

Chapter 370 The Only One Left In The Dormitory

Even after Trevor got to the dormitory, he was still in a daze. He couldn't even remember how he got back.

However, he would never admit that he was dizzy because of the lack of oxygen during the kiss.

For him, it was so good that he wanted to do a few more times.

When he recalled his kiss with Luisa, he couldn't help but smile like a Cheshire cat.

Seeing the undisguised joy on Trevor's face, Rob asked him curiously, "What made you smile like a fool, Trevor?"

Hearing his question, Trevor chuckled and said, "You don't have any experience in that field. Don't ask if you don't understand!"

Hearing his answer, Rob pretended to be angry. Then, he realized something. With his eyes wide, he said in surprise, "Trevor, do you love someone?"

When Trevor's face was noncommittal, Rob realized that he was right.

Suddenly, Rob pretended to be sad and whined, "Damn it! No wonder you are always out these days. Now, I am the only one in our dormitory who doesn't have a girlfriend.

Gosh, I am so pitiful!"

Trevor was amused by his playful attitude. Shaking his head, he said, "Yeah, you should try your best to find a girlfriend as soon as possible. I will be supporting you."

The two of them chatted happily for a while. Then, Rob carried his suitcase and sighed deeply, "Alas, I guess it's time to leave this place. This place is filled with love..."

Standing from aside, Trevor was amused by the look Rob was making.

Actually, Rob was going to go home during the holidays. After kicking his butt playfully, Trevor saw Rob off in front of the dormitory building.

When he came back to his dormitory, the place was empty.

Since his roommates had already gone home during the summer holidays, he was the only one left at the dormitory. ①

He took out his phone to play music in the quiet room. However, before he could, his phone rang.

It was a call from his father, Ronald.

Of course, Trevor knew that Ronald called him to ask about his "date" night.

Just as he expected, his father asked him whether there was any progress with Luisa today at the concert.

Judging by Trevor's vague yet joyful remarks, Ronald could feel that something indeed happened between his son and Luisa. 📍

The two of them talked about this topic through the phone.

Before Ronald hung up, he told Trevor about his plan for tomorrow.

He told him that he was coming to Jork University as he had made an appointment with the school leaders. In fact, he had planned to set up a scholarship fund at his son's university. After that, he would come and meet Trevor.

However, Trevor didn't care much about it. After all, he was still thinking about his memorable night.

Since he was so excited, he tossed and turned around in bed all night. It wasn't until very late that he finally fell asleep.

Early in the next morning, violent knocks from the door woke Trevor up from his dream.

At that time, a middle-aged woman was banging the door while saying, "Hurry up and open the door right now!"

In fact, Trevor slept for less than three hours.

Therefore, he was annoyed when he was woken up like this. Rubbing the sleep out of his eyes, Trevor tried his best to suppress his anger. Then, he stood up and opened the door of the dormitory.

Much to his surprise, the middle-aged woman who was standing at the door was even more impatient than him. Moreover, she was staring at him fiercely.

This woman was none other than the administrator of the dormitory. She was known for her short temper.

Despite seeing that Trevor looked a little haggard because of the lack of sleep, she had no idea that she had disturbed him.

Instead, she shouted, "What a lazy man! It's summer holiday yet you are staying at school! Do you know I have to do extra work because of you? Don't you have any place to live?"

