

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1964

Chapter 1964

"Alright, this is great! Leon killed Darius! The heavens are on our side!"

Just like Seth and Joel, Sebastian and Eliam were incredibly happy as well!

Earlier, Angus' side was much stronger, it caused the Hiltons and the Golans to feel hopeless!

Yet, after finding out that Leon killed Darius, their spirits were quickly lifted again!

Even though they did not know why Leon wanted to kill Darius, there was something they knew very well. The Hughes were one of the major families of the Southern region. They were incredibly strong and powerful!

This time, Alan even came here personally. On top of that, they had the Hiltons and the Golans!

No matter how strong Angus and his men were, there was no way they would be able to keep Leon safe!

If there were no surprises, Leon would be dying!

"Aelder Hughes, this is just a misunderstanding. Mister Wolf did not kill Darius, he was framed," Angus said in a hurry, trying to resolve the misunderstanding.

"Impossible! Leon killed my brother. I saw it myself! How could it be fake?!" Gordon hurriedly stepped forward to say that Leon did it.

"That's right! Leon did not only kill my brother, he even tried to kill my husband, Gordon, to silence any witnesses! If I did not arrive in time, even Gordon would probably have died!" Dawn said angrily. She helped Gordon speak up, pinning the blame completely on Leon!

"But..."

Angus opened his mouth, finding it hard to say anything.

Since he did not know that Leon already saved Darius, he just tried to explain things to Leon, he did not know what else to say.

"Angus, I don't want to listen to your nonsense! Have Yuri hand Leon over right now. Then, I won't pursue Yuri's responsibility! Otherwise, you'll suffer the consequences!" Alan said murderously. His voice was firm and resolved.

"Grandfather, Leon's the one in the wheelchair!" Gordon pointed right at Leon and hurriedly told Alan.

Back then, Leon said that he could save Darius, so Gordon was a bit worried.

However, looking at Leon being so frail in the wheelchair, there was no way he would have the ability to save Darius!

He felt like Darius was probably already dead!

With that in mind, he breathed a sigh of relief!

"Brat, so you're Leon! Hurry up and give yourself in. I have a score to settle with you!"

Alan was furious when he found out who Leon was!

He did not hesitate for a moment as he charged out with imperious force right at Leon!

"Wait..."

Leon was shocked. He tried to say that Darius was still alive, but his voice was too weak. Alan was too angry at that moment to listen to him!

However, Yuri reacted very quickly and hurriedly stood in front of Leon.

"Elder Hughes, please listen to me..."

Yuri just spoke up when Alan stopped him.

"Get lost!"

Alan was still furious about Yuri protecting and saving Leon. He shot out and planned on hitting Yuri aside.

However, before he could attack, Yuri's next words completely stunned him!