Chapter 2454

“Boom!”

With a huge roar, the air exploded.

A massive palm shadow, brimming with terrifying energy and the power of destruction, swept towards the bloody hurricane.

Wherever the palm shadow passed, the wind howled and energy surged.

Wind blades, sharp enough to cut iron like mud, formed a dense net, instantly shredding the bloody hurricane.

“Ah~!”

A scream came from the bloody hurricane as Bill Wolf was hit like being struck by a train, flying over ten meters away.

When he was about to crash through the window and fly out of the restaurant, a figure suddenly appeared behind him and intercepted him.

The one who intervened was Father Adam, known as Angel Dust.

“Mr. Wolf, you are no match for him. You’d better stay aside and recover your injuries.” Father Adam patted Bill Wolf’s shoulder, looking harmless.

The physical strength of the blood clan was indeed formidable, but Fenley was even more powerful.

Even if Bill Wolf tried his best, it would be hard to hurt his opponent.

“I don’t accept it! I will definitely kill him!” Bill Wolf gnashed his teeth, his face full of rage.

At this moment, his suit was in tatters, and his body was covered in dozens of wounds.

He looked bloody and miserable.

Fortunately, he was a vampire, so he could barely stand.

If he were a normal human, he would have been dead long ago.

“Mr. Wolf, fighting can’t rely solely on brute force; you also need to use your brain. In your current state, it’s no longer suitable for you to fight,” Father Adam shook his head.

“What? You dare to call me brainless?” Hearing this, Bill Wolf became even more irritable.

“No, you misunderstood. I’m not insulting you; I’m just stating the facts,” Father Adam smiled.

“You——!” Bill Wolf was so angry he was about to explode.

He felt that Father Adam’s hand on his shoulder suddenly emitted a hot and holy energy.

As the energy entered his body, Bill Wolf felt like he was on fire, and he became extremely painful.

Waves of black smoke emanated from every pore, accompanied by a “sizzling” sound.

“Ah~!” Bill Wolf trembled with pain, his face twisted, and he wailed.

His previous rage and indignation were completely replaced by fear.

He had almost forgotten that the Father Adam before him was a figure feared by the entire Western dark world.

Not only did he possess physical fitness comparable to vampires, but he was also proficient in various holy methods designed to restrain dark creatures.

Defying Father Adam could result in a fate worse than death.

Bill Wolf couldn’t afford to offend him.

Chapter 2455

“Father... Father! I think you are right. I am injured and really need to rest. Please let go!”

Bill Wolf, in great pain, immediately begged for mercy.

In the Western world, the strong are respected above all.

As long as one is powerful and their fists hard enough, they will be respected by countless people, and their words will carry weight.

Simply put, if you don't accept it, I'll make you accept it.

"Mr. Wolf, I take back what I just said. I now think you are a smart man," Father Adam continued to smile, his expression unchanged.

Bill Wolf's eyes twitched.

He didn't dare say anything else and retreated to the back.

Although he didn't acknowledge Fenley and believed he still had the strength to fight, he had to succumb to the power of Father Adam.

"Father, Bill Wolf can't handle it, so let me teach them a lesson!" Black Kong (George Bross) suddenly slammed the table. His burly, iron-tower-like body was highly intimidating.

Whether in strength or stamina, George Bross far surpassed Bill Wolf.

In a head-on battle, he was like a human tank, unstoppable.

"Why does this guy look like a gorilla?" Noemi and Cassidy exchanged surprised glances.

When George Bross had been sitting, they hadn't felt his presence strongly.

However, once he stood up, he was strikingly imposing.

With a towering height of over two meters and muscles like obsidian, he was stronger than a bull and had a great impact.

An ordinary person would likely be intimidated before even starting a fight.

"Mr. Bross, please don't be impulsive," Father Adam smiled and raised his hand to stop George Bross.

"We are here today to eat and drink, not to fight. Let's not make a big deal out of this."

"Father, you don't have to do anything. I don't take a few Dragonmarsh warriors seriously," George Bross said in a rough voice.

Father Adam didn't respond but walked forward slowly, placed one hand on George Bross's shoulder, and pressed him back into his seat.

Then he turned to Fenley and the others, smiling apologetically.

“I’m so sorry, my two friends were a little impulsive just now. I apologize on their behalf and hope you can forgive their recklessness.”

“Humph! Why didn’t you apologize when you couldn’t beat them?!” Cassidy looked unhappy.

If Bill Wolf had been winning, the other party would probably have had a different attitude.

The so-called apology was just because they feared Fenley’s strength and wanted to keep things quiet.

Chapter 2456

“There is an old saying in your Dragonmarsh, ‘You don’t know each other until you fight.’ Just now, my friend was making friends with you through fighting. If there was any offense, I hope you won’t mind,” Father Adam’s expression remained unchanged.

“Father! Why apologize to them? If it were up to me, I would just...” Bill Wolf was indignant.

Just as he was about to shout a few words, Father Adam’s cold glance silenced him immediately.

At this point, Fenley suddenly changed the subject.

“From the looks of it, you are a reasonable person. Since you are willing to admit your mistakes, I won’t pursue what happened today. But remember, it’s best to be honest in our Dragonmarsh and not commit any crimes. Otherwise, our Celestial Alliance will never let it go!”

“Oh? I wonder which elite of the Celestial Alliance you are? Can you tell me your name?” Father Adam asked with a smile.

“Celestial Alliance, Fenley Hudson,” Fenley replied lightly.

“It turns out to be Master Hudson. I have heard your name for a long time,” Father Adam nodded slightly, a strange glint in his eyes.

Before, Bear King Bailey had given them a list detailing some talented individuals in Dragonmarsh who posed a threat to their plans.

Fenley of the Celestial Alliance was among the top.

No wonder Bill Wolf was completely overpowered earlier; he had encountered a formidable opponent.

“No need for polite words. Remember my warning, or bear the consequences,” Fenley said coldly.

“Thank you for reminding me. I will restrain my companions,” Father Adam nodded, then picked up a glass of wine from the table.

“Everyone, we will take our leave now.”

After speaking, he drank the wine in one gulp and then headed downstairs with his companions.

“Fenley! I will remember you! See you on the competition field tomorrow!” Bill Wolf shouted before leaving.

Being bested by a human warrior was unacceptable for someone as arrogant as him.

Fenley didn't even acknowledge Bill Wolf's provocation.

“A mere loser, not worth mentioning,” he thought.

“Brother Fenley, these guys obviously have bad intentions. Are you just going to let them go?” Cassidy was reluctant.

A few beings who were neither fully human nor ghost had dared to act wildly in Dragonmarsh.

They deserved a beating.

“That vampire is not a threat, but that priest is peculiar. If we truly fought, the outcome might not be in our favor,” Fenley shook his head.

The three opponents were not easy to deal with, especially the seemingly harmless priest, who gave him an unfathomable feeling.

Once the fight started, it was hard to predict who would win.
