

Chapter 401 A Shocking Secret

"What's on your mind, father?"

Trevor was keenly aware of the subtle change in his father's expression.

As Ronald's next of kin, he had a good sense for these things even though the two of them had not been in close contact for quite some time.

"I can't hide anything from you, Trevor!"

A bitter smile grew on Ronald's normally calm and resolute face.

He patted Trevor's shoulder and sighed.

"To be honest, I always think that it's good for you and your sister to live a safe and happy life under my protection. But I must say... your performance in Jork has gone beyond my expectations. When Bradley reports to me, he always praises your willpower. You've never complained despite how strict your training is.

Today, while listening to how you analyzed a problem, I discovered another merit. Although your judgment is still a little naive, you can maintain a clear head and properly think things through. You seem competent enough to be the successor of our family."

After uttering these words, Ronald sighed, but he looked far from tired.

Instead, he became more energetic. His eyes gleamed in approval as he looked straight at Trevor. His grip on Trevor's shoulder tightened a fraction.

The atmosphere in the living room of the villa became solemn.

After a moment's silence, Ronald slowly added, "I was a little hesitant... But on second thought, maybe it's better if you're the one who decides what kind of life you want to live. What do you think, Trevor? Do you want to become the successor of our family and live freely as a rich man? Or do you have other plans?"

Trevor was shocked. He had not expected his father to ponder over his future in this manner.

Now that he was faced with a choice, he found himself unable to decide right at that moment.

Trevor currently wanted to enjoy the high life.

However, he wasn't a hundred percent sure that it was the right choice. Besides, he had no idea what would happen in the future.

In the end, he could only smile helplessly and reply, "Father, I'm afraid I can't give you an answer for the time being."

Upon hearing that, Ronald regained his composure, as if Trevor's words had just relieved him of a heavy burden.

He could guess what was going on in his son's mind so he smiled and said, "Don't worry. No matter which path you decide to take, I will support you the whole way."

After a pause, he changed the subject.

"But since we have brought up the idea of you taking over the family business, I think you should know a little more about our family."

Trevor couldn't help but become interested at the hint of mystery in his father's tone.

Before this year, he had thought that the Sanderson family was poor. After all, his parents had to go abroad to keep the family afloat.

But now, he was coming to terms with the fact that their family was actually rich. They were responsible for the development of several industries in Jork. Trevor had no idea just how wealthy his family was.

What kind of family was the Sanderson family?

As a proud member of the Sanderson family, Ronald smirked and said, "The Sanderson family has industries all over the world which are managed by many branches of our family, but we do not publicize the total number of our properties. This is why no one from our family is on the wealthy list. Actually, the wealth of our family can easily surpass those of several small countries!"

Although Trevor had kind of expected it, he nearly bit his tongue in surprise after hearing the family secret from his father.

His family was really richer than a small country. Past him could never have imagined such a thing.

The rich young people of Jork were shocked when they learned that Trevor had ownership of a commercial street.

How much was a commercial street compared to a country?

His family was actually hiding a commercial empire!

Ronald couldn't help smiling in amusement at Trevor's shocked face. He also had the same reaction when he first learned how wealthy the Sanderson family was.

When Trevor finally recovered from his shock, Ronald shook his head and spoke once more.

"Are you ready, Trevor? I have a bigger secret to tell you..."
