

Chapter 306 Strict Coach

At that time, Jaiden's expression changed slightly. Being a good doctor, he subconsciously paid attention to the old man's condition.

However, he didn't leave immediately. Instead, he turned to look at Trevor as if he was asking for his permission.

The expression on Jaiden's face didn't go unnoticed by Penny. At that moment, she realized that her grandfather's life was depending on Trevor.

Right now, she wasn't as arrogant as before.

To Trevor's surprise, she knelt down in front of him and begged sincerely.

"Trevor, everything is my fault. It has nothing to do with my grandfather. Please ask Dr. Hudson to save my grandfather! Please!" 🌸

Originally, Trevor was angry because Penny made trouble out of nothing by demanding to exchange the ward. However, when he saw her sincere apology, all of his previous anger vanished.

Moreover, her grandfather had left a good impression on him. Since he was a man of sense, he didn't want to see anything bad happen to him.

Originally, Trevor was angry because Penny made trouble out of nothing by demanding to exchange the ward. However, when he saw her sincere apology, all of his previous anger vanished.

Moreover, her grandfather had left a good impression on him. Since he was a man of sense, he didn't want to see anything bad happen to him.

Therefore, Trevor said, "Dr. Hudson, please treat her grandfather."

Hearing his words, Penny was overjoyed and said, "Thank you! Thank you so much!"

Waving his hand dismissively, Trevor said to Penny, "You should go and take care of your grandfather. Don't stay here anymore."

Standing beside Trevor, Luisa observed his behavior.

When Penny left with Jaiden, Luisa uttered with a smile, "I didn't know that you are this kind."

Trevor pretended to get hurt by her words and teased, "Oh, so you thought I was a bad guy? I'm sad now."

Shaking her head, Luisa whispered, "I like that you are so kind."

As Trevor didn't hear her words clearly, he asked, "Huh?"

What did you say? I didn't hear it."

To cover her embarrassment, Luisa pretended to cough. Patting him gently, Luisa opened her eyes wide and pouted while saying, "It's nothing actually!"

Dilan was overjoyed to see them teasing with each other. Then, he also joined their conversation, making the ward filled with joyful atmosphere.

After staying with Dilan for a while, Trevor and Luisa left the hospital.

When they got into the car, Trevor said, "Luisa, I'll drive you back to school first."

Furrowing her eyebrows, Luisa asked curiously, "What about you then?"

Without hesitation, Trevor answered, "I have something to do. Actually, I made an appointment to learn boxing in a budokan."

In fact, he made plans with Bradly yesterday that they would meet at the Moises Budokan.

The budokan was located near their university. Therefore, it was very convenient for Trevor to go there.

At the mention of the budokan, Luisa's eyes lit up and she said, "Can I go with you? I have never been to a budokan."

With the help of the navigator, Trevor headed to the destination.

Even though he knew that there was a budokan near his university, he had never been there before.

When Trevor got to the destination, he realized that the Moises Budokan was a magnificent building.

A lot of people were coming and going out at the door. There were many students from nearby schools and all of them looked strong enough to fight.

After Trevor entered the budokan, he soon found Bradley. At that time, Bradley was doing some warm-up exercises alone.

At the sight of Trevor, Bradley stopped his exercise and stood up straight.

Looking directly into Trevor's eyes, Bradley said seriously, "Trevor, I want to make sure something. Do you really want me to teach you boxing? Because, my requirements and rules are very strict. If you just want to play, I can help you find an ordinary coach."

In fact, Trevor had strictly told Bradley not to call him Mr. Sanderson outside.

Therefore, since Luisa was here, Bradley called Trevor by his name.

Nonetheless, there was a hint of respect in Bradley's words and the tone of his voice.

At this moment, his aura was very strong and he looked really confident.

This was what he was good at after all!
