

Chapter 956 Make Cyril's Enemy

Trevor looked at the two people arguing below the boxing ring and sneered inwardly.

He didn't mind helping Zakai attract more hatred and enemies.

So he slowly stretched out his hand and gave a thumbs down.

"Cut the crap! You don't deserve to make such rude remarks in front of a Sanderson. Stop talking nonsense and shut your mouth."

Cyril was utterly stunned.

He couldn't believe that a mere bodyguard would say those words to him.

He speculated that it was Zakai who ordered Trevor to say such things to him.

He stared at Zakai even more angrily and shouted, "Damn it! Giant, make a move! I want to make Zakai lose face today."

"Yes, sir." Turning to Trevor, Giant smiled ferociously and posed a fighting stance. "You brat! I will beat you to death today!"

Giant, make a move! I want to make Zakai lose face today."

"Yes, sir." Turning to Trevor, Giant smiled ferociously and posed a fighting stance. "You brat! I will beat you to death today!"

Almost everyone around thought Trevor had no chance of winning against Giant.

After all, there was already a huge disparity in their body sizes. And no matter how they looked at it, it was a one-sided situation. Apparently, Giant had the upper hand.

However, when the duel officially began, everyone was shocked, their mouth agape with incredulity.

In a sense, it was indeed a one-sided situation.

But the one who fell was not Trevor but Giant.

In the ring, Trevor dodged nimbly. His movements were very flexible. And every time he avoided Giant's violent attack with the smallest range of motion, he kicked Giant's ankle.

Giant kept on roaring and rushing left and right in the ring.

But his reckless fighting strategy had no effect on Trevor at all.

Trevor moved around the ring so deftly that Giant couldn't even touch his clothes. He looked dashing.

And from time to time, he would still kick Giant's ankle.

"Ahhh! Don't dodge! If you have the ability to fight with me, do it head-on!" Giant almost exploded in anger. His eyes turned red and full of annoyance.

Trevor's movements were so astonishing that even if Giant had the strength, he couldn't get a chance to exert it. And this made him feel morose.

He felt he was being fooled like a monkey in the battle ring.

Trevor didn't say a word. He just sneered and suddenly kicked Giant's leg vigorously.

"Ahhh!"

The two-meter-tall Giant let out a scream and fell to the floor of the battle ring with a loud bang. He held his calf and screamed in pain, unable to stand up again.

The winner was confirmed.

"Damn you, loser! Stand up! Fuck!" Cyril was so angry that his face flushed. He found it unacceptable. Giant was his most powerful man, but Trevor knocked Giant down just like that.

"Humph! I almost forgot about you."

Trevor raised his eyebrows, jumped off the battle ring, and grabbed Cyril's hair. Then he dragged Cyril towards Zakai.

"Hey, what are you doing? Let me go! Do you know who you are messing with? Let go! Ahhh! You're hurting me!" Cyril kept struggling and screaming.

Even Zakai was shocked by Trevor's action. He asked in confusion, "Dragon, what are you doing?"

Trevor deliberately put on a serious face and said, "This man just made nasty remarks about you. It's very disrespectful of him! How can I let a Sanderson be insulted just like that? So I brought him to you so you can punish him."

But the truth was, he did this to deepen Cyril's grudge against Zakai.

Zakai had no idea of Trevor's hidden motive, so he believed Trevor's words.

Motivated by sheer vanity, he slapped Cyril's face rudely and said, "Ha-ha! Did you hear that? How dare you act arrogant in front of me! You must be courting death!"

"Zakai! How dare you hit me!" Cyril roared furiously, glaring at Zakai.

But Zakai didn't waver at all. He glared back and slapped Cyril again.

"A loser like you is not qualified to even glare at me. Humph! You even dare to challenge me? You deserve a disgraceful end."

Trevor stood at the side in silence. He just watched the scene with a meaningful look in his eyes.

Since Cyril was bold enough to challenge Zakai, it meant that the Ramos family was also rich and powerful in Esterham. Their influence must not be weak either.

Trevor wanted to ignite conflict between Zakai and Cyril, so the two would confront each other and become enemies.

And perhaps, through this, he could create an opportunity to deal with Dooley in the future.

