An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1970

Chapter 1970

“Support with a sword?”

Hearing this, everyone looked at each other and didn't know why.

They were all busy running for their lives just now; how could they care about anything else?

Could it be that something unexpected happened just now?

“Senior Ruso, you have incredible skills and powerful strength, so why do you need our support?”

“That's right, that's right, we can't get involved in a battle of your level.”

“Senior Ruso, did someone influence you just now? His performance? That's really damn good!”

Everyone was talking and talking, not knowing what was going on.

In their opinion, only a master-level expert like Billy Ruso has the ability to turn the tide.

If Billy Ruso hadn't taken action just now, they would have suffered heavy losses.

“Senior Ruso, what happened?” Kevin Snow asked tentatively.

“No...it's nothing, forget it if it's not you.” Billy Ruso shook his head and said no more.

He just asked tentatively without making any expectations at all.

If there really was a powerful Grand Master hiding around him, he would not be able to accept it.

Now, he just thought that an expert happened to pass by and saved his life.

If I have the opportunity to meet an expert again in the future, I will definitely repay the favor of saving my life.

“Senior Ruso, I have thanked you for your hard work. This is the trapped dragon rope you want.”

Margaret stepped forward and handed over the prepared trapped dragon rope.

Billy Ruso was moved in his heart. After hesitating for two seconds, he finally accepted it.

He has long admired a treasure like the trapped dragon rope, so naturally, he will not refuse it. At worst, he will make some compensation to the other party later.

“Thank you very much, little girl. Since you are so straightforward, if you encounter any trouble again in the future, just come to me!” Billy Ruso smiled with satisfaction.

Although he had just experienced a lot of danger, he was lucky enough to get the treasure and make a sure profit.

Seeing Billy Ruso’s happy look, Dustin raised his eyebrows slightly.

This guy really dares to accept it!

He almost died, but he was still thinking about the trapped dragon rope.

If it weren’t for the overall situation, he would really be reluctant to give away this treasure to Margaret.

“Everyone, it’s not advisable to stay here for a long time. Let’s move to a safer place to talk.”

Margaret did not care about this but greeted everyone and quickly left this dangerous place.

Since nightfall, fighting has been going on here without stopping for a moment.

At first, everyone was just bystanders, but the appearance of strange tree vines almost pulled them into the abyss.

After a struggle, more than a dozen people died.

There are disciples of the Golden Blade Sect, members of the Black Scorpion Team, and Margaret's escorts, all of whom suffered varying degrees of injuries.

In just the first night, more than a dozen people were killed, and there will probably be more casualties in the future.

At this moment, everyone knew that this treasure hunting journey was full of dangers!

After changing places to rest, everyone no longer felt sleepy, so they just stayed up until dawn.

When the first ray of sunlight in the morning shone through the gaps in the leaves, everyone could not help but let out a long sigh of relief, as if they were surviving a disaster.

The night was full of dangers, and it was too difficult.

They have to be careful at all times and beware of all kinds of monsters that may appear.

In such an environment, everyone is tense and stressed.

It wasn't until dawn that their tense nerves finally relaxed.

Most monsters only move at night, but are particularly quiet and relatively safe during the day.

"Hurry up and cook, and continue on your way after eating!"

Margaret gave the order, and her subordinates quickly started to get busy.

Although this oasis is very dangerous, you still have to do what you need to do; you still need to find the treasures that need to be found.

At this point, everyone had no choice but to bite the bullet and keep moving forward.

On the one hand, it is for getting rich, on the other hand, it is also for better survival.

Following the large army, with a martial arts master standing guard, there is a high chance of survival.

But if you give up halfway, not only will you not get any advantage, but it will also be more dangerous if you encounter any monsters on the way back.

After eating and drinking, under the leadership of Margaret, the team continued to walk deeper into the oasis.

This time, everyone became extra cautious.

Every step they took was cautious, for fear of disturbing something dormant around them.

In this way, they moved forward for about two hours.

A cry of killing suddenly came from afar.

Margaret immediately raised her hand to signal everyone to stop and then sent spies to explore the way forward.

After about a cup of tea, the spies returned and reported the relevant situation.

“Miss, there are two waves of forces fighting in front, as if they are fighting for some treasure,” the spy reported.

“Fighting for the treasure?” Margaret raised an eyebrow. “Can you see clearly what it is?”

“My subordinates were afraid of being discovered, so they didn’t get too close. I don’t know exactly what the treasure is,” the spy said.

“Everyone, what do you think?” Margaret turned around and asked the others for their opinions.

“Since there is a treasure, I have to go and take a look,” Billy Ruso was very decisive.

“I agree with Senior Ruso. Everyone is here to hunt for treasures. If you have the opportunity, you shouldn’t miss it,” Kevin Snow nodded.

“It’s okay to go and have a look. We can act according to the situation,” Leo Alexander agreed.

“Okay, then let’s go and find out!”

Margaret made a prompt decision, commanded the team, and quickly moved forward.

She wanted to go there and confirm in person to see if the treasure the two waves of forces were fighting for was the Qi of Dragon Origin.

When everyone rushed to the battlefield, they found dozens of warriors in front of them, besieging several young men and women.

There were more than a dozen corpses left around, and the battle looked very tragic.

Several young men and women were very powerful, and when they cooperated with each other, they actually fought back and forth with dozens of warriors.

It’s a pity that two fists can’t beat four hands. As time passed, several young men and women were exhausted and began to be injured one after another.

If the fight continues, they will all be wiped out in less than a stick of incense.
