

Chapter 328 I Want This Private Room

Obviously, all the other members of the student union understood Marlon's plan.

Therefore, one of the girls asked curiously, "President Yates, why are you letting Trevor sit next to you?"

The way Mattie changed her attitude towards Trevor confused some of her friends who knew her well.

After all, Mattie used to belittle Trevor every time she got a chance.

Why was she behaving abnormally today? She didn't speak ill of Trevor. Instead, she even put in a good word for him! ②

Besides, why didn't she drive him away when he sat next to her?

In fact, Mattie had been trying her best to act normally while thinking how to make Trevor forgive her.

However, when she heard the girl's words, she glanced at her annoyingly.

Now that she had pointed it out, Mattie couldn't ignore it anymore.

Therefore, she just shrugged and said, "I mean we are classmates. Plus, this seat is vacant so, he can sit here."

Marlon was also surprised with Mattie's actions.

Nonetheless, as Mattie and Luisa had no objection with Trevor sitting between them, he couldn't swap his seat with Trevor anymore.

Now, he had no choice but to sit on the other side of Mattie.

To ease the tense atmosphere, Marlon clapped his hands and said, "Guys, you have worked hard this semester. Let's order."

Then, he took the menu and handed it to Mattie, "President Yates, you order the dishes you like first."

To everyone's surprise, Mattie took the menu from Marlon and handed it to Trevor!

"Trevor, you should order the food first."

The flattering look on Mattie's face made Marlon even more confused.

Without saying anything, Trevor took the menu and ordered two simple dishes before handing it to Luisa.

Since the menu was handed to the opposite direction from where he was sitting, Marlon became the last one to order food.

This made Marlon feel morose. ☹️

He was the one who treated the meal yet he felt that he was always ignored.

Soon, the dishes were served one after another. To get his limelight back, Marlon raised his glass for a toast.

"You have done a lot to clean the classrooms in the past two days. So, I want to drink a toast to everyone."

Seeing Marlon's actions, the students also raised their glasses.

At that time, Mattie uttered, "Trevor helped us clean the classrooms even though he doesn't belong to the student union. I would like to toast him for his effort." ②

While talking, Mattie raised her glass and looked at Trevor with a flattering look on her face.

Obviously, Trevor knew what Mattie was up to. However, he still clinked glasses with her.

Just like everyone, Luisa was confused about Mattie's abnormal behavior.

With a frown on her face, she looked at Mattie in confusion.

Before she was caught looking, Luisa quickly looked away.

After all, Luisa had always wanted Trevor to get along with the other students. Now that Mattie took the initiative to be friendly towards him, she thought it was a good sign.

It was needless to say that Marlon was furious to see Mattie's strange behavior.

For him, since Luisa had always been kind to Trevor, it didn't matter anymore. On the other hand, he couldn't understand why Mattie was so enthusiastic towards this poor loser today.

'What on earth is wrong with her?' Marlon thought.

Without giving up, Marlon tried to show off again and again.

However, every time he tried, Mattie changed the topic to Trevor and kept flattering him.

At that time, Marlon got so annoyed that he no longer had the mood to eat the delicious dishes served on the table.

While Marlon was feeling depressed, the door of the private room was suddenly kicked open with a loud thud! A drunk man who had an arrogant face came in while holding a wine bottle in his hand.

Pointing a finger at the group, he slurred, "All of you, get out of here right now. This private room is mine!"

The man's rude remarks added fuel to the fire. At that time, Marlon became very furious. Pounding the table, he shouted angrily, "Who the hell do you think you are? Get the fuck out of the room!"
