

Chapter 858 Confirm Trevor's Identity

As soon as Milo received the call from Trevor, he didn't dare to slack off.

He immediately called the professional maintenance personnel and arranged for the inspection of the exclusive elevator.

Those people worked so efficiently that the problem was solved in less than five minutes.

Trevor raised his eyebrows when the light in the elevator glowed brightly again. Then the elevator started to work and descended to the first floor.

The electrical circuit returned to its normal condition.

Harmoni breathed a sigh of relief, but she couldn't help feeling a little regretful. She pursed her red lips slightly.

When the elevator arrived at the lobby on the first floor of the hotel, the bright sunshine came into view through the windows.

Harmoni breathed a sigh of relief, but she couldn't help feeling a little regretful. She pursed her red lips slightly.

When the elevator arrived at the lobby on the first floor of the hotel, the bright sunshine came into view through the windows.

Upon seeing this, Harmoni finally got rid of the panic caused by claustrophobia.

"Sit down on the sofa first, so you can relax for a while," Trevor said to Harmoni when he noticed that she still looked pale. Then he asked the receptionist to bring her a glass of water.

After that, he turned to Milo, and they walked to the corner together.

Milo had a lot to tell Trevor just now. But when he saw that there was still a stranger beside Trevor, he didn't dare to expose Trevor's identity.

When they were alone in the corner, he said in a low voice, "Mr. Sanderson, we've checked our hotel's surveillance video. It turns out that the people who did it were your classmates. What do you want to do with them? Just tell me, and I'll deal with them right away."

After saying this, Milo played the video on his phone and showed it to Trevor. Lemuel hid near the exclusive elevator and made a phone call. Then the members of the football team sneaked into the generator room and pressed the power switch to stop the elevator.

While watching, Trevor smirked.

"It's exactly what I guessed. Don't worry. They still have to go back to the hotel later. I'll teach them a lesson by then. For now, prepare a car. We'll go to the zoo first."

Milo quickly replied, "Okay, I'll get the car ready now. I'll drive you there myself."

He was still a little scared. If anything untoward happened to Trevor in Mordor, he would be severely punished.

When Harmoni finally recovered from the shock, Milo personally drove her and Trevor to the zoo.

The two sat in the back seat, and Harmoni deliberately leaned her head against Trevor's shoulder, using the excuse that she hadn't fully recovered yet.

They looked so intimate.

When Milo saw this scene through the rearview mirror, he smiled knowingly.

He obviously misunderstood their relationship. He even praised, "You two are a perfect match."

His words made Harmoni feel instantly ecstatic. She pretended to be shy, but she was overjoyed inwardly.

She was pleased to hear such a compliment. She wanted to give Milo a thumbs up.

On the other hand, Trevor didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Surprised by Milo's remarks, he patted his forehead awkwardly.

He cleared his throat and said, "Well...Milo, you misunderstand. Harmoni and I have just known each other recently."

Harmoni gritted her teeth in dissatisfaction. But after a while, she also thought of an explanation for why he said so.

Based on his words, it seemed that she still had a chance. All they needed was more time to get along with each other.

This thought made her feel happier.

When the car arrived at the gate of the zoo, Harmoni got out of the car in a seductive manner.

She couldn't wait any longer. What else could develop the relationship between them faster than going on a tour?

As long as she pretended to be soft and weak and relied more on him, she believed that she could make the distance between them closer.

Trevor didn't know what was on her mind, and he got ready to get out of the car.

But when Milo saw this, he turned his head and whispered to Trevor, "Mr. Sanderson, I'll just wait here at the gate. If you need anything, please contact me. I can temporarily hand over the matters of the hotel to the deputy manager. My absence won't affect our hotel's operation."

Milo was worried that something might happen to Trevor.

Trevor thought for a while. He had no objection, so he nodded in agreement.

Harmoni was already outside, so she had no idea what Trevor and Milo were talking about. She turned and urged, "Trevor, hurry up! Let's go in now."

She had long believed that Trevor was a rich young man.

He could afford to stay in a presidential suite of a five-star hotel. And now that Milo, the hotel manager, personally drove them to the zoo, she was more convinced that Trevor was really rich.

Harmoni licked her red and sexy lips. There was a trace of excitement and confidence in her eyes.

She had already made up her mind to seize
