Chapter 2092

Chapter 2092

"You two?" The Southern Boss glanced at the Fifth and Sixth Guardians thoughtfully.

"Rest assured! We will do our best to eliminate Leon. We won't disappoint you!" The Fifth and Sixth Guardians said hastily.

Though they had learned that Leon possessed a defensive tool that might be in the Peak Emperor or Semi-Almighty State, such tools often had a limit to how frequently they could be used.

As martial artists in the Semi-Almighty State, they were confident that they were much stronger than Leon. Even if Leon possessed a defensive tool in the Almighty State, they knew that they could still kill Leon easily.

"I trust that the two of you have what it takes to get rid of him. However, he has many tricks up his sleeves. I'm afraid the two of you might not be enough! How about this? I will send the Third Guardian with you just in case!" The Southern Boss said.

He had six guardians. Three of them were at a higher level of strength, while the other three were at a lower level.

The first three guardians were all in the Almighty States, while the other three were in the Semi-Almighty States.

Considering how he had underestimated Leon in the past, he learned his lesson and intended to send the Third

Guardian, who was in the Almighty State, alongside the Fifth and Sixth Guardians, who were in the Semi-Almighty State.

With such a powerful trio, it should be extremely easy to eliminate Leon, who was only in the Emperor State. The Southern Boss was confident that he would not fail.

"Third Guardian, I'll leave this to you. You'll stay here with the Fifth and Sixth Guardians to watch Leon from the dark!

Once the sales drive ends, you three will find a chance to attack him. Failure will not be tolerated!" The Southern Boss said to an old man dressed in black.

"Yes!" The old man replied.

"Also, Leon can be of use to me, so do your best to capture him alive! If that's not possible, kill him on sight, but make sure you capture Iris Young and Cynthia Shear instead!" The Southern Boss added.

Leon was the chairman of Cynthion Group. The Southern Boss only ordered the three to capture Leon alive as he wanted all the confidential business information concerning Cynthion Group. With all those recipes for the alchemical pills, the Southern Boss would be able to gain full control of the company.

Iris was Leon's girlfriend, and Cynthia was the president of Cynthion Group, which made them both core members of the management. Hence, the Southern Boss assumed that they knew about the recipes too.

Since Leon was a formidable opponent, the Guardians might struggle to capture him alive, and the Southern Boss did not mind if Leon was killed instead, knowing that he could achieve what he wanted with Iris and Cynthia under his control.

Naturally, he did not know that the situation with Cynthion Group was unique and only Leon had the capability to make the alchemical pills. Should something bad happen to Leon, the Southern Boss would never truly take over Cynthion Group.

"Yes, sir!" The old man, the Fifth and Sixth Guardians said in unison.

With that, the Southern Boss left with Rodney and the others by car.
