Chapter 2413

Meanwhile, in the Thompsons' mansion hall.

All direct descendants along with other important individuals gathered around.

Arthur once announced in public that he intended to name Angus the new leader of Leon's mansion.

However, the Thompsons were busy making arrangements for Yonas's funeral, so Arthur was too busy to appoint Angus as the new leader officially.

On this day, he summoned all the Thompsons and announced his decision.

"Angus, according to our tradition, we should have an official ceremony, but Yonas recently died and if we organize a grand ceremony now, we might invite criticism! I'm sorry about this, but I'll arrange for a proper ceremony for you once we get rid of the Southern Boss," Arthur said.

The Thompsons were the head of all families and very often, matters as important as the shifting of leaders would require a ceremony; guests from all the powerful families would be invited to witness the handover.

However, with Yonas's funeral recently ending, it would be inappropriate for them to host a ceremony right after that. Hence, Arthur decided to hand his power down to Angus first and hold the ceremony afterward.

"Yeah, I understand. Uncle, if this isn't the right time for the ceremony, what's the hurry in passing down the role to me? Why don't you keep leading the family and wait for the right moment to select an heir?" Angus said hesitantly, hoping to convince Arthur to change his mind.

"No. I've made my decision! Joel and Rodney are now under our control, but we have yet to avenge Yonas since the Southern Boss is still out there. I just want to set aside the responsibility as the leader and focus on my training so that I can eliminate the Southern Boss soon." Arthur shook his head and said with determination.

Rodney and Joel were locked in the basement of the Thompsons mansion and Arthur intended to watch them personally.

That way, he would have enough time to train and stand a better chance of reaching the Peak Almighty State.

Moreover, he wanted to wait until the Southern Boss came to rescue Rodney.

Once the Southern Boss appeared, he would be able to take him out for good.

Naturally, waiting for his enemy to come seemed foolish, but the Southern Boss was nowhere to be found and this was the only option for Arthur.

"Oh, alright, then." Seeing how determined Arthur was, Angus accepted his fate.

With that, Angus took over the control of the Thompsons and became the new leader.

"Angus, there's something else I'd like to talk to you about. Now that the Spears are gone and the Southern Boss is on the run, they won't be of much threat to Mister Wolf. You should tell Roanne to move out of Mister Wolf's place as soon as possible before rumors start spreading and affect our reputation," Artur said thoughtfully.
