The Ex-Husband's Revenge chapter 2477

"Brat, you must have a death wish!" Felton was utterly enraged by Leon's arrogance.

Unable to suppress his anger, he reached his arm out and darted toward Leon, intending to destroy him to appease his anger.

Renee was still standing in front of Leon at the moment. The Morrisons backed her and he wanted her for himself, so he could not harm her.

Hence, he intended to capture Renee first.

Without Renee's protection, an ordinary man like Leon would be his to do as he pleased.

However, before he could act, he was stopped.

"Stop! Mister Fermer, we're all invited here by Mister Feaks to attend this bouquet, not to watch you show off! If you're upset with Miss Morrison's boyfriend, you can settle your scores privately, but please don't ruin this bouquet."

Just then, someone scoffed and a man in his thirties stepped forward from the crowd to stop Felton.

"Mister Daglesh, what's the meaning of this? Do you intend to protect this lowly man?" Felton's expression darkened as he recognized the man to be the eldest son of the Dagleshs.

The Dagleshs were one of the powerful forces in the western region as well, just like the Farmers.

As the direct descendent of the first bloodline of his family, Mister Daglesh held an equal status as him and he could not ignore Mister Daglesh.

"I'm not intending to protect anyone! I came to this bouquet to purchase a few rare herbs to help with my training.

Hence, I don't want anyone to mess this up!" Mister Daglesh said.

"Yeah, Mister Daglesh is right!"

"Mister Fermer, no matter what you feel about Miss Morrison's boyfriend, you can settle it in private, but don't ruin this bouquet!"

The others agreed with Mister Daglesh's words.

They were all jealous of Leon for being Renee's boyfriend and had a bad impression of him because of that. However, Felton was far too arrogant and claimed to own Renee in front of everyone, which only made others resent him more.

Besides, they were all here to purchase rare herbs, not to fight over a woman.

Since Mister Daglesh stepped forward to stop Felton, it was only natural for them to support him to prevent Felton from causing trouble.

"Why you!" Watching as everyone opposed him, Felton's expression darkened.

Though he had a high status and did not fear anyone here, he was outnumbered.

Every guest here belonged to powerful families with a few of them being direct descendants of influential families like Mister Daglesh.

If he insisted on acting as he pleased, he would enrage everyone and that would not be beneficial to him or his family.

However, he could not quite get himself to simply give up.
