Chapter 2201 Hit Six People

Nicole was puzzled by the teacher's attitude.

However, the teacher did not say much and pushed open the door of the classroom.

"Chatty, your mom is here to pick you up."

Chatty turned her head in surprise. She looked delighted to see her mother and rushed over at once.

"Mommy..."

Nicole's heart instantly melted.

She just wanted to give her precious daughter the best things in this world. She hugged Chatty.

The little girl looked so obedient and kissed Nicole several times.

Then, she wrapped her arms around Nicole's neck without letting go.

"Mommy, I miss you so much!"

Nicole's heart ached, and she felt a little guilty for paying too little attention to Chatty these days.

Children were always more sensitive, so Chatty probably sensed Nicole's indifference toward her.

However, Chatty did not blame her and held grudges.

What a cute angel! Nicole could not help but feel sorry for her daughter and thought, ' From now on, I'll definitely love her even more on behalf of Clayton!' "Baby, are you feeling sad today because you're in this unfamiliar environment without Mommy and Grandpa by your side? Mommy will definitely take good care of you!"

It was better to take Chatty with her to the office. Just as Nicole was thinking about that, the teacher next to her coughed and looked at Chatty with a smile.

"Levi and the others are in my office. Chatty, why don't you go and look for your brother first?"

Chatty nodded, obediently got down from Nicole's arms, and went to the office next door.

Nicole was reluctant to part with her daughter.

The teacher sighed and coughed.

"Ms. Stanton, since you're here, I have something to tell you."

"Go ahead."

Nicole was determined to be a good mother.

The teacher said, "Chatty beat up six children today until they cried. Levi managed to persuade five of them, and they agreed to forgive Chatty. But there's one child who was badly injured, so we had to notify the child's parents..."

Nicole felt like she was struck by lightning. She stood there in shock and looked flustered.

Did she hear it correctly? Chatty beat up six people?

Nicole opened her mouth.

"Is there a misunderstanding?"

"I have the surveillance footage here."

The teacher took out the video she had prepared long ago, saved it on her phone, and handed it over.

Nicole was anxious as she watched the video.

Chatty ran all over the classroom as soon as she entered the door.

Levi could not even catch up to her.

Moreover, they were not in the same class. Levi asked Chatty to behave and went back to the classroom by himself.

As soon as Levi left, Chatty became fearless. She pushed away a female student who was occupying her seat and kicked her.

The student was thinner than Chatty, so she fell to the ground and cried loudly.

Another classmate came up to teach Chatty a lesson, but before he could touch her shoulder, Chatty pushed him down. She also pushed three other students next to him.

At this time, two boys came into the classroom.

One of them was Fischer, and the other was Chance Ferguson.

Chance went to help the female student on the floor. Fischer thought that someone bullied Chatty, so he rushed forward without saying a word.

As a result, Chance and Fischer got into a fight. Fischer was a little smaller than Chance, so he lost the fight.

At this time, Chatty helped Fischer to fight Chance. She went up to Chance and knew that her little fists and feet did not have much strength, so she pushed him down and sat on him to beat him up.

Fischer also charged at Chance.

The two of them then ganged up on Chance.

Finally, the teacher came...

The video ended.

Nicole looked at the video in front of her in shock. She could not believe that the girl in the video was her daughter.

All of a sudden, she had a whole new impression of Chatty.

The teacher sighed.

"Did you enroll her in Taekwondo classes? Otherwise, she wouldn't be so good at fighting.

Now, everyone in her class is quite afraid of her.

Although the other parents didn't pursue this, it doesn't mean that this won't happen again.

I suggest that you talk to Chatty properly so that she wouldn't injure people again..."

The teacher was also helpless.

A child of this age would not listen to lectures, let alone this kind of rich kid who was not afraid of the consequences.

They could only guide her slowly.

But Chatty's domineering attitude had already scared the other children.

The corners of Nicole's mouth twitched.

She felt so embarrassed that she wished she could hide in a hole in the ground.

"Then when she was here alone just now..."

"She was afraid of scaring the other child who was beaten up badly. He cried for a long time."

The teacher sighed in distress.

Nicole took a deep breath.

"I get Chatty to apologize, and we'll pay for the medical expenses."

The teacher nodded.

"Okay."

She just hoped that the child's parents would accept it.

The teacher took Nicole to the office next door. It turned out that there was another person in the office — Eric Ferguson.

Nicole immediately understood that the one who was beaten up badly was Chance.

Naturally, his parent was Eric.

She just did not expect him to come in person.

When Eric saw Nicole, his eyes flickered slightly.

However, the teacher came in right after Nicole.

Seeing Nicole, Levi ran over and sighed.

"Auntie, I tried my best to take care of Chatty!"

But Chatty did not seem to need Levi's care.

Nicole patted his head.

"You did well, Lil Leaf."

Chatty snorted in dissatisfaction.

Fischer, who sat next to Chatty, snorted too.

Fischer was guarding against Chance, so he never stopped staring at him.

Chance sat there with a bruised nose and a swollen face.

He felt so aggrieved that he wanted to cry, but he did not dare to.

When he saw Nicole, his eyes lit up.

His eyes were glowing with joy because he did not expect the beautiful lady he had been thinking of to come in person!

"Ms. Stanton, Chatty hit Chance. Fischer also participated in the fight, but we can't contact his parents for the time being..."

Nicole paused.

"Fischer lives in our house."

"Then we can settle it now."

The teacher smiled.

Nicole was speechless as she looked at the two children who made mistakes but were not remorseful. She walked over, looked at Chance's face, and felt sorry for him.

"Are there any other wounds? Why don't we go to the hospital for a check-up?"

Nicole looked up at Eric and said, "I'll pay for the medical expenses."

Eric paused.

His eyes deepened a little.

"No need. They're just superficial wounds."

Nicole pursed her lips and was still worried.

"We should still go for a comprehensive check-up. That way, we can feel more at ease. Chance, do you feel any discomfort?"

Chance blinked and shook his head. His eyes were clear, and he could not help but reach out to hold Nicole's hand.

Nicole smiled.

However, in the next second, Chatty ran over and slapped Chance's hand away.

"Go away! Do you want to be beaten again?!"

Chatty was so domineering and cute.

When she said that, Eric looked at her admiringly and thought that girls should be as brave as Chatty. Chance pursed his lips and retracted his hand.
