

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2667

Married at First Sight Chapter 2667-Matriarch Farrell said, "I'm not hungry and don't want to eat. You go and eat quickly. Don't worry about me. I will stay here for a while and then go back. You have to socialize in the evening, but you can't be hungry, and don't drink on an empty stomach."

After Kathryn gradually became more familiar with the company's affairs, Matriarch Farrell reduced her social activities and left them all to Kathryn unless they were particularly important.

Kathryn asked, "Mom, are you still angry with my dad?"

She poured a glass of warm water for Matriarch Farrell, put the glass of warm water in front of her, and asked with concern.

Kathryn said, "I heard from my sister-in-law that my dad didn't want to eat at home. However, I think my dad didn't want to eat. He was probably injured a bit seriously. He was in severe pain and couldn't eat. Shiloh cared about Dad very much and delivered food to him. Mom, you usually love Shiloh so much, but I don't see Shiloh caring about you. "

Kathryn took the opportunity to apply eye drops to Shiloh. "Mom, does Shiloh hate you to death? She is used to being pampered by you, but you are suddenly so harsh on her and punish her severely. Maybe she planned to curse you in her heart."

Matriarch Farrell sneered: "I'm nothing to be afraid of. I want to crush her to death, just like crushing an ant to death."

She looked at Kathryn and said, "Don't you want to take the opportunity to drive Shiloh out?"

Kathryn smiled and said, "Mom, you love her so much; what's the point of driving her out? You will bring her back, and it will also destroy the little mother-daughter relationship that our mother and daughter have finally cultivated. Our mother-daughter relationship is too weak. I don't dare joke about it."

"Mom, unless Shiloh completely breaks your heart, I would rather see you drive Shiloh away personally. That would be her despair. If I drive her away, she won't be desperate and will think that you can all speak for her and can still help her.

Of course, I won't make it easy for her. Didn't she file a complaint against me with you, mom? I deliberately targeted her to make her income less and less. The automatically transferred money from the company to her bank card every month, her pocket money, and her bank card have also been frozen.

I know she still has personal savings, and the money was all obtained from our Farrell family. I will find a way to get it back bit by bit."

Matriarch Farrell: “Kathryn, you told me everything; aren’t you afraid that I will vent her anger on her behalf?”

Kathryn smiled. “There’s no point in being afraid. Mom, it’s not like you have never vented her anger on her behalf. I will work hard to accomplish what I want to do and achieve my goal; no matter how difficult the road ahead is or how many people are blocking me, I’m not afraid.”

It meant that if she wanted to deal with Shiloh, even if Matriarch Farrell helped Shiloh, she would not back down.

When dealing with Shiloh, she didn’t want to end it all at once. Just taking it slowly and letting Shiloh lose everything she owned bit by bit would be torture enough.

“Shiloh is ashamed of her mother.” Kathryn said, “Mom, you spent more than twenty years of hard work cultivating her.”

Now Kathryn and Shiloh were fighting openly and secretly, and Shiloh was always at a disadvantage. Of course, because her bloodline was righteous enough, Shiloh was never the daughter of the Farrell family. This was Shiloh’s disadvantage.

Matriarch Farrell: “...”

Kathryn’s words also slapped her in the face.

“Mom, let’s go eat. My dad cheated on you. He did something to betray you. No matter how you treat him, if he feels that he can’t live with it, he can file for divorce from you. Let’s get together instead of going behind our backs. It was his fault when you went to find a woman. Is it worth it if you can’t eat or sleep because of him?”

Mom, I’m not afraid of you being angry. As long as you’re not at home, my dad will still do that. He had no love for you a long time ago. It’s more likely that he didn’t love you from the beginning. He just loves your status. How much benefit can you bring to him and the Janzen family?”

Matriarch Farrell became extremely ugly. She looked at Kathryn with cold eyes and said, “Kathryn, if you were not my biological daughter, just based on what you said, I could cut out your tongue. I don’t let others meddle in my business.”

Kathryn said, “If you weren’t my biological mother, I wouldn’t want to say anything more. Do you think I have enough to eat and nothing to do?”

Matriarch Farrell was speechless.

They were biological—absolutely biological!

Married at First Sight Chapter 2668-Both mother and daughter had the same virtue.

After a while, Matriarch Farrell suddenly said, “Liberty is here.”

Kathryn said, “I know.”

She was not surprised at all.

Matriarch Farrell was stunned for a moment, then laughed self-deprecatingly: “Yes, you have assistants around you. These assistants are very powerful. I don’t know which of our ancestors came up with it. They set up a training base specifically for us and developed the best right-hand man.

I thought you didn’t know anything, and you did. Yes, yes.”

After Matriarch Farrell finished speaking, she picked up the cup of warm water and took two sips. She did not put down the cup. She leaned back on the chair, then turned the chair. Her back was to Kathryn, and she looked toward the window. There were already thousands of lights outside.

She said in a faint tone, “I think of your eldest aunt’s assistant. He was really powerful—better than the assistant I am using now. Moreover, he also had a good temper and was very handsome. Yes, he was really handsome. Your eldest aunt raised me when I was a young child, and I frequently see her assistant.

As time went by, I liked that assistant very much.

The assistants we used couldn’t get married or have children because, after getting married and having a family and children, there would be new weaknesses and new people to protect, and they wouldn’t be single-minded anymore.

Unless they married the head of the family and had children with the head of the family, then they could leave descendants.

After the head of the family got married, as long as she was not married to the assistant, the assistant would have to undergo sterilization surgery to prevent them from turning their backs on the head of the family, looking for women outside, and leaving offspring. It would even prevent them from becoming real men.”

Kathryn: “...”

She didn’t expect that an assistant like Pedro Fraser would take such a path in the future.

She also felt that the Farrell family ancestors were too cruel.

She thought that the assistants were orphans, had no relatives, only focused on the head of the family, and would be loyal all their lives. She did not expect that they were not even allowed to leave descendants.

Unless they marry the head of the family,

Kathryn: “Mom, was Uncle my eldest aunt’s assistant?”

“no.”

Matriarch Farrell denied it.

“Your eldest aunt has no romantic feelings for him.”

Matriarch Farrell liked her eldest sister’s assistant, but he didn’t love her and just treated her like a child.

The eldest sister trusted her assistant and naturally did not abolish him. However, after her eldest sister got married, she gave birth to Audrey Stone, her eldest daughter. And the assistant had a sterilization operation himself.

Kathryn: “Mom, can’t such family rules be canceled? I think it’s too cruel.”

The Farrell family had a history spanning hundreds of years. In the old days, servants were not treated as human beings, and she had no control over the behavior of her ancestors. But what era was it then, and were such family rules still retained? Kathryn felt that it was too cruel, and Pedro Fraser, such an assistant, was extremely unfair.

Matriarch Farrell did not speak.

They were the heads of the family, and what they feared most was betrayal and the leakage of power, so naturally they would not change such cruel family rules.

Therefore, the family heads of past generations had never tried to change the family rules. Did they think it was the Lafayette family in Meadspring who could change the family rules so easily? Even the Lafayette family paid a lot of money to change some of the family rules.

