'll talk later."

"Yes."

At this point, Leo Alexander could only nod.

But before leaving, he glanced at Dustin with disapproval, obviously looking down on him.

"Margaret, you seem a little arrogant when you find this team leader." Dustin teased.

"Ao is a bit arrogant, but he still has some real abilities. We are going to enter the desert of death, and his help is indispensable. You, sir, have a lot, so don't be as knowledgeable as him." Margaret smiled lightly.

"As long as he doesn't violate my bottom line, it doesn't matter if he makes a few yin and yang comments and shows his face." Dustin shrugged.

It's not that he has no tolerance for others, he has seen too many arrogant guys like this.

Most of them have high ambitions but low ambitions. They only hope that this person named Leo Alexander will not be an embroidered pillow.

"Okay, let's not talk about this anymore. Let's choose a room first. If nothing else happens, we will stay here tonight." Margaret changed the subject.

"Okay, I happen to be hungry. Let's clean up and start dinner." Dustin touched his dry belly.

He knew very well that there were two well-known chefs in Margaret's team this time, who were proficient in cuisines from all over the world.

In addition, the supplies carried are sufficient, so there is no need to worry about food.

In a tavern in the desert village.

Leo Alexander took several members of the Black Scorpion Team and sat down at a random table.

A few people were drinking and chatting, observing the surroundings from time to time.

At this moment, there were many people sitting in the tavern.

Judging from their attire, these are basically explorers. They are in small groups, each occupying their own area. It can be said that they are a mixed bag of fish and dragons.

"Captain, we haven't encountered so many adventure teams the last two times we've been here, right? What's going on this time? From the time we entered the village to now, we have met no less than five teams." A bald man Han held a cigar in his mouth and glanced around.

"There are really not so many people on weekdays. This time all the forces gathered together. There should be a treasure to be discovered, and it is most likely related to the sudden appearance of the oasis." Leo Alexander said.

The news of an oasis suddenly appearing in the desert of death has spread in the circle.

Many international expedition teams have made changes and are expected to arrive here soon.

"Captain, do you know what's in that oasis?" the bald man asked tentatively.

"It's not clear what it is specifically."

Leo Alexander shook his head: "But as far as I know, that oasis is a hundred times more dangerous than the desert. Anyone who goes in has never come out again, but it can make so many people flock to it. , take the risk, the treasure inside must be priceless."

"Okay, okay, no matter what is inside, it has nothing to do with us. We are using money to do things, just bring people in safely and bring them out safely. The inability to find the treasure has nothing to do with us." A short-haired woman wearing a smart outfit said.

"That's true." The bald man nodded.

They have already received 30% of the remuneration. As long as the depositor survives, they will get the balance, and there is no need to worry about the rest.

"Captain, but then again, who is Miss Li? How can she be so generous? We have been in the industry for ten years and have never met such a generous sponsor." The short-haired woman asked curiously.

"Miss Li doesn't want to show her true face to others. She just doesn't want to expose her identity. There are rules in the industry. We can't ask any more questions." Leo Alexander shook his head.

"Captain, you have looked at Miss Li no less than ten times along the way. Are you interested in her?" The short-haired woman smiled ambiguously.

"I don't know what to say. Miss Li seems to have a special magic power. As soon as I see her, I feel like we have seen each other before, as if we are destined to be together." Leo Alexander narrowed his eyes and said.

"Fate? Oh~ I understand!"

The short-haired man suddenly realized, and couldn't help laughing and joking: "Captain, you are miserable, you have fallen in love!"
