

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1898

Chapter 1898

"Baam!"

Seth was instantly sent flying by Iris's Potential Energy Force and slammed onto the ground.

Following the piercing pain he felt in his chest, he spewed a few mouthfuls of blood and slumped on the ground, completely unable to move.

Since he managed to escape a part of the attack and protected his chest with his power in time, he narrowly survived.

Just then, a key fell from his body and landed in front of Iris's eyes as he fell.

"Great!" Iris's eyes lit up when she noticed that it was the car key to Seth's car and realized that she had a chance of escaping.

Without hesitation, she picked up the key and opened the door, before running outside.

"Somebody! Capture that b*tch! Don't let her get away!" Seth widened his eyes and roared in rage.

He instantly realized that Iris was going to run and wanted to get up to stop her, but was far too severely injured to move and could only watch as Iris run out of the room.

As he tried to move, he deepened his injuries and spew another mouthful of blood.

The two guards outside were alerted by the noise and ran inside to find Iris, who was about to escape.

"Where do you think you're going?"

Shocked, the guards instantly lunged at Iris.

"Get out of my way!" Iris was prepared.

As Leon gave her two Potential Energy Forces, she pulled out the remaining one and slashed it toward the guards.

The two were ordinary guards who were in the Semi-Overlord State, so they were powerless in front of the Potential Energy Force.

"Baam!"

Following a deafening sound, the two were sent flying with blood spewing from their mouths the same way Seth did.

Iris did not bother to check on the guards and hurried outside to the yard and found a black luxury car parked by the road that Seth drove when he captured her.

She ran over, knowing that she had a chance of escaping if she could get into the car.

However, reality proved her wrong.

All the noises from the hallway and the angered roars Seth made alerted other martial artists in the mansion.

Since Iris's power was sealed, she was slowed down and by the time she arrived by car, two Golans' guards caught up with her.
